

PSALM VI.

1 David's complaint in his sickness. 8 By faith he triumpheth over his enemies.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth ² upon Sheminith, A Psalm of David.

O ^a LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 ^b Have mercy upon me, O LORD; for I am weak: O LORD, ^c heal me; for my bones are vexed.

3 My soul is also sore vexed: but thou, O LORD, ^d how long?

4 Return, O LORD, deliver my soul: oh save me for thy mercies' sake.

5 ^e For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give thee thanks?

6 I am weary with my groaning; ^f all the night make I my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears.

7 ^g Mine eye is consumed because of grief; it waxeth old because of all mine enemies.

8 ^h Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity; for the LORD hath ⁱ heard the voice of my weeping.

9 The LORD hath heard my supplication; the LORD will receive my prayer.

10 Let all mine enemies be ashamed and sore vexed: let them return and be ashamed suddenly.

PSALM VII.

1 David prayeth against the malice of his enemies, professing his innocency. 10 By faith he seeth his defence, and the destruction of his enemies.

* Shiggaion of David, which he sang unto the LORD, * concerning the ^a words of Cush the Benjamite.

O LORD my God, in thee do I put my trust: ^a save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me:

2 ^b Lest he tear my soul like a lion, ^c rending it in pieces, while there is ^d none to deliver.

3 O LORD my God, ^e if I have done this; if there be ^f iniquity in my hands;

4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with me; (yea, ^g I have delivered him that without cause is mine enemy:)

5 Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yea, let him tread down my life upon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust. Selah.

6 Arise, O LORD, in thine anger, ^h lift up thyself because of the rage of mine enemies: and ⁱ awake for me to the judgment that thou hast commanded.

7 So shall the congregation of the people compass thee about: for their sakes therefore return thou on high.

8 The LORD shall judge the people: judge me, O LORD, ^j according to my righteousness, and according to mine integrity that is in me.

9 Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: ^k for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins.

10 ^l My defence is of God, which saveth the ^m upright in heart.

11 ⁿ God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day.

12 If he turn not, he will ^o whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

13 He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death; ^p he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.

14 ^q Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.

15 ^r He made a pit, and digged it, ^s and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

16 ^t His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate.

17 I will praise the LORD according to his righteousness: and will sing praise to the name of the LORD most high.

God's glory is magnified by his works, and by his love to man.

To the chief Musician *upon Gittith,
A Psalm of David.

O LORD our Lord, how ^aexcellent is thy name in all the earth! who ^bhast set thy glory above the heavens.

2 ^cOut of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ²ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still ^dthe enemy and the avenger.

3 When I ^econsider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

4 ^fWhat is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

5 For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

6 ^gThou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; ^hthou hast put all things under his feet:

7 ⁱAll sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;

8 The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

9 ^jO LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

PSALM IX.

1 David praiseth God for executing of judgment. 11 He inciteth others to praise him. 13 He prayeth that he may have cause to praise him.

To the chief Musician upon Muth-labben,
A Psalm of David.

I WILL praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart; I will shew forth all thy marvellous works.

2 I will be glad and ^arejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O ^bthou most High.

3 When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

4 For ²thou hast maintained my right and my cause; thou satest in the throne judging ³right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast ^cput out their name for ever and ever.

6 ^dO thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end: and thou hast destroyed cities; their memorial is perished with them.

7 ^eBut the LORD shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment.

8 And ^fhe shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.

9 ^gThe LORD also will be ^ha refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

10 And they that ⁱknow thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

11 Sing praises to the LORD, which dwelleth in Zion: ^jdeclare among the people his doings.

12 ^kWhen he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the ^lhumble.

13 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of death:

14 That I may shew forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will ^mrejoice in thy salvation.

15 ⁿThe heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

16 The LORD is ^oknown by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. ^pHiggaion. Selah.

PSALM X.

1 David complaineth to God of the outrage of the wicked. 12 He prayeth for remedy. 16 He professeth his confidence.

WHY standest thou afar off, O LORD? why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble?

2 ^aThe wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor: ^alet them be taken in the devices that they have imagined.

3 For the wicked ^bboasteth of his ^bheart's desire, and ^cblesseth the covetous, whom the LORD abhorreth.

4 The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, ^dwill not seek after God: ^eGod is not in all his ^ethoughts.

5 His ways are always grievous; ^fthy judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, ^ghe puffeth at them.

6 ^hHe hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: ⁱfor I shall ⁱnever be in adversity.

7 ^kHis mouth is full of cursing and ^ldeceit and fraud: ^lunder his tongue is mischief ^mand ⁿvanity.

8 He sitteth in the lurking places of the villages: ⁿin the secret places doth he murder the innocent: ^ohis eyes ^oare privily set against the poor.

9 ^pHe lieth in wait ^qsecretly as a lion in his den: he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net.

10 ^rHe croucheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall ^rby his strong ones.

11 He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: ^she hideth his face; he will never see it.

12 Arise, O LORD; O God, ^tlift up thine hand: forget not the ^thumble.

13 Wherefore doth the wicked contemn God? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require it.

14 Thou hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand: the poor ^ucommitteth himself unto thee; ^uthou art the helper of the fatherless.

15 ^vBreak thou the arm of the wicked and the evil man: seek out his wickedness till thou find none.

16 ^wThe LORD is King for ever and ever: the heathen are perished out of his land.

17 LORD, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt ^xprepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear:

18 To ^yjudge the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no more ^yoppress.

PSALM XI.

1 David encourageth himself in God against his enemies. 4 The providence and justice of God.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

IN the LORD put I my trust: ^bhow say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain?

2 For, lo, ^cthe wicked bend their bow, ^dthey make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may ^eprivily shoot at the upright in heart.

3 ^fIf the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?

4 ^gThe LORD is in his holy temple, the LORD's ^gthrone is in heaven: ^hhis eyes behold, his eyelids try, the children of men.

5 The LORD ⁱtrieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.

6 ^jUpon the wicked he shall rain ^jsnakes, fire and brimstone, and ^kan horrible tempest: ^kthis shall be the portion of their cup.

1 David, destitute of human comfort, craveth help of God. 3 He comforteth himself with God's judgments on the wicked, and confidence in God's tried promises.

To the chief Musician ^a upon Sheminith,

A Psalm of David.

³ HELP, LORD; for ^a the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

2 ^b They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: ^c with flattering lips and with ^d a double heart do they speak.

3 The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh ^d proud things:

4 Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips ^e are our own: who is lord over us?

5 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, ^e now will I arise, saith the LORD; I will set him in safety from him that ^f puffeth at him.

6 The words of the LORD are ^g pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

7 Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve ^h them from this generation for ever.

PSALM XIII.

1 David complaineth of delay in help. 3 He prayeth for preventing grace. 5 He boasteth of divine mercy.

To the ^a chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

HOW long wilt thou forget me, O LORD? for ever? ^a how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

2 How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?

3 Consider and hear me, O LORD my God: ^b lighten mine eyes, ^c lest I sleep the sleep of death;

4 ^d Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him; and those that trouble me rejoice when I am moved.

5 But I have ^e trusted in thy mercy; my heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.

6 I will sing unto the LORD, because he hath ^f dealt bountifully with me.

2 ^c The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God.

3 ^d They are all gone aside, they are all together become ^e filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

4 Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who ^f eat up my people as they eat bread, and ^g call not upon the LORD.

He sheweth the hope of his calling, of the resurrection, and life everlasting.

^{} Michtam of David.

PRESERVE me, O God: ^afor in thee do I put my trust.

2 O my soul, thou hast said unto the LORD, Thou art my Lord: ^bmy goodness extendeth not to thee;

3 But to the saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent, in whom is all my delight.

4 Their sorrows shall be multiplied that ⁴hasten after another god: their drink offerings of blood will I not offer, ^cnor take up their names into my lips.

5 ^dThe LORD is the portion ⁵of mine inheritance and ^eof my cup:
thou maintainest my lot.

6 The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage.

7 I will bless the LORD, who hath given me counsel: ^fmy reins also instruct me in the night seasons.

8 ^gI have set the LORD always before me: because ^h*he is* at my right hand, ⁱI shall not be moved.

9 Therefore my heart is glad, ^kand my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall ^lrest in hope.

10 ¹For thou wilt not leave ^mmy soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

11 Thou wilt shew me the ⁿpath of life: ^oin thy presence is fulness of joy; ^pat thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

PSALM XVII.

1 David, in confidence of his integrity, craveth defence of God against his enemies. 10 He sheweth their pride, craft, and eagerness.
13 *He prayeth against them in confidence of

A Prayer of David.

HEAR ²the right, O LORD, attend unto my cry, give ear unto my prayer, that goeth ³not out of feigned lips.

2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; let thine eyes behold the things that are equal.

3 Thou hast proved mine heart;
^athou hast visited me in the night;
^bthou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing; I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.

4 Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.

5 ^cHold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps ⁴slip not.

6 ^dI have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God: incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech.

7 ^eShew thy marvellous loving-kindness, O thou ⁵that savest by thy right hand them which put their trust in thee from those that rise up against them.

8 ^fKeep me as the apple of the eye, ^ghide me under the shadow of thy wings,

9 From the wicked ⁶that oppress me, from ⁷my deadly enemies, who compass me about.

10 ^hThey are inclosed in their own fat: with their mouth they ⁱspeak proudly.

11 They have now ^kcompassed us in our steps: ¹they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth;

12 ⁸Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lion ⁹lurking in secret places.

13 Arise, O LORD, ²disappoint

PSALM XVIII.

David praiseth God for his manifold and marvellous blessings.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, * the servant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of * this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: And he said,

I ^a WILL love thee, O LORD, my strength.

2 The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, ^b my strength, ^c in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

3 I will call upon the LORD, ^d who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

4 ^e The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of ^f ungodly men made me afraid.

5 The ^g sorrows of hell compassed me about: the snares of death prevented me.

6 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

7 ^h Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.

8 There went up a smoke ⁱ out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

9 ^j He bowed the heavens also, and came down: and darkness was under his feet.

10 ^k And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: yea, ^l he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his secret place; ^m his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

12 ⁿ At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed, hail stones and coals of fire.

13 The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave ^o his voice; hail stones and coals of fire.

14 ^p Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.

15 ^q Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

16 ^r He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of ^s many waters.

17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me.

18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay.

19 ^t He brought me forth also into a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

20 ^u The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

22 For all his judgments were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me.

23 I was also upright ^v before him, and I kept myself from mine iniquity.

24 ^w Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands ^x in his eyesight.

29 For by thee I have ⁴run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall.

30 As for God, ^yhis way is perfect: ^zthe word of the LORD is ⁵tried: he is a buckler ^ato all those that trust in him.

31 ^bFor who is God save the LORD? or who is a rock save our God?

32 It is God that ^cgirdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

33 ^dHe maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and ^esetteth me upon my high places.

34 ^fHe teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

35 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and ⁶thy gentleness hath made me great.

36 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, ^gthat ⁷my feet did not slip.

37 I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed.

38 I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet.

39 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast ⁸subdued under me those that rose up against me.

40 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me.

41 They cried, but there was none to save them: ^heven unto the LORD, but he answered them not.

42 Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind: I did ⁱcast them out as the dirt in the streets.

43 ^kThou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; and ^lthou hast made me the head of the heathen: ^ma people whom I have not known shall serve me.

44 ²As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: ³the strangers ⁿshall ⁴⁵submit themselves unto me.

45 ^oThe strangers shall fade away, and be afraid out of their close places.

46 The LORD liveth; and blessed be my rock; and let the God of my salvation be exalted.

47 It is God that ⁶avengeth me, ^pand ⁷subdueth the people under me.

48 He delivereth me from mine enemies: yea, ^qthou liftest me up above those that rise up against me: thou hast delivered me from the ⁸violent man.

49 ^rTherefore will I ⁹give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing praises unto thy name.

50 ^sGreat deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed ^tfor evermore.

PSALM XXII.

1 David complaineth in great discouragement. 9 He prayeth in great distress. 23 He praiseth God.

To the chief Musician upon 'Aijeleth Shahar,
A Psalm of David.

MY ^aGod, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far ^bfrom helping me, and from ^bthe words of my roaring?

2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not; and in the night season, and ^aam not silent.

3 But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the ^cpraises of Israel.

4 Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered: ^dthey trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

6 But I am ^ea worm, and no man; ^fa reproach of men, and despised of the people.

7 ^gAll they that see me laugh me to scorn: they ^hshoot out the lip, ^hthey shake the head, saying,

8 ⁱHe trusted on the LORD that he would deliver him: ^klet him deliver him, ^jseeing he delighted in him.

9 ^lBut thou art he that took me out of the womb: thou ²didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts.

10 I was cast upon thee from the womb: ^mthou art my God from my mother's belly.

11 Be not far from me; for trouble is near; for there is ³none to help.

12 ⁿMany bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.

13 ^oThey ²gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.

14 I am poured out like water, ^pand all my bones are ³out of joint: ^amy heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

15 ^rMy strength is dried up like a potsherd; and ^amy tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

16 For ^tdogs have compassed me: the assembly of the wicked have inclosed me: ^uthey pierced my hands and my feet.

17 I may tell all my bones: ^xthey look and stare upon me.

18 ^yThey part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

19 But ^zbe not thou far from me, O LORD: O my strength, haste thee to help me.

20 Deliver my soul from the sword; ^amy darling ^bfrom the power of the ^bdog.

21 ^cSave me from the lion's mouth: ^dfor thou hast heard me from the horns of the unicorns.

22 ^eI will declare thy name unto ^fmy brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

23 ^gYe that fear the LORD, praise him; all ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him; and fear him, all ye the seed of Israel.

24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; neither hath he hid his face from him; but ^hwhen he cried unto him, he heard.

25 ⁱMy praise shall be of thee in the great congregation: ^kI will pay my vows before them that fear him.

26 ^lThe meek shall eat and be satisfied: they shall praise the LORD that seek him: your heart ^mshall live for ever.

27 ⁿAll the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the LORD: ^oand all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

PSALM XXIII.

David's confidence in God's grace.

A Psalm of David.

THE LORD is ^a my shepherd; ^b I shall not want.

2 ^c He maketh me to lie down in ² green pastures: ^d he leadeth me beside the ³ still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: ^e he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of ^f the shadow of death, ^g I will fear no evil: ^h for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 ⁱ Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou ^k anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD ⁵ for ever.

PSALM XXIV.

1 God's lordship in the world. 3 The citizens of his spiritual kingdom. 7 An exhortation to receive him.

A Psalm of David.

THE ^a earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

2 ^b For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

3 ^c Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place?

4 ^d He that hath ^e clean hands, and ^f a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor ^g sworn deceitfully.

5 He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

6 This is the generation of them that seek him, that ^h seek thy face, ² O Jacob. Selah.

7 ⁱ Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift ^j up, ye everlasting doors; ^k and the King of glory shall come in.

8 Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle.

9 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

10 Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah.

A Psalm of David.

UNTO ^a thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.

2 O my God, I ^b trust in thee: let me not be ashamed, ^c let not mine enemies triumph over me.

3 Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.

4 ^d Shew me thy ways, O LORD; teach me thy paths.

5 Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.

6 Remember, O LORD, ^e thy tender mercies and thy lovingkindnesses; for they have been ever of old.

7 Remember not ^f the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: ^g according to thy mercy remember thou me for thy goodness' sake, O LORD.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

IN ^athee, O LORD, do I put my trust; let me never be ashamed: ^bdeliver me in thy righteousness.

2 ^cBow down thine ear to me; deliver me speedily: be thou ²my strong rock, for an house of defence to save me.

3 ^dFor thou art my rock and my fortress; therefore ^efor thy name's sake lead me, and guide me.

16 ^u Make thy face to shine upon thy servant : save me for thy mercies' sake.

17 ^x Let me not be ashamed, O LORD ; for I have called upon thee : let the wicked be ashamed, and ^y ² let them be silent in the grave.

18 ^z Let the lying lips be put to silence ; which ^a speak ³ grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

19 ^b Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee ; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men !

20 ^c Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man : ^d thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

21 Blessed be the LORD : for ^e he hath shewed me his marvellous kindness ^f in a ⁴ strong city.

22 For ^g I said in my haste, ^h I am cut off from before thine eyes : nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.

23 ⁱ O love the LORD, all ye his saints : for the LORD preserveth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

24 ^k Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the LORD.

PSALM XXXII.

1 Blessedness consisteth in remission of sins. 3 Confession of sins giveth ease to the conscience. 8 God's promises bring joy.

^a A Psalm of David, Maschil.

BLESSED is he whose ^a transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man unto whom the LORD ^b imputeth not iniquity, and ^c in whose spirit there is no guile.

8 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.

4 For day and night thy ^d hand was heavy upon me : my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah.

5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. ^e I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD ; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

6 ^f For this shall every one that is godly ^g pray unto thee ² in a time when thou mayest be found : surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him.

7 ^h Thou art my hiding place ; thou shalt preserve me ⁱ from trouble ; thou shalt compass me about with ¹ songs of deliverance. Selah.

8 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go : ³ I will guide thee with mine eye.

9 ^k Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have ¹ no understanding : whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

10 ^m Many sorrows shall be to the wicked : but ⁿ he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about.

11 ^o Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, ye righteous : and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

PSALM XXXIII.

1 God is to be praised for his goodness, 6 for his power, 12 and for his providence. 20 Confidence is to be placed in God.

REJOICE ^a in the LORD, O ye righteous : for ^b praise is comely for the upright.

PSALM XXXV.

1 David prayeth for his own safety, and his enemies' confusion. 11 He complaineth of their wrongful dealing. 22 Thereby he inciteth God against them.

A Psalm of David.

PLEAD ^amy cause, O LORD, with them that strive with me: ^bfight against them that fight against me.

2 ^cTake hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for mine help.

3 Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me: say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

4 ^dLet them be confounded and put to shame that seek after my soul: let them be ^eturned back and brought to confusion that devise my hurt.

5 ^fLet them be as chaff before the wind: and let the angel of the LORD chase them.

6 Let their way be ^gdark and slippery: and let the angel of the LORD persecute them.

7 For without cause have they ^hhid for me their net in a pit, which without cause they have digged for my soul.

8 Let ⁱdestruction come upon him ^jat unawares; and ^klet his net that he hath hid catch himself: into that very destruction let him fall.

9 And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD: ^lit shall rejoice in his salvation.

10 ^mAll my bones shall say, LORD, ⁿwho is like unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him, yea, the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him?

PSALM XXXVI.

1 The grievous estate of the wicked. 5 The excellency of God's mercy. 10 David prayeth for favour to God's children.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD.

THE transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

2 For ^b he flattereth himself in his own eyes, ⁴ until his iniquity be found to be hateful.

3 The words of his mouth are iniquity and ^o deceit: ^d he hath left off to be wise, and to do good.

4 ^e He deviseth ⁵ mischief upon his bed; he setteth himself ^f in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil.

5 ^g Thy mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens; and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.

6 Thy righteousness is like ^h the great mountains; ⁱ thy judgments are a great deep: O LORD, ^j thou preservest man and beast.

7 ^k How ⁷ excellent is thy loving-kindness, O God! therefore the children of men ¹ put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

8 ^m They shall be ² abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of ⁿ the river ^o of thy pleasures.

9 ^p For with thee is the fountain of life: ^q in thy light shall we see light.

10 O ³ continue thy lovingkindness ^r unto them that know thee; and thy righteousness to the ^s upright in heart.

11 Let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked remove me.

12 There are the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, ^t and shall not be able to rise.

PSALM XXXVII.

David persuadeth to patience and confidence in God, by the different estate of the godly and the wicked.

A Psalm of David.

FRET ^a not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

2 For they shall soon be cut down ^b like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

3 Trust in the LORD, and do good; ^c so shalt thou dwell in the land, and ^d verily thou shalt be fed.

4 ^e Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

5 ^f ⁵ Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.

6 ^g And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday.

7 ^h ⁷ Rest in the LORD, ² and wait patiently for him: ⁱ fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: ^j fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

9 ^k For evildoers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the LORD, they shall ¹ inherit the earth.

10 For ^m yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, ⁿ thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

11 ^o But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

12 The wicked ^p plotteth against the just, ^p and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

13 ^q The Lord shall laugh at him: for he seeth that ^r his day is coming.

14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay ^s such as be of upright conversation.

15 ^t Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.

16 ^u A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.

17 For ^v the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the LORD upholdeth the righteous.

18 The LORD ^w knoweth the days of the upright: and their inheritance shall be ^x for ever.

19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and ^y in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall be as ^z the fat of lambs: they shall consume; ^a into smoke shall they consume away.

21 The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but ^b the righteous sheweth mercy, and giveth.

22 ^c For such as be blessed of him shall inherit the earth; and they that be cursed of him ^d shall be cut off.

23 ^e The steps of a good man are ^f ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in his way.

24 ^g Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the LORD upholdeth him with his hand.

25 I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed ^h begging bread.

26 ⁱ He is ^j ever merciful, and lendeth; and his seed is blessed.

27 ^k Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell for evermore.

28 For the LORD ^l loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: ^m but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.

29 ⁿ The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever.

30 ^o The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment.

31 ^p The law of his God is in his heart; none of his ^q steps shall slide.

32 The wicked ^r watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.

33 The LORD ^s will not leave him in his hand, nor ^t condemn him when he is judged.

34 ^u Wait on the LORD, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: ^v when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

35 ^w I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like ^x a green bay tree.

36 Yet he ^y passed away, and, lo, he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

37 Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for ^z the end of that man is peace.

38 ^a But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off.

39 But ^b the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD: he is their strength ^c in the time of trouble.

40 And ^d the LORD shall help them, and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, ^e because they trust in him.

PSALM XL.

1 The benefit of confidence in God. 6 Obedience is the best sacrifice. 11 The sense of David's evils inflameth his prayer.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

I ²^aWAITED patiently for the LORD; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

2 He brought me up also out of ³an horrible pit, out of ^bthe miry clay, and ^cset my feet upon a rock, and ^destablished my goings.

3 ^eAnd he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: ^fmany shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the LORD.

4 ^gBlessed is that man that maketh the LORD his trust, and ^hrespecteth not the proud, nor such as ⁱturn aside to lies.

6 ⁿSacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou ^oopened: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is ^pwritten of me,

8 ^qI delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is ^r^pwithin my heart.

9 ^sI have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, ^tI have not refrained my lips, O LORD, ^uthou knowest.

10 ^vI have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

11 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD: ^wlet thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

12 For innumerable evils have compassed me about: ^xmine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head: therefore ^ymy heart ^zfaileth me.

13 ^aBe pleased, O LORD, to deliver me: O LORD, make haste to help me.

15 ^cLet them be ^ddesolate for a reward of their shame that say unto me, Aha, aha.

16 ^eLet all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: let such as love thy salvation ^fsay continually, The LORD be magnified.

2 ^o My soul thirsteth for God, for ^p the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

3 ^q My tears have been my meat day and night, while ^r they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

4 When I remember these things, ^s I pour out my soul in me: for I had gone with the multitude, ^t I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holyday.

5 ^u Why art thou ^v cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? ^w hope thou in God: for I shall yet ^x praise him ^y for the help of his countenance.

6 O my God, my soul is cast down within me: therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from ^z the hill Mizar.

PSALM XLIV.

1 The church, in memory of former favours, 7 complaineth of their present evils. 17 Professing her integrity, 23 she fervently prayeth for succour.

To the chief Musician for the sons of Korah, Maschil.

WE have heard with our ears, O God, ^a our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old.

2 How ^b thou didst drive out the heathen with thy hand, and plantedst them; how thou didst afflict the people, and cast them out.

3 For ^c they got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them: but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, ^d because thou hadst a favour unto them.

4 ^e Thou art my King, O God: command deliverances for Jacob.

5 Through thee ^f will we push down our enemies: through thy name will we tread them under that rise up against us.

6 For ^g I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.

7 But thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast ^h put them to shame that hated us.

8 ⁱ In God we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. Selah.

9 But ^k thou hast cast off, and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our armies.

10 Thou makest us to ^l turn back from the enemy: and they which hate us spoil for themselves.

11 ^m Thou hast given us ⁿ like sheep appointed for meat; and hast ⁿ scattered us among the heathen.

12 ^o Thou sellest thy people ^p for nought, and dost not increase thy wealth by their price.

18 ^p Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.

14 ^q Thou makest us a byword among the heathen, ^r a shaking of the head among the people.

15 My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me, 16 For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth; ^s by reason of the enemy and avenger.

17 ^t All this is come upon us; yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.

18 Our heart is not turned back, ^u neither have our ^v steps declined from thy way;

19 Though thou hast sore broken us in ^x the place of dragons, and covered us ^y with the shadow of death.

20 If we have forgotten the name of our God, or ^z stretched out our hands to a strange god;

21 ^a Shall not God search this out? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart.

22 ^b Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

23 ^c Awake, why sleepest thou, O Lord? arise, ^d cast us not off for ever.

24 ^e Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression?

25 For ^f our soul is bowed down to the dust: our belly cleaveth unto the earth.

26 Arise ^g for our help, and redeem us for thy mercies' sake.

PSALM XLVII.

The nations are exhorted cheerfully to entertain the kingdom of Christ.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm ²for the sons of Korah.

O ^aCLAP your hands, all ye people; shout unto God with the voice of triumph.

² For the LORD most high is ^b terrible; ^c he is a great King over all the earth.

³ ^d He shall subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet.

⁴ He shall choose our ^e inheritance for us, the excellency of Jacob whom he loved. Selah.

⁵ ^f God is gone up with a shout, the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.

⁶ Sing praises to God, sing praises: sing praises unto our King, sing praises.

⁷ ^g For God is the King of all the earth: ^h sing ye praises ³ with understanding.

⁸ ⁱ God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon the throne of his holiness.

⁹ ^j The princes of the people are gathered together, ^k even the people of the God of Abraham: ¹ for the shields of the earth belong unto God: he is greatly exalted.

PSALM XLVIII.

The ornaments and privileges of the church.

A Song and Psalm ⁵for the sons of Korah.

GREAT is the LORD, and greatly to be praised ^a in the city of our God, in the ^b mountain of his holiness.

² ^c Beautiful for situation, ^d the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, ^e on the sides of the north, ^f the city of the great King.

³ God is known in her palaces for a refuge.

⁴ For, lo, ^g the kings were assembled, they passed by together.

⁵ They saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away.

⁶ Fear ^h took hold upon them there, ⁱ and pain, as of a woman in travail.

⁷ Thou ^k breakest the ships of Tarshish ¹ with an east wind.

⁸ As we have heard, so have we seen in ^m the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God: God will ⁿ establish it for ever. Selah.

⁹ We have thought of ^o thy loving-kindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple.

¹⁰ According to ^p thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness.

¹¹ Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments.

¹² Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof.

¹³ ² Mark ye well her bulwarks, ³ consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.

¹⁴ For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will ^q be our guide even unto death.

² Both ^a low and high, rich and poor, together.

³ My mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

⁴ ^b I will incline mine ear to a parable: I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

⁵ Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when ^c the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about?

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, * when Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in to Bath-sheba.

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies ^ablot out my transgressions.

2 ^bWash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For ^cI acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me.

4 ^dAgainst thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil ^ein thy sight: ^fthat thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

5 ^gBehold, I was ^hshapen in iniquity; ⁱand in sin did my mother ^jconceive me.

6 Behold, thou desirest truth ^kin the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

7 ^lPurge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be ^mwhiter than snow.

8 Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken ⁿmay rejoice.

9 ^aHide thy face from my sins, and ^bblot out all mine iniquities.

10 ^cCreate in me a clean heart, O God; and renew ^da right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away ^efrom thy presence; and take not thy ^fholy spirit from me.

12 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy ^gfree spirit.

13 Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

14 Deliver me from ^hbloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation: and ⁱmy tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

15 O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

16 For ^jthou desirest not sacrifice; ^kelse would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering.

17 ^lThe sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

18 Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with ^mthe sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

PSALM LII.

1 David, condemning the spitefulness of Doeg, prophesieth his destruction. 6 The righteous shall rejoice at it. 8 David, upon his confidence in God's mercy, giveth thanks.

PSALM LXI.

¹ David fleeth to God upon his former experience. ⁴ He voweth perpetual service unto him, because of his promises.

To the chief Musician upon Neginah,
A Psalm of David.

HEAR my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer.

² From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

³ For thou hast been a shelter for me, and ^aa strong tower from the enemy.

⁴ ^bI will abide in thy tabernacle for ever: ^cI will ⁵trust in the covert of thy wings. Selah.

⁵ For thou, O God, hast heard my vows: thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.

⁶ ^dThou wilt prolong the king's life: and his years ⁷as many generations.

⁷ He shall abide before God for ever: O prepare mercy ^aand truth, which may preserve him.

⁸ So will I sing praise unto thy name for ever, that I may daily perform my vows.

PSALM LXII.

¹ David professing his confidence in God discourageth his enemies. ⁵ In the same confidence he encourageth the godly. ⁹ No trust is to be put in worldly things. ¹¹ Power and mercy belong to God.

To the chief Musician, to *Jeduthun,
A Psalm of David.

² TRULY ^amy soul ³waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation.

² ^bHe only is my rock and my salvation; he is my ⁴defence; ^cI shall not be greatly moved.

³ How long will ye imagine mischief against a man? ye shall be slain all of you: ^das a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.

⁴ They only consult to cast him down from his excellency: they delight in lies: ^ethey bless with their mouth, but they curse ⁵inwardly. Selah.

⁵ ^fMy soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from him.

⁶ He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my defence; I shall not be moved.

⁷ ^gIn God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

⁸ Trust in him at all times; ye people, ^hpour out your heart before him: God is ⁱa refuge for us. Selah.

⁹ ^kSurely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are ⁶altogether lighter than vanity.

¹⁰ Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: ¹if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

¹² Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth ^omercy: for ^pthou renderest to every man according to his work.

28 Thy God hath ^p commanded thy strength: strengthen, O God, that which thou hast wrought for us.

29 Because of thy temple at Jerusalem ^q shall kings bring presents unto thee.

30 Rebuke ^r the company of spear-men, ^r the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the people, till every one ^s submit himself with pieces of silver: ^s scatter thou the people that delight in war.

31 ^t Princes shall come out of Egypt; ^u Ethiopia shall soon ^x stretch out her hands unto God.

32 Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of the earth; O sing praises unto the Lord; Selah:

33 To him ^y that rideth upon the heavens of heavens, which were of old; lo, ^y he doth ^z send out his voice, and that a mighty voice.

34 ^a Ascribe ye strength unto God:
his excellency is over Israel, and his strength is in the ^z clouds.

35 O God, ^b thou art terrible out of thy holy places: the God of Israel is he that giveth strength and power unto his people. Blessed be God.

PSALM LXIX.

1 David complaineth of his affliction. 13 He prayeth for deliverance. 22 He devoteth his enemies to destruction. 30 He praiseth God with thanksgiving.

To the chief Musician * upon Shoshannim,
A Psalm of David.

SAVE me, O God; for ^a the waters are come in unto my soul.

2 ^b I sink in ^c deep mire, where there is no standing: I am come into ^d deep waters, where the floods overflow me.

3 ^e I am weary of my crying: my throat is dried: ^d mine eyes fail while
I wait for my God.

4 They that ^e hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of mine head: they that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty: then I restored that which I took not away.

5 O God, thou knowest my foolishness; and my ³ sins are not hid from thee.

6 Let not them that wait on thee,
O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my sake: let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel.

7 Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; shame hath covered my face.

8 ^f I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mother's children.

9 ^g For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; ^h and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.

10 ⁱ When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, that was to my reproach.

11 I made sackcloth also my garment; ^k and I became a proverb to them.

12 They that sit in the gate speak against me; and ^l I was the song of the ^l drunkards.

13 But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O LORD, ^m in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me, in the truth of thy salvation.

14 Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: ⁿ let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of ^o the deep waters.

15 Let not the waterflood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up, and let not the pit ^p shut her mouth upon me.

PSALM LXX.

David soliciteth God to the speedy destruction of the wicked, and preservation of the godly.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David,
^a to bring to remembrance.

MAKE haste, ^aO God, to deliver me; make haste ^bto help me, O LORD.

2 ^cLet them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt.

3 ^dLet them be turned back for a reward of their shame that say, Aha, aha.

4 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified.

5 ^eBut I am poor and needy: ^fmake haste unto me, O God: thou art my help and my deliverer; O LORD, make no tarrying.

PSALM LXXI.

1 David, in confidence of faith, and experience of God's favour, prayeth both for himself, and against the enemies of his soul. 14 He promiseth constancy. 17 He prayeth for perseverance. 19 He praiseth God, and promiseth to do it cheerfully.

IN ^athee, O LORD, do I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion.

2 ^bDeliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to escape: ^cincline thine ear unto me, and save me.

1 The prophet complaineth of the desolation of the sanctuary. 10 He moveth God to help in consideration of his power, 18 of his reproachful enemies, of his children, and of his covenant.

2 Remember thy congregation, ^d*which* thou hast purchased of old; the ^erod of thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

3 Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations; even all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary.

4 ^fThine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; ^gthey set up their ensigns for signs.

5 A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees.

6 But now they break down ^hthe carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers.

7 ⁱ²They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled ^k*by casting down* the dwelling place of thy name to the ground.

8 ¹They said in their hearts, Let us ³destroy them together: they have burned up all the synagogues of God in the land.

9 We see not our signs: ^m*there is* no more any prophet: neither is there among us any that knoweth how long.

10 O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever?

11 ⁿWhy withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand? pluck it out of thy bosom.

12 For ^oGod is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

13 ^pThou didst ⁴divide the sea by thy strength: ^qthou brakest the heads of the ⁵dragons in the waters.

14 ^aIn the daytime also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.

15 ^bHe clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths.

16 He brought ^cstreams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

17 And they sinned yet more against him by ^dprovoking the most High in the wilderness.

18 And ^ethey tempted God in their heart by asking meat for their lust.

19 ^fYea, they spake against God; they said, Can God ^gfurnish a table in the wilderness?

20 ^hBehold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed; can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people?

21 Therefore the LORD heard this, and ⁱwas wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel;

22 Because they ^jbelieved not in God, and trusted not in his salvation:

23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above, ^kand opened the doors of heaven, 24 ^lAnd had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven.

25 ^mMan did eat angels' food: he sent them meat to the full.

26 ⁿHe caused an east wind ^oto blow in the heaven: and by his power he brought in the south wind.

27 He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and ^pfeathered fowls like as the sand of the sea:

28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations.

29 ^qSo they did eat, and were well filled: for he gave them their own desire;

30 They were not estranged from their lust. But ^rwhile their meat was yet in their mouths, 81 The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and ^ssmote down the ^tchosen men of Israel.

82 For all this ^uthey sinned still, and ^vbelieved not for his wondrous works.

83 ^wTherefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble.

84 ^xWhen he slew them, then they sought him: and they returned and enquired early after God.

85 And they remembered that ^yGod was their rock, and the high God ^ztheir redeemer.

86 Nevertheless they did ^{aa}flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues.

87 For ^{ab}their heart was not right with him, neither were they stedfast in his covenant.

88 ^{ac}But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea, many a time ^{ad}turned he his anger away, ^{ae}and did not stir up all his wrath.

89 For ^{af}he remembered ^{ag}that they were but flesh; ^{ah}a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.

90 How oft did they ^{ai}provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert!

91 Yea, ^{aj}they turned back and tempted God, and ^{ak}limited the Holy One of Israel.

92 They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them ^{al}from the enemy.

93 How ^{am}he had ^{an}wrought his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoan:

94 ^{ao}And had turned their rivers into blood; and their floods, that they could not drink.

95 ^{ap}He sent divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them; and ^{aq}frogs, which destroyed them.

50 ⁴ He made a way to his anger; he spared not their soul from death, but gave ⁵ their life over to the pestilence;

51 ⁶ And smote all the firstborn in Egypt; the chief of their strength in ⁷ the tabernacles of Ham:

52 But ⁸ made his own people to go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

53 And he ⁹ led them on safely, so that they feared not: but the sea ¹⁰ overwhelmed their enemies.

54 And he brought them to the border of his ¹¹ sanctuary, even to this mountain, ¹² which his right hand had purchased.

55 ¹³ He cast out the heathen also before them, and ¹⁴ divided them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

56 ¹⁵ Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his testimonies:

57 But ¹⁶ turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside ¹⁷ like a deceitful bow.

58 ¹⁸ For they provoked him to anger with their ¹⁹ high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images.

59 When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel:

66 And ²⁹ he smote his enemies in the hinder parts: he put them to a perpetual reproach.

67 Moreover he refused the tabernacle of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim:

PSALM LXXX.

1 The psalmist in his prayer complaineth of the miseries of the church. 8 God's former favours are turned into judgments. 14 He prayeth for deliverance.

To the chief Musician ^{*} upon Shoshannim-Eduth, A Psalm ⁷ of Asaph.

GIVE ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph ^a like a flock; ^b thou that dwellest between the cherubims, ^c shine forth.

2 ^d Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh stir up thy strength, and ^e come and save us.

3 ^f Turn us again, O God, ^f and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

4 O LORD God of hosts, how long ^g wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?

5 ^h Thou feedest them with the 6 ^h Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours: and our enemies laugh among themselves.

7 ⁱ Turn us again, O God of hosts, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

8 Thou hast brought ^k a vine out of Egypt: ¹ thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.

9 Thou ^m preparedst room before it, and didst cause it to take deep root, and it filled the land.

10 The hills were covered with the shadow of it, and the boughs thereof were like ² the goodly cedars.

11 She sent out her boughs unto the sea, and her branches ⁿ unto the river.

12 Why hast thou then ^o broken down her hedges, so that all they which pass by the way do pluck her?

13 The boar out of the wood doth waste it, and the wild beast of the field doth devour it.

14 Return, we beseech thee, O God of hosts: ^p look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine;

^a Or, for Asaph.

To the chief Musician * upon Gittith,
A Psalm ^a of Asaph.
SING aloud unto God our strength: make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob.

2 Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel, the pleasant harp with the psaltery.

3 Blow up the trumpet in the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day.

4 For ^a this was a statute for Israel, and a law of the God of Jacob.

5 This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony, when he went out ³ through the land of Egypt: ^b where I heard a language that I understood not.

6 ^c I removed his shoulder from the burden: his hands ^d were delivered from ^d the pots.

7 ^e Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee; ^f I answered thee in the secret place of thunder: I ^g proved thee at the waters of ^h Meribah. Selah.

8 ⁱ Hear, O my people, and I will testify unto thee: O Israel, if thou wilt hearken unto me;

9 ^j There shall no ^k strange god be in thee; neither shalt thou worship any strange god.

10 ^l I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: ^m open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

11 But my people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would ⁿ none of me.

12 ^o So I gave them up ^o unto their own hearts' lust: and they walked in their own counsels.

13 ^p Oh that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways!

14 I should soon have subdued their enemies, and turned my hand against their adversaries.

15 ^q The haters of the LORD should have ^r submitted themselves unto him: but their time should have endured for ever.

16 He should ^s have fed them also ^s with the finest of the wheat: and

A Psalm ^a of Asaph.

GOD ^a standeth in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among ^b the gods.

2 How long will ye judge unjustly, and ^c accept the persons of the wicked? Selah.

3 ^d Defend the poor and fatherless: ^d do justice to the afflicted and needy.

4 ^e Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

5 They ^f know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness: ^g all the foundations of the earth are ^h out of course.

6 ⁱ I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High.

KEEP ^a not thou silence, O God: hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God.

2 For, lo, ^b thine enemies make a tumult: and they that ^c hate thee have lifted up the head.

3 They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted ^d against thy hidden ones.

4 They have said, Come, and ^e let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

PSALM LXXXIX.

1 The psalmist praiseth God for his covenant, 5 for his wonderful power, 15 for the care of his church, 19 for his favour to the kingdom of David. 38 Then complaining of contrary events, 46 he expositulateth, prayeth, and blesseth God.

^a Maschil of ^b Ethan the Ezrahite.

^a I WILL sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness ^c to all generations.

2 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever: ^d thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.

3 ^e I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have ^f sworn unto David my servant,

4 ^g Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne ^h to all generations. Selah.

5 And ⁱ the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD: thy faithfulness also in the congregation ^j of the saints.

6 For ^k who in the heaven can be compared unto the LORD? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?

LORD, ^athou hast been our dwelling place ^din all generations.

2 ^bBefore the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

3 Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, ^cReturn, ye children of men.

4 ^dFor a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday ^ewhen it is past, and as a watch in the night.

5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood; ^ethey are as a sleep: in the morning ^f*they are* like grass which ^ggroweth up.

6 ^hIn the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

7 For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

8 ^hThou hast set our iniquities before thee, our ⁱsecret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9 For all our days are ^jpassed away in thy wrath: we spend our years ^kas a tale that is told.

10 ^lThe days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.

12 ^kSo teach us to number our days, that we may ^lapply our hearts unto wisdom.

13 Return, O LORD, how long? and let it ^mrepent thee concerning thy servants.

14 O satisfy us early with thy mercy; ⁿthat we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

16 Let ⁿthy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.

PSALM XCII.

1 The prophet exhorteth to praise God, 4 for his great works, 6 for his judgments on the wicked, 10 and for his goodness to the godly.

A Psalm or Song for the sabbath day.

IT is a ^agood thing to give thanks unto the LORD, and to sing praises unto thy name, O most High:

2 To ^bshew forth thy lovingkindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness ³every night,

3 ^cUpon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the psaltery; ⁴upon the harp with ⁵a solemn sound.

4 For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

5 ^dO LORD, how great are thy works! and ^ethy thoughts are very deep.

6 ^fA brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.

7 When ^gthe wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever:

8 ^hBut thou, LORD, art most high for evermore.

9 For, lo, thine enemies, O LORD, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall ⁱbe scattered.

10 But ^kmy horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of an unicorn: I shall be ^lanointed with fresh oil.

11 ^mMine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies, and mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me.

12 ⁿThe righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

9 O worship the LORD ⁱ³in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth.

10 Say among the heathen that ^kthe LORD reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: ¹he shall judge the people righteously.

11 ^mLet the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; ⁿlet the sea roar, and the fulness thereof.

12 Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice

13 Before the LORD: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: ^ohe shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

PSALM XCVII.

1 The majesty of God's kingdom. 7 The church rejoiceth at God's judgments upon idolaters. 10 An exhortation to godliness and gladness.

THE ^aLORD reigneth; let the earth rejoice; let the ⁴multitude of ^bisles be glad thereof.

2 ^cClouds and darkness are round about him: ^drighteousness and judgment are the ⁵habitation of his throne.

3 ^eA fire goeth before him, and burneth up his enemies round about.

4 ^fHis lightnings enlightened the world: the earth saw, and trembled.

5 ^gThe hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD, at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

1 The psalmist exhorteth the Jews, 4 the Gentiles, 7 and all the creatures to praise God.

A Psalm.

O ^a SING unto the LORD a new song; for ^b he hath done marvellous things: ^c his right hand, and his holy arm, hath gotten him the victory.

2 ^d The LORD hath made known his salvation: ^e his righteousness hath he ³ openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

3 He hath ^f remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: ^g all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

4 ^h Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all the earth: make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise.

5 Sing unto the LORD with the harp; with the harp, and the voice of a psalm.

6 ⁱ With trumpets and sound of cornet make a joyful noise before the LORD, the King.

7 ^k Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

8 Let the floods ¹ clap their hands: let the hills be joyful together

9 Before the LORD; ^m for he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity.

PSALM CI.

David maketh a vow and profession of godliness.

A Psalm of David.

^a I WILL sing of mercy and judgment: unto thee, O LORD, will I sing.

2 I will ^b behave myself wisely in a perfect way. O when wilt thou come unto me? I will ^c walk within my house with a perfect heart.

3 I will set no ³ wicked thing before mine eyes: ^d I hate the work of them ^e that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me.

4 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not ^f know a wicked person.

5 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: ^g him that hath an high look and a proud heart will not I suffer.

6 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh ^h in a perfect way, he shall serve me.

7 He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house: he that telleth lies ⁱ shall not tarry in my sight.

8 I will ^b early destroy all the wicked of the land; that I may cut off all wicked doers ⁱ from the city of the LORD.

PSALM CII.

1 The prophet in his prayer maketh a grievous complaint. 12 He taketh comfort in the eternity and mercy of God. 18 The mercies of God are to be recorded. 23 He sustaineth his weakness by the unchangeableness of God.

A Prayer ^e of the afflicted, ^{*} when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the LORD.

HEAR my prayer, O LORD, and let my cry ^a come unto thee.

2 ^b Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble; ^c incline thine ear unto me: in the day when I call answer me speedily.

3 ^d For my days are consumed ² like smoke, and ^e my bones are burned as an hearth.

4 My heart is smitten, and ^f withered like grass; so that I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of the voice of my groaning ^g my bones cleave to my ^h skin.

6 ^h I am like ⁱ a pelican of the wilderness: I am like an owl of the desert.

7 I ^k watch, and am as a sparrow ^l alone upon the house top.

8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day; and they that are ^m mad against me are ⁿ sworn against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, and ^o mingled my drink with weeping, 10 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath: for ^p thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.

11 ^q My days are like a shadow that declineth; and ^r I am withered like grass.

12 But ^s thou, O LORD, shalt endure for ever; and ^t thy remembrance unto all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise, and ^u have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favour her, yea, the ^x set time, is come.

14 For thy servants take pleasure in ^y her stones, and favour the dust thereof.

15 So the heathen shall ^z fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

16 When the LORD shall build up Zion, ^a he shall appear in his glory.

17 ^b He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer.

18 This shall be ^c written for the generation to come: and ^d the people which shall be created shall praise the LORD.

PSALM CIII.

1 An exhortation to bless God for his mercy, 15 and for the constancy thereof.

A Psalm of David.

BLESS ^athe LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

2 Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

3 ^bWho forgiveth all thine iniquities; who ^chealeth all thy diseases;

4 Who ^dredeemeth thy life from destruction; ^ewho crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;

5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that ^fthy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

6 ^gThe LORD executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.

7 ^hHe made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.

8 ⁱThe LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and ^jplenteous in mercy.

9 ^kHe will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever.

10 ^lHe hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

11 ^mFor ⁿas the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

12 As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he ^oremoved our transgressions from us.

BLESS ^athe LORD, O my soul.
O LORD my God, thou art very great; ^bthou art clothed with honour and majesty.

2 ^cWho coverest thyself with light as with a garment: ^dwho stretchest out the heavens like a curtain:

3 ^eWho layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters: ^fwho maketh the clouds his chariot:
^gwho walketh upon the wings of the wind:

4 ^hWho maketh his angels spirits;
ⁱhis ministers a flaming fire:

5 ^{2k}Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever.

6 ^lThou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains.

7 ^mAt thy rebuke they fled; at the voice of thy thunder they hasted away.

8 ³ⁿThey go up by the mountains;
they go down by the valleys unto ^othe place which thou hast founded for them.

9 ^pThou hast set a bound that they may not pass over; ^qthat they turn not again to cover the earth.

10 ^rHe sendeth the springs into the valleys, which ^srun among the hills.

11 They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses ^tquench their thirst.

12 By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which ^using among the branches.

13 ^vHe watereth the hills from his chambers: ^wthe earth is satisfied with ^xthe fruit of thy works.

14 ^yHe causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth ^zfood out of the earth;

15 And ^{aa}wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and ^{ab}oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.

16 The trees of the LORD are full of sap; the cedars of Lebanon,
^{ac}which he hath planted;

17 Where the birds make their nests: as for the stork, the fir trees are her house.

18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats; and the rocks for ^{ad}the conies.

19 ^{ae}He appointed the moon for seasons: the sun ^{af}knoweth his going down.

20 ^{ag}Thou makest darkness, and it is night: wherein ^{ah}all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.

21 ^{ai}The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their meat from God.

22 The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together, and lay them down in their dens.

23 Man goeth forth unto ^{aj}his work and to his labour until the evening.

24 ^{ak}O LORD, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.

25 So is this great and wide sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

26 There go the ships: there is that ^{al}leviathan, whom thou hast ^{am}made to play therein.

27 ^{an}These wait all upon thee; that thou mayest give them their meat in due season.

28 That thou givest them they gather: thou openest thine hand, they are filled with good.

29 Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled: ^{ao}thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.

30 ^{ap}Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created: and thou renewest
the face of the earth.

31 The glory of the LORD ^{aq}shall endure for ever: the LORD ^{ar}shall rejoice in his works.

32 He looketh on the earth, and it
^{as}trembleth: ^{at}he toucheth the hills, and they smoke.

33 ^{au}I will sing unto the LORD as long as I live: I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.

34 My meditation of him shall be sweet: I will be glad in the LORD.

PSALM CV.

1 An exhortation to praise God, and to seek out his works. 7 The story of God's providence over Abraham, 16 over Joseph, 23 over Jacob in Egypt, 26 over Moses delivering the Israelites, 37 over the Israelites brought out of Egypt, fed in the wilderness, and planted in Canaan.

O ^aGIVE thanks unto the LORD; call upon his name: ^bmake known his deeds among the people.

2 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: ^ctalk ye of all his wondrous works.

3 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

4 Seek the LORD, and his strength: ^dseek his face evermore.

5 ^eRemember his marvellous works that he hath done; his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;

6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen.

7 He is the LORD our God: ^fhis judgments are in all the earth.

8 He hath ^gremembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations.

9 ^hWhich covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac;

10 And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant:

11 Saying, ⁱUnto thee will I give the land of Canaan, ^jthe lot of your inheritance:

12 ^kWhen they were but a few men in number; yea, very few, ^land strangers in it.

13 When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people;

14 ^mHe suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, ⁿhe reproveth kings for their sakes;

15 Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

16 Moreover ^ohe called for a famine upon the land: he brake the whole ^pstaff of bread.

17 ^qHe sent a man before them, even Joseph, who ^rwas sold for a servant:

18 ^sWhose feet they hurt with fetters: ^the was laid in iron:

19 Until the time that his word came: ^uthe word of the LORD tried him.

20 ^vThe king sent and loosed him; even the ruler of the people, and let him go free.

21 ^wHe made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his ^xsubstance:

22 To bind his princes at his pleasure; and teach his senators wisdom.

23 ^yIsrael also came into Egypt; and Jacob sojourned ^zin the land of Ham.

24 And ^ahe increased his people greatly; and made them stronger than their enemies.

25 ^bHe turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtilly with his servants.

26 ^cHe sent Moses his servant; and Aaron ^dwhom he had chosen.

27 ^eThey shewed ^fhis signs among them, ^gand wonders in the land of Ham.

28 ^hHe sent darkness, and made it dark; and ⁱthey rebelled not against his word.

29 ^jHe turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish.

30 ^kTheir land brought forth frogs in abundance, in the chambers of their kings.

31 ^lHe spake, and there came divers sorts of flies, and lice in all their coasts.

32 ^mHe gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land.

33 ⁿHe smote their vines also and their fig trees; and ^obrake the trees of their coasts.

34 ^pHe spake, and the locusts came, and caterpillers, and that without number, 38 ^s Egypt was glad when they departed: for the fear of them fell upon them.

39 ^t He spread a cloud for a covering; and fire to give light in the night.

40 ^u The people asked, and he brought quails, and ^x satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

41 ^y He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river.

42 For he remembered ^z his holy promise, and Abraham his servant.

43 And he brought forth his people with joy, and his chosen with ^a gladness:

PSALM CVI.

1 The psalmist exhorteth to praise God. 4 He prayeth for pardon of sin, as God did with the fathers. 7 The story of the people's rebellion, and God's mercy. 47 He concludeth with prayer and praise.

PRAISE ye the LORD. ^e O ^f give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 ^g Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? who can shew forth all his praise?

3 Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that ^h doeth righteousness at ⁱ all times.

4 ^j Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation;

5 That I may see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory with thine inheritance.

6 ^k We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; ^l but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red sea.

8 Nevertheless he saved them ^m for his name's sake, ⁿ that he might make his mighty power to be known.

9 ^o He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: so ^p he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness.

10 And he ^q saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

11 ^r And the waters covered their enemies: there was not one of them left.

12 ^s Then believed they his words; they sang his praise.

13 ^t They soon forgot his works; they waited not for his counsel:

14 ^u But ^v lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert.

15 ^w And he gave them their request; but ^x sent leanness into their soul.

16 ^y They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the saint of the LORD.

17 ^z The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.

18 ^a And a fire was kindled in their company; the flame burned up the wicked.

19 ^b They made a calf in Horeb, and worshipped the molten image.

20 Thus ^c they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass.

21 They ^d forgot God their saviour, which had done great things in Egypt;

22 Wondrous works in ^ethe land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red sea.

23 ^dTherefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen ^estood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they despised ^fthe pleasant land, they ^gbelieved not his word:

25 ^hBut murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD.

26 ⁱTherefore he ^klifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness:

27 ^jTo overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands.

28 ^mThey joined themselves also unto Baal-peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions: and the plague brake in upon them.

30 ⁿThen stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed.

31 And that was counted unto him ^ofor righteousness unto all generations for evermore.

32 ^pThey angered him also at the waters of strife, ^qso that it went ill with Moses for their sakes:

33 ^rBecause they provoked his spirit, so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

34 ^sThey did not destroy the nations, ^tconcerning whom the LORD commanded them:

35 ^uBut were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.

36 And ^vthey served their idols: ^wwhich were a snare unto them.

37 Yea, ^xthey sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto ^ydevils, 38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and ^zthe land was polluted with blood.

39 Thus were they ^{aa}defiled with their own works, and ^{ab}went a whoring with their own inventions.

40 Therefore ^cwas the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, insomuch that he abhorred ^dhis own inheritance.

41 And ^ehe gave them into the hand of the heathen; and they that hated them ruled over them.

42 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand.

43 ^hMany times did he deliver them; but they provoked him with their counsel, and were ⁱbrought low for their iniquity.

44 Nevertheless he regarded their affliction, when ^jhe heard their cry:

45 ^kAnd he remembered for them his covenant, and ^lrepented ^maccording to the multitude of his mercies.

46 ⁿHe made them also to be pitied of all those that carried them captives.

47 ^oSave us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise.

48 ^pBlessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting: and let all the people say, Amen. ^qPraise ye the LORD.

PSALM CVIII.

1 David encourageth himself to praise God.
5 He prayeth for God's assistance according to his promise. 11 His confidence in God's help.

A Song or Psalm of David.

^a Ps. 57. 7.

O ^aGOD, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.

^b Ps. 57. 8,—11.

2 ^bAwake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.

3 I will praise thee, O LORD, among the people: and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

4 For thy mercy is great above the heavens: and thy truth reacheth unto the ⁴clouds.

^d Or, skies.^c Ps. 57. 5, 11.

5 ^cBe thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth;

^d Ps. 60. 5, &c.

6 ^dThat thy beloved may be delivered: save with thy right hand, and answer me.

7 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

14 ¹ Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD; and let not the sin of his mother ^m be blotted out.

15 Let them be before the LORD continually, that he may ⁿ cut off the memory of them from the earth.

16 Because that he remembered not to shew mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man, that he might even slay the ^o broken in heart.

17 ^p As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him: as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him.

18 As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it ^q come ² into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.

19 Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him, and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.

20 Let this be the reward of mine adversaries from the LORD, and of them that speak evil against my soul.

21 But do thou for me, O God the Lord, for thy name's sake: because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me.

22 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

23 I am gone ^r like the shadow when it declineth: I am tossed up and down as the locust.

24 My ^s knees are weak through fasting; and my flesh faileth of fatness.

PSALM CXVII.

An exhortation to praise God for his mercy and truth.

O ^aPRAISE the LORD, all ye nations: praise him, all ye people.

2 For his merciful kindness is great toward us: and ^bthe truth of the LORD endureth for ever. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXVIII.

1 An exhortation to praise God for his mercy.
5 The psalmist by his experience sheweth how good it is to trust in God. 19 Under the type of the psalmist the coming of Christ in his kingdom is expressed.

O ^aGIVE thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: because his mercy endureth for ever.

2 ^bLet Israel now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

3 Let the house of Aaron now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Let them now that fear the LORD say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

5 ^cI called upon the LORD ^din distress: the LORD answered me, and ^d*set me* in a large place.

6 ^eThe LORD is ^fon my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me?

7 ^fThe LORD taketh my part with them that help me: therefore shall ^gI see my desire upon them that hate me.

8 ^h*It is* better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man.

9 ⁱ*It is* better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in princes.

10 All nations compassed me about:
but in the name of the LORD will I ^jdestroy them.

11 They ^kcompassed me about;
yea, they compassed me about:
but in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.

12 They compassed me about ^llike bees; they are quenched ^mas the fire of thorns: for in the name of the LORD I will ⁿdestroy them.

13 Thou hast thrust sore at me that I might fall: but the LORD helped me.

14 ^oThe LORD is my strength and song, and is become my salvation.

15 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

16 ^oThe right hand of the LORD is exalted: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

17 ^pI shall not die, but live, and ^qdeclare the works of the LORD.

18 The LORD hath ^rchastened me sore: but he hath not given me over unto death.

19 ^sOpen to me the gates of righteousness: I will go into them, and I will praise the LORD:

20 ^tThis gate of the LORD, ^uinto which the righteous shall enter.

21 I will praise thee: for thou hast ^xheard me, and ^yart become my salvation.

22 ^zThe stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner.

23 ⁴This is the LORD's doing; it is marvellous in our eyes.

24 This is the day which the LORD hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

PSALM CXXXVIII.

1 David praiseth God for the truth of his word.
4 He prophesieth that the kings of the earth shall praise God. 7 He professeth his confidence in God.

A Psalm of David.

I WILL praise thee with my whole heart: ^a before the gods will I sing praise unto thee.

2 ^b I will worship ^c toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast ^d magnified thy word above all thy name.

PSALM CXLVI.

1 The psalmist voweth perpetual praises to God.
3 He exhorteth not to trust in man. 5 God, for his power, justice, mercy, and kingdom, is only worthy to be trusted.

³PRAISE ye the LORD. ^aPraise the LORD, O my soul.

2 ^bWhile I live will I praise the LORD: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.

3 ^cPut not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no ^dhelp.

CHAPTER I.

1 The use of the proverbs. 7 An exhortation to fear God, and believe his word. 10 To avoid the enticings of sinners. 20 Wisdom complaineth of her contempt. 24 She threat- eneth her contemnners.

THE ^aproverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel;

2 To know wisdom and instruc- tion; to perceive the words of un- derstanding;

3 To ^breceive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and ²equity;

4 To give subtilty to the ^csimple, to the young man knowledge and ³discretion.

5 ^dA wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of un- derstanding shall attain unto wise counsels:

6 To understand a proverb, and ⁴the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their ^edark sayings.

7 ¶ ^fThe fear of the LORD is ⁵the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

8 ^gMy son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

9 For ^hthey shall be ⁶an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

10 ¶ My son, if sinners entice thee, ⁱconsent thou not.

11 If they say, Come with us, let us ^klay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent with- out cause:

12 Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and whole, ^las those that go down into the pit:

13 We shall find all precious sub- stance, we shall fill our houses with spoil:

14 Cast in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse:

15 My son, ^mwalk not thou in the way with them; ⁿrefrain thy foot from their path:

16 ^oFor their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood.

17 Surely in vain the net is spread ²in the sight of any bird.

18 And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives.

19 ^pSo are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

20 ¶ ³Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets:

21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying,

22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scorers delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

23 Turn you at my reproof: be- hold, ^rI will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you.

24 ¶ ^sBecause I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;

25 But ye ^thave set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof:

26 ^uI also will laugh at your cala- mity; I will mock when your fear cometh;

CHAPTER II.

1 Wisdom promiseth godliness to her children, 10 and safety from evil company, 20 and direction in good ways.

MY son, if thou wilt receive my words, and ^g hide my commandments with thee;

2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;

3 Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and ^h liftest up thy voice for understanding;

4 ⁱ If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures;

5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God.

6 ^j For the LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.

7 He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: ^k he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.

8 He keepeth the paths of judgment, and ^l preserveth the way of his saints.

9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every good path.

10 ¶ When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul;

11 Discretion shall preserve thee, ^f understanding shall keep thee:

12 To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things;

13 Who leave the paths of uprightness, to ^g walk in the ways of darkness;

14 Who ^h rejoice to do evil, and ⁱ delight in the frowardness of the wicked;

15 ^k Whose ways are crooked, and they froward in their paths:

16 To deliver thee from ^l the strange woman, ^m even from the stranger which flattereth with her words;

17 ⁿ Which forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her God.

18 For ^o her house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead.

19 None that go unto her return again, neither take they hold of the paths of life.

20 That thou mayest walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.

21 ^p For the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it.

22 ^q But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be ^r rooted out of it.

CHAPTER III.

1 An exhortation to obedience, 5 to faith, 7 to mortification, 9 to devotion, 11 to patience. 13 The happy gain of wisdom. 19 The power, 21 and the benefits of wisdom. 27 An exhortation to charitableness, 30 peaceableness, 31 and contentedness. 33 The cursed state of the wicked.

MY son, forget not my law; ^a but let thine heart keep my commandments:

2 For length of days, and ^b long life, and ^c peace, shall they add to thee.

3 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: ^d bind them about thy neck; ^e write them upon the table of thine heart:

27 ^pHer house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The fame, 6 and evidency of wisdom. 10 The excellency, 12 the nature, 15 the power, 18 the riches, 22 and the eternity of wisdom. 32 Wisdom is to be desired for the blessedness it bringeth.

DOTh not ^awisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?

2 She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths.

3 She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors.

4 Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

5 O ye simple, understand wisdom: and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

6 Hear; for I will speak of ^bexcellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

7 For my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is ³an abomination to my lips.

8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing ⁴froward or perverse in them.

9 They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.

10 Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

11 ^cFor wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

12 I wisdom dwell with ²prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions.

13 ^dThe fear of the LORD is to hate evil: ^epride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and ^fthe froward mouth, do I hate.

14 Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding; ^gI have strength.

15 ^hBy me kings reign, and princes decree justice.

16 By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

17 ⁱI love them that love me; and ^kthose that seek me early shall find me.

18 ^lRiches and honour are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness.

19 ^mMy fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver.

20 I ³lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment:

21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures.

22 ⁿThe LORD possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old.

23 ^oI was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water.

25 ^pBefore the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth:

26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the ⁴fields, nor ⁵the highest part of the dust of the world.

CHAPTER IX.

1 The discipline, 4 and doctrine of wisdom.
13 The custom, 16 and error of folly.

WISDOM hath ^abuilded her house, she hath hewn out her seven pillars:

2 ^bShe hath killed ^cher beasts; ^cshe hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table.

3 She hath ^dsent forth her maidens:
^eshe crieth ^fupon the highest places of the city,

4 ^gWhoso is simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

5 ^hCome, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.

6 Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

7 He that reproveth a scorner getteth to himself shame: and he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

8 ⁱReprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: ^krebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.

9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, ^land he will increase in learning.

10 ^mThe fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

11 ⁿFor by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.

12 ^oIf thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself: but if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

13 ¶ ^pA foolish woman is clamorous: she is simple, and knoweth nothing.

14 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat ^qin the high places of the city,

15 To call passengers who go right on their ways:

16 ^rWhoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that want-eth understanding, she saith to him,

17 ^sStolen waters are sweet, and bread ^t*eaten* in secret is pleasant.

18 But he knoweth not that ^uthe their contrary vices.*

wise son maketh a glad father:
but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

2 ^bTreasures of wickedness profit nothing: ^cbut righteousness deliver-eth from death.

3 ^dThe LORD will not suffer the 22 ^a Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.

23 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth: and ^b a word spoken ³ in due season, how good is it!

24 ^c The way of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.

25 ^d The LORD will destroy the house of the proud: but ^e he will establish the border of the widow.

26 ^f The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD: ^g but the words of the pure are ^h pleasant words.

27 ^h He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house; but he that hateth gifts shall live.

28 The heart of the righteous ⁱ studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

29 ^k The LORD is far from the wicked: but ^l he heareth the prayer of the righteous.

30 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart: and a good report maketh the bones fat.

31 ^m The ear that heareth the reproof of life abideth among the wise.

32 He that refuseth ⁿ instruction despiseth his own soul: but he that ^o heareth reproof ⁷ getteth understanding.

33 ⁿ The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom; and ^o before honour is humility.

CHAPTER XVI.

THE ^a preparations of the heart in man, ^b and the answer of the tongue, is from the LORD.

2 ^c All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but ^d the LORD weigheth the spirits.

3 ^e Commit thy works unto the LORD, and thy thoughts shall be established.

4 ^f The LORD hath made all things for himself: ^g yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.

5 ^h Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD: ⁱ though hand join in hand, he shall not be ² unpunished.

6 ^k By mercy and truth iniquity is purged: and ^l by the fear of the LORD men depart from evil.

7 When a man's ways please the LORD, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

8 ^m Better is a little with righteousness than great revenues without right.

9 ⁿ A man's heart deviseth his way: ^o but the LORD directeth his steps.

10 ³ A divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth transgresseth not in judgment.

11 ^p A just weight and balance are the LORD's: ^q all the weights of the bag are his work.

12 It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness: for ^r the throne is established by righteousness.

13 ^r Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him that speaketh right.

14 ^s The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it.

15 In the light of the king's countenance is life; and ^t his favour is ^u as a cloud of the latter rain.

16 ^x How much better is it to get wisdom than gold! and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver!

17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.

18 ^y Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

19 Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

20 ^z He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good: and whoso ² trusteth in the LORD, happy is he.

21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent: and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.

29 A violent man ⁸ enticeth his neighbour, and leadeth him into the way that is not good.

30 He shutteth his eyes to devise froward things: moving his lips he bringeth evil to pass.

31 ⁹ The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness.

32 ¹ He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

CHAPTER XVII.

BETTER is ^a a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than an house full of ⁷ sacrifices with strife.

2 A wise servant shall have rule over ^b a son that causeth shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren.

3 ^c The fining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold: but the LORD trieth the hearts.

4 A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue.

5 ^d Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker: and ^e he that is glad at calamities shall not be ⁸ unpunished.

6 ^f Children's children are the 9 ⁵ He that covereth a transgression ⁵ seeketh love; but ¹ he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends.

10 ⁶ A reproof entereth more into a wise man than an hundred stripes into a fool.

11 An evil man seeketh only rebellion: therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.

15 ⁿ He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the LORD.

16 Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, ^o seeing he hath no heart to it?

CHAPTER XVIII.

THROUGH ^a desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddleth with all wisdom.

2 A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

3 When the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with ignominy reproach.

4 ^a The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters, ^b and the well-spring of wisdom as a flowing brook.

5 ^c It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment.

11 ^l The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as an high wall in his own conceit.

12 ^m Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour is humility.

13 He that ⁿ answereth a matter ^o before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.

14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity; but a wounded spirit who can bear?

15 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.

5 ^d A false witness shall not be ² unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.

6 ^e Many will intreat the favour of the prince : and ^f every man is a friend to ³ him that giveth gifts.

7 ^g All the brethren of the poor do hate him : how much more do his friends go ^h far from him ? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

8 He that getteth ⁴ wisdom loveth his own soul : he that keepeth understanding ⁱ shall find good.

9 ^k A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall perish.

10 Delight is not seemly for a fool ; much less ^l for a servant to have rule over princes.

11 ^m The ⁵ discretion of a man deferreth his anger ; ⁿ and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

12 ^o The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion ; but his favour is ^p as dew upon the grass.

13 ^q A foolish son is the calamity of his father : ^r and the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.

14 ^s House and riches are the inheritance of fathers : and ^t a prudent wife is from the LORD.

15 ^u Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep ; and an idle soul shall ^x suffer hunger.

16 ^y He that keepeth the commandment keepeth his own soul ; but he that despiseth his ways shall die.

17 ^z He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the LORD ; and ^a that which he hath given will he pay him again.

18 ^a Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare ⁷ for his crying.

19 A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment : for if thou deliver him, yet thou must ⁸ do it again.

20 Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise ^b in thy latter end.

21 ^c There are many devices in a man's heart ; nevertheless the counsel of the LORD, that shall stand.

22 The desire of a man is his kindness : and a poor man is better than a liar.

23 ^d The fear of the LORD tendeth to life : and he that hath it shall abide satisfied ; he shall not be visited with evil.

24 ^e A slothful man hideth his hand in his bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

25 ^f Smite a scorner, and the simple ² ^g will beware : and ^h reprove one that hath understanding, and he will understand knowledge.

26 He that wasteth his father, and chaseth away his mother, is ⁱ a son that causeth shame, and bringeth reproach.

27 Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge.

28 ^j An ungodly witness scorneth judgment : and ^k the mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquity.

29 Judgments are prepared for scorners, ^l and stripes for the back of fools.

CHAPTER XX.

WINE ^a is a mocker, strong drink is raging : and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

2 ^b The fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion : whoso provoketh him to anger ^c sinneth against his own soul.

3 ^d It is an honour for a man to cease from strife : but every fool will be meddling.

4 ^e The sluggard will not plow by reason of the ⁴ cold ; ^f therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing.

5 ^g Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water ; but a man of understanding will draw it out.

6 ^h Most men will proclaim every one his own ⁵ goodness : but ⁱ a faithful man who can find ?

7 ^k The just man walketh in his integrity : ^l his children are blessed after him.

8 ^m A king that sitteth in the throne of judgment scattereth away all evil with his eyes.

18 For it is a pleasant thing if thou keep them ² within thee; they shall withal be fitted in thy lips.

19 That thy trust may be in the LORD, I have made known to thee this day, ³ even to thee.

20 Have not I written to thee ⁴ excellent things in counsels and knowledge, 21 ⁵ That I might make thee know the certainty of the words of truth; ⁶ that thou mightest answer the words of truth ⁷ to them that send unto thee?

22 ⁸ Rob not the poor, because he is poor: ⁹ neither oppress the afflicted in the gate:

23 ¹⁰ For the LORD will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.

24 Make no friendship with an angry man; and with a furious man thou shalt not go:

25 Lest thou learn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul.

26 ¹¹ Be not thou one of them that strike hands, or of them that are sureties for debts.

27 If thou hast nothing to pay, why should he ¹² take away thy bed from under thee?

28 ¹³ Remove not the ancient ¹⁴ landmark, which thy fathers have set.

14 Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and ²⁷ shalt deliver his soul from hell.

15 My son, ²⁸ if thine heart be wise, my heart shall rejoice, ²⁹ even mine.

23 ^t Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.

24 ^u The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice: and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him.

25 Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice.

26 My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.

27 ^x For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit.

28 ^y She also lieth in wait ^z as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men.

29 ^z Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who ^a hath redness of eyes?

30 ^b They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek ^c mixed wine.

31 Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright.

32 At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like ^z an adder.

33 Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things.

34 Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down ^d in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast.

35 ^d They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and ^e I felt it not: ^f when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.

CHAPTER XXIV.

BE not thou ^a envious against evil men, ^b neither desire to be with them.

2 ^c For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief.

3 Through wisdom is an house builded; and by understanding it is established:

4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

5 ^d A wise man ^z is strong; yea, a man of knowledge ^z increaseth strength.

6 ^e For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war: and in multitude of counsellors there is safety.

7 ^f Wisdom is too high for a fool: he openeth not his mouth in the gate.

8 He that ^g deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person.

9 The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men.

10 If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is ^h small.

11 ⁱ If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;

12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not ^j he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man ^k according to his works?

13 My son, ^l eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet ^m to thy taste:

14 ⁿ So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, ^o then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.

15 ^p Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting place:

16 ^q For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: ^r but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

17 ^s Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth:

18 Lest the LORD see it, and ^t it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.

19 ^u Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked;

CHAPTER I.

¹ The preacher sheweth that all human courses are vain: ⁴ because the creatures are restless in their courses, ⁹ they bring forth nothing new, and all old things are forgotten, ¹² and because he hath found it so in the studies of wisdom.

THE words ^a of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

² ^b Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; ^c all is vanity.

³ ^d What profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the sun?

⁴ One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: ^e but the earth abideth for ever.

⁵ ^f The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and ² hasteth to his place where he arose.

⁶ ^g The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

⁷ ^h All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they ³ return again.

⁸ All things are full of labour; man cannot utter it: ⁱ the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

⁹ ^k The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

¹⁰ Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

¹¹ There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after.

¹² ^l I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem.

¹⁴ I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

¹⁵ ⁿ That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and ³ that which is wanting cannot be numbered.

¹⁶ I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten ^o more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem: yea, my heart ⁴ had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.

¹⁷ ^p And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.

¹⁸ For ^q in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

CHAPTER II.

¹ The vanity of human courses in the works of pleasure. ¹² Though the wise be better than the fool, yet both have one event. ¹⁸ The vanity of human labour, in leaving it they know not to whom. ²⁴ Nothing better than joy in our labour; but that is God's gift.

I SAID in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure: and, behold, ^bthis also is vanity.

2 ^cI said of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth it?

3 ^dI sought in mine heart ^eto give myself unto wine, yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven ^fall the days of their life.

4 I made me great works; I builded me houses; I planted me vineyards:

5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits:

6 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees:

7 I got me servants and maidens, and had ^gservants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me:

8 ^hI gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I gat me men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as ⁱmusical instruments, and that of all sorts.

9 So ^jI was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me.

10 And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and ^kthis was my portion of all my labour.

11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was ^lvanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.

12 ¶ And I turned myself to behold wisdom, ^mand madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? ⁿ*even* that which hath been already done.

13 Then I saw ^othat wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness.

14 ^pThe wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that ^qone event happeneth to them all.

15 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it ^rhappeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.

16 For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? as the fool.

17 Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

18 ¶ Yea, I hated all my labour which I had ^staken under the sun: because ^tI should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity.

20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun.

21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he ^uleave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil.

22 ^vFor what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun?

23 For all his days are ^wsorrows, and his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Vanity is increased unto men by oppression, 4 by envy, 5 by idleness, 7 by covetousness, 9 by solitariness, 13 by wilfulness.

SO I returned, and considered all the ^aoppressions that are done under the sun: and behold the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the ²side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.

2 ^bWherefore I praised the dead which are already dead more than the living which are yet alive.

3 ^cYea, better is he than both they, which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

4 ¶ Again, I considered all travail, and ³every right work, that ⁴for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

5 ^dThe fool foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own flesh.

6 ^eBetter is an handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit.

7 ¶ Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun.

8 There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his ^feye satisfied with riches; ^gneither saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.

9 ¶ Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.

11 Again, if two ^hlive together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 ¶ Better is a poor and a wise child than an old and foolish king, ⁱwho will no more be admonished.

14 For out of prison he cometh to reign; whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.

15 I considered all the living which walk under the sun, with the second child that shall stand up in his stead.

16 There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAPTER V.

1 Vanities in divine service, 8 in murmuring against oppression, 9 and in riches. 18 Joy in riches is the gift of God.

KEEP ^athy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear, ^bthan to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.

2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any ²thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words ^cbe few.

3 For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and ^da fool's voice is known by multitude of words.

4 ^eWhen thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: ^fpay that which thou hast vowed.

5 ^gBetter is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay.

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; ^hneither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?

7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but ⁱfear thou God.

8 ¶ If thou ^kseest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not ³at the matter: for ¹*he that is* higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.

9 ¶ Moreover the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.

10 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity.

11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

13 ^m There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

14 But those riches perish by evil travail: and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

15 ⁿ As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

16 And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and ^o what profit hath he ^p that hath laboured for the wind?

17 All his days also ^q he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

18 ¶ Behold that which I have seen: ^r it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun ^s all the days of his life, which God giveth him: ^t for it is his portion.

19 ^u Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God.

20 ^v For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The vanity of riches without use. 3 Of children, 6 and old age without riches. 9 The vanity of sight and wandering desires. 11 The conclusion of vanities.

^a THERE is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:

2 A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, ^b so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, ^c yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3 ¶ If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and ^d also that he have no burial; I say, that ^e an untimely birth is better than he.

4 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

5 Moreover he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other.

6 ¶ Yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen no good: do not all go to one place?

7 ^f All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the ^g appetite is not filled.

8 For what hath the wise more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living?

9 ¶ Better is the sight of the eyes ^h than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

10 That which hath been is named already, and it is known that it is man: ⁱ neither may he contend with him that is mightier than he.

11 ¶ Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man the better?

CHAPTER VII.

¹ Remedies against vanity are, a good name, ² mortification, ⁷ patience, ¹¹ wisdom. ²³ The difficulty of wisdom.

A ^a GOOD name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth.

² ¶ It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

³ ² Sorrow is better than laughter: ^b for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

⁴ The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

⁵ ^c It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.

⁶ ^d For as the ³ crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity.

⁷ ¶ Surely oppression maketh a wise man mad; ^e and a gift destroyeth the heart.

⁸ Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and ^f the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

⁹ ^g Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

¹⁰ Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not enquire ⁴ wisely concerning this.

¹¹ ¶ Wisdom is ⁵ good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit ^h to them that see the sun.

¹² For wisdom is a ⁶ defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

¹³ Consider the work of God: for ⁱ who can make that straight, which he hath made crooked?

¹⁴ ^k In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath ² set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.

¹⁵ All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: ¹ there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that longeth his life in his wickedness.

¹⁶ ^m Be not righteous over much; ⁿ neither make thyself over wise: why shouldest thou ³ destroy thyself?

¹⁷ Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: ^o why shouldest thou die ⁴ before thy time?

¹⁸ It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

¹⁹ ^p Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city.

²⁰ ^q For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not.

²¹ Also ⁵ take no heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee:

²² For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

²³ ¶ All this have I proved by wisdom: ^r I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me.

²⁴ ^s That which is far off, and ^t exceeding deep, who can find it out?

²⁵ ^u I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:

²⁷ Behold, this have I found, saith ^v the preacher, ⁸ counting one by one, to find out the account:

2 I counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, ^cand that in regard of the oath of God.

3 ^dBe not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him.

4 Where the word of a king is, there is power: and ^ewho may say unto him, What doest thou?

5 Whoso keepeth the commandment ³shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth both time and judgment.

6 ¶ Because ^fto every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

7 ^gFor he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him ⁴when it shall be?

8 ^h*There is* no man that hath power ⁱover the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no ⁵discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.

10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity.

11 ^kBecause sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

12 ¶ ^lThough a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that ^mit shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him:

13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be just men, unto whom it ⁿhappeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity.

15 ^oThen I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

16 ¶ When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:)

17 Then I beheld all the work of God, that ^pa man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea farther; though a wise man think to know it, ^qyet shall he not be able to find it.

FOR all this ² I considered in my heart even to declare all this, ^a that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

² ^b All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that swear-eth, as he that feareth an oath.

⁷ ¶ Go thy way, ^e eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works.

⁸ Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment.

¹⁰ Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

¹¹ ¶ I returned, ^g and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

¹² For ^h man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men ⁱ snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

¹³ ¶ This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me:

¹⁴ ^k There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it:

¹⁵ Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

¹⁶ ^l Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless ^m the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

¹⁷ The words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

¹⁸ ⁿ Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but ^o one sinner destroyeth much good.

DEAD ² flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so doth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

3 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

4 He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap.

5 As ^f thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, ^g nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child: even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

6 In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether ⁵ shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

8 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.

CHAPTER XII.

1 The Creator is to be remembered in due time.

8 The preacher's care to edify. 13 The fear of God is the chief antidote of vanity.

REMEMBER ^a now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, ^b when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them ;

2 While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain :

3 In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and ³ the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened,

4 And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all ^c the daughters of musick shall be brought low ;

5 Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail : because man goeth to ^d his long home, and ^e the mourners go about the streets :

6 Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern.

7 ^f Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was : ^g and the spirit shall return unto God ^h who gave it.

8 ¶ ⁱ Vanity of vanities, saith the preacher ; all is vanity.

9 And ² moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge ; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and ^k set in order many proverbs.

10 The preacher sought to find out ³ acceptable words : and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

11 The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

12 And further, by these, my son, be admonished : of making many books there is no end ; and ¹ much ⁴ study is a weariness of the flesh.

13 ¶ ⁵ Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter : ^m Fear God, and keep his commandments : for this is the whole duty of man.

14 For ⁿ God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

CHAPTER I.

¹ The church's love unto Christ. ⁵ She confesseth her deformity, ⁷ and prayeth to be directed to his flock. ⁸ Christ directeth her to the shepherds' tents: ⁹ and shewing his love to her, ¹¹ giveth her gracious promises. ¹² The church and Christ congratulate one another.

THE ^a song of songs, which is Solomon's.

² Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: ^b for ² thy love is better than wine.

³ Because of the savour of thy good ointments thy name is as ointment poured forth, therefore do the virgins love thee.

⁴ ^c Draw me, ^d we will run after thee: the king ^e hath brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in thee, we will remember thy love more than wine: ³ the upright love thee.

⁵ I am black, but comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon.

⁶ Look not upon me, because I am black, because the sun hath looked upon me: my mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards; but mine own vineyard have I not kept.

⁸ ¶ If thou know not, ^f O thou fairest among women, go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents.

⁹ I have compared thee, ^g O my love, ^h to a company of horses in Pharaoh's chariots.

¹⁰ ⁱ Thy cheeks are comely with rows of jewels, thy neck with chains of gold.

¹¹ We will make thee borders of gold with studs of silver.

¹² ¶ While the king sitteth at his table, my spikenard sendeth forth the smell thereof.

¹³ A bundle of myrrh is my well-beloved unto me; he shall lie all night betwixt my breasts.

¹⁴ My beloved is unto me as a cluster of ² camphire in the vineyards of En-gedi.

¹⁵ ^k Behold, thou art fair, ³ my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes.

¹⁶ Behold, thou art fair, my beloved, yea, pleasant: also our bed is green.

¹⁷ The beams of our house are cedar, and our ⁴ rafters of fir.

7 ^c I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

8 ¶ The voice of my beloved! behold, he cometh leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills.

9 ^d My beloved is like a roe or a young hart: behold, he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the windows, ⁷ shewing himself through the lattice.

10 My beloved spake, and said unto me, ^e Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away.

11 For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone;

12 The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land;

13 The fig tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. ^f Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

14 ¶ O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, ^g let me hear thy voice; for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely.

15 Take us ^h the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines: for our vines have tender grapes.

16 ¶ ⁱ My beloved is mine, and I am his: he feedeth among the lilies.

17 ^k Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and be thou ¹ like a roe or a young hart upon the mountains ² of Bethel.

CHAPTER III.

1 The church's fight and victory in temptation.

6 The church glorieth in Christ.

BY ^a night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

2 I will rise now, and go about the city in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

3 ^b The watchmen that go about the city found me: to whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?

4 It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

5 ^c I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

6 ¶ ^d Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant?

7 Behold his bed, which is Solomon's; threescore valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel.

8 They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man hath his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night.

9 King Solomon made himself ³ a chariot of the wood of Lebanon.

10 He made the pillars thereof of silver, the bottom thereof of gold, the covering of it of purple, the midst thereof being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Christ setteth forth the graces of the church.
8 He sheweth his love to her. 16 The church prayeth to be made fit for his presence.

BEHOLD, ^athou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as a ^bflock of goats, ²that appear from mount Gilead.

² Thy teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, which came up from the washing; whereof every one bear twins, and none is barren among them.

⁸ Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is comely: ^dthy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy locks.

⁵ Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies.

⁶ Until the day ³break, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.

⁷ Thou art all fair, my love; there is no spot in thee.

⁸ ¶ Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse, with me from Amanon: look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir ^kand Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards.

⁹ Thou hast ⁴ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck.

10 How fair is thy love, my sister, my spouse! ¹how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thine ointments than all spices!

11 Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honeycomb: ^mhoney and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of thy garments is ⁿlike the smell of Lebanon.

12 A garden ²inclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring shut up, a fountain sealed.

13 Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; ³camphire, with spikenard, 14 Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices:

15 A fountain of gardens, a well of ^oliving waters, and streams from Lebanon.

16 ¶ Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. ^pLet my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits.

CHAPTER V.

1 Christ awaketh the church with his calling.
2 The church having a taste of Christ's love is sick of love. 9 A description of Christ by his graces.

I AM come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; ^bI have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O ^ofriends; drink, ⁴yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

² ¶ I sleep, but my heart waketh: it is the voice of my beloved ^dthat knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.

³ I have put off my coat; how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them?

10 The church professeth her faith and desire.

HOW beautiful are thy feet with shoes, ^a O prince's daughter! the joints of thy thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a cunning workman.

2 Thy navel is like a round goblet, which wanteth not ³ liquor: thy belly is like an heap of wheat set about with lilies.

3 ^b Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins.

4 ^c Thy neck is as a tower of ivory; thine eyes like the fishpools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbim: thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon which looketh toward Damascus.

5 Thine head upon thee is like ^d Carmel, and the hair of thine head like purple; the king is ^e held in the galleries.

6 How fair and how pleasant art thou, O love, for delights!

7 This thy stature is like to a palm tree, and thy breasts to clusters of grapes.

8 I said, I will go up to the palm tree, I will take hold of the boughs thereof: now also thy breasts shall be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like apples;

9 And the roof of thy mouth like the best wine for my beloved, that goeth down ⁶ sweetly, causing the lips ⁷ of those that are asleep to speak.

10 ¶ ^d I am my beloved's, and ^e his desire is toward me.

11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages.

12 Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us ^f see if the vine

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The love of the church to Christ. 6 The vehemency of love. 8 The calling of the Gentiles. 14 The church prayeth for Christ's coming.

2 I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother's house, who would instruct me: I would cause thee to drink of ^a spiced wine of the juice of my pomegranate.

3 ^b His left hand should be under my head, and his right hand should embrace me.

5 ^d Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? I raised thee up under the apple tree: there thy mother brought thee forth: there she brought thee forth that bare thee.

6 ¶ ^e Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is ⁵ cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.

7 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: ^f if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned.

11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon ; ^b he let out the vineyard unto keepers ; every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

12 My vineyard, which is mine, is before me : thou, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred.

18 Thou that dwellest in the gardens, the companions hearken to thy voice : ⁱ cause me to hear it.

OF THE PROPHET ISAIAH.

BEFORE CHRIST
cir. 760.

CHAPTER I.

⁵ He lamenteth her judgments. ¹⁰ He upbraideth their whole service. ¹⁶ He exhorteth to repentance, with promises and threatenings.
²¹ Bewailing their wickedness, he denounceth God's judgments. ²⁵ He promiseth grace, ²⁸ and threateneth destruction to the wicked.

THE ^a vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

² ^b Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the LORD hath spoken, ^c I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

³ ^d The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel ^e doth not know, my people ^f doth not consider.

⁵ ¶ ^j Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will ^k revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

⁷ ⁿ Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, ^o as overthrown by strangers.

⁸ And the daughter of Zion is left ^p as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, ^q as a besieged city.

⁹ ^r Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as ^s Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

¹⁰ ¶ Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers ^t of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.

¹¹ To what purpose is the multitude of your ^u sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of ^v he goats.

¹² When ye come ^w to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?

¹⁴ Your ^{aa} new moons and your ^{ab} appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; ^{ac} I am weary to bear them.

¹⁵ And ^{ad} when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: ^{ae} yea, when ye ^{af} make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of ^{ag} blood.

¹⁶ ¶ ^{ah} Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings

18 Come now, and ^glet us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, ^hthey shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:

21 ¶ ⁱHow is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

22 ^kThy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water:

23 ^lThy princes are rebellious, and ^mcompanions of thieves: ⁿevery one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they ^ojudge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

24 Therefore saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, ^pI will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies:

25 ¶ And I will turn my hand upon thee, and ^qpurely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin:

26 And I will restore thy judges ^ras at the first, and thy counsellors ^sas at the beginning: afterward ^tthou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city.

27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and ^uher converts with righteousness.

28 ¶ And the ^vdestruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

THE word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 And ^bit shall come to pass ^cin the last days, ^dthat the mountain of the LORD's house shall be ^eestablished in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; ^fand all nations shall flow unto it.

3 And many people shall go and say, ^gCome ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: ^hfor out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

4 And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and ⁱthey shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into ^jpruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, ^kneither shall they learn war any more.

5 O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us ^lwalk in the light of the LORD.

6 ¶ Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they be replenished ^mfrom the east, and ⁿare soothsayers like the Philistines, ^oand they ^pplease themselves in the children of strangers.

NOW will I sing to my well-beloved a song of my beloved touching ^ahis vineyard. My well-beloved hath a vineyard in ²a very fruitful hill :

2 And he ³fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also ⁴made a winepress therein : ^band he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, ^cjudge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

4 What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it ? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes ?

5 And now go to ; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard : ^dI will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up ; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be ^etrodden down :

6 And I will lay it waste : it shall not be pruned, nor digged ; but there shall come up briers and thorns : I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah ^fhis pleasant plant : and he looked for judgment, but behold ⁷oppression ; for righteousness, but behold a cry.

8 ¶ Woe unto them that join ^ghouse to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that ^hthey may be placed alone in the midst of the earth !

9 ⁱIn mine ears saith the LORD of hosts, ²Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one ^jbath, and the seed of an homer shall yield an ephah.

11 ¶ ^kWoe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink ; that continue until night, till wine ²inflame them !

12 And ¹the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts : but ^kthey regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands.

13 ¶ ¹Therefore my people are gone into captivity, ^mbecause they have no knowledge : and ³their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.

14 Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure : and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

15 And ⁿthe mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled :

16 But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and ⁴5 God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness.

17 Then shall the lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of ^othe fat ones shall strangers eat.

18 Woe unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope :

19 ^pThat say, Let him make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it : and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it !

20 ¶ Woe unto them ^qthat call evil good, and good evil ; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness ; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter !

21 Woe unto them that are ^rwise in their own eyes, and prudent ⁷in their own sight !

22 ^rWoe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink :

23 Which ^sjustify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him !

CHAPTER VI.

1 *Isaiah, in a vision of the Lord in his glory,
5 being terrified, is concerned for his message.
9 He sheweth the obstinacy of the people unto their desolation. 13 A remnant shall be saved.*

IN the year that ^{*}king Uzziah died I ^bsaw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and ^chis train filled the temple.

2 Above it stood the seraphims:
each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and ^cwith twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

3 And ²one cried unto another, and said, ^dHoly, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: ³^ethe whole earth is full of his glory.

4 And the posts of the ⁴door moved at the voice of him that cried, and

5 ¶ ^gThen said I, Woe is me! for I am ⁵undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

6 Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, ⁶having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off ^hthe altar:

7 And he ⁷laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.

8 Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for ^kus? Then said
I, ⁸Here am I; send me.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Ahaz, being troubled with fear of Rezin and Pekah, is comforted by Isaiah. 10 Ahaz, having liberty to choose a sign, and refusing it, hath for a sign, Christ promised. 17 His judgment is prophesied to come by Assyria.

AND it came to pass in the days of ^aAhaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.

2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria ²is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, ^band ³Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the ^cconduit of the upper pool in the ⁴highway of the fuller's field;

4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, ⁵neither be fainthearted for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying,

6 Let us go up against Judah, and ⁶vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:

7 Thus saith the Lord God, ^dIt shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

8 ^eFor the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, ⁷that it be not a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. ^f18 If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

10 ¶ ⁹Moreover the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying,

11 ^aAsk thee a sign of the LORD thy God; ²ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.

12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD.

13 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also?

14 Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; ^bBehold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear ¹a son, and ³shall call his name ^kImmanuel.

15 Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

16 ¹For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of ^mboth her kings.

17 ¶ ⁿThe LORD shall bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy father's house, days that have not come, from the day that ^oEphraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD ^pshall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

19 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in ^qthe holes of the rocks, and upon all ⁴bushes.

20 In the same day shall the Lord shave with a ^rrazor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow, and two sheep;

22 And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left ^sin the land.

23 And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place shall be, where there were a thousand vines

CHAPTER VIII.

1 In Maher-shalal-hash-baz, he prophesieth that Syria and Israel shall be subdued by Assyria. 5 Judah likewise for their infidelity. 9 God's judgments shall be irresistible. 11 Comfort shall be to them that fear God. 19 Great afflictions to idolaters.

MOREOVER the LORD said unto me, Take thee a great roll, and ^awrite in it with a man's pen concerning ²Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

2 And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, ^bUriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.

3 And I ³went unto the prophetess; and she conceived, and bare a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

4 ^oFor before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, ⁴the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

5 ¶ The LORD spake also unto me again, saying,

6 Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of ^oShiloah that go softly, and rejoice ^fin Rezin and Remaliah's son;

7 Now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even ^athe king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks:

8 And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over, ^bhe shall reach even to the neck; and ²the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.

9 ¶ ^kAssociate yourselves, O ye people, ³and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces.

10 ¹Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, ^mand it shall not stand: ⁿfor God is with us.

11 ¶ For the LORD spake thus to me ⁴with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying, 12 Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom ^othis people shall say, A confederacy; ^pneither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid.

13 ^qSanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and ^rlet him be your fear, and let him be your dread.

14 And ^ahe shall be for a sanctuary; but for ^ta stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

15 And many among them shall ^ustumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

16 Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples.

17 And I will wait upon the LORD, that ^xhideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I ^ywill look for him.

18 ^zBehold, I and the children whom the LORD hath given me ^aare for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion.

CHAPTER IX.

1 What joy shall be in the midst of afflictions, by the kingdom and birth of Christ. 8 The judgments upon Israel for their pride, 13 for their hypocrisy, 18 and for their impenitency.

NEVERTHELESS ^athe dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the ^bfirst he lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, and ^cafterward did more grievously afflict her by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee ^dof the nations.

2 ^dThe people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

3 Thou hast multiplied the nation, and ^enot increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice ^fwhen they divide the spoil.

4 ^gFor thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and ^hthe staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of ⁱMidian.

5 ^jFor every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; ^kbut this shall be with burning and ^lfuel of fire.

6 ^mFor unto us a child is born, unto us a ⁿson is given: and ^othe government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called ^pWonderful, Counsellor, ^qThe mighty God, The everlasting Father, ^rThe Prince of Peace.

7 Of the increase of his government and peace ^sthere shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The ^tzeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

8 ¶ The LORD sent a word into Jacob, and it hath lighted upon Israel.

9 And all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in the pride and stoutness of heart,

10 The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones: the sycomores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.

11 Therefore the LORD shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and ^ujoin his enemies together;

14 Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, ^yin one day.

CHAPTER X.

1 The woe of tyrants. 5 Assyria, the rod of hypocrites, for his pride shall be broken. 20 A remnant of Israel shall be saved. 24 Israel is comforted with promise of deliverance from Assyria.

WOE unto them that ^adecree unrighteous decrees, and ^athat write grievousness which they have prescribed;

2 To turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless!

3 And ^bwhat will ye do in ^othe day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?

4 Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. ^dFor all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

5 ¶ ^eO ^eAssyrian, ^othe rod of mine anger, ⁷and the staff in their hand is mine indignation.

6 I will send him against ^fan hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I ^ggive him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and ^hto tread them down like the mire of the streets.

7 ^hHowbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few.

8 ⁱFor he saith, Are not my princes altogether kings?

9 Is not ^kCalno ¹as Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria ^mas Damascus?

10 As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria;

11 Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols?

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that when the Lord hath performed his whole work ⁿupon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, ^oI will ²punish the fruit ³of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks.

13 ^pFor he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants ⁴like a valiant man:

14 And ^qmy hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped.

15 Shall ^rthe ax boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? ^sas if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up ^t*itself*, as if it were no wood.

16 Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, send among his ^ufat ones leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire.

17 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: ^vand it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briers in one day;

18 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of ^whis fruitful field, ⁷both soul and body: and they

CHAPTER XV.

The lamentable state of Moab.

THE ^a burden of Moab. Because in the night ^b Ar of Moab is laid waste, and ^c brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence;

2 ^e He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: ^d on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.

3 In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: ^e on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, ⁷ weeping abundantly.

4 And Heshbon shall cry, ^f and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous unto him.

5 ^g My heart shall cry out for Moab; ^h his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an ⁱ heifer of three years old: for ^j by the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of ² destruction.

6 For the waters ^k of Nimrim shall be ³ desolate: for the hay is withered away, the grass faileth, there is no green thing.

7 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the ⁴ brook of the willows.

8 For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto Beer-elim.

9 For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood: for I will bring ⁵ more upon Dimon, ¹ lions upon him that escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land.

4 Let mine outcasts dwell with thee, Moab; be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler: for the ⁹ extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth, ² the oppressors are consumed out of the land.

5 And in mercy ^d shall the throne be ³ established: and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, ^e judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness.

9 ¶ Therefore ^mI will bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, ⁿO Heshbon, and Elealeh: for ⁴the shouting for thy summer fruits and for thy harvest is fallen.

14 But now the LORD hath spoken, saying, Within three years, ^ras the years of an hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and ^sfeeble.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Syria and Israel are threatened. 6 A remnant shall forsake idolatry. 9 The rest shall be plagued for their impiety. 12 The woe of Israel's enemies.

3 ^cThe fortress also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and ^dthe fatness of his flesh shall wax lean.

5 ^eAnd it shall be as when the harvestman gathereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in the valley of Rephaim.

6 ¶ Yet gleaning grapes shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, saith the LORD God of Israel.

7 At that day shall a man ^flook to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 The miserable overthrow of Tyre. 17 Their unhappy return.

THE ^aburden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: ^bfrom the land of Chittim it is revealed to them.

2 Be ³still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished.

3 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and ^eshe is a mart of nations.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins.

5 ^dAs at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

6 Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.

7 Is this your ^ejoyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her own feet shall carry her ^fafar off to sojourn.

8 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, ^fthe crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth?

9 The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, ^gto stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

10 Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more ^hstrength.

11 He stretched out his hand over the sea, he shook the kingdoms:

the LORD hath given a commandment ²against ³the merchant city, to destroy the ⁴strong holds thereof.

12 And he said, ⁵Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon: arise, ^hpass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest.

13 Behold the land of the Chal-deans; this people was not, till the Assyrian founded it for ⁱthem that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin.

14 ^kHowl, ye ships of Tarshish:
for your strength is laid waste.

15 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years ⁵shall Tyre sing as an harlot.

16 Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.

17 ¶ And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and ¹shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.

18 And her merchandise and her hire ^mshall be holiness to the LORD:
it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for ⁶durable clothing.

3 The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word.

4 The earth mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away, ^cthe haughty people of the earth do languish.

5 ^eThe earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.

6 Therefore hath ^dthe curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

7 ^eThe new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merry-hearted do sigh.

9 They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it.

10 The city of confusion is broken down: every house is shut up, that no man may come in.

11 There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone.

12 In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

13 ¶ When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people, ^g*there shall be* as the shaking of an olive tree, and as the gleaning grapes when the vintage is done.

14 They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the sea.

15 Wherefore glorify ye the LORD

16 ¶ From the ⁱuttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, ^jMy leanness, my leanness, woe unto me! ^kthe treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously.

17 ^kFear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

19 ⁿThe earth is utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly.

20 The earth shall ^oreel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it; and it shall fall, and not rise again.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall ^ppunish the host of the high ones that are on high, ^qand the kings of the earth upon the earth.

22 And they shall be gathered together, ^r*as* prisoners are gathered in the ^spit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be ^tvisited.

waters shall overflow the hiding place.

18 ¶ And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be ^atrodden down by it.

19 From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a vexation only ^ato understand the report.

20 For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it.

21 For the LORD shall rise up as in mount ^aPerazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of ^oGibeon, that he may do his work, ^phis strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act.

22 Now therefore be ye not mockers, lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord God of hosts ^aa consumption, even determined upon the whole earth.

23 ¶ Give ye ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and hear my speech.

24 Doth the plowman plow all day to sow? doth he open and break the clods of his ground?

25 When he hath made plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in ^dthe principal wheat and the appointed barley and the ^erie in their ^fplace?

26 ^gFor his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.

27 For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.

28 Bread corn is bruised; because he will not ever be threshing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen.

29 This also cometh forth from the

3 And I will camp against thee round about, and will lay siege against thee with a mount, and I will raise forts against thee.

4 And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust, and thy voice shall be, as of one that hath a familiar spirit, ^cout of the ground, and thy speech shall ⁵whisper out of the dust.

5 Moreover the multitude of thy ^dstrangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be ^eas chaff that passeth away: yea, it shall be ^fat an instant suddenly.

6 ^gThou shalt be visited of the LORD of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire.

7 ¶ ^hAnd the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her munition, and that distress her, shall be ⁱas a dream of a night vision.

8 ^kIt shall even be as when an hungry man dreameth, and, behold, he eateth; but he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion.

CHAPTER XXXI.

¹ The prophet sheweth the cursed folly in trusting to Egypt, and forsaking of God. ⁶ He exhorteth to conversion. ⁸ He sheweth the fall of Assyria.

WOE to them ^athat go down to Egypt for help; and ^bstay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, ^cneither seek the LORD!

2 Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and ^dwill not ²call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of them that work iniquity.

3 Now the Egyptians are ^emen, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together.

4 For thus hath the LORD spoken unto me, ^fLike as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the ³noise of them: ⁸so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.

5 ^hAs birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem; ⁱdefending also he will deliver it; and passing over he will preserve it.

6 ¶ Turn ye unto him from whom the children of Israel have ^kdeeply revolted.

7 For in that day every man shall ¹cast away his idols of silver, and ⁴his idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for ^ma sin.

8 ¶ Then shall the Assyrian ⁿfall with the sword, not of a mighty man; and the sword, not of a mean man, shall devour him: but he shall flee ⁵from the sword, and his young men shall be ^{6 7}discomfited.

9 And ^{o 8}he shall pass over to ⁹his strong hold for fear, and his princes shall be afraid of the ensign, saith the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 The blessings of Christ's kingdom. 9 Desolation is foreseen. 15 Restoration is promised to succeed.

BEHOLD, ^aa king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment.

2 And a man shall be as an hiding place from the wind, and ^ba covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a ²great rock in a weary land.

3 And ^cthe eyes of them that see shall not be dim, and the ears of them that hear shall hearken.

4 The heart also of the ³rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak ⁴plainly.

5 The vile person shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful.

6 For the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry, and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

7 The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even ⁵when the needy speaketh right.

8 But the liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he ⁶stand.

9 ¶ Rise up, ye women ^dthat are at ease; hear my voice, ye careless daughters; give ear unto my speech.

10 ⁷Many days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women: for the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come.

11 Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones: strip you, and make you bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.

12 They shall lament for the teats, for ⁸the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.

13 ^eUpon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briers; ²yea, upon all the houses of joy in ^fthe joyous city:

14 ^gBecause the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the ³forts and towers shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks;

15 Until ^hthe spirit be poured upon us from on high, and ⁱthe wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.

16 Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field.

17 ^kAnd the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever.

18 And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places;

19 ^lWhen it shall hail, coming down ^mon the forest; ⁴and the city shall be low in a low place.

20 Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters, that send forth thither the feet of ⁿthe ox and the ass.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 God's judgments against the enemies of the church. 13 The privileges of the godly.

WOE to thee ^athat spoilest, and thou wast not spoiled; and dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee! ^bwhen thou shalt cease to spoil, thou shalt be spoiled; and when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with thee.

2 O LORD, be gracious unto us; ^cwe have waited for thee: be thou their arm every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble.

3 At the noise of the tumult the people fled; at the lifting up of thyself the nations were scattered.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

1 Sennacherib invadeth Judah. 4 Rabshakeh, sent by Sennacherib, by blasphemous persuasions soliciteth the people to revolt. 22 His words are told to Hezekiah.

NOW ^ait came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the defenced cities of Judah, and took them.

2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field.

3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiyah's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the ³scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder.

4 ¶ ^bAnd Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

5 I say, sayest thou, (but they are but ⁴vain words) ⁵*I have* counsel and strength for war: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

6 Lo, thou trustest in the ⁶staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him.

7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is it not he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?

8 Now therefore give ²pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

9 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

10 And am I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? the LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

11 ¶ Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

12 ¶ But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?

13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.

14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you.

15 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

16 Harken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, ³⁴Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me: ^dand eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern;

19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arphad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

20 Who are they among all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

21 But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

22 ¶ Then came Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

AND ^ait came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

8 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of ^ablasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

4 It may be the LORD thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is ²left.

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 ¶ And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

7 Behold, I will ³send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 ¶ So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

9 And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee. And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God, in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar?

13 Where is the king of ^bHamath, and the king of Arphad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?

* 19 The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day: ¹the father to the children shall make known thy truth.

20 The LORD was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the LORD.

21 For ^mIsaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaister upon the boil, and he shall recover.

22 ⁿHezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?

CHAPTER XXXIX.

¹ Merodach-baladan, sending to visit Hezekiah because of the wonder, hath notice of his treasures. ³ Isaiah, understanding thereof, foretelleth the Babylonian captivity.

AT ^athat time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

2 ^bAnd Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his ²precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his ³⁴armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

3 ¶ Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts:

6 Behold, the days come, ^othat all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

7 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and ²they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

8 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, ^dGood is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

CHAPTER XL.

¹ The promulgation of the gospel. ³ The preaching of John Baptist. ⁹ The preaching of the apostles. ¹² The prophet by the omnipotency of God, ¹⁸ and his incomparableness, ²⁶ comforteth the people.

COMFORT ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God.

2 Speak ye ³comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her ⁴warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: ^afor she hath received of the LORD's hand double for all her sins.

3 ¶ ^bThe voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, ^cPrepare ye the way of the LORD, ^dmake straight in the desert a highway for our God.

4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: ^eand the crooked shall be made ⁵straight, and the rough places ⁶plain:

5 And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

6 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? ^fAll flesh is grass, and all the goodness thereof is as the flower of the field:

7 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because ^gthe spirit of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass.

8 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but ^hthe word of our God shall stand for ever.

have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: ^rbefore me there was ²no God formed, neither shall there be after me.

11 I, even I, ^a*am* the LORD; and beside me there is no saviour.

12 I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no ^tstrange god among you: ^utherefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God.

13 ^vYea, before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall ^ylet it?

14 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their ^znobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the creator of Israel, your King.

16 Thus saith the LORD, which ¹maketh a way in the sea, and a ²path in the mighty waters;

17 Which ³bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow.

18 ¶ ⁴Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

19 Behold, I will do a ⁵new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? ⁶I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

20 The beast of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the ⁷owls: because ⁸I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.

21 ⁹This people have I formed for myself; they shall shew forth my praise.

22 ¶ But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou ¹⁰hast been weary of me, O Israel.

23 ¹Thou hast not brought me the ²small cattle of thy burnt offerings; neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.

24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou ³filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast ⁴wearied me with thine iniquities.

25 I, even I, am he that ¹blotteth out thy transgressions ^mfor mine own sake, ⁿand will not remember thy sins.

26 Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.

27 Thy first father hath sinned, and thy ⁴teachers have transgressed against me.

28 Therefore ^oI have profaned the ⁵princes of the sanctuary, ^pand have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches.

CHAPTER XLIV.

¹ God comforteth the church with his promises. ⁷ The vanity of idols, ⁹ and folly of idol makers. ²¹ He exhorteth to praise God for his redemption and omnipotency.

YET now hear, ^aO Jacob my servant; and Israel, whom I have chosen:

2 Thus saith the LORD that made thee, ^band formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob, my servant; and thou, ^cJesurun, whom I have chosen.

3 For I will ^dpour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring:

4 And they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water courses.

5 One shall say, I am the LORD's; and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and surname himself by the name of Israel.

7 And ^s who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them.

8 Fear ye not, neither be afraid: ^h have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ⁱ ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, ^k there is no ² God; I know not any.

9 ¶ ^l They that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their ³ delectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses; ^m they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed.

10 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image ⁿ that is profitable for nothing?

11 Behold, all his fellows shall be ^o ashamed: and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together.

12 ^p The smith ⁴ with the tongs both worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms: yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth: he drinketh no water, and is faint.

13 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule; he marketh it out with a line; he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house.

14 He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he ⁵ strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it.

15 Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof, and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto.

16 He burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire:

20 He feedeth on ashes: ⁴ a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

21 ¶ Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for ^u thou art my servant: I have formed thee; thou art my servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me.

THUS saith the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose ^aright hand I ^bhave holden, ^cto subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut;

2 I will go before thee, ^dand make the crooked places straight: ^eI will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron:

3 And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, ^fthat thou mayest know that I, the LORD, which ^gcall thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

4 For ^hJacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast ⁱnot known me.

6 ¶ ^a I was wroth with my people, ^b I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst shew them no mercy; ^c upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

7 ¶ And thou saidst, I shall be ^a a lady for ever: so that thou didst not ^b lay these things to thy heart, ^c neither didst remember the latter end of it.

8 Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, ^a I am, and none else beside me; ^b I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:

9 But ^a these two things shall come to thee ^b in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection ^c for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

10 ¶ For thou ^a hast trusted in thy wickedness: ^b thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath ^c perverted thee; ^d and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me.

11 ¶ Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know ^a from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to ^b put it off: and ^c desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

12 Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13 ^a Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now ^b the ^c astrologers, the stargazers, ^d the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

14 Behold, they shall be ^a as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver ^b themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.

15 Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even ^a thy merchants, from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

¹ God, to convince the people of their foreknown obstinacy, revealed his prophecies. 9 He saveth them for his own sake. 12 He exhorteth them to obedience, because of his power and providence. 16 He lamenteth their backwardness. 20 He powerfully delivereth his out of Babylon.

HEAR ye this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and ^aare come forth out of the waters of Judah, ^bwhich swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, ^cbut not in truth, nor in righteousness.

2 For they call themselves ^dof the holy city, and ^estay themselves upon the God of Israel; The LORD of hosts is his name.

3 ^fI have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them; I did them suddenly, ^gand they came to pass.

4 Because I knew that thou art ^hobstinate, and ⁱthy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass;

5 ^jI have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.

6 Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them.

7 They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them.

8 Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called ^ka transgressor from the womb.

9 ¶ ^lFor my name's sake ^mwill I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off.

10 Behold, ⁿI have refined thee, but not ^owith silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.

11 ^pFor mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for ^qhow should my name be polluted? and ^rI will not give my glory unto another.

12 ¶ Hearken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my called; ^sI am he; I am the ^tfirst, I also am the last.

13 ^uMine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and ^vmy right hand hath spanned the heavens: when ^wI call unto them, they stand up together.

14 ^xAll ye, assemble yourselves, and hear; which among them hath declared these things? ^yThe LORD hath loved him: ^zhe will do his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans.

15 I, even I, have spoken; yea, ^{aa}I have called him: I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.

16 ¶ Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; ^{ab}I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there am I: and now ^{ac}the Lord God, and his Spirit, hath sent me.

17 Thus saith ^{ad}the LORD, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit, ^{ae}which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go.

18 ^{af}O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! ^{ag}then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea:

19 ^{ah}Thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; his name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me.

20 ¶ ^{ai}Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The LORD hath ^{aj}redeemed his servant Jacob.

21 And they ^{ak}thirsted not when he led them through the deserts: he ^{al}caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them: he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out.

22 ^{am}There is no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked.

CHAPTER XLIX.

1 Christ, being sent to the Jews, complaineth of them. 5 He is sent to the Gentiles with gracious promises. 13 God's love is perpetual to his church. 18 The ample restoration of the church. 24 The powerful deliverance out of captivity.

LISTEN, ^a O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye people, from far; ^b The LORD hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

2 And he hath made ^c my mouth like a sharp sword; ^d in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me ^e a polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me;

3 And said unto me, ^f Thou art my servant, O Israel, ^g in whom I will be glorified.

4 ^h Then I said, I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nought, and in vain: yet surely my judgment is with the LORD, and ⁱ my work with my God.

5 ¶ And now, saith the LORD ^j that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, ^k Though Israel ^l be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and my God shall be my strength.

6 And he said, ^m It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the ⁿ preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a ^o light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

7 Thus saith the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, ^p to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers, ^q Kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and he shall choose thee.

8 Thus saith the LORD, ^r In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, ^s and give thee for a covenant of the people, to ^t establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages;

9 That thou mayest say ^u to the prisoners, Go forth; to them that are in darkness, Shew yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places.

10 They shall not ^v hunger nor thirst; ^w neither shall the heat nor sun smite them: for he that hath mercy on them ^x shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them.

11 ^y And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted.

12 Behold, ^z these shall come from far: and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim.

13 ¶ Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the LORD hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted.

14 ^{aa} But Zion said, The LORD hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me.

15 ^{ab} Can a woman forget her sucking child, ^{ac} that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, ^{ad} yet will I not forget thee.

16 Behold, ^{ae} I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me.

17 Thy children shall make haste; ^{af} thy destroyers and they that made thee waste shall go forth of thee.

18 ¶ Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith the LORD, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, ^{ag} as with an ornament, and bind them on thee, as a bride doeth.

19 For thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, ^{ah} shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be far away.

26 And I will ^p feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own ^a blood, as with ⁷ sweet wine: and all flesh ^r shall know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

CHAPTER L.

1 Christ sheweth that the dereliction of the Jews is not to be imputed to him, by his ability to save, 5 by his obedience in that work, 7 and by his confidence in that assistance. 10 An exhortation to trust in God, and not in ourselves.

THUS saith the LORD, Where is ^a the bill of your mother's divorcement, whom I have put away? or which of my ^b creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities ^c have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your mother put away.

2 Wherefore, when I came, was there no man? ^d when I called, was there none to answer? ^e Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? behold, ^f at my rebuke I ^g dry up the sea, I make the ^h rivers a wilderness: ⁱ their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.

3 ^k I clothe the heavens with blackness, ^l and I make sackcloth their covering.

4 ^m The Lord God hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is ⁿ weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

5 ¶ The Lord God ^o hath opened mine ear, and I was not ^p rebellious, neither turned away back.

6 ^q I gave my back to the smiters, and ^r my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

7 ¶ For the Lord God will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have ^s I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed.

8 ^t He is near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? let us stand together: who is ^u mine adversary? let him come near to me.

17 ¶ ^q Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which ^r hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury; ^s thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.

18 There is none to guide her among

23 But ^a I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; ^b which have said to thy soul, Bow down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street, to them that went over.

CHAPTER LII.

1 Christ persuadeth the church to believe his free redemption, 7 to receive the ministers thereof, 9 to joy in the power thereof, 11 and to free themselves from bondage. 13 Christ's kingdom shall be exalted.

AWAKE, ^a awake; put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, ^b the holy city: for ^c henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised ^d and the unclean.

2 ^e Shake thyself from the dust;
arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: ^f loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

3 For thus saith the LORD, ^g Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money.

4 For thus saith the Lord God,
My people went down aforetime into ^h Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them with-

5 Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD; and my name continually every day is ⁱ blasphemed.

6 Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: behold, it is I.

7 ¶ ^k How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, ^l Thy God reigneth!

8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye

15 ^uSo shall he sprinkle many nations; ^hthe kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that ^owhich had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

CHAPTER LIII.

1 The prophet, complaining of incredulity, excuseth the scandal of the cross, & by the benefit of his passion, 10 and the good success thereof.

WHO ^uhath believed our ^hreport? and to whom is ^hthe arm of the LORD revealed?

2 For ^ohe shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: ^hhe hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

3 ^oHe is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and ^hacquainted with grief: and ^hwe hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and ^zwe esteemed him not.

4 ¶ Surely ^hhe hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

5 But he was ^hwounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his ^hstripes we are healed.

6 ^hAll we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD ^zhath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet ^hhe opened not his mouth: ^hhe is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

8 ^zHe was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for ^ohe was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people ^zwas he stricken.

9 ^hAnd he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his ^hdeath; because he had done no violence, neither was any ^hdeceit in his mouth.

10 ¶ Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: ^hwhen thou shalt make his soul ^han offering for sin, he shall see his seed, ^hhe shall prolong his days, and ^hthe pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: ^hby his knowledge shall ^zmy righteous ^zservant ^zjustify many; ^hfor he shall bear their iniquities.

12 ^hTherefore will I divide him a portion with the great, ^oand he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was ^hnumbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and ^hmade intercession for the transgressors.

THE righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and ^amerciful men are taken away, ^bnone considering that the righteous is taken away ³from the evil to come.

2 He shall ⁴enter into peace: they shall rest in ^ctheir beds, each one walking ⁵in his uprightness.

3 ¶ But draw near hither, ^dye sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the whore.

6 Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion; they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink offering, thou hast offered a meat offering. Should I receive comfort in these?

7 ^gUpon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set ^hthy bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

8 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance: for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and ⁱmade thee a covenant with them; ^jthou lovedst their bed ⁸where thou sawest it.

9 And ⁹thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell.

10 Thou art wearied in the greatness of thy way; ¹yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou hast found the ²life of thine hand; therefore thou wast not grieved.

11 And ^mof whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? ⁿhave not I held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me not?

12 I will declare thy righteousness, and thy works; for they shall not profit thee.

13 ¶ When thou criest, let thy companies deliver thee; but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them: but he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain;

14 And shall say, ^oCast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumblingblock out of the way of my people.

15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, ^pwhose name is Holy; ^qI dwell in the high and holy place, ^rwith him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, ^sto revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

16 ^tFor I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls ^uwhich I have made.

17 For the iniquity of ^vhis covetousness was I wroth, and smote him: ^wI hid me, and was wroth, ^xand he went on ²frowardly in the way of his heart.

18 I have seen his ways, and ^ywill heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him and to ^bhis mourners.

19 I create ^cthe fruit of the lips; Peace, peace ^dto him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the LORD; and I will heal him.

20 ^eBut the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

21 ^fThere is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

CRY ^aaloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God.

3 ¶ ^aWherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we ^bafflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, and exact all your ^clabours.

4 °Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: ^eye shall not fast as ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high.

5 Is it ^dsuch a fast that I have chosen? °^ea day for a man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and ^fto spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD?

6 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, ^gto undo ^hthe heavy burdens, and ⁱto let the ^joppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?

7 Is it not ^kto deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are ^lcast out to thy house? ^mwhen thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from ⁿthine own flesh?

8 ¶ ^oThen shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; ^pthe glory of the LORD ^qshall be thy rereward.

9 Then shalt thou call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and ^rspeaking vanity;

10 And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon day:

11 And the LORD shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in ^sdrought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters ^tfail not.

12 And they that shall be of thee ^ushall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

vanity, and speak lies; ^cthey conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

5 They hatch ^acockatrice' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and ³that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper.

6 ^dTheir webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.

7 ^cTheir feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and ⁴destruction are in their paths.

8 The way of peace they know not; and there is no ⁵judgment in their goings: ^cthey have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

9 ¶ Therefore is judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: ^bwe wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

10 ^bWe grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noon day as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men.

12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them;

13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering ^kfrom the heart words of falsehood.

3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, ^hto give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, ⁱthe planting of the LORD, ^kthat he might be glorified.

4 ¶ And they shall ^lbuild the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

5 And ^mstrangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.

6 ⁿBut ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ^oye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.

7 ¶ ^pFor your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be unto them.

8 For ^qI the LORD love judgment, ^rI hate robbery for burnt offering; and I will direct their work in truth, ^sand I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

night: ²ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence,

7 And give him no ³rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem ¹a praise in the earth.

8 The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, ⁴Surely I will no more ^kgive thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured:

9 But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it ¹in the courts of my holiness.

10 ¶ Go through, go through the gates; ^mprepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; ⁿlift up a standard for the people.

11 Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, ^oSay ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his ^preward is with him, and his ^qwork before him.

12 And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, A city ^rnot forsaken.

CHAPTER LXIII.

1 Christ sheweth who he is, 2 what his victory over his enemies, 7 and what his mercy toward his church. 10 In his just wrath he remembereth his free mercy. 15 The church in their prayer, 17 and complaint, profess their faith.

WHO is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is ^sglorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

2 Wherefore ^aart thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat?

8 I have ^btrodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

4 For the ^cday of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

5 ^dAnd I looked, and ^e*there was* none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own ^farm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and ^gmake them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

7 ¶ I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses.

8 For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour.

9 ^hIn all their affliction he was afflicted, ⁱand the angel of his presence saved them: ^kin his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and ^lhe bare them, and carried them all the days of old.

10 ¶ But they ^mrebelled, and ⁿvexed his holy Spirit: ^otherefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that ^pbrought them up out of the sea with the ^qshepherd of his flock? ^rwhere is he that put his holy Spirit within him?

12 That led them by the right hand of Moses ^swith his glorious arm, ^tdividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name?

13 ^uThat led them through the deep, as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

14 As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused 7 Your iniquities, and ^m the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the LORD, ⁿ which have burned incense upon the mountains, ^o and blasphemed me upon the hills : therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom.

8 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not ; for ^p a blessing is in it : so will I do for my servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all.

9 And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains : and mine ^q elect shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there.

CHAPTER LXVI.

1 The glorious God will be served in humble sincerity. 5 He comforteth the humble with the marvellous generation, 10 and with the gracious benefits of the church. 15 God's severe judgments against the wicked. 19 The Gentiles shall have an holy church, 24 and see the damnation of the wicked.

THUS saith the LORD, ^a The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

2 For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the LORD: ^b but to this man will I look, ^c even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and ^d trembleth at my word.

3 ^e He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a ^f lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that ^g burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations.

4 I also will choose their ^h delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; ⁱ because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

5 ^j Hear the word of the LORD, ^k ye that tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but ^l he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

6 A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that rendereth recompence to his enemies.

7 Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child.

8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not ² cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.

10 Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her:

11 That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the ³ abundance of her glory.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, ¹ I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye ^m suck, ye shall be ⁿ borne upon her sides, and be dandled upon her knees.

13 As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

14 And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and ^o your bones shall flourish like an herb: and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, and his indignation toward his enemies.

15 ^p For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

CHAPTER I.

¹ The time, 3 and the calling of Jeremiah. 11 His prophetic visions of an almond rod and a seething pot. 15 His heavy message against Judah. 17 God encourageth him with his promise of assistance.

THE words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests that were ^ain Anathoth in the land of Benjamin :

² To whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, ^bin the thirteenth year of his reign.

³ It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, ^cunto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, ^dunto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive ^ein the fifth month.

⁴ Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

⁵ Before I ^fformed thee in the belly ^gI knew thee ; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I ^hsanctified thee, and I ⁱordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

⁶ Then said I, ^jAh, Lord God ! behold, I cannot speak : for I am a child.

⁷ ¶ But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child : for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and ^kwhatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.

⁸ ^lBe not afraid of their faces : for ^mI am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

⁹ Then the LORD put forth his hand, and ⁿtouched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have ^oput my words in thy mouth.

¹⁰ ^pSee, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to ^qroot out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

¹¹ ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou ? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree.

¹² Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen : for I will hasten my word to perform it.

¹³ And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou ? And I said, I see ^ra seething pot ; and the face thereof is ^stoward the north.

¹⁶ And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, ^xwho have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.

¹⁷ ¶ Thou therefore ^ygird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee : ^zbe not dismayed at their faces, lest I ^{aa}confound thee before them.

CHAPTER II.

¹ God, having shewed his former kindness, expostulateth with the Jews their causeless revolt, ⁹ beyond any example. ¹⁴ They are the causes of their own calamities. ²⁰ The sins of Judah. ³¹ Her confidence is rejected.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; I remember ²thee, the kindness of thy ^ayouth, the love of thine espousals, ^bwhen thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

3 ^cIsrael was holiness unto the LORD, and ^dthe firstfruits of his increase: ^eall that devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

4 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, ^fWhat iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, ^gand have walked after vanity, and are become vain?

6 Neither said they, Where is the LORD that ^hbrought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through ⁱthe wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt?

7 And I brought you into ^ja plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, ye ^kdefiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

8 The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the ^mlaw knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, ⁿand the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that ^odo not profit.

9 ¶ Wherefore ^pI will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and ^qwith your children's children will I plead.

10 For pass ^rover the isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing.

11 ^rHath a nation changed their gods, which are ^syet no gods? ^tbut my people have changed their glory for ^u*that which* doth not profit.

12 ^vBe astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.

13 For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the ^vfountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

14 ¶ Is Israel ^wa servant? is he a homeborn slave? why is he ^xspoiled?

15 ^yThe young lions roared upon him, and ^zyelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burned without inhabitant.

16 Also the children of Noph and ^{aa}Tahapanes ^{ab}have broken the crown of thy head.

17 ^{ac}Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when ^{ad}he led thee by the way?

18 And now what hast thou to do ^{ae}in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of ^{af}Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river?

19 Thine own ^{ag}wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord God of hosts.

CHAPTER IV.

1 God calleth Israel by his promise. 3 He exhorteth Judah to repentance by fearful judgments. 19 A grievous lamentation for the miseries of Judah.

IF thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, ^a return unto me: and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remove.

2 ^b And thou shalt swear, The LORD liveth, ^c in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; ^d and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they ^e glory.

3 ¶ For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, ^f Break up your fallow ground, and ^g sow not among thorns.

4 ^h Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather ye together, and say, ⁱ Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the defenced cities.

6 Set up the standard toward Zion: ² retire, stay not: for I will bring evil from the ^k north, and a great ³ destruction.

7 ¹ The lion is come up from his thicket, and ^m the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place ⁿ to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant.

8 For this ^o gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl: for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us.

9 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.

10 Then said I, Ah, Lord God! ^p surely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, ^q saying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.

11 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, ^r A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse, 12 Even ⁴ a full wind from those places shall come unto me: now also ^s will I ⁵ give sentence against them.

13 Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and ^t his chariots shall be as a whirlwind: ^u his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us! for we are spoiled.

14 O Jerusalem, ^x wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved. How long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

15 For a voice declareth ^y from Dan, and publisheth affliction from mount Ephraim.

20 ^eDestruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are ^fmy tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: ^gthey are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

¹ The judgments of God upon the Jews, for their perverseness, 7 for their adultery, 10 for their impiety, 19 for their contempt of God, 25 and for their great corruption in the civil state, 30 and ecclesiastical.

RUN ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, ^aif ye can find a man, ^bif there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; ^cand I will pardon it.

2 And ^dthough they say, ^eThe LORD liveth; surely they ^fswear falsely.

5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for ^lthey have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether ^mbroken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

12 But go ye now unto ^q my place which was in Shiloh, ^r where I set my name at the first, and see ^s what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.

13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, ^t rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I ^u called you, but ye answered not;

14 Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to ^x Shiloh.

15 And I will cast you out of my sight, ^y as I have cast out all your brethren, ^z even the whole seed of Ephraim.

16 Therefore ^a pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: ^b for I will not hear thee.

17 ¶ Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 ^c The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the ^d queen of heaven, and to ^e pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

19 ^f Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces?

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

21 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; ^g Put your burnt offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh.

22 ^h For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, ⁱ concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices:

23 But this thing commanded I them, saying, ^j Obey my voice, and ^k I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.

24 ^l But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but ^m walked in the counsels and in the ⁿ imagination of their evil heart, and ^o went backward, and not forward.

25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day I have even ^p sent unto you all my servants the prophets, ^q daily rising up early and sending them:

26 ^r Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but ^s hardened their neck: ^t they did worse than their fathers.

27 Therefore ^u thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee.

28 But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, ^v nor receiveth ^w correction: ^x truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

29 ¶ ^y Cut off thine hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.

4 He upbraideth their foolish and shameless impenitency. 13 He sheweth their grievous judgment, 18 and bewaileth their desperate estate.

AT that time, saith the LORD, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves:

2 And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and ^awhom they have worshipped: they shall not be gather-

4 ¶ Moreover thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turn away, and not return?

5 Why then is this people of Jerusalem ^eslidden back by a perpetual backsliding? ^fthey hold fast deceit, ^gthey refuse to return.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Jeremiah proclaimeth God's covenant, 8 rebuketh the Jews' disobeying thereof, 11 prophesieth evils to come upon them, 18 and upon the men of Anathoth, for conspiring to kill Jeremiah.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

3 And say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; ^a Cursed be the man that obeyeth not the words of this covenant,

4 Which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, ^b from the iron furnace, saying, ^c Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God:

5 That I may perform the ^d oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, ^e So be it, O LORD.

6 Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, ^f and do them.

7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, ^g rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.

8 ^h Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but ⁱ walked every one in the ^j imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did them not.

9 And the LORD said unto me, ^k A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

10 They are turned back to ^l the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able ^m to escape; and ⁿ though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

12 Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and ^o cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their ^p trouble.

13 For according to the number of thy ^q cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that ^r shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

14 Therefore ^s pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me for their ^t trouble.

15 ^u What hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing she hath ^v wrought lewdness with many, and ^w the holy flesh is passed from thee? ^x when thou doest evil, then thou ^y rejoicest.

16 The LORD called thy name, ^z A green olive tree, fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

17 For the LORD of hosts, ^{aa} that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger in offering incense unto Baal.

18 ¶ And the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou shewedst me their doings.

19 But I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that ^{ab} they had

CHAPTER XII.

¹ Jeremiah, complaining of the wicked's prosperity, by faith seeth their ruin. ⁵ God admonisheth him of his brethren's treachery against him, ⁷ and lamenteth his heritage. ¹⁴ He promiseth to the penitent return from captivity.

RIGHTEOUS ^aart thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: yet ⁴let me talk with thee of thy judgments: ^bWherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

2 Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root: ⁵they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: ^cthou art near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

3 But thou, O LORD, ^dknowest me: thou hast seen me, and ^etried mine heart ^ftoward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for ^gthe day of slaughter.

4 How long shall ^hthe land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, ⁱfor the wickedness of them that dwell therein? ¹the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end.

5 ¶ If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in ^kthe swelling of Jordan?

6 For even ¹thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, ²they have called a multitude after thee: ^mbelieve them not, though they speak ³fair words unto thee.

7 ¶ I have forsaken mine house, I have left mine heritage; I have given ⁴the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

8 Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest; it ⁵⁶crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it.

9 Mine heritage is unto me as a ⁷speckled bird, the birds round about are against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, ⁸ⁿcome to devour.

10 Many ^opastors have destroyed ^pmy vineyard, they have ^qtrodden my portion under foot, they have made my ^rpleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

11 They have made it desolate, and being desolate ^rit mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because ^sno man layeth it to heart.

12 The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh shall have peace.

13 ^tThey have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit: and ²they shall be ashamed of your revenues because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 In the type of a linen girdle, hidden at Euphrates, God prefigureth the destruction of his people. 12 Under the parable of the bottles filled with wine he foretelleth their drunkenness in misery. 15 He exhorteth to prevent their future judgments. 22 He sheweth their abominations are the cause thereof.

THUS saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.

2 So I got a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner ^a will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.

10 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which ^b walk in the ² imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing.

11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that ^c they might be unto me for a people, and ^d for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.

12 ¶ Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word; Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, ^e with drunkenness.

14 And ^f I will dash them ³ one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, ⁴ but destroy them.

15 ¶ Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud: for the LORD hath spoken.

16 ⁵ Give glory to the LORD your God, before he cause ^h darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and, while ye ⁱ look for light, he turn it into ^k the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.

CHAPTER XVI.

¹ The prophet, under the types of abstaining from marriage, from houses of mourning and feasting, foresheweth the utter ruin of the Jews, 10 because they were worse than their fathers. 14 Their return from captivity shall be stranger than their deliverance out of Egypt. 16 God will doubly recompense their idolatry.

THE word of the LORD came also unto me, saying,

2 Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place.

3 For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land;

4 They shall die of ^agrievous deaths; they shall not be ^blamented; neither shall they be buried;

CHAPTER XVII.

1 The captivity of Judah for her sin. 5 Trust in man is cursed, 7 in God is blessed. 9 The deceitful heart cannot deceive God. 12 The salvation of God. 15 The prophet complaineth of the mockers of his prophecy. 19 He is sent to renew the covenant in hallowing the sabbath.

THE sin of Judah is written with a ^apen of iron, and with the ^bpoint of a diamond: it is ^bgraven upon the table of their heart, and upon the horns of your altars;

2 Whilst their children remember their altars and their ^cgroves by the green trees upon the high hills.

3 O my mountain in the field, ^dI will give thy substance and all thy treasures to the spoil, and thy high places for sin, throughout all thy borders.

4 And thou, even ^ethyself, shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in ^ethe land which thou knowest not: for ^fye have kindled a fire in mine anger, which shall burn for ever.

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; ^gCursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh ^hflesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD.

6 For he shall be ⁱlike the heath in the desert, and ^kshall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, ^jin a salt land and not inhabited.

7 ^mBlessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is.

8 For he shall be ⁿas a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of ^odrought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

9 ¶ The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

10 I the LORD ^psearch the heart, I try the reins, ^peven to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

11 As the partridge ^qsitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, ^rshall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be ^ra fool.

12 ¶ A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

13 O LORD, ^sthe hope of Israel, ^tall that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be ^uwritten in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the ^xfountain of living waters.

14 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for ^ythou art my praise.

15 ¶ Behold, they say unto me, ^zWhere is the word of the LORD? let it come now.

16 As for me, ^aI have not hastened from being a pastor ^bto follow thee: neither have I desired the woeful day; thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was right before thee.

17 Be not a terror unto me: ^bthou art my hope in the day of evil.

18 ^cLet them be confounded that persecute me, but ^dlet not me be confounded: let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and ^edestroy them with double destruction.

19 ¶ Thus said the LORD unto me; Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem;

20 And say unto them, ^fHear ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates:

3 ^b And say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall ^c tingle.

4 Because they ^d have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with ^e the blood of innocents;

5 ^f They have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto Baal, ^g which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind:

6 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Tophet, nor ^h The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of slaughter.

7 And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; ⁱ and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives: and their ^k carcases will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

8 And I will make this city ^l desolate, and an hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all the plagues thereof.

5 Moreover I ^b will deliver all the strength of this city, and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon.

¹ Zedekiah sendeth to Jeremiah to enquire the event of Nebuchadrezzar's war. ³ Jeremiah foretelleth a hard siege and miserable captivity. ⁸ He counselleth the people to fall to the Chaldeans, ¹¹ and upbraideth the king's house.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent unto him ^aPashur the son of Melchiah, and ^bZephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying,

² ^oEnquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us; if so be that the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.

³ ¶ Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah:

⁴ Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without the walls, and ^dI will assemble them into the midst of this city.

⁵ And I myself will fight against you with an ^ooutstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

⁶ And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence.

⁸ ¶ And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, ^hI set before you the way of life, and the way of death.

⁹ He that ⁱabideth in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and ^khis life shall be unto him for a prey.

1 He exhorteth to repentance, with promises and threats. 10 The judgment of Shallum, 13 of Jehoiakim, 20 and of Coniah.

THUS saith the LORD; Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

2 And say, ^a Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates:

3 Thus saith the LORD; ^b Execute ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and ^c do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place.

5 But if ye will not hear these words, ^f I swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation.

6 For thus saith the LORD unto the king's house of Judah; Thou art Gilead unto me, and the head

7 And I will prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons: and they shall cut down ^g thy choice cedars, ^h and cast them into the fire.

8 And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, ⁱ Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city?

9 Then they shall answer, ^j Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.

10 ¶ Weep ye not for ^k the dead, neither bemoan him: but weep sore for him ^l that goeth away: for he shall return no more, nor see his native country.

11 For thus saith the LORD touching ^m Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, ⁿ which went forth out of this place; He shall not return thither any more:

12 But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

8 But, The LORD liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, ¹and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

9 ¶ Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets; ^mall my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness.

10 For ⁿthe land is full of adulterers; for ^obecause of ²swearing the land mourneth; ^pthe pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their ³course is evil, and their force is not right.

11 For ^qboth prophet and priest are profane; yea, ^rin my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.

12 ^sWherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I ^twill bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

13 And I have seen ^ufolly in the prophets of Samaria; ^vthey prophesied in Baal, and ^xcaused my people Israel to err.

14 I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem ^yan horrible thing: ^zthey commit adultery, and ^{aa}walk in lies: they ^{ab}strengthen also the hands of evildoers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as ^bSodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets; Behold, I will feed them with ^cwormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is ^dprofaneness gone forth into all the land.

16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: ^ethey speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.

17 They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, ^oYe shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the ²imagination of his own heart, ^fNo evil shall come upon you.

18 For ^gwho hath stood in the ³counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?

19 Behold, a ^hwhirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

20 The ⁱanger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: ^kin the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.

21 ^lI have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had ^mstood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have ⁿturned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

23 Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off?

24 Can any ^ohide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. ^pDo not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD.

7 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; that ye might ^f provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

CHAPTER XXVI.

¹ Jeremiah by promises and threatenings exhorteth to repentance. ⁸ He is therefore apprehended, ¹⁰ and arraigned. ¹² His apology. ¹⁶ He is quit in judgment, by the example of Micah, ²⁰ and of Urijah, ²⁴ and by the care of Ahikam.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word from the LORD, saying,

² Thus saith the LORD ; Stand in ^a the court of the LORD's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, ^b all the words that I command thee to speak unto them ; ^c diminish not a word :

³ ^d If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may ^e repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings.

⁴ And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD ; ^f If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you,

⁵ To hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, ^g whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened ;

⁶ Then will I make this house like ^h Shiloh, and will make this city ⁱ a curse to all the nations of the earth.

⁷ So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

⁸ ¶ Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

⁹ Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant ? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

¹¹ Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, ³ This man is worthy to die ; ^k for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

¹² ¶ Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard.

¹³ Therefore now ^l amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God ; and the LORD will ^m repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

¹⁵ But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof : for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears.

¹⁶ ¶ Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets ; This man is not worthy to die : for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.

¹⁷ ^o Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying,

20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah:

21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt;

CHAPTER XXVII.

¹ Under the type of bonds and yokes he prophesieth the subduing of the neighbour kings unto Nebuchadnezzar. 8 He exhorteth them to yield, and not to believe the false prophets. 12 The like he doeth to Zedekiah. 19 He foretelleth, the remnant of the vessels shall be carried to Babylon, and there continue until the day of visitation.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah ^a king of Judah came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
2 Thus ^b saith the LORD to me; Make thee bonds and yokes, ^c and put them upon thy neck,

3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah; land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish.

11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 ¶ I spake also to m Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

13 n Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

14 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy o a lie unto you.

15 For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy p a lie in my name; that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you.

16 Also I spake to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, p the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you.

17 Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city be laid waste?

18 But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon.

19 ¶ For thus saith the LORD of hosts q concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city, 20 Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away r captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem;

21 Yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem;

22 They shall be s carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I t visit them, saith the LORD; then u will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 Hananiah prophesieth falsely the return of the vessels, and of Jeconiah. 5 Jeremiah, wishing it to be true, sheweth that the event will declare who are true prophets. 10 Hananiah breaketh Jeremiah's yoke. 12 Jeremiah telleth of an iron yoke, 15 and foretelleth Hananiah's death.

AND v it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken b the yoke of the king of Babylon.

3 c Within d two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon:

4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the e captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the LORD: for I will

6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, ^d Amen : the LORD do so : the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.

7 Nevertheless hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people ;

8 The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.

11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD ; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon ^g from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 13 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD ; Thou hast broken the yokes of wood ; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.

^h Deut. 28. 48.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel ; ^h I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon ; and they shall serve him : and ⁱ I have given him the beasts of the field also.

15 ¶ Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah ; The LORD hath not sent thee ; but ^k thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD ; Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth : this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught ^l rebellion against the LORD.

17 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

CHAPTER XXIX.

¹ Jeremiah sendeth a letter to the captives in Babylon, to be quiet there, 8 and not to believe the dreams of their prophets, 10 and that they shall return with grace after seventy years. 15 He foretelleth the destruction of the rest for their disobedience. 20 He sheweth the fearful end of Ahab and Zedekiah, two lying prophets. 24 Shemaiah writeth a letter against Jeremiah. 30 Jeremiah readeth his doom.

NOW these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders which were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon ;

7 And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.

8 ¶ For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed.

9 ° For they prophesy ² falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the LORD.

10 ¶ For thus saith the LORD, That after ¹ seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place.

11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an ³ expected end.

12 Then shall ye ⁴ call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.

22 ^r And of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah and like Ahab, ^s whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire;

23 Because ^t they have committed villany in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; even I know, and am a witness, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 God sheweth Jeremiah the return of the Jews. 4 After their trouble they shall have deliverance. 10 He comforteth Jacob. 18 Their return shall be gracious. 20 Wrath shall fall on the wicked.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD God of Israel, saying, Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book.

3 For, lo, the days come, saith the LORD, that ^aI will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD: ^band I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

4 ¶ And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel and concerning Judah.

5 For thus saith the LORD; We have heard a voice of trembling, ²of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and see whether ³a man doth travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, ^cas a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

7 ^dAlas! for that day is great, ^eso that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.

8 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him:

9 But they shall serve the LORD their God, and ^fDavid their king, whom I will ^graise up unto them.

10 ¶ Therefore ^hfear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed ⁱfrom the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.

11 For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: ^kthough I make a full end of all nations whether I have scattered thee, ^lyet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee ^min measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

12 For thus saith the LORD, ⁿThy bruise is incurable, and thy wound is grievous.

13 There is none to plead thy cause, ^othat thou mayest be bound up: ^othou hast no healing medicines.

5 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be ^o until I visit him, saith the LORD: ^f though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper.

6 ¶ And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

7 Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth: for the right of redemption is thine to buy it.

8 So Hanameel mine uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and ^h weighed him the money, even ² seventeen shekels of silver.

10 And I ³ subscribed the evidence, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open:

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto ^l Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the ^k witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.

13 ¶ And I charged Baruch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days.

15 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Houses and fields and vineyards ¹ shall be possessed again in this land.

16 ¶ Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying,

17 Ah Lord God! behold, ^m thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and ⁿ there is nothing ² too hard for thee:

25 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord God, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; ²for ^cthe city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

27 Behold, I am the LORD, the ^dGod of all flesh: ^eis there any thing too hard for me?

28 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, ^fI will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it:

29 And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and ^gset fire on this city, and burn it with the houses, ^hupon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.

30 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah ⁱhave only done evil before me from their youth: for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the LORD.

31 For this city hath been to me as ^ja provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; ^kthat I should remove it from before my face, 32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, ^lthey, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

33 And they have turned unto me the ^m'back, and not the face: though I taught them, ⁿrising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.

34 But they ^oset their abominations in the house, which is called by my name, to defile it.

35 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to ^pcause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto ^qMolech; ^rwhich I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

36 ¶ And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, ^sIt shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence;

37 Behold, I will ^tgather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them ^uto dwell safely:

38 And they shall be ^vmy people, and I will be their God:

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, ^awhen Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and ^ball the kingdoms of the earth ^cof his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, ^dI will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and ^ehe shall burn it with fire:

3 And ^fthou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and ^ghe shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon.

4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword:

5 But thou shalt die in peace: and with ^hthe burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, ⁱso shall they burn odours for thee; and ^jthey will lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD.

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem,

7 When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and

8 ¶ This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim ^kli-berty unto them;

9 ^lThat every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; ^mthat none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother.

10 Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his manservant, and every one his maidservant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go.

11 But ⁿafterward they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.

12 ¶ Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bond-men, saying,

14 At the end of ^oseven years let ye go every man his brother an Hebrew, which ^phath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear.

15 And ye were ^qnow turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had ^rmade a covenant before me ^sin the house ^twhich is called by my name:

16 But ye turned and ^upolluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD;
Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: ^vbehold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, ^wto the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you ^xto be ^yremoved into all the kingdoms of the earth.

18 And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, when ^zthey cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof,

19 The princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between the parts of the calf;

20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life:
and their ^ydead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth.

21 And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, ^zwhich are gone up from you.

22 ^aBehold, I will command, saith the LORD, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, ^band take it, and burn it with fire: and ^cI will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Go unto the house of the ^aRechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of ^bthe chambers, and give them wine to drink.

3 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites;

4 And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, ^cthe keeper of the ^ddoor:

5 And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink ye wine.

6 But they said, We will drink no wine: for ^eJonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever:

7 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; ^fthat ye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers.

8 Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters;

9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed:

10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

11 But it came to pass, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem.

12 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not ^freceive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD.

14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: ^gnotwithstanding I have spoken unto you, ^hrising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me.

15 ⁱI have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, ^kReturn ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.

16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me:

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them: ^lbecause I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

¹ Jeremiah causeth Baruch to write his prophecy, ⁵ and publickly to read it. ¹¹ The princes, having intelligence thereof by Michaiah, send Jehudi to fetch the roll, and read it. ¹⁹ They will Baruch to hide himself and Jeremiah. ²⁰ The king Jehoiakim, being certified thereof, heareth part of it, and burneth the roll. ²⁷ Jeremiah denounceth his judgment. ³² Baruch writeth a new copy.

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, ² Take thee a ^a roll of a book, and ^b write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against ^c all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of ^d Josiah, even unto this day.

³ ^e It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them ; that they may ^f return every man from his evil way ; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

⁴ Then Jeremiah ^g called Baruch the son of Neriah : and ^h Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.

⁵ And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up ; I cannot go into the house of the LORD :

⁶ Therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD's house upon ⁱ the fast-day : and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities.

⁷ ^k It may be ^l they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way : for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people.

⁸ And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

⁹ And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem.

¹¹ ¶ When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, ¹² Then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber : and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

¹³ Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.

¹⁴ Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

28 Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burned.

29 And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast?

AND king ^a Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Co-niah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah.

2 ^b But neither he, nor his ser-vants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the LORD, which he spake ^c by the pro-phet Jeremiah.

3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah and ^e Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now unto the LORD our God for us.

4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people: for they had not put him into prison.

5 Then ^d Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: ^e and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they depart-ed from Jerusalem.

6 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, ^f that sent you unto me to enquire of me; Behold, Pha-raoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land.

8 ^g And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire.

9 Thus saith the LORD; Deceive not ^h yourselves, saying, The Chal-deans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart.

10 ⁱ For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but ^j wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

11 ¶ ^k And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans was ^l broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army,

12 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, ^m to separate himself thence in the midst of the people.

13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou fallest away to the Chaldeans.

14 Then said Jeremiah, It is ⁿ false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, ^o and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that the prison.

16 ¶ When Jeremiah was enter-ed into ^p the dungeon, and into the ^q cabins, and Jeremiah had remain-ed there many days;

17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

18 Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I offend-ed against thee, or against thy ser-vants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?

19 Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, say-ing, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land?

20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: ^r let my supplication, I pray thee, be ac-cepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

THEN Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and ^aJucal the son of Shelemiah, and ^bPashur the son of Malchiah, ^cheard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying, ² Thus saith the LORD, ^dHe that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.

³ Thus saith the LORD, ^eThis city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.

⁴ Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, ^flet this man be put to death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the ^gwelfare of this people, but the hurt.

⁵ Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing against you.

⁶ ^hThen took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son ⁱof Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.

⁷ ¶ ^jNow when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon; the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin;

⁸ Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying,

⁹ My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and ^khe is like to die for hunger in the place where he is: for there is no more bread in the city.

¹⁰ Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men ^lwith thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.

¹² And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine armholes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

¹³ ^mSo they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained ⁿin the court of the prison.

¹⁴ ¶ Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the ^othird entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me.

¹⁵ Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me?

9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan sware unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not ²to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to serve the Chaldeans, which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.

11 Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan;

12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much.

18 ¶ Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, 14 And said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that ^mBaalis the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah ²to slay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish?

CHAPTER XLIV.

1 Jeremiah expresseth the desolation of Judah for their idolatry. 11 He prophesieth their destruction, who commit idolatry in Egypt. 15 The obstinacy of the Jews. 20 Jeremiah threateneth them for the same, 29 and for a sign prophesieth the destruction of Egypt.

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at ^aMigdol, and at ^bTahpanhes, and at ^cNoph, and in the country of Pathros, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are ^da desolation, and no man dwelleth therein,

3 Because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went ^eto burn incense, and to ^fserve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, ye, nor your fathers.

4 Howbeit ^gI sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate.

5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods.

6 Wherefore ^hmy fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day.

7 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; Wherefore commit ye this great evil ⁱagainst your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, ²out of Judah, to leave you none to remain;

8 In that ye ^kprovoke me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be ¹a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 Have ye forgotten the ²wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 They are not ³humbled even unto this day, neither have they ^mfeared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, ⁿI will set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah.

12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and ^othey shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine: and ^pthey shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.

13 ^qFor I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence:

14 So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they ⁴have a desire to return to dwell there: for ^rnone shall return but such as shall escape.

Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, "we will not hearken unto thee.

17 But we will certainly do 'whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the ²"queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of ³victuals, and were well, and saw no evil.

18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

19 *And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, without our ⁴men?

20 ¶ Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying,

21 The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his mind?

22 So that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land ⁵a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, ⁶as at this day.

23 Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; ⁷therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

24 Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah ⁸that are in the land of Egypt:

25 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying; ⁹Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows.

26 Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, ¹⁰I have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, that ¹¹my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord God liveth.

27 ¹²Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt ¹³shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.

28 Yet ¹⁴a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose ¹⁵words shall stand, ¹⁶mine, or their's.

29 ¶ And this shall be a sign unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall ¹⁷surely stand against you for evil:

30 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, ¹⁸I will give Pharaoh-hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave ¹⁹Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand

CHAPTER XLV.

1 Baruch being dismayed, 4 Jeremiah instructeth and comforteth him.

THE word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto thee, O Baruch;

3 Thou didst say, Woe is me now! for the LORD hath added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.

4 ¶ Thus shalt thou say unto him, The LORD saith thus; Behold, ^bthat which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.

5 And seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not: for, behold, ^cI will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD: but thy life will I give unto thee ^dfor a prey in all places whither thou goest.

CHAPTER XLVI.

1 Jeremiah prophesieth the overthrow of Pharaoh's army at Euphrates, 13 and the conquest of Egypt by Nebuchadrezzar. 27 He comforteth Jacob in their chastisement.

THE word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against ^athe Gentiles;

2 Against Egypt, ^bagainst the army of Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah.

3 ^cOrder ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle.

4 Harness the horses; and get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, and put on the brigandines.

5 Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? and their mighty ones are ^abeaten down, and are ^bfled apace, and look not back: for ^dfear was round about, saith the LORD.

6 Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; they shall ^estumble, and fall toward the north by the river Euphrates.

7 Who is this that cometh up ^fas a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers?

8 Egypt riseth up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers; and he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city and the inhabitants thereof.

9 Come up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; ^gthe Ethiopians and ^hthe Libyans, that handle the shield; and the Lydians, ⁱthat handle and bend the bow.

10 For this is ^jthe day of the Lord God of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and ^kthe sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate and made drunk with their blood: for the Lord God of hosts ^khath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.

11 ^lGo up into Gilead, and take balm, ^mO virgin, the daughter of Egypt: in vain shalt thou use many medicines; for ⁿthou shalt not be cured.

12 The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together.

13 ¶ The word that the LORD spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and ^osmite the land of Egypt.

14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph and in Tahpanhes: say ye, ^pStand fast, and prepare thee; for ^qthe sword shall devour round about thee.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

1 The judgment of Moab, 7 for their pride, 11 for their security, 14 for their carnal confidence, 26 and for their contempt of God and his people. 47 The restoration of Moab.

AGAINST ^a Moab thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Woe unto ^b Nebo! for it is spoiled: ^c Kiriathaim is confounded and taken: ^d Misgab is confounded and dismayed.

2 ^d There shall be no more praise of Moab: in ^e Heshbon they have devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation. Also thou shalt ^f be cut down, O Madmen; the sword shall ^g pursue thee.

3 ^f A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction.

6 ^h Flee, save your lives, and be like ⁱ the ^j heath in the wilderness.

7 ^j For because thou hast trusted in thy works and in thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken: and ^k Chemosh shall go forth into captivity with his ^l priests and his princes together.

8 And ^m the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape: the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD hath spoken.

9 ⁿ Give wings unto Moab, that it may flee and get away: for the cities thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein.

10 ^o Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD ^a deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood.

11 ^j Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he ^p hath settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste ^q remained in him, and his scent is not changed.

12 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send unto him wanderers, that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles.

13 And Moab shall be ashamed of ^r Chemosh, as the house of Israel ^r was ashamed of ^s Beth-el their confidence.

15 ^u Moab is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and ^v his chosen young men are ^x gone down to the slaughter, saith ^y the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

CHAPTER XLIX.

1 The judgment of the Ammonites. 6 Their restoration. 7 The judgment of Edom, 23 of Damascus, 28 of Kedar, 30 of Hazor, 34 and of Elam. 39 The restoration of Elam.

CONCERNING ⁴ the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD; Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth ⁵ their king inherit ^b Gad, and his people dwell in his cities?

2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in ^c Rabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.

3 Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, ^d gird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges; for ⁶ their king shall go into captivity, and his ^e priests and his princes together.

4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, ⁷ thy flowing valley, O ^f backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, ⁸ saying, Who shall come unto me?

5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord God of hosts, from all those that be about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth.

6 And ^h afterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD.

7 ¶ ⁱ Concerning Edom, thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^k Is wisdom no more in Teman? ¹ is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished?

8 ^m Flee ye, ² turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of ⁿ Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him.

9 If ^o grapegatherers come to thee, would they not leave some glean- ing grapes? if thieves by night, they will destroy ³ till they have enough.

10 ^p But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and ^q he is not.

11 Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me.

12 For thus saith the LORD; Be- hold, ^r they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have as- suredly drunken; and art thou he that shall altogether go unpunish- ed? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it.

13 For ^s I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that ^t Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.

14 I have heard a ^u rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Ga- ther ye together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle.

15 For, lo, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men.

16 Thy terribleness hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: ^x though thou should- est make thy ^y nest as high as the eagle, ^z I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER L.

1, 9, 21, 35 The judgment of Babylon. 4, 17, 33
The redemption of Israel.

THE word that the LORD spake ^aagainst Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans ²by Jeremiah the prophet.

2 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and ³set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, ^bBel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; ^cher idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

3 ^dFor out of the north there cometh up ^ea nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.

4 ¶ In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, ^fthey and the children of Judah together, ^ggoing and weeping: they shall go, ^hand seek the LORD their God.

5 They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in ⁱa perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

6 My people hath been ^klost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on ^lthe mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their ⁴restingplace.

7 All that found them have ^mdevoured them: and ⁿtheir adversaries said, ^oWe offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, ^pthe habitation of justice, even the LORD, ^qthe hope of their fathers.

8 ^rRemove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he goats before the flocks.

9 ¶ ^sFor, lo, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall ^tset themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty ²expert man; ^unone shall return in vain.

10 And Chaldea shall be a spoil: ^xall that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD.

11 ^yBecause ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage, because ye are grown ³fat ^zas the heifer at grass, and ⁴bellow as bulls;

12 Your mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

13 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, ^abut it shall be wholly desolate: ^bevery one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

14 ^cPut yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye ^dthat bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the LORD.

15 Shout against her round about: she hath ^egiven her hand: her foundations are fallen, ^fher walls are thrown down: for ^git is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; ^has she hath done, do unto her.

16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the ⁱsickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword ¹they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.

17 ¶ Israel is ^k a scattered sheep; ^l the lions have driven him away: first ^m the king of Assyria hath devoured him; and last this ⁿ Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.

19 ^o And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilead.

20 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, ^p the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them ^q whom I reserve.

21 ¶ Go up against the land ^r of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of ^s Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and do ^t according to all that I have commanded thee.

22 ^t A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction.

23 How is ^u the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations!

24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, ^v and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD.

25 The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth ^y the weapons of his indignation: for this is the work of the Lord God of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans.

26 Come against her ^z from the utmost border, open her storehouses: ^a cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left.

27 Slay all her ^b bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: woe unto them! for their day is come, the time of ^c their visitation.

28 The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, ^d to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple.

29 Call together the archers against Babylon: ^e all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: ^f recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her: ^g for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel.

30 ^h Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD.

31 Behold, I am against thee, O thou ⁱ most proud, saith the Lord God of hosts: for ^j thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.

32 And ^k the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and ^l I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

33 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together: and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go.

34 ^m Their Redeemer is strong; ⁿ the LORD of hosts is his name: he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 ¶ A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and ^o upon her princes, and upon ^p her wise men.

all ^o the mingled people that are in the midst of her; and ^p they shall become as women: a sword is upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed.

38 ^q A drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of ^r graven images, and they are mad upon their idols.

39 ^s Therefore the wild beasts of the desert with the wild beasts of the islands shall dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein: ^t and it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

40 ^u As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD; so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein.

41 ^x Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation, and many kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

42 ^y They shall hold the bow and the lance: ^z they are cruel, and will not shew mercy: ^a their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Babylon.

43 The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble: ^b anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail.

44 ^c Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan unto the habitation of the strong: but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will ^d appoint me the time? and ^e who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

45 Therefore hear ye ^f the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them.

46 ^f At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth is moved, and the cry is heard among the nations.

CHAPTER LI.

1 The severe judgment of God against Babylon in revenge of Israel. 59 Jeremiah delivereth the book of this prophecy to Seraiah, to be cast into Euphrates, in token of the perpetual sinking of Babylon.

THUS saith the LORD; Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the ² midst of them that rise up against me, ^a a destroying wind;

2 And will send unto Babylon ^b fanners, that shall fan her, and shall empty her land: ^c for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about.

3 Against him that bendeth ^d let the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his brigandine: and spare ye not her young men; ^e destroy ye utterly all her host.

4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, ^f and they that are thrust through in her streets.

5 For Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.

6 ^g Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for ^h this is the time of the LORD's vengeance; ⁱ he will render unto her a recompence.

7 ^k Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that made all the earth drunken: ^l the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations ^m are mad.

8 Babylon is suddenly ⁿ fallen and destroyed: ^o howl for her; ^p take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.

9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, 60 So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon.

62 Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that ⁿnone shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be ²desolate for ever.

63 And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, ^othat thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates:

64 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: ^pand they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

3 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 ¶ And it came to pass in the ^bninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about.

8 ¶ But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

9 ^c Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; where he gave judgment upon him.

10 ^d And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

11 Then he ^e put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in ^f chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in ^g prison till the day of his death.

17 ⁿ Also the ^o pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon.

⁶ And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

⁷ Jerusalem remembered in the ⁸ ⁿ Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she ^o is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because ^p they have seen her nakedness: yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

⁹ Her filthiness is in her skirts; she ^q remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: ^r she had no comforter. O LORD, behold my affliction: for the enemy hath magnified himself.

¹⁰ The adversary hath spread out his hand upon ^s all her ^t pleasant things: for she hath seen that ^u the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that ^v they should not enter into thy congregation.

¹¹ All her people sigh, ^w they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat ^x to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become vile.

¹² ¶ ^y Is it nothing to you, all ye that ^z pass by? behold, and see ^{aa} if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

²⁰ He complaineth thereof to God.

HOW hath the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, ^a and cast down from heaven unto the earth ^b the beauty of Israel, and remembered not ^c his footstool in the day of his anger !

2 The Lord hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, ^d and hath not pitied : he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah ; he hath ² brought them down to the ground : ^e he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel : ^f he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, ^g and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

4 ^h He hath bent his bow like an enemy : he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew ³ all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion : he poured out his fury like fire.

5 ^k The Lord was as an enemy : he hath swallowed up Israel, ¹ he hath swallowed up all her palaces : he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently ^m taken away his ⁴ tabernacle, ⁿ as if it were of a garden : he hath destroyed his places of the assembly : ^o the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.

hath ² given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; ^p they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion: ^q he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from ³ destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and ^r broken her bars: ^s her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: ^t the law is no more; her ^u prophets also find no vision from the LORD.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion ^x sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have ^y cast up dust upon their heads; they have ^z girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11 ^a Mine eyes do fail with tears, ^b my bowels are troubled, ^c my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because ^d the children and the sucklings ^e swoon in the streets of the city.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? ^f what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea: who can heal thee?

CHAPTER III.

1 The faithful bewail their calamities. 22 By the mercies of God they nourish their hope. 37 They acknowledge God's justice. 55 They pray for deliverance, 64 and vengeance on their enemies.

I AM the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

2 He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light.

3 Surely against me is he turned; he turneth his hand against me all the day.

4 ^aMy flesh and my skin hath he made old; he hath ^bbroken my bones.

5 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with gall and travel.

6 ^cHe hath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old.

7 ^dHe hath hedged me about, that I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy.

8 Also ^ewhen I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer.

9 He hath inclosed my ways with hewn stone, he hath made my paths crooked.

10 ^fHe was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my ways, and ^gpulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.

12 He hath bent his bow, and ^hset me as a mark for the arrow.

13 He hath caused ⁱthe ²arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.

14 I was a ^kderision to all my people; and ^ltheir song all the day.

15 ^mHe hath filled me with ³bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

16 He hath also broken my teeth ⁿwith gravel stones, he hath ⁴covered me with ashes.

17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace: I forgot ⁵prosperity.

18 ^oAnd I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD:

19 ²Remembering mine affliction and my misery, ^pthe wormwood and the gall.

20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is ³humbled in me.

21 This I ⁴recall to my mind, therefore have I hope.

22 ¶ ^q*It is of* the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.

23 They are new ^revery morning: great is thy faithfulness.

24 The LORD is my ^sportion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him.

25 The LORD is good unto them that ^twait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

26 It is good that a man should both hope ^uand quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.

27 ^x*It is good* for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

28 ^yHe sitteth alone and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him.

29 ^zHe putteth his mouth in the dust; if so be there may be hope.

30 ^aHe giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproach.

31 ^bFor the Lord will not cast off for ever:

32 But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

33 For ^che doth not afflict ⁵willingly nor grieve the children of men.

34 To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth,

35 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of ⁶the most High, 36 To subvert a man in his cause, ^dthe Lord ⁷approveth not.

37 ¶ Who is he ^ethat saith, and it cometh to pass, when the Lord commandeth it not?

38 Out of the mouth of the most High proceedeth not ^fevil and good?

thrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.

7 Her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire :

8 Their visage is ^{2h} blacker than a coal ; they are not known in the streets : ⁱ their skin cleaveth to their bones ; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

9 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger : for these ³ pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.

10 ^k The hands of the ¹ pitiful women have sodden their own children : they were their ^m meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

11 The LORD hath accomplished his fury ; ⁿ he hath poured out his fierce anger, and ^o hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

12 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem.

13 ¶ ^p For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, ^q that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her,

14 They have wandered as blind men in the streets, ^r they have polluted themselves with blood, ^s so that men could not touch their garments.

15 They cried unto them, Depart ye ; ^t it is ^u unclean ; depart, depart, touch not : when they fled away and wandered, they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.

16 The ^v anger of the LORD hath divided them ; he will no more regard them : ^w they respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.

17 As for us, ^x our eyes as yet failed for our vain help : in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

18 ^y They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets : our end is near, our days are fulfilled ; for ^z our end is come.

19 Our persecutors are ^a swifter than the eagles of the heaven : they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

20 The ^b breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, ^c was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.

21 ¶ ^d Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz ; ^e the cup also shall pass through unto thee : thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

22 ¶ ^f ² The punishment of thine iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion ; he will no more carry thee away into captivity : ^g he will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom ; he will ^h discover thy sins.

CHAPTER V.

A pitiful complaint of Zion in prayer unto God.

^a REMEMBER, O LORD, what is come upon us : consider, and behold ^b our reproach.

2 ^c Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens.

3 We are orphans and fatherless, our mothers are as widows.

4 We have drunken our water for money ; our wood ^d is sold unto us.

5 ^e ^d Our necks are under persecution : we labour, and have no rest.

6 ^f We have given the hand ^e to the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

OF THE

PROPHET EZEKIEL.

CHAPTER I.

⁴ His vision of four cherubims, 15 of the four wheels, 26 and of the glory of God.

NOW it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the ²captives ^aby the river of Chebar, that ^bthe heavens were opened, and I saw ^cvisions of God.

² In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of ^dking Jehoiachin's captivity,

⁵ ^hAlso out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And ⁱthis was their appearance; they had ^kthe likeness of a man.

⁶ And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings.

⁷ And their feet were ^lstraight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled ^mlike the colour of burnished brass.

⁸ ⁿAnd they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.

⁹ ⁿTheir wings were joined one to another; ^othey turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward.

¹¹ Thus were their faces: and their wings were ^ustretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and ^vtwo covered their bodies.

¹² And ^xthey went ~~every~~ ^yone straight forward. ^zone spirit was to go, they went; and ^zthey turned not when they went.

¹³ As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, ^aand like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

¹⁴ And the living creatures ^bran and returned ^cas the appearance of a flash of lightning.

¹⁵ ¶ Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold ^done wheel upon the earth by the living creatures, with his four faces.

¹⁶ ^eThe appearance of the wheels and their work was ^flike unto the colour of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it

17 When they went, they went upon their four sides: and they turned not when they went.

18 As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their ²rings were ^hfull of eyes round about them four.

19 And ⁱwhen the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.

20 ^kWhithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: ^lfor the spirit ³of the living creature was in the wheels.

21 ^mWhen those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit ⁴of the living creature was in the wheels.

22 ⁿAnd the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the ⁵ter ⁶ble crystal, stretched forth over them. — ⁷above.

23 ⁸And ⁹the firmament were their wings ¹⁰straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies.

24 ¹¹And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, ¹²like the noise of great waters, as ¹³the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings.

25 And there was a voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings.

26 ¹⁴¶ ¹⁵And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, ¹⁶as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it.

27 ¹⁷And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about.

28 ¹⁸As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. ¹⁹This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, ²⁰I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious ⁴nation that hath rebelled against me: ⁵they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

4 ⁶For they are ⁷impudent children and stiffhearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God.

5 ⁸And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet ⁹shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

6 ¶ And thou, son of man, ¹⁰be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though ¹¹thorns and briars be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: ¹²be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, ¹³though they be a rebellious house.

CHAPTER III.

1 Ezekiel eateth the roll. 4 God encourageth him. 15 God sheweth him the rule of prophecy. 22 God shutteth and openeth the prophet's mouth.

MOREOVER he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest; ^a eat this roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I ^b eat it; and it was in my mouth ^c as honey for sweetness.

4 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.

5 For thou art not sent to a people ³ of a strange speech and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel;

6 Not to many people ⁴ of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. ⁵ Surely, ^d had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee.

7 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; ^e for they will not hearken unto me: ^f for all the house of Israel are ^g impudent and hardhearted.

8 Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 ² As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: ^h fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

10 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

11 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, ⁱ Thus saith the Lord God; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

14 So ¹ the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went ³ in bitterness, in the ⁴ heat of my spirit; but ^m the hand of the Lord was strong upon me.

15 ¶ Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt by the river of Chebar, and ⁿ I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days.

16 And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, 17 ^o Son of man, I have made thee ^p a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

18 When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man ^q shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

10 And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it.

11 Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou drink.

12 And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight.

13 And the LORD said, Even thus ^dshall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them.

14 Then said I, °Ah Lord God! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of ^fthat which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there ^gabominable flesh into my mouth.

15 Then he said unto me, Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith.

16 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the ^hstaff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall ⁱeat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall ^kdrink water by measure, and with astonishment:

17 That they may want bread and water, and be astonished one with another, and ^lconsume away for their iniquity.

CHAPTER V.

1 Under the type of hair, 5 is shewed the judgment of Jerusalem for their rebellion, 12 by famine, sword, and dispersion.

AND thou, son of man, take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barber's razor, °and cause it to pass upon thine head and upon thy beard: then take thee balances to weigh, and divide the hair.

2 ^bThou shalt burn wit^h fire a third part in the midst of °the city, when ^dthe days of the siege are fulfilled: and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a knife: and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind; and I will draw out a sword after them.

3 °Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and bind them in thy ²skirts.

4 Then take of them again, and ^fcast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; for thereof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.

5 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; This is Jerusalem: I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are round about her.

6 And she hath changed my judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her: for they have refused my judgments and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, ^gneither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you;

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I, even I, am against thee, and will execute judgments in the midst of thee in the sight of the nations.

9 ^hAnd I will do in thee that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all thine abominations.

10 Therefore the fathers ⁱshall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I ^kscatter into all the winds.

11 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God; Surely, because thou hast ^ldefiled my sanctuary with all thy ^mdetestable things, and with all

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Ezekiel, in a vision of God at Jerusalem, 5 is shewed the image of jealousy, 7 the chambers of imagery, 13 the mourners for Tam-muz, 15 the worshippers towards the sun. 18 God's wrath for their idolatry.

AND it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and ^athe elders of Judah sat before me, that ^bthe hand of the Lord God fell there upon me.

2 ^cThen I beheld, and lo a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loins even downward, fire; and from his loins even upward, as the appearance of brightness, ^das the colour of amber.

4 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I ^ksaw in the plain.

5 ¶ Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry.

6 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.

10 So I went in and saw; and behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed upon the wall round about.

11 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up.

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, ¹The LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth.

13 ¶ He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

15 ¶ Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, ^mbetween the porch and the altar, ⁿwere about five and twenty men, ^owith their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped ^pthe sun toward the east.

17 ¶ Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man?

²Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have ^qfilled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

18 ¶ Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine ^reye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and though they ^scry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

7 And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

8 ¶ And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I ^k fell upon my face, and cried, and said, 'Ah Lord God! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem?

9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and ^m the land is ⁿ full of blood, and the city full of ^o perverseness: for they say, ^p The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and ^q the LORD seeth not.

10 And as for me also, mine ^r eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but ^s I will recompense their way upon their head.

11 And, behold, the man clothed with linen, which had the inkhorn by his side, ^t reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me.

CHAPTER X.

1 The vision of the coals of fire, to be scattered over the city. 8 The vision of the cherubims.

THEN I looked, and, behold, in the ^u firmament that was above the head of the cherubims there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.

2 ^v And he spake unto the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill ^w thine hand with ^x coals of fire from between the cherubims, and ^y scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight.

3 Now the cherubims stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court.

4 ^z Then the glory of the LORD ^{aa} went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and ^{ab} the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory.

5 And the ^c sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the outer court, as ^d the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh.

6 And it came to pass, that when he had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubims; then he went in, and stood beside the wheels.

7 And one cherub ^e stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen: who took it, and went out.

8 ¶ And there appeared in the cherubims the form of a man's hand under their wings.

9 ^f And when I looked, behold the four wheels by the cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a ^g beryl stone.

10 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel.

11 ^h When they went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went.

12 And their whole ⁱ body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and ^j the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had.

13 As for the wheels, ^k it was cried unto them in my hearing, O wheel.

14 ^l And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 And the cherubims were lifted

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God; Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God; "I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

23 And ^fthe glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood ^gupon the mountain ^hwhich is on the east side of the city.

24 ¶ Afterwards ⁱthe spirit took me up, and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, 25 Then I spake unto them of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shewed me.

8 Thus saith the Lord God; Woe unto the foolish prophets, that ² follow their own spirit, ³ and have seen nothing!

4 O Israel, thy prophets are ^e like the foxes in the deserts.

5 Ye ^d have not gone up into the ⁴ gaps, neither ⁵ made up the hedge for the house of Israel to stand in the battle in the day of the Lord.

6 ^e They have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, The Lord saith: and the Lord hath not sent them: and they have made others to hope that they would confirm the word.

7 Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The Lord saith it; albeit I have not spoken?

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the Lord God.

9 And mine hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the ⁶ assembly of my people, ^f neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, ^g neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; ^h and ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

10 ¶ Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, ⁱ Peace; and there was no peace; and one built up ⁷ a wall, and, lo, others ^k daubed it with untempered mortar:

11 Say unto them which daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: ¹ there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it.

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it?

18 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones in my fury to consume it.

14 So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: ^m and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER XV.

1 By the unfitness of the vine branch for any work 6 is shewed the rejection of Jerusalem.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, What is the vine tree more than any tree, or than a branch which is among the trees of the forest?

3 Shall wood be taken thereof to do any work? or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon?

4 Behold, ^ait is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire devoureth both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burned. ^bIs it meet for any work?

5 Behold, when it was whole, it was ^cmeet for no work: how much less shall it be meet yet for any work, when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned?

6 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God; As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

7 And ^bI will set my face against them; ^cthey shall go out from one fire, and another fire shall devour them; ^dand ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them.

8 And I will make the land desolate, because they have ^ecommitted a trespass, saith the Lord God.

26 Thou hast also committed fornication with ^athe Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

27 Behold, therefore I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, ^athe ²daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way.

28 ^bThou hast played the whore also with the Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan ^cunto Chaldea; and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How weak is thine heart, saith the Lord God, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an imperious whorish woman;

31 ³In that ^dthou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as an harlot, in that thou scornest hire;

32 But as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh strangers instead of her husband!

34 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms: and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee, therefore thou art contrary.

35 ¶ Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of the Lord:

36 Thus saith the Lord God; Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by ^fthe blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them;

37 Behold, therefore ^gI will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy nakedness unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness.

38 And I will judge thee, ²as ^hwomen that break wedlock and ⁱshed blood are judged; and I will give thee blood in fury and jealousy.

39 And I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down ^kthine eminent place, and shall break down thy high places: ¹they shall strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take ³thy fair jewels, and leave thee naked and bare.

40 ^mThey shall also bring up a company against thee, ⁿand they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords.

41 And they shall ^oburn thine houses with fire, and ^pexecute judgments upon thee in the sight of many women: and I will cause thee to ^qcease from playing the harlot, and thou also shalt give no hire any more.

42 So ^rwill I make my fury toward thee to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.

43 Because ^athou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast fretted me in all these things; behold, therefore ^tI also will recompense thy way upon thine head, saith the Lord God: and thou shalt not commit this lewdness above all thine abominations.

46 And thine elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand: and ^{x2}thy younger sister, that dwelleth at thy right hand, is Sodom and her daughters.

47 Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations: but, ³as if that were a very little thing, ^ythou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways.

48 As I live, saith the Lord God, ^xSodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters.

CHAPTER XVII.

¹ Under the parable of two eagles and a vine,
¹¹ is shewed God's judgment upon Jerusalem for revolting from Babylon to Egypt.
²² God promiseth to plant the cedar of the gospel.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

² Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel;

³ And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; "A great eagle with great wings, longwinged, full of feathers, which had ² divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and ^b took the highest branch of the cedar:

⁴ He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffick; he set it in a city of merchants.

⁵ He took also of the seed of the land, and ³ planted it in ^c a fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it ^d as a willow tree.

⁶ And it grew, and became a spreading vine ^c of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

⁸ It was planted in a good ⁴ soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

¹⁰ Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? ^h shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

¹¹ ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

¹² Say now to ⁱ the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, ^k the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon;

¹³ ¹ And hath taken of the king's seed, and made a covenant with him, ^m and hath ² taken an oath of him: he hath also taken the mighty of the land:

¹⁴ That the kingdom might be ⁿ base, that it might not lift itself up, ³ but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand.

¹⁶ As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely ^r in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die.

¹⁷ Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company make for him in the war, ^t by casting up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many persons:

¹⁸ Seeing he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when, lo, he had ^u given his hand, and hath done all these things, he shall not escape.

¹⁹ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head.

²⁰ And I will ^x spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 God reproveth the unjust parable of sour grapes. 5 He sheweth how he dealeth with a just father: 10 with a wicked son of a just father: 14 with a just son of a wicked father: 19 with a wicked man repenting: 24 with a just man revolting. 25 He defendeth his justice, 31 and exhorteth to repentance.

Rom. 6. 23.

5 ¶ But if a man be just, and do ² that which is lawful and right,

6 ^c And hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither hath ^d defiled his neighbour's wife, neither hath come near to ^e a menstruous woman,

7 And hath not ^f oppressed any, but hath restored to the debtor his ^g pledge, hath spoiled none by violence, hath ^h given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment;

8 He that hath not given forth upon ⁱ usury, neither hath taken any increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, ^k hath executed true judgment between man and man,

9 Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgments, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely ^l live, saith the Lord God.

10 ¶ If he beget a son that is a ^m robber, ⁿ a shedder of blood, and ^o that doeth the like to any one of these things,

11 And that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbour's wife,

12 Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, hath ^p committed abomination,

13 Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; ^q his ^r blood shall be upon him.

14 ¶ Now, lo, if he beget a son, that seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and considereth, and doeth not such like,

15 ^s That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbour's wife,)

16 Neither hath oppressed any, ^t hath not withholden the pledge,

17 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my judgments, hath walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.

18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even ^ahe shall die in his iniquity.

19 ¶ Yet say ye, Why? ^rdoth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.

20 ^sThe soul that sinneth, it shall die. ^tThe son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: ^uthe righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, ^vand the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

21 But ^yif the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

23 ^aHave I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God: and not that he should return from his ways, and live?

24 ¶ But ^bwhen the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? ^cAll his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned:

in his trespass that he hath transgressed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

25 ¶ Yet ye say, ^dThe way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel; Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal?

26 ^eWhen a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die.

27 Again, ^fwhen the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive.

28 Because he ^gconsidereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

31 ¶ ^lCast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a ^mnew heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

Egypt: then I said, I will ⁿpour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

9 ^o But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10 ^p Wherefore I ^pcaused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness.

11 ^q And I gave them my statutes, and ^rshewed them my judgments, ^rwhich if a man do, he shall even live in them.

12 Moreover also I gave them my ^ssabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctify them.

13 But the house of Israel ^trebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they ^udespised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly ^xpolluted: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them in the ^ywilderness, to consume them.

14 ^z But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.

15 Yet also ^aI lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, ^bwhich is the glory of all lands;

16 ^c Because they despised my judgments, and walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: for ^dtheir heart went after their idols.

17 ^e Nevertheless mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness.

18 But I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols:

19 I am the LORD your God; ^fwalk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them;

20 ^g And hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the LORD your God.

21 Notwithstanding ^hthe children rebelled against me: they walked not in my statutes, neither kept my judgments to do them, ⁱwhich if a man do, he shall even live in them; they polluted my sabbaths: then I said, ^kI would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness.

22 ^l Nevertheless I withdrew mine hand, and ^mwrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth.

23 I lifted up mine hand unto them also in the wilderness, that ⁿI would scatter them among the heathen, and disperse them through the countries;

24 ^o Because they had not executed my judgments, but had despised my statutes, and had polluted my sabbaths, and ^ptheir eyes were after their fathers' idols.

25 Wherefore ^qI gave them also statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live;

26 And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass ^rthrough the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they ^smight know that I am the LORD.

27 ^t Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Yet in this your fathers have ^ublasphemed me, in that they have ^vcommitted a trespass against me.

⁸ ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

⁹ Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD; Say, ^hA sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furbished:

¹⁰ It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter; it is furbished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth? ³it contemneth the rod of my son, as every tree.

¹¹ And he hath given it to be furbished, that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, and it is furbished, to give it into the hand of ⁱthe slayer.

¹⁵ I have set the ⁷point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied: ah! ^p*it is* made bright, it is ⁸wrapped up for the slaughter.

¹⁶ Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, ⁹*or* on the left, whithersoever thy face is set.

¹⁷ I will also ^rsmite mine hands together, and ¹I will cause my fury to rest: I the LORD have said it.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 The whoredoms of Aholah and Aholibah. 22
Aholibah is to be plagued by her lovers. 36
The prophet reproveth the adulteries of them both, 45 and sheweth their judgments.

593.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, there were ^atwo women, the daughters of one mother:

3 And ^bthey committed whoredoms in Egypt; they committed whoredoms in ^ctheir youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

4 And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister: and ^dthey were mine, and they bare sons and daughters. Thus were their names; Samaria is ^eAholah, and Jerusalem ^fAholibah.

5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on ^gthe Assyrians her neighbours,

6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

7 Thus she ^hcommitted her whoredoms with them, with all them that were ⁱthe chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled herself.

8 Neither left she her whoredoms brought ^jfrom Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.

9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the ^kAssyrians, upon whom she doted.

10 These ^ldiscovered her nakedness: they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became ^mfamous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her.

11 And ⁿwhen her sister Aholibah saw this, ^o³she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms ^pmore than her sister in her whoredoms.

12 She doted upon the ^qAssyrians her neighbours, ^rcaptains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way,

14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with vermilion,

15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:

16 ^sAnd ^tas soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea.

17 And the ^uBabylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and ^vher mind was ^walienated from them.

18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then ^xmy mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister.

19 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance

CHAPTER XXIV.

¹ Under the parable of a boiling pot, ⁶ is shewed the irrevocable destruction of Jerusalem.

¹⁵ By the sign of Ezekiel not mourning for the death of his wife, ¹⁹ is shewed the calamity of the Jews to be beyond all sorrow.

AGAIN in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, ² Son of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem ^athis same day.

³ ^bAnd utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; ^cSet on a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it:

⁴ Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.

⁵ Take the choice of the flock, and ²burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them seethe the bones of it therein.

⁷ For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock; ^fshe poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust;

⁸ That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; ^gI have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.

⁹ Therefore thus saith the Lord God; ^hWoe to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great.

¹⁰ Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burned.

¹¹ Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that the brass of it may be hot, and may burn, and that ⁱthe filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed.

12 She hath wearied herself with lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire.

18 In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, ^ktill I have caused my fury to rest upon thee.

14 ^lI the LORD have spoken it: it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, ^mneither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ Also the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

16 Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears ²run down.

17 ³Forbear to cry, ⁿmake no mourning for the dead, ^obind the tire of thine head upon thee, and ^pput on thy shoes upon thy feet, and ^qcover not thy ⁴lips, and eat not the bread of men.

18 So I spake unto the people in the morning: and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded.

19 ¶ And the people said unto me, ^rWilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so?

20 Then I answered them, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 21 Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, ^sI will profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, ^tthe desire of your eyes, and ^uthat which your soul pitieth; ^vand your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword.

22 And ye shall do as I have done: ^xye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.

23 And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ^yye shall not mourn nor weep; but ^zye shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one toward another.

24 Thus ^aEzekiel is unto you a sign: according to all that he hath done shall ye do: ^band when this cometh, ^cye shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Also, thou son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them ^dtheir strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and ²that whereupon they set their minds, their sons and their daughters, 26 That ^ehe that escapeth in that day shall come unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with thine ears?

27 ^fIn that day shall thy mouth be opened to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb: and ^gthou shalt be a sign unto them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER XXV.

¹ God's vengeance, for their insolency against the Jews, upon the Ammonites; ⁸ upon Moab and Seir; ¹² upon Edom, ¹⁵ and upon the Philistines.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ^aset thy face ^bagainst the Ammonites, and prophesy against them;

3 And say unto the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God; ^cBecause thou saidst, Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity;

4 Behold, therefore I will deliver thee to the ³men of the east for a possession, and they shall set their palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shall eat thy fruit, and they shall drink thy milk.

5 And I will make ^dRabbah ^ea stable for camels, and the Ammonites a couchingplace for flocks:

14 Thou art the anointed ^acherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon ^othe holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

15 Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, ^pO covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

17 ^qThine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.

18 Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffick; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee.

19 All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: ^rthou shalt be ^sa terror, and never shalt thou be any more.

20 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, ^tset thy face ^uagainst Zidon, and prophesy against it,

22 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; ^vBehold, I am against thee, O Zidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of thee: and ^xthey shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be ^ysanctified in her.

23 ^zFor I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall be judged in the midst of her by the sword upon her on every side; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

24 ¶ And there shall be no more ^aa pricking brier unto the house of Israel, nor any grieving thorn of all that are round about them, that despised them; and they shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Thus saith the Lord God; When I shall have ^bgathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be ^csanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to my servant Jacob.

26 And they shall ^ddwell ^esafely therein, and shall ^fbuild houses, and ^gplant vineyards; yea, they shall dwell with confidence, when I have executed judgments upon all those that ^hdespise them round about them; and they shall know that I am the LORD their God.

2 Son of man, ^aset thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and ^bagainst all Egypt:

3 Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord God; ^cBehold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great ^ddragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, ^ewhich hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

4 But ^fI will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales, and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

14 And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their ⁿhabitation; and they shall be there a ^obase kingdom.

15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.

16 And it shall be no more ^pthe confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord God.

17 ¶ And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, ^qNebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it:

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and ^rtake her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.

20 I have given him the land of Egypt ^sfor his labour wherewith he ^tserved against it, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 A relation unto Pharaoh, 3 of the glory of Assyria, 10 and the fall thereof for pride. 18 The like destruction of Egypt.

AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude; ^a Whom art thou like in thy greatness?

3 ^b Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon ² with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 ^c The waters ³ made him great, the deep ⁴ set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her ⁵ little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore ^d his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long because of the multitude of waters, ^e when he shot forth.

6 All the ^f fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the ^g garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chesnut trees were not like his branches; nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

10 ^h Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and ⁱ his heart is lifted up in his height;

11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; ² he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness.

12 And strangers, ^h the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: ⁱ upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

13 ^k Upon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches:

14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees ³ stand up in their height, all that drink water: for ¹ they are all delivered unto death, ^m to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord God; In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused Lebanon ⁴ to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 I made the nations to ² shake at the sound of his fall, when I ^e cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and ^p all the trees of Eden, the choice and 9 I will also ⁵vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.

10 Yea, I will make many people ^kamazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and ^lthey shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

11 ¶ ^mFor thus saith the Lord God; The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee.

12 By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, ⁿthe terrible of the nations, all of them: and ^othey shall spoil the pomp of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.

13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters; ^pneither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

14 Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord God.

28 Yea, thou shalt be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain with the sword.

29 There is ⁱEdom, her kings, and all her princes, which with their might are ³laid by them that were slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with them that go down to the pit.

30 ^kThere be the princes of the north, all of them, and all the ¹Zidonians, which are gone down with the slain; with their terror they are ashamed of their might; and they lie uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword, and bear their shame with them that go down to the pit.

31 Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be ^mcomforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army slain by the sword, saith the Lord God.

32 For I have caused my terror in the land of the living: and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that are slain with the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

¹ According to the duty of a watchman, in warning the people, 7 Ezekiel is admonished of his duty. 10 God sheweth the justice of his ways towards the penitent, and towards revolters. 17 He maintaineth his justice. 21 Upon the news of the taking of Jerusalem he prophesieth the desolation of the land. 30 God's judgment upon the mockers of the prophets.

upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their ^cwatchman:

3 If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people;

4 Then ²whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, ^dhis blood shall be upon his own head.

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, ^ehe is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

7 ¶ ^fSo thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.

8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we ^gpine away in them, ^hhow should we then live?

11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, ⁱI have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for ^kwhy will ye die, O house of Israel?

12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The ¹righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, ^mhe shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; ⁿif he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

14 Again, ^owhen I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do ²that which is lawful and right;

15 If the wicked ^prestore the pledge, ^qgive again that he had robbed, walk in ^rthe statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.

16 ^uNone of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

17 ¶ ^vYet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal.

18 ^wWhen the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.

19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.

20 ¶ Yet ye say, ^xThe way of the Lord is not equal. O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways.

21 ¶ And it came to pass in the twelfth year ^yof our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, ^zthat one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, ^aThe city is smitten.

of Israel.*

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ^a set thy face against ^b mount Seir, and ^c prophesy against it,

3 And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, O mount Seir,
I am against thee, and ^d I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee ^e most desolate.

4 ^f I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

5 ^g Because thou hast had a ^h perpetual hatred, and hast ⁱ shed the blood of the children of Israel by the ^j force of the sword in the time of their calamity, ^k in the time that their iniquity had an end:

6 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee:
^l sith thou hast not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee.

7 Thus will I make mount Seir
^m most desolate, and cut off from it ⁿ him that passeth out and him that returneth.

8 ^o And I will fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword.

9 ^p I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return: ^q and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

10 Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will ^r possess it; ^s whereas ^t the LORD was there:

11 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, I will even do ^u according to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I have judged thee.

12 ^v And thou shalt know that I am the LORD, and that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us ^w to consume.

13 Thus ^x with your mouth ye have ^y boasted against me, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard them.

14 Thus saith the Lord God;
^z When the whole earth rejoiceth,
I will make thee desolate.

15 ^a As thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: ^b thou shalt be desoeven all of it: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

cause ^b the enemy hath said against you, Aha, ^c even the ancient high places ^d are our's in possession:

8 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God; ^e Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, ^o and ³ ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people:

4 Therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains, and to the hills, to the ⁴ rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which ^f became a prey and ^g derision to the residue of the heathen that are round about;

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; I have ^l lifted up mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame.

8 ¶ But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel; for they are at hand to come.

9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown:

10 And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and ^m the wastes shall be builded:

11 And ⁿ I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit: and I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings: ^o and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; ^p and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth ^q bereave them of men.

13 Thus saith the Lord God; Because they say unto you, ^r Thou land devourest up men, and hast bereaved thy nations;

15 ^t Neither will I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord God.

16 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, ^u they defiled it by their own way and by their doings: their way was before me as ^v the uncleanness of a removed woman.

18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them ^x for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols wherewith they had polluted it:

19 And I ^y scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: ^z according to their way and according to their doings I judged them.

20 And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they ^a profaned my holy name, when they said to them, These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord God, ^cthou knowest.

4 Again he said unto me, Prophecy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.

5 Thus saith the Lord God unto these bones; Behold, I will ^dcause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live:

6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; ^eand ye shall know that I am the LORD.

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.

9 Then said he unto me, Prophecy unto the ²wind, prophecy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord God; ^fCome from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, ^gand the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

11 ¶ Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, ^hOur bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.

CHAPTER XL.

1 The time, manner, and end of the vision.
6 The description of the east gate, 20 of the north gate, 24 of the south gate, 32 of the east gate, 35 and of the north gate. 39 Eight tables. 44 The chambers. 48 The porch of the house.

IN the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that ^a the city was smitten, in the selfsame day ^b the hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me thither.

2 ^o In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, ^d and set me upon a very high mountain, ³ by which was as the frame of a city on the south.

3 And he brought me thither, and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was ^e like the appearance of brass, ^f with a line of flax in his hand, ^g and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate.

4 And the man said unto me, ^h Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither: ⁱ declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

5 And behold ^k a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and an hand breadth: so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.

6 [¶] Then came he unto the gate ² which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

7 And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

12 The ³ space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side: and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door.

14 He made also posts of three-score cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate.

15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate were fifty cubits.

16 And there were ¹⁴ narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the ⁵ arches: and windows were round about ⁶ inward: and upon each post were palm trees.

18 And the pavement by the side of the gates over against the length of the gates was the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court ²without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 ¶ And the gate of the outward court ³that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

21 And the little chambers thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the ⁴arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

22 And their windows, and their arches, and their palm trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them.

23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits.

24 ¶ After that he brought me toward the south, and behold a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures.

25 And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.

29 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

30 And the arches round about were ^pfive and twenty cubits long, and five cubits ²broad.

31 And the arches thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps.

32 ¶ And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

35 ¶ And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures;

36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

38 And the chambers and the entries thereof were by the posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt offering.

39 ¶ And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt offering and ^athe sin offering and ^rthe trespass offering.

40 And at the side without, ²as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt offering, of a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt offering and the sacrifice.

43 And within were ³hooks, an hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 ¶ And without the inner gate were the chambers of ^athe singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south: one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north.

45 And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, ^tthe keepers of the ⁴charge of the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, ^uthe keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of ^xZadok among the sons of Levi, which come near to the LORD to minister unto him.

47 So he measured the court, an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar that was before the house.

48 ¶ And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.

49 ^yThe length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were ^zpillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

CHAPTER XLI.

The measures, parts, chambers, and ornaments of the temple.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the ²door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits: and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door, two cubits; and the door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits.

4 So ^ahe measured the length thereof, twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side.

6 ^bAnd the side chambers were three, ³one over another, and ⁴thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side chambers round about, that they might ^ahave hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7 And ^bthere was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

8 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side chambers were ^da full reed of six great cubits.

9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side chamber without, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side chambers that were within.

10 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

19 ^kSo that the face of a man was toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side: it was made through all the house round about.

20 From the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

21 The ^lposts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

22 ^mThe altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is ⁿthe table that is ^obefore the LORD.

23 ^pAnd the temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

24 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubims and palm trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without.

¹ The chambers for the priests. ¹³ The use thereof. ¹⁹ The measures of the outward court.

THEN he brought me forth into the utter court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into ^a the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.

² Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits.

⁴ And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors toward the north.

⁵ Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries ² were higher than these, ³ than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.

⁶ For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

⁷ And the wall that was without over against the chambers, toward the utter court on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

⁸ For the length of the chambers that were in the utter court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits.

⁹ And ⁴ from under these chambers was ⁵ the entry on the east side, ⁶ as one goeth into them from the utter court.

¹⁰ The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

¹¹ And ⁷ the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

¹² And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

¹³ ¶ Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the LORD ^a shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and ⁷ the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy.

¹⁴ ¶ When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the utter court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

¹⁵ Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about.

¹⁶ He measured the east ² side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

¹⁷ He measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

¹⁸ He measured the south side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed.

¹⁹ ¶ He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.

²⁰ He measured it by the four sides: ³ it had a wall round about, ^b five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

1 The returning of the glory of God into the temple. 7 The sin of Israel hindered God's presence. 10 The prophet exhorteth them to repentance, and observation of the law of the house. 13 The measures, 18 and the ordinances of the altar.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the gate, even the gate ^athat looketh toward the east:

2 ^bAnd, behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and ^chis voice was like a noise of many waters: ^dand the earth shined with his glory.

8 And it was ^eaccording to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw ^fwhen I came ^gto destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw ^hby the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face.

4 ⁱAnd the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east.

5 ^jSo the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, ^kthe glory of the LORD filled the house.

6 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house; and ^lthe man stood by me.

7 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, ^mthe place of my throne, and ⁿthe place of the soles of my feet, ^owhere I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel ^pno more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by ^qthe carcasses of their kings in their high places.

8 ^rIn their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, ^sand the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

9 Now let them put away their whoredom, and ^tthe carcasses of their kings, far from me, ^uand I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

10 ¶ Thou son of man, ^vshew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the ^wpattern.

11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

12 This is the law of the house; Upon ^xthe top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

13 ¶ And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits: ^yThe cubit is a cubit and an hand breadth; even the ^zbottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the ^{aa}edge thereof round about shall be a span: and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

15 So ^{ab}the altar shall be four cubits; and from ^{ac}the altar and upward shall be four horns.

16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and ^{ad}his stairs shall look toward the east.

18 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord God; These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to ^asprinkle blood thereon.

19 And thou shalt give to ^bthe priests the Levites that be of the seed of Zadok, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord God, ^ca young bullock for a sin offering.

20 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it.

21 Thou shalt take the bullock also of the sin offering, and he ^dshall burn it in the appointed place of the house, ^ewithout the sanctuary.

22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.

23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.

24 And thou shalt offer them before the LORD, ^fand the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering unto the LORD.

25 ^gSeven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin offering: they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.

26 Seven days shall they purge the altar and purify it; and they shall ^hconsecrate themselves.

27 ⁱAnd when these days are expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings upon the altar, and your ^jpeace offerings; and I will ^kaccept you, saith the Lord God.

2 Then said the LORD unto me; This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; ^bbecause the LORD, the God of Israel, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and ⁶ caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I ⁷ lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord God, and they shall bear their iniquity.

CHAPTER XLV.

1 The portion of land for the sanctuary, 6 for the city, 7 and for the prince. 9 Ordinances for the prince.

MOREOVER, ⁴ when ye shall ^a divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall ^b offer an oblation unto the LORD, ⁵ an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

2 Of this there shall be for the sanctuary ^c five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the ⁶ suburbs thereof.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: ^d and in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place.

4 ^e The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the LORD:

and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary.

5 ^f And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for ^g twenty chambers.

6 ^h And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

7 ⁱ And a portion shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward: and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border.

8 In the land shall be his possession in Israel: and ^k my princes shall no more oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

9 ^l Thus saith the Lord God; ¹ Let it suffice you, O princes of Israel: ^m remove violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away your ² exactions from my people, saith the Lord God.

10 Ye shall have just ⁿ balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.

11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of an homer, and the ephah the tenth part of an homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer.

12 And the ^o shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your maneh.

13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer; the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of wheat, and

20 And so thou shalt do the seventh day of the month ^a for every one that erreth, and for him that is simple : so shall ye reconcile the house.

21 ^t In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the passover, a feast of seven days ; unleavened bread shall be eaten.

22 And upon that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land ^u a bullock for a sin offering.

23 And ^x seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days ; ^v and a kid of the goats daily for a sin offering.

24 ^z And he shall prepare a meat offering of an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and an hin of oil for an ephah.

25 In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, shall he do the like in the ^a feast of the seven days, according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meat offering, and according to the oil.

CHAPTER XLVII.

1 The vision of the holy waters. 6 The virtue of them. 13 The borders of the land. 22 The division of it by lot.

AFTERWARD he brought me again unto the door of the house ; and, behold, ° waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward : for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar.

2 Then brought he me out of the way of the gate northward, and led me about the way without unto the utter gate by the way that looketh eastward ; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

3 And when ° the man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters ; the ° waters were to the ancles.

4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters ; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through ; the waters were to the loins.

5 Afterward he measured a thousand ; and it was a river that I could not pass over : for the waters were risen, ° waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

6 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this ? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river.

7 Now when I had returned, behold, at the ° bank of the river were very many ° trees on the one side and on the other.

every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the ° rivers shall come, shall live : and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither : for they shall be healed ; and every thing shall live whither the river cometh.

10 And it shall come to pass, that the fishers shall stand upon it from En-gedi even unto En-eglaim ; they shall be a place to spread forth nets ; their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish ° of the great sea, exceeding many.

11 But the miry places thereof and the marishes thereof ° shall not be healed ; they shall be given to salt.

12 And ° by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, ° shall grow all trees for meat, ° whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed : it shall bring forth ° new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary : and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof ° for ° medicine.

CHAPTER I.

⁸ They refusing the king's portion do prosper with pulse and water. ¹⁷ Their excellency in wisdom.

IN the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah^a came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it.

² And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with ^b part of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried ^c into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; ^d and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

³ ¶ And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring ^e certain of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes;

⁶ Now among these were of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah:

⁷ ^h Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: ⁱ for he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishaël, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego.

⁸ ¶ But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself ^j with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

⁹ Now ^k God had brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

¹⁰ And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces ^l worse liking than the children which are of your ^m sort? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king.

¹¹ Then said Daniel to ⁿ Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah, ¹² Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us ^o pulse ^p to eat, and water to drink.

¹³ Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

¹⁴ So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

¹⁵ And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the 16 Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse.

17 ¶ As for these four children, ^m God gave them ⁿ knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and ² Daniel had ^o understanding in all visions and dreams.

18 Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

19 And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishaël, and Azariah: therefore ^p stood they before the king.

20 ^q And in all matters of ^r wisdom and understanding, that the king enquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

21 ^r And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus.

CHAPTER II.

1 Nebuchadnezzar, forgetting his dream, requireth it of the Chaldeans, by promises and threatenings. 10 They acknowledging their inability are judged to die. 14 Daniel obtaining some respite findeth the dream. 19 He blesseth God. 24 He staying the decree is brought to the king. 31 The dream. 36 The interpretation. 46 Daniel's advancement.

AND in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, ^a wherewith his spirit was troubled, and ^b his sleep brake from him.

2 ^c Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack, ^d O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be ^e cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.

6 ^f But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and ^g rewards and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would ^h gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, ⁱ there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

10 ¶ The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore ^j there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

11 And ^k it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, ^l except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

14 ¶ Then Daniel ^aanswered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the ^bcaptain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon:

15 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions:

18 ¹That they would desire mercies ⁵of the God of heaven concerning this secret; ⁶that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 ¶ Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel ^kin a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

20 Daniel answered and said, ¹Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: ^mfor wisdom and might are his:

21 And he changeth ⁿthe times and the seasons: ^ohe removeth kings, and setteth up kings: ^phe giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding:

22 ^qHe revealeth the deep and secret things: ^rhe knoweth what is in the darkness, and ^sthe light dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we ^tdesired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.

24 ¶ Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, ²I have found a man of the ³captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation.

26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?

27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded ~~can~~ not the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king;

28 ^uBut there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and ^vmaketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar ^wwhat shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these;

29 As for thee, O king, thy thoughts ⁵came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: ⁷and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass.

30 ^xBut as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, ⁶but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, ^aand that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

31 ¶ Thou, O king, ⁷sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible.

32 ^bThis image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his ⁸thighs of brass, were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces.

85 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became ^dlike the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that ^eno place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image ^fbecame a great mountain, ^gand filled the whole earth.

86 ¶ This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

87 ^hThou, O king, art a king of kings: ⁱfor the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

88 ^kAnd wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. ^lThou art this head of gold.

89 And after thee shall arise ^manother kingdom ⁿinferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 And ^othe fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

41 And whereas thou sawest ^pthe feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly ^qbroken.

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave ^rone to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

44 And in ^sthe days of these kings

^ashall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, ^bwhich shall never be destroyed: and the ^ckingdom shall not be left to other people, ^dbut it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

45 ^eForasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain ^fwithout hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass ^ghereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

46 ¶ ^hThen the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation ⁱand sweet odours unto him.

47 The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, ^jand a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

48 Then the king made Daniel a great man, ^kand gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and ^lchief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel requested of the king, ^mand he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel ⁿsat in the gate of the king.

2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

3 Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

4 Then an herald cried ²aloud, ^{}To you ³it is commanded, ^{}O people, nations, and languages,

5 That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, ⁴⁵dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up:

6 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour ^bbe cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

7 Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

8 ¶ Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans ^ccame near, and accused the Jews.

9 They spake and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, ^dO king, live for ever.

10 Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, shall fall down and worship the golden image:

11 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

12 ^eThere are certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, ²have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

13 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king.

14 Nebuchadnezzar spake and said unto them, Is it ³true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?

15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; ^f*well*: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; ^gand who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, ^h*we are* not careful to answer thee in this matter.

17 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king.

18 But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

19 ¶ Then was Nebuchadnezzar ⁱfull of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

21 Then these men were bound in their ^acoats, their hosen, and their ^bhats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

22 Therefore because the king's ^ccommandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the ^dflame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego.

23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his ^ecounsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.

25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, ^fwalking in the midst of the fire, and ^gthey have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like ^hthe Son of God.

27 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, ^jupon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them.

28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that ^ktrusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God.

30 Then the king ^fpromoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon.

before me, ^h whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, ⁱ and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and before him I told the dream, saying,

9 O Belteshazzar, ^k master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed; ^a I saw, and behold ⁱ a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great.

11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth:

12 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: ^m the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, ⁿ a watcher and ^o an holy one came down from heaven;

14 He cried ^p aloud, and said thus, ^r Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: ^q let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches:

15 Nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth:

16 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let seven ^s times pass over him.

17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent ^t that the living may know ^u that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.

18 This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, ^v forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; ^w for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 ¶ Then Daniel, ^x whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonished for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, ^y the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 ^z The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth;

21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

22 ^{aa} It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, ^{ab} and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

23 ^{ac} And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, ^{ad} and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him;

24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the most High, which is come upon my lord the king:

28 ¶ All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

29 At the end of twelve months he walked ^{ab}in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon.

30 The king ^{ac}spake, and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

32 And ^{af}they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 And ^{ag}at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honoured him ^{ah}that liveth for ever, whose dominion is ^{ai}an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation:

35 And ^{aj}all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and ^{ak}he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and ^{al}none can stay his hand, or say unto him, ^{am}What doest thou?

36 At the same time my reason returned unto me; ^{an}and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was ^{ao}added unto me.

37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, ^{ap}all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: ^{aq}and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

IT pleased Darius to set ¹ over the kingdom an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom ;

2 And over these three presidents ; of whom Daniel was first : that the princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage.

3 Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, ² because an excellent spirit was in him ; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

4 ¶ Then the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom ; but they could find none occasion nor fault ; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him.

5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God.

6 Then these presidents and princes ³ assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, ⁴ King Darius, live for ever.

7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm ⁵ decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions.

8 Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the ⁶ law of the Medes and Persians, which ⁷ altereth not.

9 Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree.

10 ¶ Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber ^t toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees ^s three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime.

11 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

12 ^h Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any God or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, ⁱ according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

13 Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, ^k which is of the children of the captivity of Judah, ^l regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day.

14 Then the king, when he heard these words, ^m was sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that ⁿ the law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

17 ^o And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; ^p and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

18 ¶ Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were ² instruments of musick brought before him: ^q and his sleep went from him.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, ^r is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

21 Then said Daniel unto the king, ^s O king, live for ever.

22 ^t My God hath sent his angel, and hath ^u shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, ^x because he believed in his God.

24 ¶ And the king commanded, ^y and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, ^z their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

25 ¶ ^a Then king Darius wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

26 ^b I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men ^c tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: ^d for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be ^e destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.

27 He delivereth and rescueth, ^f and he worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the ³ power of the lions.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Daniel's vision of four beasts. 9 Of God's kingdom. 15 The interpretation thereof.

IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon ^a Daniel ² had a dream and ^b visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the ³ matters.

2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea.

3 And four great beasts ^c came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

4 The first was ^d like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, ^e and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

5 ^e And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and ^f it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

6 After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also ^f four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold ^g a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; ^h and it had ten horns.

8 I considered the horns, and, behold, ⁱ there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes ^k of man, ^l and a mouth speaking great things.

9 ¶ ^m I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and ⁿ the Ancient of days did sit, ^o whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, ^p and his wheels as burning fire.

10 ^q A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: ^r thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: ^s the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

11 I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: ^t I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet ^u their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, ^v one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to ^x the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

14 ^y And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all ^z people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is ^a an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 ¶ I Daniel ^b was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my ³ body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 ^c These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 But ^d the saints of the ⁴ most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the truth of ^a the fourth beast, which was diverse ^b from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet;

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, ^c and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

22 ^d Until the Ancient of days came, ^e and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be ^f the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 ^g And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

25 ^h And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall ⁱ wear out the saints of the most High, and ^j think to change times and laws: and ^k they shall be given into his hand ^l until a time of times and the dividing of times.

26 ^m But the judgment and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and it unto the end.

IN the first year ^aof Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, ^bwhich was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans;

2 In the first year of his reign I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to ^bJeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

3 ¶ ^cAnd I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes:

4 And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said, O ^dLord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;

5 ^eWe have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments:

6 ^fNeither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, ^grighteousness ^h*belongeth* unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, to us belongeth ⁱconfusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 ^jTo the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him;

10 ^kNeither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, ^lall Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the ^mlaw of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he hath ⁿconfirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: ^ofor under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

13 ^pAs it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: ^qyet ^rmade we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the LORD ^swatched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for ^tthe LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: ^ufor we obeyed not his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, ^vthat hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast ^wgotten thee ^xrenown, as at this day; ^ywe have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 ¶ O Lord, ^zaccording to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, ^athy holy mountain: because for our sins, ^band for the iniquities of our fathers, ^cJerusalem and thy people ^d*are become* a reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, ^eand cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary ^fthat is desolate, ^gfor the Lord's sake.

18 ^hO my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, ⁱand behold our desolations, and the city ^jwhich is called by thy name: for we do not ^kpresent our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies.

22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth ⁷to give thee skill and understanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications the ⁸commandment came forth, and ⁹I am come to shew thee; ¹⁰° for thou art ¹¹° greatly beloved: therefore ¹²° understand the matter, and consider the vision.

24 * Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, ¹³° to finish the transgression, and ¹⁴° to make an end of sins, ¹⁵° and to make reconciliation for iniquity, ¹⁶° and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and ¹⁷° prophecy, ¹⁸° and to anoint the most Holy.

25 ¹⁹° Know therefore and understand, that ²⁰° from the going forth of the commandment ²¹° to restore and to build Jerusalem unto ²²° the Messiah ²³° the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street ²⁴° shall be built again, and the ²⁵° wall, ²⁶° even ²⁷° in troublous times.

26 And after threescore and two weeks ²⁸° shall Messiah be cut off, ²⁹° but not for himself: ³⁰° and ³¹° the people of the prince that shall come ³²° shall destroy the city ³³° and the sanctuary; ³⁴° and the end thereof shall be ³⁵° with a flood, and unto the end of the war ³⁶° desolations are determined.

27 And he shall confirm ³⁷° the covenant with ³⁸° many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, ³⁹° and for the overspreading of ⁴⁰° abominations he shall make it desolate, ⁴¹° even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured ⁴²° upon the desolate.

CHAPTER X.

10 Being troubled with fear he is comforted by the angel.

IN the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, ¹° whose name was called Belteshazzar; ²° and the thing was true, ³° but the time appointed was ⁴° long: and ⁵° he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Daniel was mourning three ⁶° full weeks.

3 I ate no ⁷° pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, ⁸° neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is ⁹° Hiddekel;

5 Then ¹⁰° I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and ¹¹° behold ¹²° a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were ¹³° girded with ¹⁴° fine gold of Uphaz:

6 His body also was ¹⁵° like the beryl, and his face ¹⁶° as the appearance of lightning, ¹⁷° and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms ¹⁸° and his feet like in colour to polished brass, ¹⁹° and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel ²⁰° alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 ¶ And, behold, an hand touched me, which ³set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.

11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, ^xa man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and ⁵stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, ^yFear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, ^zthy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, ^bMichael, ⁶one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people ^oin the latter days: ^dfor yet the vision is for many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, ^oI set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

16 And, behold, ^fone like the similitude of the sons of men ^stouched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision ^hmy sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For how can ⁱthe servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight ^lwith the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come.

2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia.

3 And ^ca mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and ^ddo according to his will.

4 And when he shall stand up, ^ehis kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, ^fnor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside those.

19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, ¹⁰and not be found.

20 Then shall stand up ³in his estate ⁴a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in ⁵anger, nor in battle.

¹ Hosea, to shew God's judgment for spiritual whoredom, taketh Gomer, 4 and hath by her Jezreel, 6 Lo-ruhamah, 8 and Lo-ammi. 10 The restoration of Judah and Israel.

THE word of the LORD that came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

² The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, ^aGo, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms: for ^bthe land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD.

⁸ So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son.

⁴ And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, ^cand I will ²avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, ^dand will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.

⁵ ^eAnd it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.

⁶ ¶ And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name ³Lo-ruhamah: ^ffor ⁴I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; ⁵but I will utterly take them away.

⁷ ^gBut I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and ^hwill not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

⁸ ¶ Now when she had weaned

Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son.

⁹ Then said God, Call his name ²Lo-ammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

¹⁰ ¶ Yet ⁱthe number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; ^kand it shall come to pass, that ³in the place where it was said unto them, ¹Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are ^mthe sons of the living God.

¹¹ ¶ Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

SAY ye unto your brethren, ⁴Am-mi; and to your sisters, ⁵Ruhamah.

² Plead with your mother, plead: for ^ashe is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her ^bwhoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

³ Lest ^cI strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was ^dborn, and make her ^eas a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with ^fthirst.

⁴ And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the ^gchildren of whoredoms.

⁵ ^hFor their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said,

CHAPTER IV.

1 God's judgments against the sins of the people, 6 and of the priests, 12 and against their idolatry. 15 Judah is exhorted to take warning by Israel's calamity.

HEAR the word of the LORD, Ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath a ^acontroversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor ^bknowledge of God in the land.

2 By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and ^cblood toucheth blood.

3 Therefore ^dshall the land mourn, and ^eevery one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

4 Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for thy people are as they ^fthat strive with the priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall ^gin the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will ^hdestroy thy mother.

6 ¶ ⁱMy people are ^jdestroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

7 ^kAs they were increased, so they sinned against me: ^l*therefore* will I change their glory into shame.

8 They eat up the sin of my people, and they ^mset their heart on their iniquity.

9 And there shall be, ⁿlike people, like priest: and I will ^opunish them for their ways, and ^preward them their doings.

10 For ^qthey shall eat, and not have enough: they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.

11 Whoredom and wine and new wine ^rtake away the heart.

12 ¶ My people ask counsel at their ^sstocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for ^tthe spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

13 ^uThey sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: ^vtherefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14 ^wI will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that ^xdoth not understand shall ^yfall.

15 ¶ Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend; ^zand come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to ^{aa}Beth-aven, ^{ab}nor swear, The LORD liveth.

16 For Israel ^{ac}slideth back as a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place.

17 Ephraim is joined to idols: ^{ad}let him alone.

18 Their drink ^{ae}is sour: they have committed whoredom continually:

CHAPTER V.

1 God's judgments against the priests, the people, and the princes of Israel, for their manifold sins, 15 until they repent.

HEAR ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because ^a ye have been a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

2 And the revolvers are ^b profound to make slaughter, ^c though I have been ^d a rebuker of them all.

3 ^e I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, ^f thou committest whoredom, and Israel is defiled.

4 ^g They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God:
for ^h the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.

5 And ⁱ the pride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them.

6 ^j They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find him; he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have ^k dealt treacherously against the LORD: for they have begotten strange children: now shall ^l a month devour them with their portions.

8 ^m Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: ⁿ cry aloud at ^o Beth-aven, ^p after thee, O Benjamin.

9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be.

10 The princes of Judah were like them that ^q remove the bound: there- fore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

11 Ephraim is ^r oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after ^s the commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto Eph-raim as a moth, and to the house of Judah ^t as ^u rottenness.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his ^v wound, then went Ephraim ^w to the Assyrian, ^x and sent ^y to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

14 For ^z I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: ^{aa} I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15 ¶ I will go and return to my place, ^{ab} till ^{ac} they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: ^{ad} in their affliction they will seek me early.

CHAPTER VI.

1 An exhortation to repentance. 4 A complaint of their untowardness and iniquity.

COME, and let us return unto the LORD: for ^{ae} he hath torn, and ^{af} he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2 ^{ag} After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

3 ^{ah} Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared ^{ai} as the morning; and ^{aj} he shall come unto us ^{ak} as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

4 ¶ ^{al} O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your ^{am} goodness is ^{an} as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore have I hewed them

CHAPTER VII.

1 A reproof of manifold sins. 11 God's wrath against them for their hypocrisy.

WHEN I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the ^bwickedness of Samaria: for ^athey commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers ^cspoileth without.

2 And they ^dconsider not in their hearts that I ^eremember all their wickedness: now ^ftheir own doings have beset them about; they are ^gbefore my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes ^hwith their lies.

4 ⁱThey are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, ^j*who* ceaseth ^kfrom raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.

5 In the day of our king the princes have made him sick ^lwith bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners.

6 For they have ^mmade ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges; ⁿall their kings ^oare fallen: ^p*there is* none among them that calleth unto me.

8 Ephraim, he ^qhath mixed himself among the people; Ephraim is a cake not turned.

9 ^rStrangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are ^shere and there upon him, yet he knoweth not.

10 And the ^tpride of Israel testifieth to his face: and ^uthey do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all this.

11 ¶ ^vEphraim also is like a silly dove without heart: ^wthey call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.

12 When they shall go, ^xI will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them, ^yas their congregation hath heard.

13 Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: ^zdestruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though ^{aa}I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

14 ^{ab}And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

15 Though I ^{ac}have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.

16 ^{ad}They return, but not to the most High: ^{ae}they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the ^{af}rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision ^{ag}in the land of Egypt.

4 ^f They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: ^g of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off.

5 ^h Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them: ⁱ how long will it be ere they attain to innocency?

6 For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

7 For ^j they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no ^k stalk: the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, ^l the strangers shall swallow it up.

8 ^m Israel is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles ⁿ as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.

9 For ^o they are gone up to Assyria, ^p a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim ^q hath hired ^r lovers.

10 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now ^s will I gather them, and they shall ^t sorrow ^u a little for the burden of ^v the king of princes.

11 Because Ephraim hath made ^w many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.

12 I have written to him ^x the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing.

13 ^y They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it; ^z but the LORD accepteth them not; ^{aa} now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: ^{ab} they shall return to Egypt.

14 ^{ac} For Israel hath forgotten ^{ad} his Maker, and ^{ae} buildeth temples; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but ^{af} I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

CHAPTER IX.

The distress and captivity of Israel for their sins and idolatry.

REJOICE not, O Israel, for joy, ^a as other people: for thou ^b hast gone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved a ^c reward ^d upon every cornfloor.

2 ^e The floor and the ^f winepress shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.

3 They shall not dwell in ^g the LORD's land; ^h but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and ⁱ they shall eat unclean things ^j in Assyria.

4 ^k They shall not offer wine offerings to the LORD, ^l neither shall they be pleasing unto him: ^m their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread ⁿ for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What will ye do in ^o the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?

6 For, lo, they are gone because of ^p destruction: ^q Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: ^r the pleasant places for their silver, ^s nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompence are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a fool, ^t the ^u spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 The ^v watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred ^w in the house of his God.

9 ^x They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of ^y Gibeah: ^z therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

10 I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as ^{aa} the firstripe in the fig tree ^{ab} at her first time: but they went to ^{ac} Baal-peor, and ^{ad} separated them-

CHAPTER X.

Israel is reprov'd and threatened for their impiety and idolatry.

ISRAEL is ^aan empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit ^bhe hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land ^cthey have made goodly ^dimages.

2 ^eTheir heart is ^fdivided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall ^gbreak down their altars, he shall spoil their images.

3 ^hFor now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up ⁱas hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of ^jthe calves of ^kBethaven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and ^lthe priests thereof that rejoiced on it, ⁱfor the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to ^kking Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed ^lof his own counsel.

7 ^m*As for* Samaria, her king is cut off as the foam upon ⁿthe water.

8 ^oThe high places also of Aven, ^pthe sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: ^qthe thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; ^rand they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

9 ^sO Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of Gibeah: there they stood: ^tthe battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 It is in my desire that I should chastise them; and ^uthe people shall be gathered against them, ^vwhen they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 And Ephraim is as ^wan heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon ^xher fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods.

12 ^ySow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; ^zbreak up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

13 ^aYe have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

14 ^bTherefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman

1 The ingratitude of Israel unto God for his benefits. 5 His judgment. 8 God's mercy toward them.

WHEN ^aIsrael was a child, then I loved him, and ^bcalled my ^ason out of Egypt.

2 As they called them, so they went from them: ^dthey sacrificed unto Baalim, and burned incense to graven images.

3 ^aI taught Ephraim also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that ^fI healed them.

4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love: and ^gI was to them as they that ^htake off the yoke on their jaws, and ^hI laid meat unto them.

5 ¶ ⁱHe shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, ^kbecause they refused to return.

6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, ^lbecause of their own counsels.

7 And my people are bent to ^mbacksliding from me: ⁿthough they called them to the most High, ^onone at all would exalt him.

8 ^aHow shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as ^pAdmah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? ^qmine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

9 I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: ^rfor I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee: and I will not enter into the city.

10 They shall walk after the LORD: ^she shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble ^tfrom the west.

11 They shall tremble as a bird out of Egypt, ^uand as a dove out of the land of Assyria: ^xand I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

12 ^yEphraim compasseth me about with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful ^zwith the saints.

CHAPTER XII.

1 A reproof of Ephraim, Judah, and Jacob.

3 By former favours he exhorteth to repentance. 7 Ephraim's sins provoke God.

EPHRAIM ^afeedeth on wind, and followeth after the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; ^band they do make a covenant with the Assyrians, and ^coil is carried into Egypt.

2 ^dThe LORD hath also a controversy with Judah, and will ^epunish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him.

3 ¶ He took his brother ^aby the heel in the womb, and by his strength he ^fhad power with God:

4 Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication unto him: he found him in ^gBeth-el, and there he spake with us;

5 Even the LORD God of hosts; the LORD is his ^hmemorial.

6 ⁱTherefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgment, and ^kwait on thy God continually.

7 ¶ He is ^la merchant, ^lthe balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to ^moppress.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Ephraim's glory, by reason of idolatry, vanisheth. 5 God's anger for their unkindness. 9 A promise of God's mercy. 15 A judgment for rebellion.

WHEN Ephraim spake trembling, he exalted himself in Israel; but ^a when he offended in Baal, he died.

2 And now ^b they sin more and more, and ^c have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let ^d the men that sacrifice ^e kiss the calves.

8 Therefore they shall be ^f as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away, ^g as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

4 Yet ^h I am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt, and thou shalt know no god but me: for ⁱ there is no saviour beside me.

5 ^j I did know thee in the wilderness, ^k in the land of ^l great drought.

6 ^m According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted; therefore ⁿ have they forgotten me.

7 Therefore ^o I will be unto them as a lion: as ^p a leopard by the way will I observe them:

8 I will meet them ^q as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: ^r the wild beast shall tear them.

9 ¶ O Israel, ^s thou hast destroyed thyself; ^t but in me ^u is thine help.

10 ^v I will be thy king: ^w where is any other that may save thee in all thy cities? and thy judges of whom ^x thou saidst, Give me a king and princes?

11 ^y I gave thee a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath.

12 ^z The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is hid.

13 ^{aa} The sorrows of a travailing woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for he should not ^{ab} stay ^{ac} long in the place of the breaking forth of children.

14 ^{ad} I will ransom them from ^{ae} the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death: ^{af} O death, I will be thy plagues; O grave, I will be thy destruction: ^{ag} repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.

15 ¶ Though ^{ah} he be fruitful among ^{ai} his brethren, ^{aj} an east wind shall come, the wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: he shall spoil the treasure of all ^{ak} pleasant vessels.

16 ^{al} Samaria shall become desolate; ^{am} for she hath rebelled against her God: ^{an} they shall fall by the sword: their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.

JOEL.

CHAPTER I.

¹ Joel, declaring sundry judgments of God, exhorteth to observe them, 8 and to mourn. 14 He prescribeth a fast for complaint.

THE word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.

² Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land.

^a Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

³ ^b Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

⁵ Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; ^d for it is cut off from your mouth.

⁶ For ^e a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, ^f whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion.

⁷ He hath ^g laid my vine waste, and ^h barked my fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

⁸ ⁱ Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for ^j the husband of her youth.

⁹ ^k The meat offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn.

¹⁰ The field is wasted, ^l the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: ^m the new wine is ⁿ dried up, the oil languisheth.

¹¹ ^o Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

¹³ ^r Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests: howl, ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for ^s the meat offering and the drink offering is withholden from the house of your God.

¹⁴ ^t Sanctify ye a fast, call ^u a solemn assembly, gather the elders and ^v all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD, ¹⁵ ^w Alas for the day! for ^x the day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.

¹⁶ Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, ^y joy and gladness from the house of our God?

¹⁷ The ^z seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

¹⁸ How do ^{aa} the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

¹⁹ O LORD, ^{ab} to thee will I cry: for ^{ac} the fire hath devoured the ^{ad} pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field.

CHAPTER II.

1 He sheweth unto Zion the terribleness of God's judgment. 12 He exhorteth to repentance, 15 prescribeth a fast, 18 promiseth a blessing thereon. 21 He comforteth Zion with present, 28 and future blessings.

BLOW ye the ² trumpet in Zion, and ^b sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for ^c the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand;

2 ^d A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: ^e a great people and a strong; ^f there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years ³ of many generations.

3 ^a A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as ^b the garden of Eden before them, ⁱ and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them.

4 ^k The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

5 ^l Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, ^m as a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained: ⁿ all faces shall gather ^o blackness.

7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

8 Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the ^p sword, they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses;

they shall ^q enter in at the windows ^r like a thief.

10 ^a The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: ^r the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining:

11 ^a And the LORD shall utter his voice before ^t his army: for his camp is very great: ^u for he is strong that executeth his word: for the ^v day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and ^w who can abide it?

12 ¶ Therefore also now, saith the LORD, ^x turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning:

13 And ^y rend your heart, and not ^b your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is ^z gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

14 ^d Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave ^a a blessing behind him; even ^f a meat offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God?

15 ¶ ^a Blow the trumpet in Zion, ^b sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly:

16 Gather the people, ⁱ sanctify the congregation, ^k assemble the elders, ^l gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: ^m let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.

17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep ⁿ between the porch and the altar, and let them say, ^o Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should ^p rule over them: ^q wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

18 ¶ Then will the LORD ^a be jealous for his land, ^r and pity his people.

19 Yea, the LORD will answer and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you ^s corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith:

them, and will return your recompence upon your own head :

8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the ¹Sabeans², to a people ^kfar off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 ¶ ¹Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; ²Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up :

10 ^mBeat your plowshares into swords, and your ³pruninghooks into spears: ⁿlet the weak say, I am strong.

11 ^oAssemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither ⁴cause ^pthy mighty ones to come down, O LORD.

17 So ^dshall ye know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, ^emy holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be ³holy, and there shall no ^fstrangers pass through her any more.

18 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall ^gdrop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, ^hand all the rivers of Judah shall ⁴flow with waters, and ⁱa fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD, and shall water ^kthe valley of Shittim.

19 ¹Egypt shall be a desolation, and ^mEdom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the violence against the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

CHAPTER I.

1 Amos sheweth God's judgment upon Syria, 6 upon the Philistines, 9 upon Tyrus, 11 upon Edom, 13 upon Ammon.

THE words of Amos, ^awho was among the herdmen of ^bTekoa, which he saw concerning Israel ^cin the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of ^dJeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the ^eearthquake.

2 And he said, The LORD will ^froar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of ^gCarmel shall wither.

3 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of ^hDamascus, ²and for four, I will not ³turn away the punishment thereof; ⁱbecause they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron:

4 ^kBut I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.

5 I will break also the ^lbar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from ^mthe plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from ⁿthe house of Eden: and ^othe people of Syria shall go into captivity ^punto Kir, saith the LORD.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of ^qGaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they ^rcarried away captive the whole captivity, ^sto deliver them up to Edom:

7 ^tBut I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour the palaces thereof:

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant ^vfrom Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon, and I will ^wturn mine hand against Ekron: and ^xthe remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord God.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of ^yTyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; ^zbecause they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not ^{aa}the brotherly covenant:

10 ^{ab}But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

11 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of ^{ac}Edom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue ^{ad}his brother ^bwith the sword, and ^{ae}did cast off all pity, ^cand his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever:

12 But ^{af}I will send a fire upon Teman, which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.

13 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of ^{ag}the children of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ^{ah}ripped up the women with child of Gilead, ^{ai}that they might enlarge their border:

14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of ^{aj}Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, ^{ak}with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind:

CHAPTER II.

¹ God's wrath against Moab, ⁴ upon Judah, ⁶ and upon Israel. ⁹ God complaineth of their unthankfulness.

THUS saith the LORD; For three transgressions of ^a Moab, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he ^b burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime:

² But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of ^c Kirioth: and Moab shall die with tumult, ^d with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet:

³ And I will cut off ^e the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.

⁴ ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; ^f because they have despised the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, and ^g their lies caused them to err, ^h after the which their fathers have walked:

⁵ ⁱ But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

⁶ ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because ^k they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes;

⁷ That pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and ^l turn aside the way of the meek: ^m and a man and his father will go in unto the same ⁿ maid, ^o to profane my holy name:

⁸ And they lay themselves down upon clothes ^p laid to pledge ^q by every altar, and they drink the wine of ^r the condemned in the house of their god.

⁹ ¶ Yet destroyed I the ^s Amorite before them, ^t whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I ^u destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath.

¹⁰ Also ^v I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and ^w led you forty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.

¹¹ And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for ^x Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD.

¹² But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, ^y saying, Prophecy not.

¹³ ^z Behold, ^{aa} I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

¹⁴ ^{ab} Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, ^b neither shall the mighty deliver ^{ac} himself:

¹⁵ Neither shall he stand that handleth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself: ^{ad} neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself.

¹⁶ And he that is ^{ae} courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER IV.

¹ He reproveth Israel for oppression, ⁴ for idolatry, ⁶ and for their incorrigibleness.

HEAR this word, ye ^aking of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

3 And ^dye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and ^eye shall cast them into the palace, saith the LORD.

4 ^f¶ Come to Beth-el, and transgress; at ^gGilgal multiply transgression; and ^hbring your sacrifices every morning, ⁱand your tithes after ^jthree years:

5 ^kAnd ^loffer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish ^mthe free offerings: ⁿfor ^othis liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

6 ^p¶ And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: ^qyet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

7 And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.

8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: ^ryet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER V.

1 A lamentation for Israel. 4 An exhortation to repentance. 21 God rejecteth their hypocritical service.

HEAR ye this word which I ^a take up against you, even a lamentation, O house of Israel.

2 The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

3 For thus saith the Lord God; The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel.

4 ¶ For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Israel, ^b Seek ye me, ^c and ye shall live:

5 But seek not ^d Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to ^e Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and ^f Beth-el shall come to nought.

6 ^g Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el.

7 Ye who ^h turn judgment to worm-wood, and leave off righteousness in the earth,

8 Seek him that maketh the ⁱ seven stars and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, ^j and maketh the day dark with night: that ^k calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: ^l The LORD is his name:

9 That strengtheneth the ^m spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.

10 ⁿ They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they ^o abhor him that speaketh uprightly.

11 Forasmuch therefore as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat: ^p ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted ^q pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: ^r they afflict the just, they take ^s a bribe, and they ^t turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore ^u the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.

14 Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, ^v as ye have spoken.

15 ^w Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: ^x it may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, 17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for ²I will pass through thee, saith the LORD.

18 ³Woe unto you that desire the day of the LORD! to what end is it for you? ⁴the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light.

19 ⁵As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

20 Shall not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

21 ¶ ⁶I hate, I despise your feast days, and ⁷I will not ⁸smell in your solemn assemblies.

22 ⁹Though ye offer me burnt offerings and your meat offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the ¹⁰peace offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.

24 ¹¹But let judgment ¹²run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

25 ¹³Have ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?

26 But ye have borne ¹⁴the tabernacle ¹⁵of your Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.

²⁰That drink ²¹wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments: ²²but they are not grieved for the ²³affliction of Joseph.

²⁴¶ Therefore now shall they go captive with the first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed.

²⁵The Lord God hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD the God of hosts, I abhor ²⁶the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city with all ²⁷that is therein.

²⁸And it shall come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

²⁹And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he that burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, ³⁰Hold thy tongue: ³¹for ³²we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.

CHAPTER VII.

¹ The judgments of the grasshoppers, ⁴ and of the fire, are diverted by the prayer of Amos. ⁷ By the wall of a plumbline is signified the rejection of Israel. ¹⁰ Amaziah complaineth of Amos. ¹⁴ Amos sheweth his calling, ¹⁶ and Amaziah's judgment.

THUS hath the Lord God shewed unto me; and, behold, he formed ³grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.

² And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord God, forgive, I beseech thee: ["]by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

⁸ ^bThe LORD repented for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD.

⁴ ¶ Thus hath the Lord God shewed unto me: and, behold, the Lord God called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part.

⁵ Then said I, O Lord God, cease, I beseech thee: ["]by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

⁶ The LORD repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord God.

⁷ ¶ Thus he shewed me: and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumbline, with a plumbline in his hand.

⁸ And the LORD said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the Lord, Behold, ^dI will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Israel: ["]I will not again pass by them any more:

⁹ ^fAnd the high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and ["]I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

¹⁰ ¶ Then Amaziah ^bthe priest of Beth-el sent to ¹Jeroboam, king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words.

¹¹ For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.

¹² Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:

¹³ But ^kprophesy not again any more at Beth-el: ¹for it is the king's ²chapel, and it is the ³king's court.

¹⁴ ¶ Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I ^ma prophet's son; ["]but I was an herdsman, and a gatherer of ⁴sycomore fruit:

¹⁵ And the LORD took me ⁵as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Israel.

¹⁶ ¶ Now therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Israel, and ["]drop not thy word against the house of Isaac.

¹⁷ ^pTherefore thus saith the LORD; ["]Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

¹² And they shall wander from

CHAPTER I.

1 Jonah, sent to Nineveh, fleeth to Tarshish.
4 He is bewrayed by a tempest, 11 thrown into the sea, 17 and swallowed by a fish.

NOW the word of the LORD came unto ² Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,

2 Arise, go to Nineveh, that ³ great city, and cry against it; for ⁴ their wickedness is come up before me.

3 But Jonah ⁵ rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to ⁶ Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish ⁷ from the presence of the LORD.

4 ¶ But ⁸ the LORD ⁹ sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was ¹⁰ like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and ¹¹ cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone down ¹² into the sides of the ship;

and he lay, and was fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, ¹³ call upon thy God, ¹⁴ if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us ¹⁵ cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

8 Then said they unto him, ¹⁶ Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

Hebrew; and I fear ¹⁷ the LORD, the God of heaven, ° which hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then were the men ² exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

11 ¶ Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea ³ may be calm unto us? for the sea ^{4 5} wrought, and was tempestuous.

12 And he said unto them, ^p Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless the men ⁶ rowed hard to bring it to the land; ^a but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and ^r lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, ^a hast done as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: ^t and the sea ⁷ ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men ^u feared the LORD exceedingly, and ⁸ offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

17 ¶ Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And ^x Jonah was in the ⁹ belly of the fish three days and three nights.

CHAPTER II.

1 The prayer of Jonah. 10 He is delivered from the fish.

THEN Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly,

2 And said, I ^a cried ² by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, ^b and he heard me; out of the belly of ³ hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

3 ^c For thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the ⁴ midst of the seas; and the floods compassed me about: ^d all thy billows and thy waves passed over me.

4 ^e Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again ^f toward thy holy temple.

5 The ^g waters compassed me about, even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the ² bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life ^h from ³ corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD: ⁱ and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.

8 They that observe ^k lying vanities forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will ¹ sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. ^m Salvation is of the LORD.

10 ¶ And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

CHAPTER III.

1 Jonah, sent again, preacheth to the Ninevites.

5 Upon their repentance, 10 God repenteth.

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

3 So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an ⁴ exceeding great city of three days' journey.

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and ^a he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

5 ¶ So the people of Nineveh ^b believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, ^o let them turn every one from his evil way, and from ¹ the violence that is in their hands.

9 ^e Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 ¶ ^h And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Jonah, repining at God's mercy, 4 is reproved by the type of a gourd.

BUT it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I ^a fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a ^b gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

3 ^o Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for ^d it is better for me to die than to live.

4 ¶ Then said the LORD, ² Doest thou well to be angry?

5 So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the LORD God prepared a ³⁴ gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah ⁵ was exceeding glad of the gourd.

7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.

8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a ⁶ vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, ^o It is better for me to die than to live.

9 And God said to Jonah, ⁷ Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, ⁸ I do well to be angry, even unto death.

10 Then said the LORD, Thou hast ⁹ had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which ² came up in a night, and perished in a night:

CHAPTER I.

1 Micah sheweth the wrath of God against Jacob for idolatry. 10 He exhorteth to mourning.

THE word of the LORD that came to ^aMicah the Morasthite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, ^bwhich he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

2 ²Hear, all ye people; ^chearken, O earth, and ³all that therein is: and let the Lord God ^dbe witness against you, the Lord from ^ehis holy temple.

3 For, behold, ^fthe LORD cometh forth out of his ^gplace, and will come down, and tread upon the ^hhigh places of the earth.

4 And ⁱthe mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down ^ja steep place.

5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?

6 Therefore I will make Samaria ^kas an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will ^ldiscover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the ^mhires thereof shall be burned with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

8 Therefore ⁿI will wail and howl, ^oI will go stripped and naked: ^pI will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the ^qowls.

9 For ^rher wound is incurable; for ^sit is come unto Judah; he is come unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.

10 ¶ ^tDeclare ye it not at Gath, weep ye not at all: in the house of ^uAphrah ^vroll thyself in the dust.

11 Pass ye away, ^wthou ^xinhabitant of Saphir, having thy ^yshame naked: the inhabitant of ^zZaanan came not forth in the mourning of ^{aa}Beth-ezel; he shall receive of you his standing.

12 For the inhabitant of Maroth ^{ab}waited carefully for good: but ^{ac}evil came down from the LORD unto the gate of Jerusalem.

13 O thou inhabitant of ^{ad}Lachish, bind the chariot to the swift beast: she is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zion: for the transgressions of Israel were found in thee.

14 Therefore shalt thou ^{ae}give presents ^{af}to Moresheth-gath: the houses of ^{ag}Achzib shall be a lie to the kings of Israel.

15 Yet will I bring an heir unto thee, O inhabitant of ^{ah}Mareshah: ^{ai}he shall come unto ^{aj}Adullam the glory of Israel.

16 Make thee ^{ak}bald, and poll thee for thy ^{al}delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

beat their swords into ^bplowshares, and their spears into ^cpruning-hooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, ^dneither shall they learn war any more.

4 ^dBut they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For ^eall people will walk every one in the name of his god, and ^fwe will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith the LORD, ^gwill I assemble her that halteth, ^hand I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted;

7 And I will make her that halted ⁱa remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD ^kshall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever.

8 ¶ And thou, O tower of ³the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 Now why dost thou cry out aloud? ¹is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for ^mpangs have taken thee as a woman in travail.

10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

11 ¶ ⁿNow also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye ^olook upon Zion.

12 But they know not ^pthe thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them ^qas the sheaves into the floor.

CHAPTER V.

1 The birth of Christ. 4 His kingdom. 8 His conquest.

NOW gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: they shall ^asmite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

2 But thou, ^bBeth-lehem Ephra-^atah, though thou be little ^aamong the ^athousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ^aruler in Israel; ^awhose goings forth have been from of old, from ^aeverlasting.

3 Therefore will he give them up, until the time that ^ashe which travaileth hath brought forth: then ^bthe remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel.

4 ¶ And he shall stand and ^afeed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God; and they shall abide: for now ^ashall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

5 And this man ^ashall be the peace, when the Assyrian shall come into our land: and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight ^aprincipal men.

6 And they shall ^awaste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of ^aNimrod ^ain the entrances thereof: thus shall he ^adeliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders.

7 And ^athe remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people ^aas a dew from the LORD, as the showers upon the grass, that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men.

8 ¶ And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of ^asheep: who, if he go through, both treadeth down, and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

9 Thine hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

10 ^aAnd it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots:

11 And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds:

12 And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand; and thou shalt have no more ^asoothsayers:

13 ^aThy graven images also will I cut off, and thy ^astanding images out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt ^ano more worship the work of thine hands.

14 And I will pluck up thy groves out of the midst of thee: so will I destroy thy ^acities.

15 And I will ^aexecute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not heard.

CHAPTER VI.

1 God's controversy for unkindness, 6 for ignorance, 10 for injustice, 16 and for idolatry.

HEAR ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou ^abefore the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2 ^aHear ye, O mountains, ^bthe LORD's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for ^athe LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

3 O my people, ^awhat have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me.

4 ^aFor I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim unto Gilgal; that ye may know ¹ the righteousness of the LORD.

6 ¶ Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves ² of a year old?

7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of ³ rivers of oil? ¹ shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my ³ body for the sin of my soul?

8 He hath ⁴ shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but ² to do justly, and to love mercy, and to ⁴ walk humbly with thy God?

9 The LORD's voice crieth unto the city, and ⁵ the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.

10 ¶ Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the ⁷ scant measure ⁶ that is abominable?

11 Shall I count ⁸ them pure with ⁹ the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?

12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and ¹⁰ their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

13 Therefore also will I ¹¹ make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy sins.

14 Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver; and ¹² that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword.

15 Thou shalt ¹³ sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.

16 ¶ For ¹⁴ the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels; that I should make thee ¹⁵ a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore ye shall bear the ¹⁶ reproach of my people.

CHAPTER VII.

¹ The church, complaining of her small number, 3 and the general corruption, 5 putteth her confidence not in man, but in God. 8 She triumpheth over her enemies. 14 God comforteth her by promises, 16 by confusion of the enemies, 18 and by his mercies.

WOE is me! for I am as ⁴ when they have gathered the summer fruits, as ⁵ the grape gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: ⁶ my soul desired the first-ripe fruit.

2 The ⁷ good man is perished out of the earth: and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; ⁸ they hunt every man his brother with a net.

3 ¶ That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, ⁹ the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth ¹⁰ his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

4 The best of them ¹¹ is as a brier: the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity.

5 ¶ Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide: keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

6 For ¹² the son dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter in law against her mother in law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

7 Therefore ¹³ I will look unto the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me.

8 ¶ Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: ¹⁴ when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, ¹⁵ the LORD shall be a light unto me.

CHAPTER I.

The majesty of God in goodness to his people, and severity against his enemies.

THE burden * of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

2 * God is ^b jealous, and ^c the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and ³ is furious; the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

3 The LORD is ^d slow to anger, and ^e great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: ^f the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 * He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: ^h Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

5 ⁱ The mountains quake at him, and ^k the hills melt, and ^l the earth is burned at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.

6 Who can stand before his indignation? and ^m who can ⁿ abide in the fierceness of his anger? ^o his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

7 * The LORD is good, a ^p strong hold in the day of trouble; and ^q he knoweth them that trust in him.

8 * But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

9 * What do ye imagine against the LORD? * he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time.

10 For while they be folden together ^r as thorns, ^s and while they are drunken as drunkards, ^t they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

11 There is one come out of thee, ^v that imagineth evil against the LORD, ² a wicked counsellor.

12 Thus saith the LORD; ³ Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus ⁴ shall they be ⁵ cut down, when he shall ⁶ pass through. Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

13 For now will I ^b break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

14 And the LORD hath given a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image: ^o I will make thy grave; for thou art vile.

15 Behold ^d upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Judah, ⁵ keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for ⁶ the wicked shall no more pass through thee; ⁷ he is utterly cut off.

CHAPTER II.

The fearful and victorious armies of God against Nineveh.

HE ⁷ that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: ^b keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.

2 * For the LORD hath turned away ⁸ the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for ^d the emptiers

7 And ^aHuzzab shall be ^aled away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of ^adoves, tabering upon their breasts.

8 But Nineveh is ^aof old like a pool of water: yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, shall they cry; but none shall ^alook back.

9 Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold: ^afor there is none end of the store and glory out of all the ^apleasant furniture.

10 She is empty, and void, and waste: and the ^aheart melteth, and ^athe knees smite together, ^aand much pain is in all loins, and ^athe faces of them all gather blackness.

11 Where is the dwelling of ^athe lions, and the feedingplace of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion, walked, and the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid?

12 The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravin.

13 ^aBehold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions: and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of ^athy messengers shall no more be heard.

CHAPTER III.

The miserable ruin of Nineveh.

WOE to the ^abloody city! it is all full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not;

2 The noise of a whip, and ^athe noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the prancing horses, and of the jumping chariots.

3 The horseman lifteth up both ^athe bright sword and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases; and there is none end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses:

4 Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the wellfavoured harlot, ^athe mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.

5 ^aBehold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts; and ^aI will discover thy skirts upon thy face, ^aand I will shew the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.

6 And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and ^amake thee vile, and will set thee as ^aa gazingstock.

7 And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee ^ashall flee from thee, and say, Nineveh is laid waste: ^awho will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee?

8 ^aArt thou better than ^apopulous ^aNo, that was situate among the rivers, that had the waters round about it, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea?

9 Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite; Put and Lubim were ^athy helpers.

10 Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity: ^aher young children also were dashed in pieces

HABAKKUK.

BEFORE CHRIST
cir. 626.

CHAPTER I.

¹ Unto Habakkuk, complaining of the iniquity of the land, ⁵ is shewed the fearful vengeance by the Chaldeans. ¹² He complaineth that vengeance should be executed by them who are far worse.

THE burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.

² O LORD, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!

⁴ Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the ^b wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore ² wrong judgment proceedeth.

⁵ ¶ ^c Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvelously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

⁶ For, lo, ^d I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the ⁴ breadth of the land, to possess the dwellingplaces that are not their's.

⁷ They are terrible and dreadful: ^e their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.

⁹ They shall come all for violence: ² ³ their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand.

¹⁰ And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it.

¹¹ Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, ^h imputing this his power unto his god.

¹³ ^k Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on ⁶ iniquity: ^l wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

¹⁴ And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the ⁷ creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

¹⁵ They ^m take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their ⁸ drag: therefore they rejoice and are glad.

¹⁷ Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

CHAPTER II.

1 Unto Habakkuk, waiting for an answer, is shewed that he must wait by faith. 5 The judgment upon the Chaldean for unsatiableness, 9 for covetousness, 12 for cruelty, 15 for drunkenness, 18 and for idolatry.

I WILL ^astand upon my watch, and set me upon the ²tower, ^band will watch to see what he will say ³unto me, and what I shall answer ⁴⁵when I am reprov'd.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, ^cWrite the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

3 For ^dthe vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will ^esurely come, it will not tarry.

4 Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the ^fjust shall live by his faith.

5 ¶ ^gYea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire ^has hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

6 Shall not all these ⁱtake up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, ^jWoe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay!

7 Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

8 ^kBecause thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; ^lbecause of men's ^mblood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

9 ¶ Woe to him that ⁿcoveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may ^oset his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the ^ppower of evil!

10 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the ^qbeam out of the timber shall ^ranswer it.

12 ¶ Woe to him that buildeth a town with ^sblood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity!

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts ^tthat the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves ^ufor very vanity?

14 For the earth shall be filled ^vwith the ^wknowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

15 ¶ Woe unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that putteth thy ^xbottle to him, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest ^ylook on their nakedness!

16 Thou art filled ^zwith shame for glory: ^{aa}drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the LORD's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory.

17 For the violence of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid, ^{ab}because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

18 ¶ ^{ac}What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a ^{ad}teacher of lies, that ^{ae}the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make ^{af}dumb idols?

19 Woe unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, ^{ag}and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

20 But ^{ah}the LORD is in his holy temple: ^{ai}let all the earth keep silence before him.

CHAPTER I.

God's severe judgment against Judah for divers sins.

THE word of the LORD which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hizkiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

2 ²I will utterly consume all things from off ³the land, saith the LORD.

3 ⁴I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and ⁵the ⁶stumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD.

4 I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and ⁷I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of ⁸the Chemarims with the priests;

5 And them ⁹that worship the host of heaven upon the housetops; ¹⁰and them that worship and ¹¹that swear ¹²by the LORD, and that swear ¹³by Malcham;

6 And ¹⁴them that are turned back from the LORD; and those that ¹⁵have not sought the LORD, nor enquired for him.

7 ¹⁶Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord God: ¹⁷for the day of the LORD is at hand: for ¹⁸the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath ¹⁹bid his guests.

8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD's sacrifice, that I will ²⁰punish ²¹the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel.

9 In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold, which fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from ²²the fish gate, and an howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills.

11 ²³Howl, ye inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the merchant people are cut down; all they that bear silver are cut off.

12 And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are ²⁴settled on their lees: ²⁵that say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil.

13 Therefore their goods shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but ²⁶not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but ²⁷not drink the wine thereof.

14 ²⁸The great day of the LORD is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

15 ²⁹That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, 16 A day of ³⁰the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.

17 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall ³¹walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and ³²their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh ³³as the dung.

CHAPTER II.

1 An exhortation to repentance. 4 The judgment of the Philistines, 8 of Moab and Ammon, 12 of Ethiopia and Assyria.

^a GATHER yourselves together, yea, gather together, O nation ²not desired;

2 Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass ^bas the chaff, before ^cthe fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORD's anger come upon you.

3 ^dSeek ye the LORD, ^eall ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: ^fit may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORD's anger.

4 ^gFor ^hGaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod ⁱat the noon day, and Ekron shall be rooted up.

5 Woe unto the inhabitants of ^jthe sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! the word of the LORD ^kis against you; O ^kCanaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.

6 And the sea coast shall be dwellings ^land cottages for shepherds, ^land folds for flocks.

7 And the coast shall be for ^mthe remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening: ⁿfor the LORD their God shall ⁿvisit them, and ^oturn away their captivity.

8 ^qI have heard the reproach of Moab, and ^rthe revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and ^rmagnified themselves against their border.

9 Therefore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely ^aMoab shall be as Sodom, and ^tthe children of Ammon as Gomorrah, ^aeven the breeding of nettles, and saltpits, and a perpetual desolation: ^xthe residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

10 This shall they have ^yfor their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts.

11 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will ^zfamish all the gods of the earth; ^aand men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all ^athe isles of the heathen.

12 ^qYe Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by ^cmy sword.

13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and ^ddestroy Assyria; and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

14 And ^eflocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all ^fthe beasts of the nations: both the ^gcormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the ^hupper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: ⁱfor he shall uncover the ^hcedar work.

15 This is the rejoicing city ^jthat dwelt carelessly, ^kthat said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her ^lshall hiss, and ^mwag his hand.

CHAPTER I.

¹ Haggai reproveth the people for neglecting the building of the house. 7 He inciteth them to the building. 12 He promiseth God's assistance to them being forward.

IN ^athe second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD ^aby Haggai the prophet unto ^bZerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, ^cgovernor of Judah, and to ^dJoshua the son of ^dJosedech, the high priest, saying, ² Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD's house should be built.

³ Then came the word of the LORD ^eby Haggai the prophet, saying,

⁴ 'Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your cieled houses, and this house lie waste?

⁵ Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^f*'Consider your ways.*

⁶ Ye have ^hsown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and ⁱhe that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag ^gwith holes.

⁷ ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways.

⁸ Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

⁹ 'Ye looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, ⁱI did ^eblow upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts. Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.

¹⁰ Therefore ^mthe heaven over you

¹¹ And I ^acalled for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and ^oupon all the labour of the hands.

¹² ¶ ^pThen Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him, and the people did fear before the LORD.

¹⁴ And ^rthe LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, ^cgovernor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; ^tand they came and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God,

CHAPTER I.

¹ Zechariah exhorteth to repentance. ⁷ The vision of the horses. ¹² At the prayer of the angel comfortable promises are made to Jerusalem. ¹⁸ The vision of the four horns, and the four carpenters.

IN the eighth month, ^a in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD ^b unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying, ² The LORD hath been ² sore displeased with your fathers.

³ Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ^c ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.

⁴ Be ye not as your fathers, ^d unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^e Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.

⁵ Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?

⁶ But ^f my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not ³ take hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, ^g Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

⁷ ¶ Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

⁸ I saw by night, and behold ^h a man riding upon a red horse, and ¹¹ ^l And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

¹² ¶ Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, ^m O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation ⁿ these three-score and ten years?

LORD of hosts; My cities through ^aprosperity shall yet be spread abroad; ^band the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and ^c"shall yet choose Jerusalem.

18 ¶ Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold four horns.

19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, ^d"These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.

20 And the LORD shewed me four carpenters.

21 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which ^elifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it.

CHAPTER II.

1 God, in the care of Jerusalem, sendeth to measure it. 6 The redemption of Zion. 10 The promise of God's presence.

I LIFTED up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold ^aa man with a measuring line in his hand.

2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, ^bTo measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.

3 And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him,

4 And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, ^c"Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein:

5 For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her ^da wall of fire round about, ^eand will be the glory in the midst of her.

6 ¶ Ho, ho, come forth, and flee ^ffrom the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have ^g"spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD.

7 ^hDeliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that ⁱ"toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye.

9 For, behold, I will ^j"shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ^kye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

10 ¶ ^l"Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I ^m"will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.

11 ⁿ"And many nations shall be joined to the LORD ^oin that day, and shall be ^p"my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and ^q"thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

12 And the LORD shall ^r"inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and ^s"shall choose Jerusalem again.

13 ^t"Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is raised up ^u"out of ^v"his holy habitation.

CHAPTER III.

1 Under the type of Joshua, the restoration of the church, 8 Christ the Branch is promised.

AND he shewed me ^a"Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and ^b"Satan standing at his right hand ^c"to resist him.

2 And the LORD said unto Satan, ^d"The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan; even the LORD that ^e"hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: ^f"is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?

3 Now Joshua was clothed with ^g"filthy garments, and stood before the angel.

4 And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, ^h"and I will clothe thee with change of raiment.

CHAPTER IV.

¹ By the golden candlestick is foreshewed the good success of Zerubbabel's foundation. ¹¹ By the two olive trees the two anointed ones.

AND ^athe angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, ^bas a man that is wakened out of his sleep,

2 And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold ^ca candlestick all of gold, ^dwith a bowl upon the top of it, ^eand his seven lamps thereon, and ^fseven pipes to the seven lamps, which ^{are} upon the top thereof:

3 ^gAnd two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.

4 So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What ^{are} these, my lord?

5 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This ^{is} the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, ¹Not by ²might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Who ^{art} thou, ³O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth ^hthe headstone thereof ⁱwith shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.

8 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zerubbabel ^khave laid the foundation of this house; his hands ¹shall also finish it; and ^mthou shalt know that the ⁿLORD of hosts hath sent me unto you.

10 For who hath despised the day of ^osmall things? ³for they shall rejoice, and shall see the ⁴plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; ^pthey ^{are} the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

11 ^qThen answered I, and said unto him, What ^{are} these ²two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof?

12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What ^{be} these two olive branches which ⁵through the two golden pipes ⁶empty ⁷the golden oil out of themselves?

13 And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these ^{be}? And I said, No, my lord.

14 Then said he, ^rThese ^{are} the two ⁸anointed ones, ^sthat stand by ^tthe Lord of the whole earth.

5 ¶ Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

7 And, behold, there was lifted up a ³talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

8 And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

9 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.

10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?

5 And the angel answered and said unto me, ^eThese are the four ³spirits of the heavens, which go forth from ^fstanding before the Lord of all the earth.

6 The black horses which are therein go forth into ⁸the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grisled go forth toward the south country.

7 And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they might ^hwalk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.

8 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have quieted my ⁱspirit in the north country.

9 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem ^dshall be called a city of truth; and ^ethe mountain of the LORD of hosts ^fthe holy mountain.

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^gThere shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand ^hfor very age.

5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If it be ⁱmarvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, ^bshould it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, ¹I will save my people from the east country, and from ⁴the west country;

8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: ^kand they shall be my people, and I will be their God, ^lin truth and in righteousness.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^mLet your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of ⁿthe prophets, which were in ^othe day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before these days ^pthere was no ^qhire for man, nor any hire for beast; ^rneither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 ^sFor the seed shall be ^tprosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and ^uthe ground shall give her increase, and ^vthe heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were ^wa curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ^xye shall be a blessing: fear not, but ^ylet your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^zAs I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, ^aand I repented not:

15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: fear ye not.

16 ¶ These are the things that ye shall do; ^bSpeak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; ^cexecute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates:

17 ^eAnd let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and ^dlove no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.

19 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^eThe fast of the fourth month, ^fand the fast of the fifth, ^gand the fast of the seventh, ^hand the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah ⁱjoy and gladness, and cheerful ^jfeasts; ^ktherefore love the truth and peace.

20 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people, and the inhabitants of many cities:

21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, ^lLet us go ^mspeedily ⁿto pray before the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts: I will go also.

22 Yea, ^omany people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the LORD.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall ^ptake hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard ^qthat God is with you.

CHAPTER IX.

¹ God defendeth his church. ⁹ Zion is exhorted to rejoice for the coming of Christ, and his peaceable kingdom. ¹² God's promises of victory and defence.

THE ^aburden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hadrach, and ^bDamascus shall be the rest thereof: when ^cthe eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD.

² And ^dHamath also shall border thereby; ^eTyrus, and ^fZidon, though it be very ^gwise.

³ And Tyrus did build herself a strong hold, and ^hheaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.

⁴ Behold, ⁱthe LORD will cast her out, and he will smite ^kher power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire.

⁵ ^lAshkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and Ekron; for her expectation shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

⁶ And a bastard shall dwell ^min Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

⁷ And I will take away his ⁿblood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even he, shall be for our God, and he shall be as a governor in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite.

⁸ And ^oI will encamp about mine house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth: and ^pno oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now ^qI have I seen with mine eyes.

⁹ ¶ ^rRejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, ^sthy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and ^thaving salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

¹⁰ And I ^uwill cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak ^vpeace unto the heathen: and his dominion shall be ^wfrom sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

¹¹ As for thee also, ^xby the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy ^yprisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

¹² ¶ Turn you to the strong hold, ^zye prisoners of hope: even to day do I declare that ^aI will render double unto thee;

¹³ When I have bent Judah for me, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man.

¹⁶ And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for ^gthey shall be as the stones of a crown, ^hlifted up as an ensign upon his land.

¹⁷ For ⁱhow great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! ^jcorn shall make the young men ^kcheerful, and new wine the maids.

CHAPTER X.

¹ God is to be sought unto, and not idols. ⁵ As he visited his flock for sin, so he will save and restore them.

ASK ye ^aof the LORD ^brain ^cin the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make ^dbright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

² For the ^eidols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams;

ⁱ Out of him came forth ^jthe corner, out of him ^kthe nail, out of him the battle bow, out of him every oppressor together.

^l ¶ And they shall be as mighty men, which ^mtread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and ⁿthe riders on horses shall be confounded.

^o And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and ^pI will bring them again to place them; for I ^qhave mercy upon them: and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their God, and ^rwill hear them.

^s And they of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and their ^theart shall rejoice as through wine: yea, their children shall see it, and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.

^u I will ^vhiss for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them: ^wand they shall increase as they have increased.

^x And ^yI will sow them among the people: and they shall ^zremember me in far countries; and they shall live with their children, and turn again.

^{aa} I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon; and ^{ab}place shall not be found for them.

^{ac} And he shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up:

^f Thus saith the LORD my God; ^gFeed the flock of the slaughter;

^h Whose possessors slay them, and ⁱhold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them ^jsay, Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

^k For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will ^ldeliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem

^o a cup of ² trembling unto all the people round about, ³ when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 The fountain of purgation for Jerusalem, 2 from idolatry, and false prophecy. 7 The death of Christ, and the trial of a third part.

IN ^a that day there shall be ^b a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for ^c uncleanness.

4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that ^f the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither shall they wear ^g a rough garment ^h to deceive:

5 ⁱ But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am an husbandman; for

6 And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

7 ¶ Awake, O sword, against ⁱ my shepherd, and against the man ^j that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: ^k smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn mine hand upon ^m the little ones.

8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; ⁿ but the third shall be left therein.

12 ¶ And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, ^athat ^aa great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and ^ahis hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

14 And ^aJudah also shall fight ^aat Jerusalem; ^aand the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.

15 And ^aso shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

16 ¶ And it shall come to pass, ^athat every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even ^ago up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep ^bthe feast of tabernacles.

17 ^aAnd it shall be, ^athat whoso will not come up of ^aall the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain.

18 And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, ^athat ^ahave no rain; there shall be the plague, wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

19 This shall be the ^apunishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

20 ¶ In that day shall there be upon the ^abells of the horses, ^aHOLINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the LORD's house shall be like the bowls before the altar.

21 Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness unto the LORD of hosts: and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe therein: and in that day there shall be no more the ^aCanaanite in ^athe house of the LORD of hosts.

CHAPTER I.

⁶ Of their irreligiousness, 12 and profaneness.

THE burden of the word of the LORD to Israel ² by Malachi.

² ^a I have loved you, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith the LORD: yet ^b I loved Jacob, ³ And I hated Esau, and ^c laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness.

⁴ Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever.

⁵ And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, ^d The LORD will be magnified ^e from the border of Israel.

⁶ ¶ A son ^f honoureth his father, and a servant his master: ^g if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. ^h And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

⁷ ⁱ Ye offer ^j polluted bread upon mine altar; and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, ^k The table of the LORD is contemptible.

⁸ And ^l if ye offer the blind ^m for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or ⁿ accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts.

⁹ And now, I pray you, beseech ^o God that he will be gracious unto us: ^p this hath been ^q by your means: will he regard your persons? saith the LORD of hosts.

¹⁰ Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? ^r neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, ^s neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

¹¹ For ^t from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name shall be great ^u among the Gentiles; ^v and in every place ^w incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: ^x for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.

¹² ¶ But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, ^y The table of the LORD is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible.

¹³ Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness is it! ^z and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: ^{aa} should I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD.

¹⁴ But cursed be ^{ab} the deceiver,

CHAPTER II.

¹ He sharply reproveth the priests for neglecting their covenant, ¹¹ and the people for idolatry, ¹⁴ for adultery, ¹⁷ and for infidelity.

AND now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.

² If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

³ Behold, I will ^a corrupt your seed, and ^b spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and ^c one shall ^d take you away with it.

⁴ And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

⁵ My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him ^a for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name.

⁶ The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did ^a turn many away from iniquity.

⁷ For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: ^b for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

⁸ But ye are departed out of the way; ye ^a have caused many to ^b stumble at the law; ^c ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

⁹ Therefore ^a have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but ^a have been partial in the law.

¹⁰ Have we not all one father? ^a hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

¹¹ ¶ Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he ^a loved, ^b and hath married the daughter of a strange god.

¹² The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, ^a the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, ^b and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

¹⁴ ¶ Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and ^a the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: ^b yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

¹⁵ And ^a did not he make one? Yet had he the ^b residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek ^c a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal ^d treacherously against the wife of his youth.

¹⁶ For ^a the LORD, the God of Israel, saith ^b that he hateth ^c putting away: for ^d one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

¹⁷ ¶ Ye have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

1 Josias his charge to the priests and Levites. 7 A great passover is kept. 32 His death is much lamented. 34 His successors. 53 The temple, city, and people are destroyed. 56 The rest are carried unto Babylon.

AND Josias held the ^afeast of the passover in Jerusalem unto his Lord, and offered the passover the fourteenth day of the first month;

2 Having set the priests according to their daily courses, being arrayed in long garments, in the temple of the Lord.

3 And he spake unto the Levites, the holy ministers of Israel, that they should hallow themselves unto the Lord, to set the holy ark of the Lord in the house that king Solomon the son of David had built:

4 And said, Ye shall no more bear the ark upon your shoulders: now therefore serve the Lord your God, and minister unto his people Israel, and prepare you after your families and kindreds,

5 According as David the king of Israel prescribed, and according to the magnificence of Solomon his son: and standing in the temple according to the several dignity of the families of you the Levites, who minister in the presence of your brethren the children of Israel,

6 Offer the passover in order, and make ready the sacrifices for your brethren, and keep the passover according to the commandment of the Lord, which was given unto Moses.

7 And unto the people that was found there Josias gave thirty thousand lambs and kids, and three thousand calves: these things were given of the king's allowance, according as he promised, to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites.

^{||} Or, Jehiel,
2 Chr. 35. 8.

8 And Helkias, Zacharias, and ^{||}Sylus, the governors of the temple, gave to the priests for the passover two thousand and six hundred sheep, and three hundred calves.

9 And Jeconias, and Samaias, and Nathanael his brother, and Assabias, and Ochiel, and Joram, captains over thousands, gave to the Levites for the passover five thousand sheep, and ^{||}seven hundred calves.

13 And set them before all the people: and afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the priests their brethren, the sons of Aaron.

14 For the priests offered the fat until night: and the Levites prepared for themselves, and the priests their brethren, the sons of Aaron.

15 The holy singers also, the sons of Asaph, were in their order, according to the appointment ^dof David, to wit, Asaph, Zacharias, and Jeduthun, who was ^eof the king's retinue.

16 Moreover the porters were at every gate; it was not lawful for any to go from his ordinary service: for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

17 Thus were the things that belonged to the sacrifices of the Lord accomplished in that day, that they might hold the passover, 18 And offer sacrifices upon the altar of the Lord, according to the commandment of king Josias.

19 So the children of Israel which were present held the passover at that time, and the feast of sweet bread seven days.

20 And such a passover was not kept in Israel since the time of the prophet Samuel.

21 Yea, all the kings of Israel held not such a passover as Josias, and the priests, and the Levites, and the Jews, held with all Israel that were found dwelling at Jerusalem.

22 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josias was this passover kept.

23 And the works of Josias were upright before his Lord with an heart full of godliness.

24 As for the things that came to pass in his time, they were written in former times, concerning those that sinned, and || did wickedly against the Lord above all people and kingdoms, and how they grieved him || exceedingly, so that the words of the Lord rose up against Israel.

² 2 Chron.
35. 20, 26.
cir. 610.

25 ^f Now after all these acts of Josias it came to pass, that Pharaoh the king of Egypt came to raise war at Carchamis upon Euphrates: and Josias went out against him.

26 But the king of Egypt sent to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, O king of Judea?

27 I am not sent out from the Lord God against thee; for my war is upon Euphrates: and now the Lord is with me, yea, the Lord is with me hasting me forward: depart from me, and be not against the Lord.

28 Howbeit Josias did not turn back his chariot from him, but undertook to fight with him, not regarding the words of the prophet Jeremy spoken by the mouth of the Lord:

29 But joined battle with him in the plain of Magiddo, and the princes came against king Josias.

30 Then said the king unto his servants, Carry me away out of the battle; for I am very weak. And immediately his servants took him away out of the battle.

31 Then gat he up upon his second chariot; and being brought back to Jerusalem died, and was buried in his father's sepulchre.

32 And in all Jewry they mourned for Josias, yea, Jeremy the prophet lamented for Josias, and the chief men with the women made lamentation for him unto this day: and this was given out for an ordinance to be done continually in all the nation of Israel.

33 These things are written in the book of the stories of the kings of Judah, and every one of the acts that Josias did, and his glory, and his understanding in the law of the Lord, and the things that he had done before, and the things now recited, are reported in the book of the kings of Israel and Judea.

34 ^g And the people took Joachaz the son of Josias, and made him king instead of Josias his father, when he was twenty and three years old.

35 And he reigned in Judea and in Jerusalem three months: and then the king of Egypt deposed him from reigning in Jerusalem.

36 And he set a tax upon the land of an hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold.

37 The king of Egypt also made king Joacim his brother king of Judea and Jerusalem.

38 And he bound Joacim and the nobles: but Zaraces his brother he apprehended, and brought him out of Egypt.

39 Five and twenty years old was ^h Joacim when he was made king in the land of Judea and Jerusalem; and he did evil before the Lord.

40 Wherefore against him Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon came up, and bound him with a chain of brass, and carried him into Babylon.

41 Nabuchodonosor also took of the holy vessels of the Lord, and carried them away, and set them in his own temple at Babylon.

42 But those things that are recorded of him, and of his uncleanness and impiety, are written in the chronicles of the kings.

43 And Joacim his son reigned in his stead: he was made king being eighteen years old;

44 And reigned but three months and ten days in Jerusalem; and did evil before the Lord.

45 So after a year Nabuchodonosor sent and caused him to be brought into Babylon with the holy vessels of the Lord;

46 And made Zedechias king of Judea and Jerusalem, when he was one and twenty years old; and he reigned eleven years:

49 The governors also of the people and of the priests did many things against the laws, and passed all the pollutions of all nations, and defiled the temple of the Lord, which was sanctified in Jerusalem.

50 Nevertheless the God of their fathers sent by his messenger to call them back, because he spared them and his tabernacle also.

51 But they had his messengers in derision; and, look, when the Lord spake unto them, they made a sport of his prophets:

52 So far forth, that he, being wroth with his people for their great ungodliness, commanded the kings of the Chaldees to come up against them;

53 Who slew their young men with the sword, yea, even within the compass of their holy temple, and spared neither young man nor maid, old man nor child, among them; for he delivered all into their hands.

2 The Lord raised up the spirit of Cyrus the king of the Persians, and he made proclamation through all his kingdom, and also by writing,

3 Saying, Thus saith Cyrus king of the Persians; The Lord of Israel, the most high Lord, hath made me king of the whole world,

4 And commanded me to build him an house at Jerusalem in Jewry.

5 If therefore there be any of you that are of his people, let the Lord, even his Lord, be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem that is in Judea, and build the house of the Lord of Israel: for || he is the Lord that || Or, this.

7 With gifts, with horses, and with cattle, and other things, which have been set forth by vow, for the temple of the Lord at Jerusalem.

8 ¶ Then the chief of the families of Judea and of the tribe of Benjamin stood up; the priests also, and the Levites, and all they whose mind the Lord had moved to go up, and to build an house for the Lord at Jerusalem,

A thousand golden cups, and a thousand of silver, † censers of silver twenty nine, vials of gold thirty, and of silver ^b two thousand four hundred and ten, and a thousand other vessels.

14 So all the vessels of gold and of silver, which were carried away, were ^c five thousand four hundred threescore and nine.

15 These were brought back by Sana-bassar, together with them of the captivity, from Babylon to Jerusalem.

16 ^d But in the time of Artaxerxes king of the Persians Belemus, and Mithridates, and Tabellius, and † Rathumus, and Beeltethmus, and † Semellius the secretary, with others that were in commission with them, dwelling in Samaria and other places, wrote unto him against them that dwelt in Judea and Jerusalem these letters following;

17 To king Artaxerxes our lord, Thy servants, Rathumus the storywriter, and Semellius the scribe, and the rest of their council, and the judges that are in Celosyria and Phenice.

18 Be it now known to the lord the king, that the Jews that are come up from you to us, being come into Jerusalem, that rebellious and wicked city, do build the marketplaces, and repair the walls of it, and do lay the foundation of the temple.

19 Now if this city and the walls thereof be made up again, they will not only refuse to give tribute, but also rebel against kings.

20 And forasmuch as the things pertaining to the temple are now in hand, we think it meet not to neglect such a matter,

21 But to speak unto our lord the king, to the intent that, if it be thy pleasure, it may be sought out in the books of thy fathers:

22 And thou shalt find in the chronicles what is written concerning these things, and shalt understand that that city was rebellious, troubling both kings and cities:

23 And that the Jews were rebellious, and raised always wars therein; for the which cause even this city was made desolate.

24 Wherefore now we do declare unto thee, O lord the king, that if this city be built again, and the walls thereof set up anew, thou shalt from henceforth have no passage into Celosyria and Phenice.

25 Then the king wrote back again to Rathumus the storywriter, to Beeltethmus, to Semellius the scribe, and to the rest that were in commission, and dwellers in Samaria and Syria and Phenice, after this manner;

26 I have read the epistle which ye have sent unto me: therefore I commanded to make diligent search, and it hath been found that that city was from the beginning practising against kings;

27 And the men therein were given to rebellion and war: and that mighty kings and fierce were in Jerusalem, who reigned and exacted tributes in Celosyria and Phenice.

28 Now therefore I have commanded to hinder those men from building the city, and heed to be taken that there be no more done in it;

29 And that those wicked workers proceed no further to the annoyance of kings.

30 Then king Artaxerxes his letters being read, Rathumus, and Semellius the scribe, and the rest that were in commission with them, removing in haste toward Jerusalem with a troop of horsemen and || a multitude of people in battle array, began to hinder the builders; and the building of the temple in Jerusalem ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of the Persians.

CHAP. III.

4 Three strive to excel each other in wise speeches. 9 They refer themselves to the judgment of the king. 18 The first declareth the strength of wine.

NOW when Darius reigned, he made a great feast unto all his subjects, and unto all his household, and unto all the princes of Media and Persia,

2 And to all the governors and captains and lieutenants that were under him, from India unto Ethiopia, of an hundred twenty and seven provinces.

3 And when they had eaten and drunken, and being satisfied were gone home, then Darius the king went into his bedchamber, and slept, and soon after awaked.

4 Then three young men, that were of the guard that kept the king's body, spake one to another ;

5 Let every one of us speak a sentence: he that shall overcome, and whose sentence shall seem wiser than the others, unto him shall the king Darius give great gifts, and great things in token of victory :

6 As, to be clothed in purple, to drink in gold, and to sleep upon gold, and a chariot with bridles of gold, and an headtire of fine linen, and a chain about his neck :

7 And he shall sit next to Darius because of his wisdom, and shall be called Darius his cousin.

8 And then every one wrote his sentence, sealed it, and laid it under king Darius his pillow ;

9 And said that, when the king is risen, some will give him the writings ; and of whose side the king and the three princes of Persia shall judge that his sentence is the wisest, to him shall the victory be given, as was appointed.

10 The first wrote, Wine is the strongest.

11 The second wrote, The king is strongest.

12 The third wrote, Women are strongest: but above all things Truth beareth away the victory.

13 ¶ Now when the king was risen up, they took their writings, and delivered them unto him, and so he read them :

14 And sending forth he called all the princes of Persia and Media, and the governors, and the captains, and the lieutenants, and the chief officers ;

council.

15 And sat him down in the ¶ royal seat of judgment; and the writings were read before them.

16 And he said, Call the young men, and they shall declare their own sentences. So they were called, and came in.

17 And he said unto them, Declare unto us your mind concerning the writings. Then began the first, who had spoken of the strength of wine ;

18 And he said thus, O ye men, how exceeding strong is wine! it causeth all men to err that drink it :

19 It maketh the mind of the king and of the fatherless child to be all one; of the bondman and of the freeman, of the poor man and of the rich :

20 It turneth also every thought into jollity and mirth, so that a man remembereth neither sorrow nor debt :

21 And it maketh every heart rich, so that a man remembereth neither king nor governor; and it maketh to speak all things by talents :

22 And when they are in their cups, they forget their love both to friends and brethren, and a little after draw out swords :

23 But when they are from the wine, they remember not what they have done.

24 O ye men, is not wine the strongest, that enforceth to do thus? And when he had so spoken, he held his peace.

CHAP. IV.

1 The second declareth the power of a king. 13 The third the force of women, 33 and of truth. 41 The third is judged to be wisest, 47 and obtaineth letters of the king to build Jerusalem. 58 He praiseth God, and sheweth his brethren what he had done.

THEN the second, that had spoken of the strength of the king, began to say,

2 O ye men, do not men excel in strength, that ¶ bear rule over sea and land, and all things in them? ¶ Or, have the command.

3 But yet the king is more mighty: for he is lord of all these things, and hath dominion over them; and whatsoever he commandeth them they do.

4 If he bid them make war the one against the other, they do it: if he send them out against the enemies, they go, and break down mountains, walls, and towers.

5 They slay and are slain, and transgress not the king's commandment: if they get the victory, they bring all to the king, as well the spoil, as all things else.

6 Likewise for those that are no soldiers, and have not to do with wars, but use husbandry, when they have reaped again that which they had sown, they bring it to the king, and compel one another to pay tribute unto the king.

7 And yet he is but one man: if he command to kill, they kill; if he command to spare, they spare;

8 If he command to smite, they smite; if he command to make desolate, they make desolate; if he command to build, they build;

9 If he command to cut down, they cut down; if he command to plant, they plant.

10 So all his people and his armies obey him: furthermore he lieth down, he eateth and drinketh, and taketh his rest:

11 And these keep watch round about him, neither || may any one depart, and do his own business, neither disobey they him in any thing.

12 O ye men, how should not the king be mightiest, when in such sort he is obeyed? And he held his tongue.

13 ¶ Then the third, who had spoken of women, and of the truth, (this was Zorobabel) began to speak.

14 O ye men, it is not the great king, nor the multitude of men, neither is it wine, that † excelleth; who is it then that ruleth them, or hath the lordship over them? are they not women?

15 Women have borne the king and all the people that bear rule by sea and land.

16 Even of them came they: and they nourished them up that planted the vineyards, from whence the wine cometh.

17 These also make garments for men; these bring glory unto men; and without women cannot men be.

18 Yea, and if men have gathered together gold and silver, or any other goodly thing, do they not love a woman which is comely in favour and beauty?

19 And letting all those things go, do they not gape, and even with open mouth fix their eyes fast on her; and have not all men more desire unto her than unto silver or gold, or any goodly thing whatsoever?

20 * A man leaveth his own father that brought him up, and his own country, and cleaveth unto his wife.

21 He sticketh not to spend his life with his wife, and remembereth neither father, nor mother, nor country.

22 By this also ye must know that women have dominion over you: do ye not labour and toil, and give and bring all to the woman?

23 Yea, a man taketh his sword, and goeth his way to rob and to steal, to sail upon the sea and upon rivers;

24 And looketh upon a lion, and goeth in the darkness; and when he hath stolen, spoiled, and robbed, he bringeth it to his love.

25 Wherefore a man loveth his wife better than father or mother.

26 Yea, many there be that have || run out of their wits for women, and become servants for their sakes. || Or, grown desperate.

27 Many also have perished, have erred, and sinned, for women.

28 And now do ye not believe me? is not the king great in his power? do not all regions fear to touch him?

29 Yet did I see him and Apame the king's concubine, the daughter of the admirable || Bartacus, sitting at the right hand of the king, || Joseph. Antiq. lib. 11. cap. 3. Rabuaces Themasus.

30 And taking the crown from the king's head, and setting it upon her own head; she also struck the king with her left hand.

31 And yet || for all this the king gaped and gazed upon her with open mouth: if she laughed upon him, he laughed also: but if she took any displeasure at him, the king was fain to flatter, that she might || be reconciled to him again. || Or, hereat. be friends with him.

32 O ye men, how can it be but women should be strong, seeing they do thus?

33 Then the king and the princes looked one upon another: so he began to speak of the truth.

34 O ye men, are not women strong? great is the earth, high is the heaven, swift is the sun in his course, for he compasseth the heavens round about, and fetcheth his course again to his own place in one day.

35 Is he not great that maketh these things? therefore great is the truth, and stronger than all things.

36 All the earth || calleth upon the truth, and the heaven blesseth it: all works shake and tremble at it, and with it is no unrighteous thing. || Or, praiseth the truth, Athanasius.

37 Wine is wicked, the king is wicked, women are wicked, all the children of men are wicked, and such are all their wicked works; and there is no truth in them; in their unrighteousness also they shall perish.

38 As for the truth, it endureth, and is always strong; it liveth and conquereth for evermore.

39 With her there is no accepting of persons or rewards; but she doeth the things that are just, and refraineth from all unjust and wicked things; and all men do well like of her works.

40 Neither in her judgment is any unrighteousness; and she is the strength, kingdom, power, and majesty, of all ages. Blessed be the God of truth.

41 And with that he held his peace. And all the people then shouted, and said, Great is Truth, and mighty above all things.

42 Then said the king unto him, Ask what thou wilt more than is appointed in the writing, and we will give it thee, because thou art found wisest; and thou shalt sit next me, and shalt be called my cousin.

43 Then said he unto the king, Remember thy vow, which thou hast vowed to build Jerusalem, in the day when thou camest to thy kingdom, 44 And to send away all the vessels that were taken away out of Jerusalem, which Cyrus set apart, when he vowed to destroy Babylon, and to send them again thither.

^b Ps. 137. 7.
Ezek. 25. 12.

45 Thou also hast vowed to build up the temple, ^b which the Edomites burned when Judea was made desolate by the Chaldees.

46 And now, O lord the king, this is that which I require, and which I desire of thee, and this is the princely liberality proceeding from thyself: I desire therefore that thou make good the vow, the performance whereof with thine own mouth thou hast vowed to the King of heaven.

47 Then Darius the king stood up, and kissed him, and wrote letters for him unto all the treasurers and lieutenants and captains and governors, that they should safely convey on their way both him, and all those that go up with him to build Jerusalem.

48 He wrote letters also unto the lieutenants that were in Celosyria and Phenice, and unto them in Libanus, that they should bring cedar wood from Libanus unto Jerusalem, and that they should build the city with him.

49 Moreover he wrote for all the Jews that went out of his realm up into Jewry, concerning their freedom, that no officer, no ruler, no lieutenant, nor ^{||} treasurer, should forcibly enter ^{|| Or, steward.} into their doors;

50 And that all the country which they hold should be free without tribute; and that the Edomites should give over the villages of the Jews which then they held:

51 Yea, that there should be yearly given twenty talents to the building of the temple, until the time that it were built;

52 And other ten talents yearly, to maintain the burnt offerings upon the altar every day, as they had a commandment to offer seventeen:

53 And that all they that went from Babylon to build the city should have free liberty, as well they as their posterity, and all the priests that went away.

54 He wrote also concerning the charges, and the priests' vestments wherein they minister;

55 And likewise for the charges of the Levites, to be given them until the day that the house were finished, and Jerusalem builded up.

56 And he commanded to give to all that kept the city ^{||} pensions and wages. ^{|| Or, portions of land.}

57 He sent away also all the vessels from Babylon, that Cyrus had set apart; and all that Cyrus had given in commandment, the same charged he also to be done, and sent unto Jerusalem.

58 Now when this young man was gone forth, he lifted up his face to heaven toward Jerusalem, and praised the King of heaven, 59 And said, From thee cometh victory, from thee cometh wisdom, and thine is the glory, and I am thy servant.

60 Blessed art thou, who hast given me wisdom: for to thee I give thanks, O Lord of our fathers.

61 And so he took the letters, and went out, and came unto Babylon, and told it all his brethren.

62 And they praised the God of their fathers, because he had given them freedom and liberty

63 To go up, and to build Jerusalem, and the temple which is called by his name: and they feasted with instruments of musick and gladness seven days.

35 All the ministers of the temple, and the sons of the servants of Solomon, were three hundred seventy and two.

36 These came up from Thermeleth and Thelersas, Charaathalar leading them, and Aalar;

37 Neither could they shew their families, nor their stock, how they were of Israel: the sons of ^eLadan, the son of ^fBan, the sons of ^gNecodan, six hundred fifty and two.

38 And of the priests that usurped the office of the priesthood, and were not found: the sons of ^hObdia, the sons of ⁱAccoz, the sons of ^kAddus, who married Augia one of the daughters of Berzelus, and was named after his name.

39 And when the description of the kindred of these men was sought in the register, and was not found, they were removed from executing the office of the priesthood:

40 For unto them said ^{||} Nehemias and Atharias, that they should not be partakers of the holy things, till there arose up an high priest clothed with [†] doctrine and truth.

41 So of Israel, from them of twelve years old and upward, they were all in number forty thousand, beside menservants and womenservants two thousand three hundred and sixty.

43 ^m Four hundred thirty and five camels, seven thousand thirty and six horses, two hundred forty and five mules, five thousand five hundred twenty and five ^{||} beasts used to the yoke.

44 And certain of the chief of their families, when they came to the temple of God that is in Jerusalem, vowed to set up the house again in his own place according to their ability, 45 And to give into the holy treasury of the works a thousand pounds of gold, five thousand of silver, and an hundred priestly vestments.

46 And so dwelt the priests and the Levites and the people in Jerusalem, and in the country, the singers also and the porters; and all Israel in their villages.

47 But when the seventh month was at hand, and when the children of Israel were every man in his own place, they came all together with one consent into the open place of the first ^{||} gate which is toward the east.

55 Unto them of Zidon also and Tyre they gave carrs, that they should bring cedar trees from Libanus, which should be brought by floats to the haven of Joppe, according as it was commanded them by Cyrus king of the Persians.

56 And in the second year and second month after his coming to the temple of God at Jerusalem began Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and Jesus the son of Josedec, and their brethren, and the priests, and the Levites, and all they that were come unto Jerusalem out of the captivity:

7 The copy of the letters which Sisinnus, governor of Syria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, rulers in Syria and Phenice, wrote and sent unto Darius; To king Darius, greeting:

8 Let all things be known unto our lord the king, that being come into the country of Judea, and entered into the city of Jerusalem, we found in the city of Jerusalem the ancients of the Jews that were of the captivity

9 Building an house unto the Lord, great and new, of hewn and costly stones, and the timber already laid up on the walls.

10 And those works are done with great speed, and the work goeth on prosperously in their hands, and with all glory and diligence is it made.

11 Then asked we these elders, saying, By whose commandment build ye this house, and lay the foundations of these works?

12 Therefore to the intent that we might give knowledge unto thee by writing, we demanded of them who were the chief doers, and we required of them the names in writing of their principal men.

13 So they gave us this answer, We are the servants of the Lord which made heaven and earth.

14 And as for this house, it was builded many years ago by a king of Israel great and strong, and was finished.

15 But when our fathers provoked God unto wrath, and sinned against the Lord of Israel which is in heaven, he gave them over into the power of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, of the Chaldees;

16 Who pulled down the house, and burned it, and carried away the people captives unto Babylon.

17 But in the first year that king Cyrus reigned over the country of Babylon Cyrus the king wrote to build up this house.

18 And the holy vessels of gold and of silver, that Nabuchodonosor had carried away out of the house at Jerusalem, and had set them in his own temple, those Cyrus the king brought forth again out of the temple at Babylon, and they were delivered to || Zorobabel and to Sanabassar the ruler, 20 Then the same Sanabassar, being come hither, laid the foundations of the house of the Lord at Jerusalem; and from that time to this being still a building, it is not yet fully ended.

21 Now therefore, if it seem good unto the king, let search be made among the || records of king Cyrus:

24 In the first year of the reign of Cyrus king Cyrus commanded that the house of the Lord at Jerusalem should be built again, where they do sacrifice with continual fire:

25 Whose height shall be sixty cubits, and the breadth sixty cubits, with three rows of hewn stones, and one row of new wood of that country; and the expences thereof to be given out of the house of king Cyrus:

26 And that the holy vessels of the house of the Lord, both of gold and silver, that Nabuchodonosor took out of the house at Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, should be restored to the house at Jerusalem, and be set in the place where they were before.

27 And also he commanded that Sisinnes the governor of Syria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, and their companions, and those which were appointed rulers in Syria and Phenice, should be careful not to meddle with the place, but suffer Zorobabel, the servant of the Lord, and governor of Judea, and the elders of the Jews, to build the house of the Lord in that place.

28 I have commanded also to have it built up whole again; and that they look diligently to help those that be of the captivity of the Jews, till the house of the Lord be finished:

29 And out of the tribute of Celosyria and Phenice a portion carefully to be given these men for the sacrifices of the Lord, that is, to Zorobabel the governor, for bullocks, and rams, and lambs;

30 And also corn, salt, wine, and oil, and that continually every year without further question, according as the priests that be in Jerusalem shall signify to be daily spent:

32 And he commanded that whosoever should transgress, yea, or make light of any thing afore spoken or written, out of his own house should a tree be taken, and he thereon be hanged, and all his goods seized for the king.

33 The Lord therefore, whose name is there called upon, utterly destroy every king and nation, that stretcheth out his hand to hinder or endamage that house of the Lord in Jerusalem.

46 And commanded them that they should speak unto Daddeus, and to ^ghis brethren, and to the treasurers in that place, to send us such men as might execute the priests' office in the house of the Lord.

47 And by the mighty hand of our Lord they brought unto us skilful men of the sons of ^hMoli the son of Levi, the son of Israel, ⁱAsebebia, and his sons, and his brethren, who were eighteen.

48 ^k And Asebia, and Annuus, and Osaias his brother, of the sons of Chanuneus, and their sons, were twenty men.

49 And of the servants of the temple whom David had ordained, and the principal men for the service of the Levites, to wit, the servants of the temple, two hundred and twenty, the catalogue of whose names were shewed.

50 And there I ^{||} vowed a fast unto the young men before our Lord, to desire of him a prosperous journey both for us and them that were with us, for our children, and for the [†]cattle :

51 For I was ashamed to ask the king footmen, and horsemen, and conduct for safeguard against our adversaries.

52 For we had said unto the king, that the power of the Lord our God should be with them that seek him, to support them in all ways.

53 And again we besought our Lord as touching these things, and found him favourable unto us.

54 Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, ¹Esebias, and Assanias, and ten men of their brethren with them :

55 And I weighed them the gold, and the silver, and the holy vessels of the house of our Lord, which the king, and his council, and the princes, and all Israel, had given.

56 And when I had weighed it, I delivered unto them six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels of an hundred talents, and an hundred talents of gold, 57 And twenty golden vessels, and [†]twelve vessels of brass, even of fine brass, glittering like gold.

58 And I said unto them, Both ye are holy unto the Lord, and the vessels are holy, and the gold and the silver is a vow unto the Lord, the Lord of our fathers.

59 Watch ye, and keep them till ye deliver them to the chief of the priests and Levites, and to the principal men of the families of Israel, in Jerusalem, into the chambers of the house of our God.

60 So the priests and the Levites, who had received the silver and the gold and the vessels, brought them unto Jerusalem, into the temple of the Lord.

61 And from the river Theras we departed the twelfth day of the first month, and came to Jerusalem by the mighty hand of our Lord, which was with us: and from the ^{||} beginning of our journey the Lord delivered us from every enemy, and so we came to Jerusalem.

62 And when we had been there three days, the gold and silver that was weighed was delivered in the house of our Lord on the fourth day ^{||} unto Marmoth the priest the son of Iri.

63 And with him was Eleazar the son of Phinees, and with them were Josabad the son of Jesu and ^{||} Moeth the son of Sabban, Levites: all was delivered them by number and weight.

64 And all the weight of them was written up the same hour.

65 Moreover they that were come out of the captivity offered sacrifice unto the Lord God of Israel, even twelve bullocks for all Israel, fourscore and sixteen rams, 66 [†]Threescore and twelve lambs, goats for a peace offering, twelve; all of them a sacrifice to the Lord.

67 And they delivered the king's commandments unto the king's stewards, and to the governors of Celosyria and Phenice; and they honoured the people and the temple of God.

68 Now when these things were done, the rulers came unto me, and said, have married with their daughters, and the holy seed is mixed with the strange people of the land; and from the beginning of this matter the rulers and the great men have been partakers of this iniquity.

71 And as soon as I had heard these things, I rent my clothes, and the holy garment, and pulled off the hair from off my head and beard, and sat me down sad and very heavy.

72 So all they that were then moved at the word of the Lord God of Israel assembled unto me, whilst I mourned for the iniquity: but I sat still full of heaviness until the evening sacrifice.

73 Then rising up from the fast with my clothes and the holy garment rent, and bowing my knees, and stretching forth my hands unto the Lord,

74 I said, O Lord, I am confounded and ashamed before thy face;

75 For our sins || are multiplied above our heads, and our ignorances have reached up unto heaven.

76 For ever since the time of our fathers we have been and are in great sin, even unto this day.

77 And for our sins and our fathers' we with our brethren and our kings and our priests were given up unto the kings of the earth, to the sword, and to captivity, and for a prey with shame, unto this day.

78 And now in some measure hath mercy been shewed unto us from thee, O Lord, that there should be left us a root and a name in the place of thy sanctuary;

81 Yea, and honoured the temple of our Lord, and raised up the desolate Sion, that they have given us a sure abiding in Jewry and Jerusalem.

82 And now, O Lord, what shall we say, having these things? for we have transgressed thy commandments, which thou gavest by the hand of thy servants the prophets, saying, 83 That the land, which ye enter into to possess as an heritage, is a land polluted with the pollutions of the strangers of the land, and they have filled it with their uncleanness.

84 Therefore now shall ye not join your daughters unto their sons, neither shall ye take their daughters unto your sons.

85 Moreover ye shall never seek to have peace with them, that ye may be strong, and eat the good things of the land, and that ye may leave the inheritance of the land unto your children for evermore.

86 And all that is befallen is done unto us for our wicked works and great sins: for thou, O Lord, didst make our sins light, 87 And didst give unto us such a root: but we have turned back again to transgress thy law, and to mingle ourselves with the uncleanness of the nations of the land.

88 || Mightest not thou be angry with us to destroy us, till thou hadst left us neither root, seed, nor name? || Or, Be not angry, &c.

89 O Lord of Israel, thou art true: for we are left a root this day.

90 Behold, now are we before thee in our iniquities, for we cannot stand any longer by reason of these things before thee.

91 ⁿ And as Esdras in his prayer made his confession, weeping, and lying flat upon the ground before the temple, there gathered unto him from Jerusalem a very great multitude of men and women and children: for there was great weeping among the multitude. ⁿ Ezra 10. 1.

of the temple went to the cham-

2 And remained there, and did eat

3 And there was a proclamation in of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin gathered together at Jerusalem the twen-

6 And all the multitude sat trembling in the broad court of the temple because of the present foul weather.

7 So Esdras arose up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed the law in marrying strange wives, thereby to increase the sins of Israel.

8 And now by confessing give glory unto the Lord God of our fathers,

9 And do his will, and separate yourselves from the heathen of the land, and from the strange women.

10 Then cried the whole multitude, and said with a loud voice, Like as thou hast spoken, so will we do.

11 But forasmuch as the people are many, and it is foul weather, so that we cannot stand without, and this is not a work of a day or two, seeing our sin in these things is spread far :

12 Therefore let the rulers of the multitude || stay, and let all them of 43 And in the midst of them there was a young man of a high stature, taller than all the rest, and upon every one of their heads he set crowns, and was more exalted; which I marvelled at greatly.

^p Rev. 7. 14. 44 So ^p I asked the angel, and said,
^{||} Or, Lord. || Sir, what are these?

45 He answered and said unto me, These be they that have put off the mortal clothing, and put on the immortal, and have confessed the name of God: now are they crowned, and receive palms.

46 Then said I unto the angel, What young person is it that crowneth them, and giveth them palms in their hands?

^q Rev. 2. 10. 47 So he answered and said unto me, It is the Son of God, whom they have confessed in the world. Then began I greatly to commend them that stood so stiffly for the name of the Lord.

48 Then the angel said unto me, Go thy way, and tell my people what manner of things, and how great wonders of the Lord thy God, thou hast seen.

CHAP. III.

¹ Esdras is troubled, 13 and acknowledgeth the sins of the people: 28 yet complaineth that the heathen were lords over them, being more wicked than they.

IN the thirtieth year after the ruin of the city I was in Babylon, and lay troubled upon my bed, and my thoughts came up over my heart:

2 For I saw the desolation of Sion, and the wealth of them that dwelt at Babylon.

3 And my spirit was sore moved, so that I began to speak words full of fear to the most High, and said,

4 O Lord, who bearest rule, thou spakest at the beginning, when thou didst plant the earth, and that thyself alone, and commandedst the people,

^a Gen. 2. 7. 5 ^a And gavest a body unto Adam without soul, which was the workmanship of thine hands, and didst breathe into him the breath of life, and he was made living before thee.

6 And thou leddest him into paradise, which thy right hand had planted, before ever the earth came forward.

7 And unto him thou gavest commandment to love thy way: which he transgressed, and immediately thou appointedst death in him and in his generations, of whom came nations, tribes, people, and kindreds, out of number.

^b Gen. 6. 12. 8 ^b And every people walked after their own will, and did wonderful things before thee, and despised thy commandments.

9 ^c And again in process of time thou ^c Gen. 7. 10. broughtest the flood upon those that dwelt in the world, and destroyedst them.

10 And it came to pass in every of them, that as death was to Adam, so was the flood to these.

11 Nevertheless one of them thou leftest, namely, ^d Noah with his household, of whom came all righteous men. ^d 1 Pet. 3. 20.

12 And it happened, that when they that dwelt upon the earth began to multiply, and had gotten them many children, and were a great people, they began again to be more ungodly than the first.

13 Now when they lived so wickedly before thee, ^e thou didst choose thee a ^e Gen. 12. 1. man from among them, whose name was ^f Abraham. ^f Gen. 17. 5.

14 Him thou lovedst, and unto him only thou shewedst thy will:

15 And madest an everlasting covenant with him, promising him that thou wouldest never forsake his seed.

16 ^g And unto him thou gavest Isaac, ^g Gen. 21. 2, 3. and ^h unto Isaac also thou gavest Jacob ^h Gen. 25. 25, 26. and Esau. As for Jacob, thou ⁱ didst choose him to thee, and put by Esau: ⁱ Mal. 1. 2, 3. Rom. 9. 13.

17 And it came to pass, that when thou leddest his seed out of Egypt, ^k thou broughtest them up to the mount ^k Ex. 19. 1. Sinai. Deut. 4. 10.

18 And bowing the heavens, thou didst set fast the earth, movedst the whole world, and madest the depths to tremble, and troubledst the men of that age.

19 And thy glory went through four gates, of fire, and of earthquake, and of wind, and of cold; that thou mightest give the law unto the seed of Jacob, ^{||} and diligence unto the generation of Israel. ^{||} Or, and to all the generation of Israel, that they should keep it with diligence.

20 And yet tookest thou not away from them a wicked heart, that thy law might bring forth fruit in them.

21 For the first Adam bearing a wicked heart transgressed, and was overcome; and so be all they that are born of him.

22 Thus ^l infirmity was made permanent; and the law (also) in the heart ^l Rom. 7. 8. &c.

of the people with the malignity of the root; so that the good departed away, and the evil abode still.

^{m 1 Sam. 16. 13.} 23 So the times passed away, and the years were brought to an end: ^m then didst thou raise thee up a servant, called David:

^{n 2 Sam. 5. 2. & 7. 5, 13.} 24 ⁿ Whom thou commandedst to build a city unto thy name, and to offer incense and oblations unto thee therein.

25 When this was done many years, then they that inhabited the city forsook thee,

26 And in all things did even as Adam and all his generations had done: for they also had a wicked heart:

27 And so thou gavest thy city over into the hands of thine enemies.

28 Are their deeds then any better that inhabit Babylon, that they should therefore have the dominion over Sion?

29 For when I came thither, and had seen impieties without number, then my soul saw many evildoers in this thirtieth year, so that my heart failed me.

30 For I have seen how thou sufferest them sinning, and hast spared wicked doers: and hast destroyed thy people, and hast preserved thine enemies, and hast not signified it.

^{|| Or, I conceive.} 31 ^{||} I do not remember how this way may be left: Are they then of Babylon better than they of Sion?

32 Or is there any other people that knoweth thee beside Israel? or what generation hath so believed thy covenants as Jacob?

^{|| Or, abound.} 33 And yet their reward appeareth not, and their labour hath no fruit: for I have gone here and there through the heathen, and I see that they ^{||} flow in wealth, and think not upon thy commandments.

34 Weigh thou therefore our wickedness now in the balance, and their's also that dwell in the world; and so shall thy name no where be found but in Israel.

35 Or when was it that they which dwell upon the earth have not sinned in thy sight? or what people have so kept thy commandments?

36 Thou shalt find that Israel by name hath kept thy precepts; but not the heathen.

CHAP. IV.

^{1 The angel declareth the ignorance of Esdras in God's judgments, 13 and adviseth him not to meddle with things above his reach. 23 Nevertheless Esdras asketh divers questions, and receiveth answers to them.}

AND the angel that was sent unto me, whose name was Uriel, gave me an answer,

2 And said, Thy heart hath gone too far in this world, and thinkest thou to comprehend the way of the most High?

3 Then said I, Yea, my lord. And he answered me, and said, I am sent to shew thee three ways, and to set forth three similitudes before thee:

4 Whereof if thou canst declare me one, I will shew thee also the way that thou desirest to see, and I shall shew thee from whence the wicked heart cometh.

5 And I said, Tell on, my lord. Then said he unto me, Go thy way, weigh me the weight of the fire, or measure me the blast of the wind, or call me again the day that is past.

6 Then answered I and said, What man is able to do that, that thou shouldst ask such things of me?

7 And he said unto me, If I should ask thee how great dwellings are in the midst of the sea, or how many springs are in the beginning of the deep, or how many springs are above the firmament, or which are the outgoings of paradise:

8 Peradventure thou wouldest say unto me, I never went down into the deep, nor as yet into hell, neither did I ever climb up into heaven.

9 Nevertheless now have I asked thee but only of the fire and wind, and of the day wherethrough thou hast passed, and of things from which thou canst not be separated, and yet canst thou give me no answer of them.

10 He said moreover unto me, Thine own things, and such as are grown up with thee, canst thou not know;

11 How should thy vessel then be able to comprehend the way of the Highest, and, the world being now outwardly corrupted, to understand the ^{||} corruption that is evident in my sight? ^{|| Or, incorruption.}

12 Then said I unto him, It were better that we were not at all, than that we should live still in wickedness, and to suffer, and not to know wherefore.

13 He answered me, and said, I went

^a Judg. 9. 8. into a forest into a plain, and the ^a trees
² Chron. 25. took counsel,
 18.

14 And said, Come, let us go and make war against the sea, that it may depart away before us, and that we may make us more woods.

15 The floods of the sea also in like manner took counsel, and said, Come, let us go up and subdue the woods of the plain, that there also we may make us another country.

16 The thought of the wood was in vain, for the fire came and consumed it.

17 The thought of the floods of the sea came likewise to nought, for the sand stood up and stopped them.

18 If thou wert judge now betwixt these two, whom wouldest thou begin to justify? or whom wouldest thou condemn?

|| Or, the land.

|| Or, waves.

19 I answered and said, Verily it is a foolish thought that they both have devised, for || the ground is given unto the wood, and the sea also hath his place to bear his || floods.

20 Then answered he me, and said, Thou hast given a right judgment, but why judgest thou not thyself also?

|| Or, the land.

^b Is. 55. 8, 9.
 John 3. 31.
 1 Cor. 2. 14.

21 For like as || the ground is given unto the wood, and the sea to his floods: even so ^b they that dwell upon the earth may understand nothing but that which is upon the earth: and he that dwelleth above the heavens may only understand the things that are above the height of the heavens.

22 Then answered I and said, I beseech thee, O Lord, let me have understanding:

23 For it was not my mind to be curious of the high things, but of such as pass by us daily, namely, wherefore Israel is given up as a reproach to the heathen, and for what cause the people whom thou hast loved is given over unto ungodly nations, and why the law of our forefathers is brought to nought, and the written covenants come || to none effect,

|| Or, no where.

24 And we pass away out of the world as grasshoppers, and our life is astonishment and fear, and we are not worthy to obtain mercy.

25 What will he then do unto his name whereby we are called? of these things have I asked.

26 Then answered he me, and said, The more thou searchest, the more thou shalt marvel; for the world hasteth fast to pass away, 27 And cannot comprehend the things that are promised to the righteous in time to come: for ^c this world is full of ^c 1 John 5. 19. unrighteousness and infirmities.

28 But as concerning the things whereof thou askest me, I will tell thee; for the evil is sown, but the destruction thereof is not yet come.

29 If therefore that which is sown be not turned upside down, and if the place where the evil is sown pass not away, then cannot it come that is sown with good.

30 For the grain of evil seed hath been sown in the heart of Adam from the beginning, and how much ungodliness hath it brought up unto this time? and how much shall it yet bring forth until the || time of threshing come?

|| Or, floor.

31 Ponder now by thyself, how great fruit of wickedness the grain of evil seed hath brought forth.

32 And when the ears shall be cut down, which are without number, how great a floor shall they fill?

33 Then I answered and said, How, and when shall these things come to pass? wherefore are our years few and evil?

34 And he answered me, saying, Do not thou hasten above the most Highest: for thy haste is in vain to be above him, for thou hast much exceeded.

35 Did not the souls also of the righteous ask question of these things in their chambers, saying, How long shall I hope on this fashion? when cometh the fruit of the floor of our reward?

36 And unto these things || Uriel the archangel gave them answer, and said, Even when the number of seeds is filled in you: for he hath weighed the world in the balance.

|| Or, Jeremiel.

37 By measure hath he measured the times, and by number hath he numbered the times; and he doth not move nor stir them, until the said measure be fulfilled.

38 Then answered I and said, O Lord that bearest rule, even we all are full of impiety.

39 And for our sakes peradventure it is that the floors of the righteous are not filled, because of the sins of them that dwell upon the earth.

40 So he answered me, and said, Go thy way to a woman with child, and ask of her when she hath fulfilled her nine months, if her womb may keep the birth any longer within her.

41 Then said I, No, Lord, that can she not. And he said unto me, In the grave the chambers of souls are like the womb of a woman :

42 For like as a woman that travail-eth maketh haste to escape the necessity of the travail: even so do these places haste to deliver those things that are committed unto them.

43 From the beginning, look, what thou desirest to see, it shall be shewed thee.

44 Then answered I and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, and if it be possible, and if I be meet therefore, 45 Shew me then whether there be more to come than is past, or more past than is to come.

46 What is past I know, but what is for to come I know not.

47 And he said unto me, Stand up upon the right side, and I shall expound the similitude unto thee.

48 So I stood, and saw, and, behold, an hot burning oven passed by before me: and it happened, that when the flame was gone by I looked, and, behold, the smoke remained still.

49 After this there passed by before me a watery cloud, and sent down much rain with a storm; and when the stormy rain was past, the drops remained still.

50 Then said he unto me, Consider with thyself; as the rain is more than the drops, and as the fire is greater than the smoke; but the drops and the smoke remain behind: so the quantity which is past did more exceed.

51 Then I prayed, and said, May I live, thinkest thou, until that time? or what shall happen in those days?

52 He answered me, and said, As for the tokens whereof thou askest me, I may tell thee of them in part: but as touching thy life, I am not sent to shew thee; for I do not know it.

CHAP. V.

1 The signs of the times to come. 23 He asketh why God, choosing but one people, did cast them off. 30 He is taught, that God's judgments are unsearchable, 46 and that God doeth not all at once.

NEVERTHELESS as concerning the tokens, behold, the days shall come, that they which dwell upon earth shall be taken in a great number, and the way of truth shall be hidden, and the land shall be barren of faith.

|| Or, shall be found with great wealth.

2 But iniquity shall be increased above that which now thou seest, or that thou hast heard long ago.

*Mat. 24.12.

3 And the land, that thou seest now to have root, shalt thou see wasted suddenly.

|| Or, that thou treadest upon and seest.

4 But if the most High grant thee to live, thou shalt see after the third trumpet that the sun shall suddenly shine again in the night, and the moon thrice in the day:

5 And blood shall drop out of wood, and the stone shall give his voice, and the people shall be troubled:

6 And even he shall rule, whom they look not for that dwell upon the earth, and the fowls shall take their flight away together:

7 And the Sodomitish sea shall cast out fish, and make a noise in the night, which many have not known: but they shall all hear the voice thereof.

8 There shall be a confusion also in many places, and the fire shall be oft sent out again, and the wild beasts shall change their places, and men-struous women shall bring forth monsters:

|| Or, slaked.

9 And salt waters shall be found in the sweet, and all friends shall destroy one another; then shall wit hide itself, and understanding withdraw itself into his secret chamber,

10 And shall be sought of many, and yet not be found: then shall unrighteousness and incontineny be multiplied upon earth.

11 One land also shall ask another, and say, Is righteousness that maketh a man righteous gone through thee? And it shall say, No.

12 At the same time shall men hope, but nothing obtain: they shall labour, but their ways shall not prosper.

|| Or, be directed.

13 To shew thee such tokens I have leave; and if thou wilt pray again, and

|| Or, measure.

|| Or, who shall be? Manuscript.

weep as now, and fast seven days, thou shalt hear yet greater things.

14 Then I awaked, and an extreme fearfulness went through all my body, and my mind was troubled, so that it fainted.

15 So the angel that was come to talk with me held me, comforted me, and set me up upon my feet.

16 And in the second night it came to pass, that Salathiel the captain of the people came unto me, saying, Where hast thou been? and why is thy countenance so heavy?

17 Knowest thou not that Israel is committed unto thee in the land of their captivity?

18 Up then, and eat bread, and forsake us not, as the shepherd that leaveth his flock in the hands of cruel wolves.

19 Then said I unto him, Go thy ways from me, and come not nigh me. And he heard what I said, and went from me.

20 And so I fasted seven days, mourning and weeping, like as Uriel the angel commanded me.

21 And after seven days so it was, that the thoughts of my heart were very grievous unto me again,

22 And my soul recovered the spirit of understanding, and I began to talk with the most High again,

23 And said, O Lord that bearest rule, of every wood of the earth, and of all the trees thereof, thou hast chosen thee one only vine:

24 And of all lands of the whole world thou hast chosen thee one pit: and of all the flowers thereof one lily:

25 And of all the depths of the sea thou hast filled thee one river: and of all builded cities thou hast hallowed Sion unto thyself:

26 And of all the fowls that are created thou hast named thee one dove: and of all the cattle that are made thou hast provided thee one sheep:

27 And among all the multitudes of people thou hast gotten thee one people: and unto this people, whom thou lovedst, thou gavest a law that is approved of all.

28 And now, O Lord, why hast thou given this one people over unto many? and ^{||} upon the one root hast thou prepared others, and why hast thou scattered thy only one people among many?

29 And they which did gainsay thy promises, and believed not thy covenants, have trodden them down.

30 If thou didst so much hate thy people, yet shouldest thou punish them with thine own hands.

31 Now when I had spoken these words, the angel that came to me the night afore was sent unto me, 32 And said unto me, Hear me, and I will instruct thee; hearken to the thing that I say, and I shall tell thee more.

33 And I said, Speak on, my Lord. Then said he unto me, Thou art sore troubled in mind for Israel's sake: ^blovest thou that people better than ^bch. 8. 47. he that made them?

34 And I said, No, Lord: but of very grief have I spoken: for my reins pain me every hour, while I labour to comprehend the way of the most High, and to seek out part of his judgment.

35 And he said unto me, Thou canst not. And I said, Wherefore, Lord? whereunto was I born then? or why was not my mother's womb then my grave, that I might not have seen the travail of Jacob, and the wearisome toil of the stock of Israel?

36 And he said unto me, Number me the things that are not yet come, gather me together the drops that are scattered abroad, make me the flowers green again that are withered, 37 Open me the places that are closed, and bring me forth the winds that in them are shut up, shew me the image of a voice: and then I will declare to thee the thing that thou labourest to know.

38 And I said, O Lord that bearest rule, who may know these things, but he ^cthat hath not his dwelling with ^cDan. 2. 11. men?

39 As for me, I am unwise: how may I then speak of these things whereof thou askest me?

40 Then said he unto me, Like as thou canst do none of these things that I have spoken of, even so canst thou not find out my judgment, or in the end the love that I have promised unto my people.

41 And I said, Behold, O Lord, yet art thou nigh unto them that be reserved till the end: and what shall they do that have been before me, or we that be now, or they that shall come after us?

42 And he said unto me, I will liken my judgment unto a ring: like as there is no slackness of the last, even so there is no swiftness of the first.

43 So I answered and said, Coudest thou not make those that have been made, and be now, and that are for to come, at once; that thou mightest shew thy judgment the sooner?

44 Then answered he me, and said, The creature may not haste above the maker; neither may the world hold them at once that shall be created therein.

45 And I said, As thou hast said unto thy servant, that thou, which givest life to all, hast given life at once to the creature that thou hast created, and the creature bare it: even so it might now also bear them that now be present at once.

46 And he said unto me, Ask the womb of a woman, and say unto her, If thou bringest forth children, why dost thou it not together, but one after another? pray her therefore to bring forth ten children at once.

47 And I said, She cannot: but must do it by distance of time.

48 Then said he unto me, Even so have I given the womb of the earth to those that be sown in it in their times.

49 For like as a young child may not bring forth the things that belong to the aged, even so have I disposed the world which I created.

50 And I asked, and said, Seeing thou hast now given me the way, I will proceed to speak before thee: for our mother, of whom thou hast told me that she is young, draweth now nigh unto age.

51 He answered me, and said, Ask a woman that beareth children, and she shall tell thee.

52 Say unto her, Wherefore are not they whom thou hast now brought forth like those that were before, but less of stature?

53 And she shall answer thee, They that be born in the strength of youth are of one fashion, and they that are born in the time of age, when the womb faileth, are otherwise.

54 Consider thou therefore also, how that ye are less of stature than those that were before you.

55 And so are they that come after you less than ye, as the creatures which now begin to be old, and have passed over the strength of youth.

56 Then said I, Lord, I beseech thee, if I have found favour in thy sight, shew thy servant by whom thou visitest thy creature.

CHAP. VI.

1 God's purpose is eternal. 8 The next world shall follow this immediately. 13 What shall fall out at the last. 31 He is promised more knowledge, 38 and reckoneth up the works of the creation, 57 and complaineth that they have no part in the world for whom it was made.

AND he said unto me, In the beginning, when the || earth was made, before the borders of the world stood, or ever the winds blew,

|| Or, circle of the earth.

2 Before it thundered and lightened, or ever the foundations of paradise were laid,

3 Before the fair flowers were seen, or ever the moveable powers were established, before the innumerable multitude of angels were gathered together,

4 Or ever the heights of the air were lifted up, before the measures of the firmament were named, or ever the chimneys in Sion were hot,

5 And ere the present years were sought out, and or ever the inventions of them that now sin were turned, before they were sealed that have gathered faith for a treasure:

6 Then did I consider these things, and they all were made through me alone, and through none other: by me also they shall be ended, and by none other.

7 Then answered I and said, What shall be the parting asunder of the times? or when shall be the end of the first, and the beginning of it that followeth?

8 And he said unto me, From Abraham unto Isaac, when Jacob and Esau were born of him, * Jacob's hand held || first the heel of Esau.

 Gen. 25. 26.*

|| Or, from the beginning.

9 For Esau is the end of the world, and Jacob is the beginning of it that followeth.

10 The hand of man is betwixt the heel and the hand: other question, Esdras, ask thou not.

11 I answered then and said, O Lord that bearest rule, if I have found favour in thy sight, 12 I beseech thee, shew thy servant the end of thy tokens, whereof thou shewedst me part the last night.

13 So he answered and said unto me, Stand up upon thy feet, and hear a mighty sounding voice.

14 And it shall be as it were a great || motion; but the place where thou standest shall not be moved.

|| Or, earthquake.

15 And therefore when it speaketh be not afraid: for the word is of the end, and the foundation of the earth is understood.

16 And why? because the speech of these things trembleth and is moved: for it knoweth that the end of these things must be changed.

17 And it happened, that when I had heard it I stood up upon my feet, and hearkened, and, behold, there was a voice that spake, and the sound of it was like the sound of many waters.

18 And it said, Behold, the days come, that I will begin to draw nigh, and to visit them that dwell upon the earth,

19 And will begin to make inquisition of them, what they be that have hurt unjustly with their unrighteousness, and when the affliction of Sion shall be fulfilled;

20 And when the world, that shall || Or, sealed. begin to vanish away, shall be || finished, then will I shew these tokens: the books shall be opened before the firmament, and they shall see all together:

21 And the children of a year old shall speak with their voices, the women with child shall bring forth untimely children of three or four months old, and they shall live, and be raised up.

22 And suddenly shall the sown places appear unsown, the full storehouses shall suddenly be found empty:

b 1 Cor. 13. 42.

23 And b the trumpet shall give a sound, which when every man heareth, they shall be suddenly afraid.

24 At that time shall friends fight one against another like enemies, and the earth shall stand in fear with those that dwell therein, the springs of the fountains shall stand still, and in three hours they shall not run.

25 Whosoever remaineth from all these that I have told thee shall escape, and see my salvation, and the end of your world.

26 And the men that are received shall see it, who have not tasted death from their birth: and the heart of the inhabitants shall be changed, and turned into another meaning.

27 For evil shall be put out, and deceit shall be quenched.

28 As for faith, it shall flourish, corruption shall be overcome, and the truth, which hath been so long without fruit, shall be declared.

29 And when he talked with me, behold, I looked by little and little upon him before whom I stood.

30 And these words said he unto me; I am come to shew thee the time of the night to come.

31 If thou wilt pray yet more, and fast seven days again, I shall tell thee greater things || by day than I have heard.

|| See ch. 13. 52.

32 For thy voice is heard before the most High: for the Mighty hath seen thy righteous dealing, he hath seen also thy chastity, which thou hast had ever since thy youth.

33 And therefore hath he sent me to shew thee all these things, and to say unto thee, Be of good comfort, and fear not.

34 And hasten not with the times that are past, to think vain things, that thou mayest not hasten from the latter times.

35 And it came to pass after this, that I wept again, and fasted seven days in like manner, that I might fulfil the three weeks which he told me.

36 And in the eighth night was my heart vexed within me again, and I began to speak before the most High.

37 For my spirit was greatly set on fire, and my soul was in distress.

38 And I said, O Lord, thou spakest from the beginning of the creation, even the first day, and saidst thus;

Let heaven and earth be made; and || Gen. 1. 1. thy word was a perfect work.

39 And then was the spirit, and darkness and silence were on every side;

the sound of man's voice was not yet formed.

^d Gen. 1. 3. 40 ^d Then commandedst thou a fair light to come forth of thy treasures, that thy work might appear.

^e Gen. 1. 6. 41 ^e Upon the second day thou madest the spirit of the firmament, and commandedst it to part asunder, and to make a division betwixt the waters, that the one part might go up, and the other remain beneath.

^f Gen. 1. 9. 42 ^f Upon the third day thou didst command that the waters should be gathered in the seventh part of the earth: six parts hast thou dried up, and kept them, to the intent that of these some being planted of God and tilled might serve thee.

43 For as soon as thy word went forth the work was made.

44 For immediately there was great and innumerable fruit, and many and divers pleasures for the taste, and flowers of unchangeable colour, and odours of wonderful smell: and this was done the third day.

^g Gen. 1. 14. 45 ^g Upon the fourth day thou commandedst that the sun should shine, and the moon give her light, and the stars should be in order:

46 And gavest them a charge to do ^h service unto man, that was to be made. ^h Gen. 1. 15. Deut. 4. 19.

ⁱ Gen. 1. 20. 47 Upon the fifth day thou saidst unto the seventh part, ⁱ where the waters were gathered, that it should bring forth living creatures, fowls and fishes: and so it came to pass.

48 For the dumb water and without life brought forth living things at the commandment of God, that all people might praise thy wondrous works.

49 Then didst thou ordain two living ^{||} Behemoth. creatures, the one thou calledst ^{||} Enoch, and the other Leviathan;

50 And didst separate the one from the other: for the seventh part, namely, where the water was gathered together, might not hold them both.

51 Unto Enoch thou gavest one part, which was dried up the third day, that he should dwell in the same part, wherein are a thousand hills:

52 But unto Leviathan thou gavest the seventh part, namely, the moist; and hast kept him to be devoured of whom thou wilt, and when.

53 ^k Upon the sixth day thou gavest ^k Gen. 1. 24. commandment unto the earth, that before thee it should bring forth beasts, cattle, and creeping things:

54 ^l And after these, Adam also, whom ^l Gen. 1. 26. thou madest lord of all thy creatures: of him come we all, and the people also whom thou hast chosen.

55 All this have I spoken before thee, O Lord, because thou madest the world for our sakes.

56 As for the other people, which also come of Adam, thou hast said that they are nothing, but be like unto spittle: and hast likened the abundance of them unto a drop that falleth from a vessel.

57 And now, O Lord, behold, these heathen, which have ever been reputed as nothing, have begun to be lords over us, and to devour us.

58 But we thy people, whom thou hast called thy firstborn, thy only begotten, and thy fervent lover, are given into their hands.

59 If the world now be made for our sakes, why do we not possess an inheritance with the world? how long shall this endure?

CHAP. VII.

⁴ The way is narrow. ¹² When it was made narrow. ²⁸ All shall die, and rise again. ³⁸ Christ shall sit in judgment. ⁴⁶ God hath not made paradise in vain, ⁶² and is merciful.

AND when I had made an end of speaking these words, there was sent unto me the angel which had been sent unto me the nights afore:

2 And he said unto me, Up, Esdras, and hear the words that I am come to tell thee.

3 And I said, Speak on, my God. Then said he unto me, The sea is set in a wide place, that it might be deep and great.

4 But put the case the entrance were narrow, and like a river;

5 Who then could go into the sea to look upon it, and to rule it? if he went not through the narrow, how could he come into the broad?

6 There is also another thing; A city is builded, and set upon a broad field, and is full of all good things:

7 The entrance thereof is narrow, and is set in a ^{||} dangerous place to fall, like ^{||} Or, steep place.

as if there were a fire on the right hand, and on the left a deep water:

8 And one only path between them both, even between the fire and the water, so small that there could but one man go there at once.

9 If this city now were given unto a man for an inheritance, if he never shall pass the danger set before it, how shall he receive this inheritance?

10 And I said, It is so, Lord. Then said he unto me, Even so also is Israel's portion.

11 Because for their sakes I made the world: and when Adam transgressed my statutes, then was decreed that now is done.

12 Then were the entrances of this world made narrow, full of sorrow and travail: they are but few and evil, full of perils, and very painful.

|| Or, greater.

13 For the entrances of the || elder world were wide and sure, and brought immortal fruit.

14 If then they that live labour not to enter these strait and vain things, they can never receive those that are laid up for them.

15 Now therefore why disquietest thou thyself, seeing thou art but a corruptible man? and why art thou moved, whereas thou art but mortal?

16 Why hast thou not considered in thy mind this thing that is to come, rather than that which is present?

• Deut. 8. 1.

17 Then answered I and said, O Lord that bearest rule, thou hast ordained in thy ^a law, that the righteous should inherit these things, but that the ungodly should perish.

18 Nevertheless the righteous shall suffer strait things, and hope for wide: for they that have done wickedly have suffered the strait things, and yet shall not see the wide.

19 And he said unto me, There is no judge above God, and none that hath understanding above the Highest.

20 For there be many that perish in this life, because they despise the law of God that is set before them.

21 For God hath given strait commandment to such as came, what they should do to live, even as they came, and what they should observe to avoid punishment.

22 Nevertheless they were not obedient unto him; but spake against him, and imagined vain things;

23 And deceived themselves by their wicked deeds; and said of the most High, that he is not; and knew not his ways:

24 But his law have they despised, and denied his covenants; in his statutes have they not been faithful, and have not performed his works.

25 And therefore, Esdras, for the empty are empty things, and for the full are the full things.

26 Behold, the time shall come, that these tokens which I have told thee shall come to pass, and the bride shall appear, and she coming forth shall be seen, that now is withdrawn from the earth.

27 And whosoever is delivered from the foresaid evils shall see my wonders.

28 For my son Jesus shall be revealed with those that be with him, and they that remain shall rejoice within four hundred years.

29 After these years shall my son Christ die, and all men that have life.

30 And the world shall be turned into the old silence seven days, like as in the || former judgments: so that no man shall remain.

|| Or, first beginning.

31 And after seven days the world, that yet awaketh not, shall be raised up, and that shall die that is corrupt.

32 And the earth shall restore those that are asleep in her, and so shall the dust those that dwell in silence, and the secret places shall deliver those souls that were committed unto them.

33 And the most High shall appear upon the seat of judgment, and misery shall pass away, and the long suffering shall have an end:

34 But judgment only shall remain, truth shall stand, and faith shall wax strong:

35 And the work shall follow, and the reward shall be shewed, and the good deeds shall be of force, and wicked deeds shall bear no rule.

36 Then said I, ^b Abraham prayed first for the Sodomites, and ^c Moses for the fathers that sinned in the wilderness:

39 And ^h Helias for those that received rain; and for the dead, that he might live:

40 And ⁱ Ezechias for the people in the time of Sennacherib: and many for many.

41 Even so now, seeing corruption is grown up, and wickedness increased, and the righteous have prayed for the ungodly: wherefore shall it not be so now also?

42 He answered me, and said, This present life is not the end where much glory doth abide; therefore have they prayed for the weak.

43 But the day of doom shall be the end of this time, and the beginning of the immortality for to come, wherein corruption is past, 44 Intemperance is at an end, infidelity is cut off, righteousness is grown, and truth is sprung up.

45 Then shall no man be able to save him that is destroyed, nor to oppress him that hath gotten the victory.

46 I answered then and said, This is my first and last saying, that it had been better not to have given the earth unto Adam: or else, when it was given him, to have restrained him from sinning.

47 For what profit is it for men now in this present time to live in heaviness, and after death to look for punishment?

^k Rom. 5. 18.

48 O thou Adam, what hast thou done? for though it was ^k thou that sinned, thou art not fallen alone, but we all that come of thee.

49 For what profit is it unto us, if there be promised us an immortal time, whereas we have done the works that bring death?

50 And that there is promised us an everlasting hope, whereas ourselves being most wicked are made vain?

51 And that there are laid up for us dwellings of health and safety, whereas we have lived wickedly?

52 And that the glory of the most High is kept to defend them which have led ^{||} a wary life, whereas we have walked in the most wicked ways of all?

53 And that there should be shewed

a paradise, whose fruit endureth for ever, wherein is ^{||} security and medicine, since we shall not enter into it? ^{|| Or, fulness.}

54 (For we have walked in unpleasant places.)

55 And that the faces of them which have used abstinence shall shine above the stars, whereas our faces shall be blacker than darkness?

56 For while we lived and committed iniquity, we considered not that we should begin to suffer for it after death.

57 Then answered he me, and said, This is the ^{||} condition of the battle, which man that is born upon the earth shall fight; ^{|| Or, intent.}

58 That, if he be overcome, he shall suffer as thou hast said: but if he get the victory, he shall receive the thing that I say.

59 For this is the life whereof Moses spake unto the people while he lived, saying, 'Choose thee life, that thou ⁱ Deu. 30. 19. mayest live.

60 Nevertheless they believed not him, nor yet the prophets after him, no nor me which have spoken unto them, 61 That there should not be such heaviness in their destruction, as shall be joy over them that are persuaded to salvation.

62 I answered then, and said, I know, Lord, that the most High is called merciful, in that he hath mercy upon them which are not yet come into the world,

63 And upon those also that turn to his law;

64 And that ^m he is patient, and long ^m Rom. 2. 4. suffereth those that have sinned, as his creatures;

65 And that he is bountiful, for he is ready to give where it needeth;

66 And that he is of great mercy, for he multiplieth more and more mercies to them that are present, and that are past, and also to them which are to come.

67 For if he shall not multiply his mercies, the world would not continue with them that inherit therein.

68 And he pardoneth; ⁿ for if he did ⁿ Ps. 130. 3. not so of his goodness, that they which have committed iniquities might be eased of them, the ten thousandth part of men should not remain living.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Many created, but few saved. 6 He asketh why God destroyeth his own work, 26 and prayeth God to look upon the people which only serve him. 41 God answereth, that all seed cometh not to good, 52 and that glory is prepared for him and such like.

AND he answered me, saying, The most High hath made this world for many, but the world to come for few.

2 I will tell thee a similitude, Esdras; As when thou askest the earth, it shall say unto thee, that it giveth much mould whereof earthen vessels are made, but little dust that gold cometh of: even so is the course of this present world.

* Mat. 20. 16.

3 ^a There be many created, but few shall be saved.

4 So answered I and said, Swallow then down, O my soul, understanding, and devour wisdom.

5 For thou hast agreed to give ear, and art willing to prophesy: for thou hast no longer space than only to live.

¶ Or,
to give us.

6 O Lord, if thou suffer not thy servant, that we may pray before thee, and || thou give us seed unto our heart, and culture to our understanding, that there may come fruit of it; how shall each man live that is corrupt, who beareth the place of a man?

7 For thou art alone, and we all one workmanship of thine hands, like as thou hast said.

¶ Or, how is the body fashioned.

8 For || when the body is fashioned now in the mother's womb, and thou givest it members, thy creature is preserved in fire and water, and nine months doth thy workmanship endure thy creature which is created in her.

9 But that which keepeth and is kept shall both be preserved: and when the time cometh, the womb preserved delivereth up the things that grew in it.

10 For thou hast commanded out of the parts of the body, that is to say, out of the breasts, milk to be given, which is the fruit of the breasts,

11 That the thing which is fashioned may be nourished for a time, till thou disposest it to thy mercy.

12 Thou broughtest it up with thy righteousness, and nurturedst it in thy law, and reformedst it with thy judgment.

13 And thou shalt mortify it as thy creature, and quicken it as thy work.

14 If therefore thou shalt destroy him which with so great ^b labour was fashioned, it is an easy thing to be ordained by thy commandment, that the thing which was made might be preserved.

^b Job 10. 8.
Ps. 139. 14,
&c.

15 Now therefore, Lord, I will speak; touching man in general, thou knowest best; but touching thy people, for whose sake I am sorry;

16 And for thine inheritance, for whose cause I mourn; and for Israel, for whom I am heavy; and for Jacob, for whose sake I am troubled;

17 Therefore will I begin to pray before thee for myself and for them: for I see the falls of us that dwell in the land.

18 But I have heard the swiftness of the judge which is to come.

19 Therefore hear my voice, and understand my words, and I shall speak before thee. This is the beginning of the words of Esdras, before he was taken up: and I said,

20 O Lord, thou that dwellest in everlastingness, which beholdest from above things in the heaven and in the air;

21 Whose throne is inestimable; whose glory may not be comprehended; before whom the hosts of angels stand with trembling,

22 ^c Whose service is conversant in wind and fire; whose word is true, and sayings constant; whose commandment is strong, and ordinance fearful;

^c Ps. 104. 4.
Heb. 1. 7.

23 Whose look drieth up the depths, and indignation maketh the mountains to melt away; which the truth witnesseth:

24 O hear the prayer of thy servant, and give ear to the petition of thy creature.

25 For while I live I will speak, and so long as I have understanding I will answer.

26 O look not upon the sins of thy people; but on them which serve thee in truth.

27 Regard not the wicked inventions of the heathen, but the desire of those that keep thy testimonies in afflictions.

28 Think not upon those that have walked feignedly before thee: but remember them, which according to thy will have known thy fear.

29 Let it not be thy will to destroy them which have lived like beasts; but to look upon them that have clearly taught thy law.

30 Take thou no indignation at them which are deemed worse than beasts; but love them that alway put their trust in thy righteousness and glory.

|| Or,
are sick.

31 For we and our fathers || do languish of such diseases: but because of us sinners thou shalt be called merciful.

|| Or,
be willing.

32 For if thou || hast a desire to have mercy upon us, thou shalt be called merciful, to us namely, that have no works of righteousness.

33 For the just, which have many good works laid up with thee, shall out of their own deeds receive reward.

34 For what is man, that thou shouldest take displeasure at him? or what is a corruptible generation, that thou shouldest be so bitter toward it?

d 1 Kings
8. 46.
2 Chr. 6. 36.

35 ^d For in truth there is no man among them that be born, but he hath dealt wickedly; and among the faithful there is none which hath not done amiss.

|| Or, substance.

36 For in this, O Lord, thy righteousness and thy goodness shall be declared, if thou be merciful unto them which have not the || confidence of good works.

37 Then answered he me, and said, Some things hast thou spoken aright, and according unto thy words it shall be.

38 For indeed I will not think on the disposition of them which have sinned before death, before judgment, before destruction:

* Gen. 4. 4.

39 But ^e I will rejoice over the disposition of the righteous, and I will remember also their pilgrimage, and the salvation, and the reward, that they shall have.

40 Like as I have spoken now, so shall it come to pass.

41 For as the husbandman soweth much seed upon the ground, and planteth many trees, and yet the thing that is sown good in his season cometh not up, neither doth all that is planted take root: even so is it of them that are sown in the world; they shall not all be saved.

42 I answered then and said, If I have found grace, let me speak.

43 Like as the husbandman's seed perisheth, if it come not up, and receive not thy rain in due season; or if there come too much rain, and corrupt it:

44 Even so perisheth man also, which is formed with thy hands, and is called thine own image, because thou art like unto him, for whose sake thou hast made all things, and likened him unto the husbandman's seed.

45 Be not wroth with us, but spare thy people, and have mercy upon thine own inheritance: for thou art merciful unto thy creature.

46 Then answered he me, and said, Things present are for the present, and things to come for such as be to come.

47 For ^f thou comest far short that ^f ch. 5. 33. thou shouldest be able to love my creature more than I: but I have oftentimes drawn nigh unto thee, and unto it, but never to the unrighteous.

48 In this also thou art marvellous before the most High:

49 In that thou hast humbled thyself, as it becometh thee, and hast not judged thyself worthy to be much glorified among the righteous.

50 For many great miseries shall be done to them that in the latter time shall dwell in the world, because they have walked in great pride.

51 But understand thou for thyself, and seek out the glory for such as be like thee.

52 For unto you is paradise opened, the tree of life is planted, the time to come is prepared, plenteousness is made ready, a city is builded, and rest is allowed, yea, perfect goodness and wisdom.

53 The root of evil is sealed up from you, weakness and the moth is hid from you, and corruption is fled into || hell to be forgotten:

|| Or,
the grave.

54 Sorrows are passed, and in the end is shewed the treasure of immortality.

55 And therefore ask thou no more questions concerning the multitude of them that perish.

56 For when they had taken liberty, they despised the most High, thought scorn of his law, and forsook his ways.

57 Moreover they have trodden down his righteous,

¶ Ps. 14. 1.
& 53. 1.

58 And [¶] said in their heart, that there is no God; yea, and that knowing they must die.

59 For as the things aforesaid shall receive you, so thirst and pain are prepared for them: for it was not his will that men should come to nought:

60 But they which be created have defiled the name of him that made them, and were unthankful unto him which prepared life for them.

61 And therefore is my judgment now at hand.

62 These things have I not shewed unto all men, but unto thee, and a few like thee. Then answered I and said, 63 Behold, O Lord, now hast thou shewed me the multitude of the wonders, which thou wilt begin to do in the last times: but at what time, thou hast not shewed me.

CHAP. IX.

7 Who shall be saved, and who not. 19 All the world is now corrupted: 22 yet God doth save a few. 33 He complaineth that those perish which keep God's law: 38 and seeth a woman lamenting in a field.

HE answered me then, and said, Measure thou the time diligently in itself; and when thou seest part of the signs past, which I have told thee before,

2 Then shalt thou understand, that it is the very same time, wherein the Highest will begin to visit the world which he made.

3 Therefore when there shall be seen ^{¶ Mat. 24. 7.} earthquakes and uproars of the people in the world:

4 Then shalt thou well understand, that the most High spake of those things from the days that were before thee, even from the beginning.

5 For like as all that is made in the world hath a beginning and an end, and the end is manifest:

6 Even so the times also of the Highest have plain beginnings in wonders and powerful works, and endings in effects and signs.

7 And every one that shall be saved, and shall be able to escape by his works, and by faith, whereby ye have believed,

8 Shall be preserved from the said perils, and shall see my salvation in my land, and within my borders: for I have sanctified them for me from the beginning.

9 Then || shall they be in pitiful case, which now have abused my ways: and they that have cast them away despitefully shall dwell in torments. ^{¶ Or, they shall marvel.}

10 For such as in their life have received benefits, and have not known me;

11 And they that have lothed my law, while they had yet liberty, and, when as yet place of repentance was open unto them, understood not, but despised it;

12 The same must know it after death by pain.

13 And therefore be thou not curious how the ungodly shall be punished, and when: but enquire how the righteous shall be saved, whose the world is, and for whom the world is created.

14 Then answered I and said,

15 I have said before, and now do speak, and will speak it also hereafter, that there be many more of them which perish, than of them which shall be saved:

16 Like as a wave is greater than a drop.

17 And he answered me, saying, Like as the field is, so is also the seed; as the flowers be, such are the colours also; such as the workman is, such also is the work; and as the husbandman is himself, so is his husbandry also: for it was the time of the world.

18 || And now when I prepared the world, which was not yet made, even for them to dwell in that now live, no man spake against me. ^{¶ And now because the time of the world was come, when I was preparing the world, &c.}

19 For then every one obeyed: || but now the manners of them which are created in this world that is made are corrupted by a perpetual seed, and by a law which is unsearchable rid themselves. ^{¶ But when the world was made, both now and then the manners of every one created were corrupted by a never-failing harvest, and a law unsearchable.}

20 So I considered the world, and, behold, there was peril because of the devices that were come into it.

21 And I saw, and spared it greatly, and have kept me a || grape of the cluster, and a plant of a great people. ^{¶ Or, grain.}

22 Let the multitude perish then, which was born in vain; and let my || grape be kept, and my plant; for with great labour have I made it perfect. ^{¶ Or, grain.}

23 Nevertheless, if thou wilt cease yet seven days more, (but thou shalt not fast in them, 24 But go into a field of flowers, where no house is builded, and eat only the flowers of the field; taste no flesh, drink no wine, but eat flowers only;)

25 And pray unto the Highest continually, then will I come and talk with thee.

26 So I went my way into the field which is called Ardath, like as he commanded me; and there I sat among the flowers, and did eat of the herbs of the field, and the meat of the same satisfied me.

27 After seven days I sat upon the grass, and my heart was vexed within me, like as before:

28 And I opened my mouth, and began to talk before the most High, and said, 29 O Lord, thou that shewest thyself unto us, thou wast ^b shewed unto our fathers in the wilderness, in a place where no man ^{||} treadeth, in a barren place, when they came out of Egypt.

^b Ex. 19. 9.
& 24. 10.
Deut. 4. 12.

^{||} Or,
cometh.

30 And thou spakest, saying, Hear me, O Israel; and mark my words, thou seed of Jacob.

31 For, behold, I sow my law in you, and it shall bring fruit in you, and ye shall be honoured in it for ever.

32 But our fathers, which received the law, kept it not, and observed not thy ordinances: and though the fruit of thy law did not perish, neither could it, for it was thine;

33 Yet they that received it perished, because they kept not the thing that was sown in them.

34 And, lo, it is a custom, when the ground hath received seed, or the sea a ship, or any vessel meat or drink, that, that being perished wherein it was sown or cast into,

35 That thing also which was sown, or cast therein, or received, doth perish, and remaineth not with us: but with us it hath not happened so.

36 For we that have received the law perish by sin, and our heart also which received it.

37 Notwithstanding the law perisheth not, but remaineth in his force.

38 And when I spake these things in my heart, I looked back with mine eyes, and upon the right side I saw ^c a ^e ch. 10. 44. woman, and, behold, she mourned and wept with a loud voice, and was much grieved in heart, and her clothes were rent, and she had ashes upon her head.

39 Then let I my thoughts go that I was in, and turned me unto her, 40 And said unto her, Wherefore weepest thou? why art thou so grieved in thy mind?

41 And she said unto me, Sir, let me alone, that I may bewail myself, and add unto my sorrow, for I am sore vexed in my mind, and brought very low.

42 And I said unto her, What aileth thee? tell me.

43 She said unto me, I thy servant have been barren, and had no child, though I had an husband thirty years.

44 And those thirty years I did nothing else day and night, and every hour, but make my prayer to the Highest.

45 After thirty years God heard me thine handmaid, looked upon my misery, considered my trouble, and gave me a son: and I was very glad of him, so was my husband also, and all my neighbours: and we gave great honour unto the Almighty.

46 And I nourished him with great travail.

47 So when he grew up, and came to the time that he should have a wife, I made a feast.

CHAP. X.

¹ He comforteth the woman in the field. ²⁷ She vanisheth away, and a city appeareth in her place. ⁴⁰ The angel declareth these visions in the field.

AND it so came to pass, that when my son was entered into his wedding chamber, he fell down, and died.

2 Then we all overthrew the lights, and all my ^{||} neighbours rose up to comfort me: so I took my rest unto the second day at night.

3 And it came to pass, when they had all left off to comfort me, to the end I might be quiet; then rose I up by night, and fled, and came hither into this field, as thou seest.

4 And I do now purpose not to return into the city, but here to stay, and neither to eat nor drink, but continually to mourn and to fast until I die.

5 Then left I the ^{||} meditations where-

^{||} Or,

in I was, and spake to her in anger, saying,

6 Thou foolish woman above all other, seest thou not our mourning, and what happeneth unto us?

7 How that Sion our mother is full of all heaviness, and much humbled, mourning very sore?

8 And now, seeing we all mourn and are sad, for we are all in heaviness, art thou grieved for one son?

9 For ask the earth, and she shall tell thee, that it is she which ought to mourn for the fall of so many that grow upon her.

10 For out of her came all at the first, and out of her shall all others come, and, behold, they walk almost all into destruction, and a multitude of them is utterly || rooted out.

|| Or, abolished.

11 Who then should make more mourning than she, that hath lost so great a multitude; and not thou, which art sorry but for one?

12 But if thou sayest unto me, My lamentation is not like the earth's, because I have lost the fruit of my womb, which I brought forth with pains, and bare with sorrows;

13 || But the earth not so: for the multitude present in it according to the course of the earth is gone, as it came:

|| But the earth after the manner of the earth, whereinto the present multitude is gone again, as it came out.

14 Then say I unto thee, Like as thou hast brought forth with labour; even so the earth also hath given her fruit, namely, man, ever since the beginning unto him that made her.

15 Now therefore keep thy sorrow to thyself, and bear with a good courage that which hath befallen thee.

16 For if thou shalt acknowledge the determination of God to be just, thou shalt both receive thy son in time, and shalt be commended among women.

17 Go thy way then into the city to thine husband.

18 And she said unto me, That will I not do: I will not go into the city, but here will I die.

19 So I proceeded to speak further unto her, and said,

20 Do not so, but be counselled by me: for how many are the adversities of Sion? be comforted in regard of the sorrow of Jerusalem.

21 For thou seest that our sanctuary is laid waste, our altar broken down, our temple destroyed;

22 Our psaltery is laid on the ground, our song is put to silence, our rejoicing is at an end, the light of our candlestick is put out, the ark of our covenant is spoiled, our holy things are defiled, and the name that is called upon us is almost profaned: our children are put to shame, our priests are burnt, our Levites are gone into captivity, our virgins are defiled, and our wives ravished; our righteous men carried away, our little ones destroyed, our young men are brought in bondage, and our strong men are become weak;

23 And, which is the greatest of all, the seal of Sion hath now lost her honour; for she is delivered into the hands of them that hate us.

24 And therefore shake off thy great heaviness, and put away the multitude of sorrows, that the Mighty may be merciful unto thee again, and the Highest shall give thee rest and ease from thy labour.

25 And it came to pass, while I was talking with her, behold, her face upon a sudden shined exceedingly, and her countenance glistened, so that I was afraid of her, and mused what it might be.

26 And, behold, suddenly she made a great cry very fearful: so that the earth shook at the noise of the woman.

27 And I looked, and, behold, the woman appeared unto me no more, but there was a city builded, and a large place shewed itself from the foundations: then was I afraid, and cried with a loud voice, and said,

28 Where is ^{a ch. 4. 1.} Uriel the angel, who came unto me at the first? for he hath caused me to fall || into many trances, and mine end is turned into corruption, and my prayer to rebuke.

|| Or, into the multitude in a trance.

29 And as I was speaking these words, behold, he came unto me, and looked upon me.

30 And, lo, I lay as one that had been dead, and mine understanding was taken from me: and he took me by the right hand, and comforted me, and set me upon my feet, and said unto me,

31 What aileth thee? and why art thou so disquieted? and why is thine understanding troubled, and the thoughts of thine heart ?

^b ch. 5. 20. 32 And I said, Because thou hast forsaken me, and yet I did according to thy ^b words, and I went into the field, and, lo, I have seen, and yet see, that I am not able to express.

33 And he said unto me, Stand up manfully, and I will advise thee.

34 Then said I, Speak on, my lord, in me ; only forsake me not, lest I die frustrate of my hope.

35 For I have seen that I knew not, and hear that I do not know.

36 Or is my sense deceived, or my soul in a dream ?

37 Now therefore I beseech thee that thou wilt shew thy servant of this
 ^{|| Or, transloc.} ^{|| vision.}

38 He answered me then, and said, Hear me, and I shall inform thee, and tell thee wherefore thou art afraid : for the Highest will reveal many secret things unto thee.

^{|| Or, purpose.} 39 He hath seen that thy ^{||} way is right : for that thou sorrowest continually for thy people, and makest great lamentation for Sion.

40 This therefore is the meaning of the vision which thou lately sawest :

41 Thou sawest a woman mourning, and thou beganst to comfort her :

42 But now seest thou the likeness of the woman no more, but there appeared unto thee a city builded.

^{|| Or, interpretation.} 43 And whereas she told thee of the death of her son, this is the ^{||} solution :

44 This woman, whom thou sawest, is Sion : and whereas she said unto thee, even she whom thou seest as a city builded, 45 Whereas, I say, she said unto thee, that she hath been thirty years barren : those are the thirty years wherein there was no offering made in her.

46 But after thirty years Solomon builded the city, and offered offerings : and then bare the barren a son.

47 And whereas she told thee that she nourished him with labour : that was the dwelling in Jerusalem.

48 But whereas she said unto thee, That my son coming into his marriage chamber happened to have a fall, and died : this was the destruction that came to Jerusalem.

49 And, behold, thou sawest her likeness, and because she mourned for her son, thou beganst to comfort her : and of these things which have chanced, these are to be opened unto thee.

50 For now the most High seeth that thou art grieved unfeignedly, and sufferest from thy whole heart for her, so hath he shewed thee the brightness of her glory, and the comeliness of her beauty :

51 And therefore I bade thee remain in the field where no house was builded :

52 For I knew that the Highest would shew this unto thee.

53 Therefore I commanded thee to go into the field, where no foundation of any building was.

54 For in the place wherein the Highest beginneth to shew his city, there can no man's building be able to stand.

55 And therefore fear not, let not thine heart be affrighted, but go thy way in, and see the beauty and greatness of the building, as much as thine eyes be able to see :

56 And then shalt thou hear as much as thine ears may comprehend.

57 For thou art blessed above many other, and ^{||} art called with the Highest ; and so are but few.
 ^{|| Or, art called to be with, &c.}

58 But to morrow at night thou shalt remain here ;

59 And so shall the Highest shew thee visions of the ^{||} high things, which the most High will do unto them that dwell upon earth in the last days. So I slept that night and another, like as he commanded me.
 ^{|| Or, last things.}

CHAP. XI.

¹ He seeth in his dream an eagle coming out of the sea, 37 and a lion out of a wood talking to the eagle.

THEN saw I a dream, and, behold, there came up from the sea an eagle, which had twelve feathered wings, and three heads.

2 And I saw, and, behold, she spread her wings over all the earth, and all the winds of the air blew on her, and were gathered together.

3 And I beheld, and out of her feathers there grew other contrary feathers ; and they became little feathers and small.

4 But her heads were at rest : the head in the midst was greater than the other, yet rested † it with the residue.

5 Moreover I beheld, and, lo, the eagle flew with her feathers, and reigned upon earth, and over them that dwelt therein.

6 And I saw that all things under heaven were subject unto her, and no man spake against her, no, not one creature upon earth.

7 And I beheld, and, lo, the eagle rose upon her talons, and spake to her feathers, saying,

8 Watch not all at once: sleep every one in his own place, and watch by course:

9 But let the heads be preserved for the last.

10 And I beheld, and, lo, the voice went not out of her heads, but from the midst of her body.

11 And I numbered her contrary feathers, and, behold, there were eight of them.

12 And I looked, and, behold, on the right side there arose one feather, and reigned over all the earth;

13 And so it was, that when it reigned, the end of it came, and the place thereof appeared no more: so the next following stood up, and reigned, and had a great time;

14 And it happened, that when it reigned, the end of it came also, like as the first, so that it appeared no more.

15 Then came there a voice unto it, and said,

16 Hear thou that hast borne rule over the earth so long: this I say unto thee, before thou beginnest to appear no more,

17 There shall none after thee attain unto thy time, neither unto the half thereof.

18 Then arose the third, and reigned as the other before, and appeared no more also.

19 So went it with all the residue one after another, as that every one reigned, and then appeared no more.

20 Then I beheld, and, lo, in process of time the feathers that followed stood up upon the right side, that they might rule also; and some of them ruled, but within a while they appeared no more:

21 For some of them were set up, but ruled not.

22 After this I looked, and, behold, the twelve feathers appeared no more, nor the two little feathers:

23 And there was no more upon the eagle's body, but three heads that rested, and six little wings.

24 Then saw I also that two little feathers divided themselves from the six, and remained under the head that was upon the right side: for the four continued in their place.

25 And I beheld, and, lo, the feathers that were under the wing thought to set up themselves, and to have the rule.

26 And I beheld, and, lo, there was one set up, but shortly it appeared no more.

27 And the second was sooner away than the first.

28 And I beheld, and, lo, the two that remained thought also in themselves to reign:

29 And when they so thought, behold, there awaked one of the heads that were at rest, namely, it that was in the midst; for that was greater than the two other heads.

30 And then I saw that the two other heads were joined with it.

31 And, behold, the head was turned with them that were with it, and did eat up the two feathers under the wing that would have reigned.

32 But this head put the whole earth in fear, and bare rule in it over all those that dwelt upon the earth with much oppression; and it had the governance of the world more than all the wings that had been.

33 And after this I beheld, and, lo, the head that was in the midst suddenly appeared no more, like as the wings.

34 But there remained the two heads, which also in like sort ruled upon the earth, and over those that dwelt therein.

35 And I beheld, and, lo, the head upon the right side devoured it that was upon the left side.

36 Then I heard a voice, which said unto me, Look before thee, and consider the thing that thou seest.

37 And I beheld, and lo as it were a roaring lion chased out of the wood:

and I saw that he sent out a man's voice unto the eagle, and said,

38 Hear thou, I will talk with thee, and the Highest shall say unto thee, 39 Art not thou it that remainest of the four beasts, whom I made to reign in my world, that the end of their times might come through them?

40 And the fourth came, and overcame all the beasts that were past, and had power over the world with great fearfulness, and over the whole compass of the earth with much wicked oppression; and so long time dwelt he upon the earth with deceit.

41 For the earth hast thou not judged with truth.

42 For thou hast afflicted the meek, thou hast hurt the peaceable, thou hast loved liars, and destroyed the dwellings of them that brought forth fruit, and hast cast down the walls of such as did thee no harm.

43 Therefore is thy wrongful dealing come up unto the Highest, and thy pride unto the Mighty.

44 The Highest also hath looked upon the proud times, and, behold, they are ended, and his abominations are fulfilled.

45 And therefore appear no more, thou eagle, nor thy horrible wings, nor thy wicked feathers, nor thy malicious heads, nor thy hurtful claws, nor all thy vain body:

46 That all the earth may be refreshed, and may return, being delivered from thy violence, and that she may hope for the judgment and mercy of him that made her.

CHAP. XII.

3 The eagle, which he saw, is destroyed. 10 The vision is interpreted. 37 He is bid to write his visions, 39 and to fast, that he may see more. 46 He doth comfort those that were grieved for his absence.

AND it came to pass, whiles the lion spake these words unto the eagle, I saw,

2 And, behold, the head that remained and the four wings appeared no more, and the two went unto it, and set themselves up to reign, and their kingdom was small, and full of uproar.

3 And I saw, and, behold, they appeared no more, and the whole body of the eagle was burnt, so that the earth was in great fear: then awaked I out of the trouble and trance of my mind, and from great fear, and said unto my spirit, 4 Lo, this hast thou done unto me, in that thou searchest out the ways of the Highest.

5 Lo, yet am I weary in my mind, and very weak in my spirit; and little strength is there in me, for the great fear wherewith I was affrighted this night.

6 Therefore will I now beseech the Highest, that he will comfort me unto the end.

7 And I said, Lord that bearest rule, if I have found grace before thy sight, and if I am justified with thee before many others, and if my prayer indeed be come up before thy face;

8 Comfort me then, and shew me thy servant the interpretation and plain difference of this fearful vision, that thou mayest perfectly comfort my soul.

9 For thou hast judged me worthy to shew me the last times.

10 And he said unto me, This is the interpretation of the vision:

11 The eagle, whom thou sawest come up from the sea, is the kingdom which was seen in the ^avision of thy ^aDan. 7. 7. brother Daniel.

12 But it was not expounded unto him, therefore now I declare it unto thee.

13 Behold, the days will come, that there shall rise up a kingdom upon earth, and it shall be feared above all the kingdoms that were before it.

14 In the same shall twelve kings reign, one after another:

15 Whereof the second shall begin to reign, and shall have more time than any of the twelve.

16 And this do the twelve wings signify, which thou sawest.

17 As for the voice which thou hearest speak, and that thou sawest not to go out from the heads, but from the midst of the body thereof, this is the interpretation:

18 That after the time of that kingdom there shall arise great strivings, and it shall stand in peril of falling: nevertheless it shall not then fall, but shall be restored again to his beginning.

19 And whereas thou sawest the eight small under feathers sticking to her wings, this is the interpretation :

20 That in him there shall arise eight kings, whose times shall be but small, and their years swift.

21 And two of them shall perish, the middle time approaching : four shall be kept until their end begin to approach : but two shall be kept unto the end.

22 And whereas thou sawest three heads resting, this is the interpretation :

23 In his last days shall the most High raise up three kingdoms, and renew many things therein, and they shall have the dominion of the earth,

24 And of those that dwell therein, with much oppression, above all those that were before them : therefore are they called the heads of the eagle.

25 For these are they that shall accomplish his wickedness, and that shall finish his last end.

26 And whereas thou sawest that the great head appeared no more, it signifieth that one of them shall die upon his bed, and yet with pain.

27 For the two that remain shall be slain with the sword.

28 For the sword of the one shall devour the other : but at the last shall he fall through the sword himself.

29 And whereas thou sawest two feathers under the wings passing over the head that is on the right side ;

30 It signifieth that these are they, whom the Highest hath kept unto their end : this is the small kingdom and full of trouble, as thou sawest.

31 And the lion, whom thou sawest rising up out of the wood, and roaring, and speaking to the eagle, and rebuking her for her unrighteousness with all the words which thou hast heard ;

† Lat. wind, or, spiril.

32 This is the † anointed, which the Highest hath kept for them and for their wickedness unto the end : he shall reprove them, and shall upbraid them with their cruelty.

33 For he shall set them before him alive in judgment, and shall rebuke them, and correct them.

34 For the rest of my people shall he deliver with mercy, those that have been preserved upon my borders, and he shall make them joyful until the coming of the day of judgment, whereof I have spoken unto thee from the beginning.

35 This is the dream that thou sawest, and these are the interpretations.

36 Thou only hast been meet to know this secret of the Highest.

37 Therefore write all these things that thou hast seen in a book, and hide them :

38 And teach them to the wise of the people, whose hearts thou knowest may comprehend and keep these secrets.

39 But wait thou here thyself yet seven days more, that it may be shewed thee, whatsoever it pleaseth the Highest to declare unto thee. And with that he went his way.

40 And it came to pass, when all the people saw that the seven days were past, and I not come again into the city, they gathered them all together, from the least unto the greatest, and came unto me, and said, 41 What have we offended thee ? and what evil have we done against thee, that thou forsakest us, and sittest here in this place ?

42 For of all the ‖ prophets thou only ‖ Or, people.
art left us, as a cluster of the vintage, and as a candle in a dark place, and as a haven or ship preserved from the tempest.

43 Are not the evils which are come to us sufficient ?

44 If thou shalt forsake us, how much better had it been for us, if we also had been burned in the midst of Sion ?

45 For we are not better than they that died there. And they wept with a loud voice. Then answered I them, and said,

46 Be of good comfort, O Israel ; and be not heavy, thou house of Jacob :

47 For the Highest hath you in remembrance, and the Mighty hath not forgotten you in temptation.

48 As for me, I have not forsaken you, neither am I departed from you : but am come into this place, to pray for the desolation of Sion, and that I might seek mercy for the low estate of your sanctuary.

49 And now go your way home every man, and after these days will I come unto you.

50 So the people went their way into the city, like as I commanded them :

51 But I remained still in the field seven days, as the angel commanded me ; and did eat only in those days of the flowers of the field, and had my meat of the herbs.

CHAP. XIII.

¹ He seeth in his dream a man coming out of the sea. ²⁵ The declaration of his dream. ⁵⁴ He is praised, and promised to see more.

AND it came to pass after seven days, I dreamed a dream by night :

|| a certain man as the wind, Junius.

2 And, lo, there arose || a wind from the sea, that it moved all the waves thereof.

|| clouds.

3 And I beheld, and, lo, that man waxed strong with the || thousands of heaven : and when he turned his countenance to look, all the things trembled that were seen under him.

4 And whensoever the voice went out of his mouth, all they burned that heard his voice, like as the earth faileth when it feeleth the fire.

5 And after this I beheld, and, lo, there was gathered together a multitude of men, out of number, from the four winds of the heaven, to subdue the man that came out of the sea.

6 But I beheld, and, lo, he had grav- ed himself a great mountain, and flew up upon it.

7 But I would have seen the region or place whereout the hill was graven, and I could not.

8 And after this I beheld, and, lo, all they which were gathered together to subdue him were sore afraid, and yet durst fight.

9 And, lo, as he saw the violence of the multitude that came, he neither lifted up his hand, nor held sword, nor any instrument of war :

10 But only I saw that he sent out of his mouth as it had been a blast of fire, and out of his lips a flaming breath, and out of his tongue he cast out sparks and tempests.

11 And they were all mixed together ; the blast of fire, the flaming breath, and the great tempest ; and fell with violence upon the multitude which was prepared to fight, and burned them up every one, so that upon a sudden of an innumerable multitude nothing was to be perceived, but only dust and smell of smoke : when I saw this I was afraid.

12 Afterward saw I the same man come down from the mountain, and call unto him another peaceable multitude.

13 And there came much people unto him, whereof some were glad, some were sorry, some of them were bound, and other some brought || of them that were offered : then was I sick through great fear, and I awaked, and said,

|| Junius, of the things that were offered.

14 Thou hast shewed thy servant these wonders from the beginning, and hast counted me worthy that thou should- est receive my prayer :

15 Shew me now yet the interpreta- tion of this dream.

16 For as I conceive in mine under- standing, woe unto them that shall be left in those days ! and much more woe unto them that are not left behind !

17 For they that were not left were in heaviness.

18 Now understand I the things that are laid up in the latter days, which shall happen unto them, and to those that are left behind.

19 Therefore are they come into great perils and many necessities, like as these dreams declare.

20 Yet is it easier for him that is in danger to come into || these things, than to pass away as a cloud out of the world, and not to see the things that happen in the last days. And he answered unto me, and said,

|| Or, this day.

21 The interpretation of the vision shall I shew thee, and I will open unto thee the thing that thou hast required.

22 Whereas thou hast spoken of them that are left behind, this is the interpretation :

23 He that shall endure the peril in that time hath kept himself : they that be fallen into danger are such as have works, and faith toward the Almighty.

24 Know this therefore, that they which be left behind are more blessed than they that be dead.

25 This is the meaning of the vision : Whereas thou sawest a man coming up from the midst of the sea :

26 The same is he whom God the Highest hath kept a great season, which by his own self shall deliver his creature: and he shall order them that are left behind.

27 And whereas thou sawest, that out of his mouth there came as a blast of wind, and fire, and storm;

28 And that he held neither sword, nor any instrument of war, but that the rushing in of him destroyed the whole multitude that came to subdue him; this is the interpretation:

29 Behold, the days come, when the most High will begin to deliver them that are upon the earth.

30 And he shall come to the astonishment of them that dwell on the earth.

31 And one shall undertake to fight against another, one city against another, one place against another, ^aone people against another, and one realm against another.

^a Mat. 24. 7.

32 And the time shall be when these things shall come to pass, and the signs shall happen which I shewed thee before, and then shall my Son be declared, whom thou sawest as a man ascending.

33 And when all the people hear his voice, every man shall in their own land leave the battle they have one against another.

34 And an innumerable multitude shall be gathered together, as thou sawest them, willing to come, and to overcome him by fighting.

35 But he shall stand upon the top of the mount Sion.

36 And Sion shall come, and shall be shewed to all men, being prepared and builded, like as thou sawest the hill graven without hands.

37 And this my Son shall rebuke the wicked inventions of those nations, which for their wicked life are fallen into the tempest;

38 And shall lay before them their evil thoughts, and the torments wherewith they shall begin to be tormented, which are like unto a flame: and he shall destroy them without labour by the law which is like unto fire.

39 And whereas thou sawest that he gathered another peaceable multitude unto him;

40 Those are the ten tribes, which were carried away prisoners out of their own land in the time of Osea the king, whom ^bSalmanasar the king of Assyria led away captive, and he carried them over the waters, and so came they into another land.

^b 2 Kings 17. 3.

41 But they took this counsel among themselves, that they would leave the multitude of the heathen, and go forth into a further country, where never mankind dwelt,

42 That they might there keep their statutes, which they never kept in their own land.

43 And they entered into Euphrates by the narrow passages of the river.

44 For the most High then shewed ^csigns for them, and held still the flood, till they were passed over.

^c Ex. 14. 21.
Josh. 3. 15, 16.

45 For through that country there was a great way to go, namely, of a year and a half: and the same region is called || Arsareth.

|| Or, Ararath.

46 Then dwelt they there until the latter time; and now when they shall begin to come,

47 The Highest shall stay the springs of the stream again, that they may go through: therefore sawest thou the multitude with peace.

48 But those that be left behind of thy people are they that are found within my borders.

49 Now when he destroyeth the multitude of the nations that are gathered together, he shall defend his people that remain.

50 And then shall he shew them great wonders.

51 Then said I, O Lord that bearest rule, shew me this: Wherefore have I seen the man coming up from the midst of the sea?

52 And he said unto me, Like as thou canst neither seek out nor know the things that are in the deep of the sea: even so can no man upon earth see my Son, or those that be with him, but in the day time.

53 This is the interpretation of the dream which thou sawest, and whereby thou only art here lightened.

54 For thou hast forsaken thine own way, and applied thy diligence unto my law, and sought it.

55 Thy life hast thou ordered in wisdom, and hast called understanding thy mother.

56 And therefore have I shewed thee the treasures of the Highest: after other three days I will speak other things unto thee, and declare unto thee mighty and wondrous things.

57 Then went I forth into the field, giving praise and thanks greatly unto the most High because of his wonders, which he did in time;

58 And because he governeth the same, and such things as fall in their seasons: and there I sat three days.

CHAP. XIV.

¹ A voice out of a bush calleth Esdras, ¹⁰ and telleth him that the world waxeth old. ²² He desireth, because the law was burnt, to write all again, ²⁴ and is bid to get swift writers. ³⁹ He and they are filled with understanding: ⁴⁵ but he is charged not to publish all that is written.

AND it came to pass upon the third day, I sat under an oak, and, behold, there came a voice out of a bush over against me, and said, Esdras, Esdras.

2 And I said, Here am I, Lord. And I stood up upon my feet.

^a Ex. 3. 2, &c.

3 Then said he unto me, ^a In the bush I did manifestly reveal myself unto Moses, and talked with him, when my people served in Egypt:

4 And I sent him, and led my people out of Egypt, and brought him up to the mount of Sinai, where I held him by me a long season,

5 And told him many wondrous things, and shewed him the secrets of the times, and the end; and commanded him, saying,

6 These words shalt thou declare, and these shalt thou hide.

7 And now I say unto thee,

8 That thou lay up in thy heart the signs that I have shewed, and the dreams that thou hast seen, and the interpretations which thou hast heard:

9 For thou shalt be taken away from all, and from henceforth thou shalt remain with my ^{||} Son, and with such as be like thee, until the times be ended.

^{||} Or, counsel.

10 For the world hath lost his youth, and the times begin to wax old.

11 For the world is divided into twelve parts, and the ten parts of it are gone already, and half of a tenth part:

12 And there remaineth that which is after the half of the tenth part.

13 Now therefore set thine house in order, and reprove thy people, comfort such of them as be in trouble, and now renounce corruption,

14 Let go from thee mortal thoughts, cast away the burdens of man, put off now the weak nature,

15 And set aside the thoughts that are most heavy unto thee, and haste thee to flee from these times.

16 For ^b yet greater evils than those which thou hast seen happen shall be done hereafter. ^b Mat. 24. 8.

17 For look how much the world shall be weaker through age, so much the more shall evils increase upon them that dwell therein.

18 For the truth is fled far away, and leasing is hard at hand: for now hasteth the vision to come, which thou hast seen.

19 Then answered I before thee, and said,

20 Behold, Lord, I will go, as thou hast commanded me, and reprove the people which are present: but they that shall be born afterward, who shall admonish them? thus the world is set in darkness, and they that dwell therein are without light.

21 For thy law is burnt, therefore no man knoweth the things that are done of thee, or the works that shall begin.

22 But if I have found grace before thee, send the Holy Ghost into me, and I shall write all that hath been done in the world since the beginning, which were written in thy law, that men may find thy path, and that they which will live in the latter days may live.

23 And he answered me, saying, Go thy way, gather the people together, and say unto them, that they seek thee not for forty days.

24 But look thou prepare thee many ^{||} box trees, and take with thee Sarea, Dabria, Selemia, ^{||} Ecanus, and Asiel, these five which are ready to write swiftly;

^{||} Or, box tables to write on: See ver. 44. ^{||} Or, Banus.

25 And come hither, and I shall light a candle of understanding in thine heart, which shall not be put out, till the things be performed which thou shalt begin to write.

26 And when thou hast done, some things shalt thou publish, and some things shalt thou shew secretly to the wise: to morrow this hour shalt thou begin to write.

27 Then went I forth, as he commanded, and gathered all the people together, and said, 28 Hear these words, O Israel.

[•] Gen. 47. 4. 29 ^c Our fathers at the beginning were strangers in Egypt, from whence they were delivered:

^d Acts 7. 53. 30 ^d And received the law of life, which they kept not, which ye also have transgressed after them.

31 Then was the land, even the land of Sion, parted among you by lot: but your fathers, and ye yourselves, have done unrighteousness, and have not kept the ways which the Highest commanded you.

32 And forasmuch as he is a righteous judge, he took from you in time the thing that he had given you.

33 And now are ye here, and your brethren among you.

34 Therefore if so be that ye will subdue your own understanding, and reform your hearts, ye shall be kept alive, and after death ye shall obtain mercy.

35 For after death shall the judgment come, when we shall live again: and then shall the names of the righteous be manifest, and the works of the ungodly shall be declared.

36 Let no man therefore come unto me now, nor seek after me these forty days.

37 So I took the five men, as he commanded me, and we went into the field, and remained there.

[•] Ezek. 3. 1. 38 And the next day, behold, a voice called me, saying, Esdras, ^c open thy mouth, and drink that I give thee to drink.

39 Then opened I my mouth, and, behold, he reached me a full cup, which was full as it were with water, but the colour of it was like fire.

40 And I took it, and drank: and when I had drunk of it, my heart uttered understanding, and wisdom grew in my breast, for my spirit strengthened my memory:

41 And my mouth was opened, and shut no more.

42 The Highest gave understanding unto the five men, and they wrote the wonderful visions of the night that were told, which they knew not: and they sat forty days, and they wrote in the day, and at night they ate bread.

43 As for me, I spake in the day, and I held not my tongue by night.

44 In forty days they wrote || two hundred and four books. ^{|| Or, nine hundred and four.}

45 And it came to pass, when the forty days were fulfilled, that the Highest spake, saying, The first that thou hast written publish openly, that the worthy and unworthy may read it:

46 But keep the seventy last, that thou mayest deliver them only to such as be wise among the people:

47 For in them is the spring of understanding, the fountain of wisdom, and || the stream of knowledge. ^{|| Or, the light of knowledge.}

48 And I did so.

CHAP. XV.

¹ This prophecy is certain. ⁵ God will take vengeance upon the wicked, ¹² upon Egypt. ²⁸ An horrible vision. ⁴³ Babylon and Asia are threatened.

BEHOLD, speak thou in the ears of my people the words of prophecy, which I will put in thy mouth, saith the Lord:

2 And cause them to be written in paper: for they are faithful and true.

3 Fear not the imaginations against thee, let not the incredulity of them trouble thee, that speak against thee.

4 For ^a all the unfaithful shall die in their unfaithfulness. ^a John 3. 36.

5 Behold, saith the Lord, I will bring plagues upon the world; the sword, famine, death, and destruction.

6 For wickedness hath exceedingly polluted the whole earth, and their hurtful works are fulfilled.

7 Therefore saith the Lord,

8 I will hold my tongue no more as touching their wickedness, which they profanely commit, neither will I suffer them in those things, in which they wickedly exercise themselves: behold, the ^b innocent and righteous blood crieth unto me, and the souls of the just complain continually. ^b Rev. 6. 10. & 19. 2.

9 And therefore, saith the Lord, I will surely avenge them, and receive unto me all the innocent blood from among them.

10 Behold, my people is led as a flock to the slaughter: I will not suffer them now to dwell in the land of Egypt:

11 But I will bring them with a mighty hand and a stretched out arm, and smite Egypt with plagues, as before, and will destroy all the land thereof.

12 Egypt shall mourn, and the foundation of it shall be smitten with the plague and punishment that God shall bring upon it.

13 They that till the ground shall mourn: for their seeds shall fail through the blasting and hail, and with a fearful constellation.

14 Woe to the world and them that dwell therein!

15 For the sword and their destruction draweth nigh, and one people shall stand up to fight against another, and swords in their hands.

16 For there shall be sedition among men, and invading one another; they shall not regard their kings nor princes, and the course of their actions shall stand in their power.

17 A man shall desire to go into a city, and shall not be able.

18 For because of their pride the cities shall be troubled, the houses shall be destroyed, and men shall be afraid.

19 A man shall have no pity upon his neighbour, but shall destroy their houses with the sword, and spoil their goods, because of the lack of bread, and for great tribulation.

20 Behold, saith God, I will call together all the kings of the earth to reverence me, which are from the rising of the sun, from the south, from the east, and Libanus; to turn themselves one against another, and repay the things that they have done to them.

21 Like as they do yet this day unto my chosen, so will I do also, and recompense in their bosom. Thus saith the Lord God;

22 My right hand shall not spare the sinners, and my sword shall not cease over them that shed innocent blood upon the earth.

23 The fire is gone forth from his wrath, and hath consumed the foundations of the earth, and the sinners, like the straw that is kindled.

24 Woe to them that sin, and keep not my commandments! saith the Lord.

25 I will not spare them: go your way, ye children, from the power, defile not my sanctuary.

26 For the Lord knoweth all them that sin against him, and therefore delivereth he them unto death and destruction.

27 For now are the plagues come upon the whole earth, and ye shall remain in them: for God shall not deliver you, because ye have sinned against him.

28 Behold an horrible vision, and the appearance thereof from the east:

29 Where the nations of the dragons of Arabia shall come out with many chariots, and the multitude of them shall be carried as the wind upon earth, that all they which hear them may fear and tremble.

30 Also the Carmanians raging in wrath shall go forth as the wild boars of the wood, and with great power shall they come, and join battle with them, and shall waste a portion of the land of the Assyrians.

31 And then shall the dragons have the upper hand, remembering their nature; and if they shall turn themselves, conspiring together in great power to persecute them, 32 Then these shall be troubled, and keep silence through their power, and shall flee.

33 And from the land of the Assyrians shall the enemy besiege them, and consume some of them, and in their host shall be fear and dread, and strife

34 Behold clouds from the east and from the north unto the south, and they are very horrible to look upon, full of wrath and storm.

35 They shall smite one upon another, and they shall smite down a great multitude of stars upon the earth, even their own star; and blood shall be from the sword unto the belly, 37 And there shall be great fearfulness and trembling upon earth: and they that see the wrath shall be afraid, and trembling shall come upon them.

38 And then shall there come great storms from the south, and from the north, and another part from the west.

39 And strong winds shall arise from the east, and shall open it; and the cloud which he raised up in wrath, and the star stirred to cause fear toward the east and west wind, shall be destroyed.

40 The great and mighty clouds shall be lifted up full of wrath, and the star, that they may make all the earth afraid, and them that dwell therein; and they shall pour out over every high and eminent place an horrible star,

41 Fire, and hail, and flying swords, and many waters, that all fields may be full, and all rivers, with the abundance of great waters.

42 And they shall break down the cities and walls, mountains and hills, trees of the wood, and grass of the meadows, and their corn.

43 And they shall go stedfastly unto Babylon, and || make her afraid.

44 They shall come to her, and besiege her, the star and all wrath shall they pour out upon her: then shall the dust and smoke go up unto the heaven, and all they that be about her shall bewail her.

45 And they that remain under her shall do service unto them that have put her in fear.

46 And thou, Asia, that art || partaker of the hope of Babylon, and art the glory of her person:

47 Woe be unto thee, thou wretch, because thou hast made thyself like unto her; and hast decked thy daughters in whoredom, that they might please and glory in thy lovers, which have alway desired to commit whoredom with thee!

48 Thou hast followed her that is hated in all her works and inventions: therefore saith God, e Rev. 18.

49 'I will send plagues upon thee; widowhood, poverty, famine, sword, and pestilence, to waste thy houses with destruction and death.

50 And the glory of thy power shall be dried up as a flower, when the heat shall arise that is sent over thee.

51 Thou shalt be weakened as a poor woman with stripes, and as one chastised with wounds, so that the mighty and lovers shall not be able to receive thee.

52 Would I with jealousy have so proceeded against thee, saith the Lord,

53 If thou hadst not always slain my chosen, exalting the stroke of thine hands, and saying over their † dead, † Lat. death. when thou wast drunken, 54 Set forth the beauty of thy countenance?

55 The reward of thy whoredom shall be in thy bosom, therefore shalt thou receive recompence.

56 Like as thou hast done unto my chosen, saith the Lord, even so shall God do unto thee, and shall deliver thee into mischief.

57 Thy children shall die of hunger, and thou shalt fall through the sword: thy cities shall be broken down, and all thine shall perish with the sword in the field.

58 They that be in the mountains shall die of hunger, and eat their own flesh, and drink their own blood, for very hunger of bread, and thirst of water.

59 Thou as unhappy shalt come through the sea, and receive plagues again.

60 And in the passage they shall rush on the idle city, and shall destroy some portion of thy land, and consume part of thy glory, and shall return to Babylon that was destroyed.

61 And thou shalt be cast down by them as stubble, and they shall be unto thee as fire;

62 And shall consume thee, and thy cities, thy land, and thy mountains; all thy woods and thy fruitful trees shall they burn up with fire.

63 Thy children shall they carry away captive, and, look, what thou hast, they shall spoil it, and || mar the beauty of thy face.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Babylon and other places are threatened with plagues that cannot be avoided, 23 and with desolation. 40 The servants of the Lord must look for troubles: 51 and not hide their sins, 74 but leave them, and they shall be delivered.

WOE be unto thee, Babylon, and Asia! woe be unto thee, Egypt, and Syria!

2 Gird up yourselves with cloths of sack and hair, bewail your children, and be sorry; for your destruction is at hand.

3 A sword is sent upon you, and who may turn it back?

4 A fire is sent among you, and who may quench it?

5 Plagues are sent unto you, and what is he that may drive them away?

6 May any man drive away an hungry lion in the wood? or may any one quench the fire in stubble, when it hath begun to burn?

7 May one turn again the arrow that is shot of a strong archer?

8 The mighty Lord sendeth the plagues, and who is he that can drive them away?

9 A fire shall go forth from his wrath, and who is he that may quench it?

10 He shall cast lightnings, and who shall not fear? he shall thunder, and who shall not be afraid?

11 The Lord shall threaten, and who shall not be utterly beaten to powder at his presence?

12 The earth quaketh, and the foundations thereof; the sea ariseth up with waves from the deep, and the waves of it are troubled, and the fishes thereof also, before the Lord, and before the glory of his power:

13 For strong is his right hand that bendeth the bow, his arrows that he shooteth are sharp, and shall not miss, when they begin to be shot into the ends of the world.

14 Behold, the plagues are sent, and shall not return again, until they come upon the earth.

15 The fire is kindled, and shall not be put out, till it consume the foundation of the earth.

16 Like as an arrow which is shot of a mighty archer returneth not backward: even so the plagues that shall be sent upon earth shall not return again.

17 Woe is me! woe is me! who will deliver me in those days?

18 The beginning of sorrows and great mournings; the beginning of famine and great death; the beginning of wars, and the powers shall stand in fear; the beginning of evils! what shall I do when these evils shall come?

19 Behold, famine and plague, tribulation and anguish, are sent as scourges for amendment.

20 But for all these things they shall not turn from their wickedness, nor be always mindful of the scourges.

21 Behold, victuals shall be so good cheap upon earth, that they shall think themselves to be in good case, and even then shall evils grow upon earth, sword, ^{|| Or, plagues.} famine, and great confusion.

22 For many of them that dwell upon earth shall perish of famine; and the other, that escape the hunger, shall the sword destroy.

23 And the dead shall be cast out as dung, and there shall be no man to comfort them: for the earth shall be wasted, and the cities shall be cast down.

24 There shall be no man left to till the earth, and to sow it.

25 The trees shall give fruit, and who shall gather them?

26 The grapes shall ripen, and who shall tread them? for all places shall be desolate of men:

27 So that one man shall desire to see another, and to hear his voice.

28 For of a city there shall be ten left, and two of the field, which shall hide themselves in the thick groves, and in the clefts of the rocks.

29 "As in an orchard of olives upon ^{• Isai. 17. 6.} every tree there are left three or four olives;

30 Or as when a vineyard is gathered, there are left some clusters of them that diligently seek through the vineyard:

31 Even so in those days there shall be three or four left by them that search their houses with the sword.

32 And the earth shall be laid waste, and the fields thereof shall wax old, and her ways and all her paths shall grow full of thorns, because no man shall travel therethrough.

33 The virgins shall mourn, having no bridegrooms; the women shall mourn, having no husbands; their daughters shall mourn, having no helpers.

34 In the wars shall their bridegrooms be destroyed, and their husbands shall perish of famine.

35 Hear now these things, and understand them, ye servants of the Lord.

36 Behold the word of the Lord, receive it: believe not the gods of whom the Lord spake.

37 Behold, the plagues draw nigh, and are not slack.

38 As when a woman with child in the ninth month bringeth forth her son, within two or three hours of her birth great pains compass her womb, which pains, when the child cometh forth, they slack not a moment:

39 Even so shall not the plagues be slack to come upon the earth, and the world shall mourn, and sorrows shall come upon it on every side.

40 O my people, hear my word: make you ready to the battle, and in those evils be even as pilgrims upon the earth.

^b See 1 Cor. 7. 29, 30, 31.

41 ^b He that selleth, let him be as he that fleeth away: and he that buyeth, as one that will lose:

42 He that occupieth merchandise, as he that hath no profit by it: and he that buildeth, as he that shall not dwell therein:

43 He that soweth, as if he should not reap: so also he that planteth the vineyard, as he that shall not gather the grapes:

44 They that marry, as they that shall get no children; and they that marry not, as the widowers.

45 And therefore they that labour labour in vain:

^{||} Or, for.

46 For strangers shall reap their fruits, and spoil their goods, overthrow their houses, and take their children captives, for ^{||} in captivity and famine shall they get children.

47 And they that occupy their merchandise with robbery, the more they deck their cities, their houses, their possessions, and their own persons:

48 The more will I be angry with them for their sin, saith the Lord.

49 Like as a whore envieth a right honest and virtuous woman:

50 So shall righteousness hate iniquity, when she decketh herself, and shall accuse her to her face, when he cometh that shall defend him that diligently searcheth out every sin upon earth.

51 And therefore be ye not like thereunto, nor to the works thereof.

52 For yet a little, and iniquity shall be taken away out of the earth, and righteousness shall reign among you.

53 Let not the sinner say that he hath not sinned: for God shall burn coals of fire upon his head, which saith before the Lord God and his glory, I have not sinned.

54 Behold, the Lord knoweth all the works of men, ^c their imaginations, ^e Luke 16. 15. their thoughts, and their hearts:

55 Which spake but the word, Let the earth be made; ^d and it was made: ^d Gen. 1. 1. Let the heaven be made; and it was created.

56 In his word were the stars made, and he knoweth the ^e number of them. ^e Ps. 147. 4.

57 He searcheth the deep, and the treasures thereof; he hath measured the sea, and what it containeth.

58 He hath shut the sea in the midst of the waters, and with his word hath he hanged the earth upon the waters.

59 He spreadeth out the heavens like a vault; ^f upon the waters hath he ^f Ps. 24. 2. founded it.

60 In the desert hath he made springs of water, and pools upon the tops of the mountains, that the floods might pour down from the high rocks to water the earth.

61 ^g He made man, and put his heart ^g Gen. 2. 7. in the midst of the body, and gave him breath, life, and understanding.

62 Yea, and the Spirit of Almighty God, which made all things, and searcheth out all hidden things in the secrets of the earth, 63 Surely he knoweth your inventions, and what ye think in your hearts, even them that sin, and would hide their sin.

64 Therefore hath the Lord exactly searched out all your works, and he will put you all to shame.

65 And when your sins are brought forth, ye shall be ashamed before men, and your own sins shall be your accusers in that day.

66 What will ye do? or how will ye hide your sins before God and his angels?

67 Behold, God himself is the judge, fear him: leave off from your sins, and forget your iniquities, to meddle no more with them for ever: so shall God lead you forth, and deliver you from all trouble.

68 For, behold, the burning wrath of a great multitude is kindled over you, and they shall take away certain of you, and feed you, ^{||} being idle, with things offered unto idols.

^{||} Or, being unable to resist.

69 And they that consent unto them shall be had in derision and in reproach, and trodden under foot.

70 For there shall be in every place, and in the next cities, a great insurrection upon those that fear the Lord.

71 They shall be like mad men, sparing none, but still spoiling and destroying those that fear the Lord.

72 For they shall waste and take away their goods, and cast them out of their houses.

73 Then shall they be known, who are my chosen; and they shall be tried as the gold in the fire.

74 Hear, O ye my beloved, saith the Lord: behold, the days of trouble are at hand, but I will deliver you from the same.

75 Be ye not afraid, neither doubt; for God is your guide, 76 And the guide of them who keep my commandments and precepts, saith the Lord God: let not your sins weigh you down, and let not your iniquities lift up themselves.

77 Woe be unto them that are bound with their sins, and covered with their iniquities, like as a field is covered over with bushes, and the path thereof covered with thorns, that no man may travel through!

78 It is ^{||} left undressed, and is cast ^{|| Or, shut out.} into the fire to be consumed therewith.

NOW when I was come home again, and my wife Anna was restored unto me, with my son Tobias, in the feast of Pentecost, which is ^a the holy feast of the seven weeks, there was a good dinner prepared me, in the which I sat down to eat.

2 And when I saw abundance of meat, I said to my son, Go and bring what poor man soever thou shalt find out of our brethren, who is mindful of the Lord; and, lo, I tarry for thee.

3 But he came again, and said, Father, one of our nation is strangled, and is cast out in the marketplace.

4 Then before I had tasted of any meat, I started up, and took him up into a room until the going down of the sun,

5 Then I returned, and washed myself, and ate my meat in heaviness, 14 But she replied upon me, It was given for a gift more than the wages. CHAP. III.

1 Tobit, grieved with his wife's taunts, prayeth. 11 Sara, reproached by her father's maids, prayeth also. 17 An angel is sent to help them both.

THEN I being grieved did weep, and in my sorrow prayed, saying,

2 O Lord, thou art just, and all thy works and all thy ways are mercy and truth, and thou judgest truly and justly for ever.

3 Remember me, and look on me, punish me not for my sins and ignorances, and the sins of my fathers, who have sinned before thee :

^a Deut. 28.
15, 37.

4 For they obeyed not thy commandments : wherefore thou hast delivered us ^a for a spoil, and unto captivity, and unto death, and for a proverb of reproach to all the nations among whom we are dispersed.

5 And now thy judgments are many and true : deal with me according to my sins and my fathers' : because we have not kept thy commandments, neither have walked in truth before thee.

^{||} Or, dismissed,
or, delivered.
^b Jonah 4. 3.

6 Now therefore deal with me as seemeth best unto thee, and command my spirit to be taken from me, that I may be ^{||} dissolved, and become earth : ^b for it is profitable for me to die rather than to live, because I have heard false reproaches, and have much sorrow : command therefore that I may now be delivered out of this distress, and go into the everlasting place : turn not thy face away from me.

7 It came to pass the same day, that in Ecbatane a city of Media Sara the daughter of Raguel was also reproached by her father's maids ;

8 Because that she had been married to seven husbands, whom Asmodeus the evil spirit had killed, before they had lain with her. Dost thou not know, said they, that thou hast strangled thine husbands ? thou hast had already seven husbands, neither wast thou named after any of them.

9 Wherefore dost thou beat us for them ? if they be dead, go thy ways after them, let us never see of thee either son or daughter.

10 When she heard these things, she was very sorrowful, so that she thought to have strangled herself ; and she said, I am the only daughter of my father, and if I do this, it shall be a reproach unto him, and I shall bring his old age with sorrow unto the grave.

11 Then she prayed toward the window, and said, Blessed art thou, O Lord my God, and thine holy and glorious name is blessed and honourable for ever : let all thy works praise thee for ever.

12 And now, O Lord, I set mine eyes and my face toward thee, 13 And say, Take me out of the earth, that I may hear no more the reproach.

14 Thou knowest, Lord, that I am pure from all sin with man,

15 And that I never polluted my name, nor the name of my father, in the land of my captivity : I am the only daughter of my father, neither hath he any child to be his heir, neither any near ^{||} kinsman, nor any son of his alive, to whom I may keep myself for a wife : my seven husbands are already dead ; and why should I live ? but if it please not thee that I should die, command some regard to be had of me, and pity taken of me, that I hear no more reproach.

^{||} Or,
brother.

16 So the prayers of them both were heard before the majesty of the great God.

17 And Raphael was sent to heal them both, that is, to scale away the whiteness of Tobit's eyes, and to give Sara the daughter of Raguel for a wife to Tobias the son of Tobit ; and to bind Asmodeus the evil spirit ; ^c because she belonged to Tobias by right of inheritance. The selfsame time came Tobit home, and entered into his house, and Sara the daughter of Raguel came down from her upper chamber.

CHAP. IV.

³ Tobit giveth instructions to his son Tobias, 20 and telleth him of money left with Gabael in Media.

IN that day Tobit remembered ^a the money which he had committed to Gabael in Rages of Media, ^a ch. 1. 14.

2 And said with himself, I have wished for death ; wherefore do I not call for my son Tobias, that I may signify to him of the money before I die ?

3 And when he had called him, he said, My son, when I am dead, bury me ; and ^b despise not thy mother, ^c but honour her all the days of thy life, and do that which shall please her, and grieve her not.

CHAP. V.

⁴ Young Tobias seeketh a guide into Media. ⁶ The angel will go with him, 12 and saith he is his kinsman. ¹⁶ Tobias and the angel depart together. ¹⁷ But his mother is grieved for her son's departing.

TOBIAS then answered and said, Father, I will do all things which thou hast commanded me:

2 But how can I receive the money, seeing I know him not?

3 Then he gave him the handwriting, and said unto him, Seek thee a man which may go with thee, whiles I yet live, and I will give him wages: and go and receive the money.

4 Therefore when he went to seek a man, he found Raphael that was an angel.

5 But he knew not; and he said unto him, Canst thou go with me to Rages? and knowest thou those places well?

6 To whom the angel said, I will go with thee, and I know the way well: for I have lodged with our brother Gabael.

7 Then Tobias said unto him, Tarry for me, till I tell my father.

8 Then he said unto him, Go, and tarry not. So he went in and said to his father, Behold, I have found one which will go with me. Then he said, Call him unto me, that I may know of what tribe he is, and whether he be a trusty man to go with thee.

9 So he called him, and he came in, and they saluted one another.

10 Then Tobit said unto him, Brother, shew me of what tribe and family thou art.

11 To whom he said, Dost thou seek for a tribe or family, or an hired man to go with thy son? Then Tobit said unto him, I would know, brother, thy kindred and name.

12 Then he said, I am Azarias, the son of Ananias the great, and of thy brethren.

13 Then Tobit said, Thou art welcome, brother; be not now angry with me, because I have enquired to know thy tribe and thy family; for thou art my brother, of an honest and good stock: for I know Ananias and Jonathan, sons of that great Samaias, ^a as we went together to Jerusalem to worship, and offered the firstborn, and the tenths of the fruits; and they were not seduced with ^b the error of our brethren: my brother, thou art of a good stock.

14 But tell me, what wages shall I give thee? wilt thou a drachm a day, and things necessary, as to mine own son?

15 Yea, moreover, if ye return safe, I will add something to thy wages.

16 So they were well pleased. Then said he to Tobias, Prepare thyself for the journey, and God send you a good journey. And when his son had prepared all things for the journey, his father said, Go thou with this man, and God, which dwelleth in heaven, prosper your journey, and the angel of God keep you company. So they went forth both, and the young man's dog with them.

17 But Anna his mother wept, and said to Tobit, Why hast thou sent away our son? is he not the staff of our hand, in going in and out before us?

18 ¶ Be not greedy to add money to money: but let it be as refuse in respect of our child.

19 ¶ For that which the Lord hath given us to live with doth suffice us.

20 Then said Tobit to her, Take no care, my sister; he shall return in safety, and thine eyes shall see him.

21 For the good angel will keep him company, and his journey shall be prosperous, and he shall return safe.

22 Then she made an end of weeping.

CHAP. VI.

⁴ The angel biddeth Tobias to take the liver, heart, and gall out of a fish, ¹⁰ and to marry Sara the daughter of Raguel: ¹⁶ and teacheth how to drive the wicked spirit away.

AND as they went on their journey, they came in the evening to the river Tigris, and they lodged there.

2 And when the young man went down to wash himself, a fish leaped out of the river, and would have devoured him.

3 Then the angel said unto him, Take the fish. And the young man laid hold of the fish, and ¶ drew it to land.

¶ Or, cast it upon the land.

4 To whom the angel said, Open the fish, and take the heart and the liver and the gall, and put them up safely.

5 So the young man did as the angel commanded him; and when they had roasted the fish, they did eat it: then they both went on their way, till they drew near to Ecbatane.

6 Then the young man said to the angel, Brother Azarias, to what use is the heart and the liver and the gall of the fish?

7 And he said unto him, Touching the heart and the liver, if a devil or an evil spirit trouble any, we must make a smoke thereof before the man or the woman, and the party shall be no more vexed.

8 As for the gall, it is good to anoint a man that hath whiteness in his eyes, and he shall be healed.

9 And when they were come near to Rages,

10 The angel said to the young man, Brother, to day we shall lodge with Raguel, who is thy cousin; he also hath one only daughter, named Sara; I will speak for her, that she may be given thee for a wife.

11 For to thee doth the ¶ right of her appertain, seeing thou only art of her kindred.

¶ Or, inheritance.

marriage: for I know that Raguel cannot marry her to another according to the law of Moses, but he shall be guilty of death, because the right of inheritance doth rather appertain to thee than to any other.

13 Then the young man answered the angel, I have heard, brother Azarias, that this maid hath been given to seven men, who all died in the marriage chamber.

14 And now I am the only son of my father, and I am afraid, lest, if I go in unto her, I die, as the other before: for a wicked spirit loveth her, which hurteth no body, but those which come unto her: wherefore I also fear lest I die, and bring my father's and my mother's life because of me to the grave with sorrow: for they have no other son to bury them.

15 Then the angel said unto him, Dost thou not remember the precepts which thy father gave thee, that thou shouldest marry a wife of thine own kindred? wherefore hear me, O my brother; for she shall be given thee to wife; and make thou no reckoning of the evil spirit; for this same night shall she be given thee in marriage.

|| Or, embers.

16 And when thou shalt come into the marriage chamber, thou shalt take the || ashes of perfume, and shalt lay upon them some of the heart and liver of the fish, and shalt make a smoke with it:

17 And the devil shall smell it, and flee away, and never come again any more: but when thou shalt come to her, rise up both of you, and pray to God which is merciful, who will have pity on you, and save you: fear not, for she is appointed unto thee from the beginning; and thou shalt preserve her, and she shall go with thee. Moreover I suppose that she shall bear thee children. Now when Tobias had heard these things, he loved her, and his heart was || effectually joined to her.

|| Or, vehemently.

CHAP. VII.

11 Raguel telleth Tobias what had happened to his daughter: 12 and giveth her in marriage unto him. 17 She is conveyed to her chamber, and weepeth. 18 Her mother comforteth her.

AND when they were come to Ec-batane, they came to the house of Raguel, and Sara met them: and after they had saluted one another, she brought them into the house.

2 Then said Raguel to Edna his wife, How like is this young man to Tobit my cousin!

3 And Raguel asked them, From whence are ye, brethren? To whom they said, We are of the sons of Nephthalim, which are captives in Nineve.

4 Then he said to them, Do ye know Tobit our kinsman? And they said, We know him. Then said he, Is he in good health?

5 And they said, He is both alive, and in good health: and Tobias said, He is my father.

6 Then Raguel leaped up, and kissed him, and wept,

7 And blessed him, and said unto him, Thou art the son of an honest and good man. But when he had heard that Tobit was blind, he was sorrowful, and wept.

8 And likewise Edna his wife and Sara his daughter wept. Moreover they entertained them cheerfully; and after that they had killed || a ram of the flock, they set store of meat on the table. Then said Tobias to Raphael, Brother Azarias, speak of those things of which thou didst talk in the way, and let this business be dispatched.

9 So he communicated the matter with Raguel: and Raguel said to Tobias, Eat and drink, and make merry:

10 For it is meet that thou shouldest marry my daughter: nevertheless I will declare unto thee the truth.

11 I have given my daughter in marriage to seven men, who died that night they came in unto her: nevertheless for the present be merry. But Tobias said, I will eat nothing here, till we agree and swear one to another.

12 Raguel said, Then take her from henceforth according to the || manner, || Or, law. for thou art her cousin, and she is thine, and the merciful God give you good success in all things.

13 Then he called his daughter Sara, and she came to her father, and he took her by the hand, and gave her to be wife to Tobias, saying, Behold, take her after *the law of Moses, and lead her away to thy father. And he blessed them;

14 And called Edna his wife, and took paper, and did write an instrument of covenants, and sealed it.

15 Then they began to eat.

16 After Raguel called his wife Edna, and said unto her, Sister, prepare another chamber, and bring her in thither.

17 Which when she had done as he had bidden her, she brought her thither: and she wept, and she || received the tears of her daughter, and said unto her,

18 Be of good comfort, my daughter; the Lord of heaven and earth give thee joy for this thy sorrow: be of good comfort, my daughter.

CHAP. VIII.

3 Tobias driveth the wicked spirit away, as he was taught.

4 He and his wife rise up to pray. 10 Raguel thought he was dead: 15 but finding him alive, praiseth God, 19 and maketh a wedding feast.

AND when they had supped, they brought Tobias in unto her.

2 And as he went, he remembered the words of Raphael, and took the || ashes of the perfumes, and put the heart and the liver of the fish thereupon, and made a smoke therewith.

3 The which smell when the evil spirit had smelled, he fled into the utmost parts of Egypt, and the angel bound him.

4 And after that they were both shut in together, Tobias rose out of the bed, and said, Sister, arise, and let us pray that God would have pity on us.

5 Then began Tobias to say, Blessed art thou, O God of our fathers, and blessed is thy holy and glorious name for ever; let the heavens bless thee, and all thy creatures.

6 ^a Thou madest Adam, and gavest him Eve his wife for an helper and stay: of them came mankind: thou hast said, It is not good that man should be alone; let us make unto him an aid like unto himself.

7 And now, O Lord, I take not this my sister for lust, but uprightly: therefore mercifully ordain that we may become aged together.

8 And she said with him, Amen.

9 So they slept both that night. And Raguel arose, and went and made a grave,

10 Saying, I fear lest he also be dead.

11 But when Raguel was come into his house,

12 He said unto his wife Edna, Send one of the maids, and let her see whether he be alive: if he be not, that we may bury him, and no man know it.

13 So the maid opened the door, and went in, and found them both asleep, 14 And came forth, and told them that he was alive.

15 Then Raguel praised God, and said, O God, thou art worthy to be praised with all pure and holy praise; therefore let thy saints praise thee with all thy creatures; and let all thine angels and thine elect praise thee for ever.

16 Thou art to be praised, for thou hast made me joyful; and that is not come to me which I suspected; but thou hast dealt with us according to thy great mercy.

17 Thou art to be praised, because thou hast had mercy of two that were the only begotten children of their fathers: grant them mercy, O Lord, and finish their life in health with joy and mercy.

18 Then Raguel bade his servants to fill the grave.

19 And he kept the wedding feast fourteen days.

20 For before the days of the marriage were finished, Raguel had said unto him by an oath, that he should not depart till the fourteen days of the marriage were expired;

21 And then he should take the half of his goods, and go in safety to his father; and should have the rest when I and my wife be dead.

CHAP. IX.

1 Tobias sendeth the angel unto Gabael for the money. 6 The angel bringeth it and Gabael to the wedding.

THEN Tobias called Raphael, and said unto him,

2 Brother Azarias, take with thee a servant, and two camels, and go to Rages of Media to Gabael, and bring me the money, and bring him to the wedding.

3 For Raguel hath sworn that I shall not depart.

4 But my father counteth the days; and if I tarry long, he will be very sorry.

5 So Raphael went out, and lodged with Gabael, and gave him the hand-

6 And early in the morning they went forth both together, and came to the wedding: and ¶ Tobias blessed his wife.

CHAP. X.

1 Tobit and his wife long for their son. 7 She will not be comforted by her husband. 10 Raguel sendeth Tobias and his wife away, with half their goods, 12 and blesseth them.

NOW Tobit his father counted every day: and when the days of the journey were expired, and they came not,

2 Then Tobit said, Are they detained? or is Gabael dead, and there is no man to give him the money?

3 Therefore he was very sorry.

4 Then his wife said unto him, My son is dead, seeing he stayeth long; and she began to bewail him, and said,

5 Now I care for nothing, my son, since I have let thee go, the light of mine eyes.

6 To whom Tobit said, Hold thy peace, take no care, for he is safe.

7 But she said, Hold thy peace, and deceive me not; my son is dead. And she went out every day into the way which they went, and did eat no meat on the daytime, and ceased not whole nights to bewail her son Tobias, until the fourteen days of the wedding were expired, which Raguel had sworn that he should spend there. Then Tobias said to Raguel, Let me go, for my father and my mother look no more to see me.

8 But his father in law said unto him, Tarry with me, and I will send to thy father, and they shall declare unto him how things go with thee.

9 But Tobias said, No; but let me go to my father.

10 Then Raguel arose, and gave him Sara his wife, and half his goods, servants, and cattle, and money:

11 And he blessed them, and sent them away, saying, The God of heaven give you a prosperous journey, my children.

12 And he said to his daughter, Honour thy father and thy mother in law, which are now thy parents, that I may hear good report of thee. And he kissed her. Edna also said to Tobias, The Lord of heaven restore thee, my dear brother, and grant that I may see thy children of my daughter Sara before I die, that I may rejoice before the Lord: behold, I commit my daughter unto thee ¶ of special trust; wherefore do not entreat her evil.

¶ Or, to be safely kept.

CHAP. XI.

6 Tobias' mother spieth her son coming. 10 His father meeteth him at the door, and recovereth his sight. 14 He praiseth God, 17 and welcometh his daughter in law.

AFTER these things Tobias went his way, praising God that he had given him a prosperous journey, and blessed Raguel and Edna his wife, and went on his way till they drew near unto Nineve.

2 Then Raphael said to Tobias, Thou knowest, brother, how thou didst leave thy father:

3 Let us haste before thy wife, and prepare the house.

4 And take in thine hand the gall of the fish. So they went their way, and the dog went after them.

5 Now Anna sat looking about toward the way for her son.

6 And when she espied him coming, she said to his father, Behold, thy son cometh, and the man that went with him.

7 Then said Raphael, I know, Tobias, that thy father will open his eyes.

8 Therefore anoint thou his eyes with the gall, and being pricked therewith, he shall rub, and the whiteness shall fall away, and he shall see thee.

9 Then Anna ran forth, and fell upon the neck of her son, and said unto him, Seeing I have seen thee, my son, from henceforth I am content to die. And they wept both.

10 Tobit also went forth toward the door, and stumbled: but his son ran unto him, 11 And took hold of his father: and he strake of the gall on his father's eyes, saying, Be of good hope, my father.

12 And when his eyes began to smart, he rubbed them;

13 And the whiteness pilled away from the corners of his eyes: and when he saw his son, he fell upon his neck.

14 And he wept, and said, Blessed art thou, O God, and blessed is thy name for ever; and blessed are all thine holy angels:

15 For thou hast scourged, and hast taken pity on me: for, behold, I see my son Tobias. And his son went in rejoicing, and told his father the great things that had happened to him in Media.

16 Then Tobit went out to meet his daughter in law at the gate of Nineve, rejoicing, and praising God: and they which saw him go marvelled, because he had received his sight.

17 But Tobit gave thanks before them, because God had mercy on him. And when he came near to Sara his daughter in law, he blessed her, saying, Thou art welcome, daughter: God be blessed, which hath brought thee unto us, and blessed be thy father and thy mother. And there was joy among all his brethren which were at Nineve.

18 And Achiacharus, ¶ and Nasbas his brother's son, came:

19 And Tobias' wedding was kept seven days with great joy.

CHAP. XII.

5 Tobit offereth half to the angel for his pains. 6 But he calleth them both aside, and exhorteth them, 15 and telleth them that he was an angel, 21 and was seen no more.

THEN Tobit called his son Tobias, and said unto him, My son, see that the man have his wages, which went with thee, and thou must give him more.

2 And Tobias said unto him, O father, it is no harm to me to give him half of those things which I have brought:

3 For he hath brought me again to thee in safety, and made whole my wife, and brought me the money, and likewise healed thee.

4 Then the old man said, It is due unto him.

5 So he called the angel, and he said unto him, Take half of all that ye have brought, and go away in safety.

6 Then he took them both apart, and said unto them, Bless God, praise him, and magnify him, and praise him for the things which he hath done unto you in the sight of all that live. It is good to praise God, and exalt his name, and ¶ honourably to shew forth the works of God; therefore be not slack to praise him.

7 It is good to keep close the secret of a king, but it is honourable to reveal the works of God. a Do that which is good, and no evil shall touch you.

8 Prayer is good with fasting and alms and righteousness. b A little with righteousness is better than much with unrighteousness. It is better to give alms than to lay up gold:

9 c For alms doth deliver from death, and shall purge away all sin. Those that exercise alms and righteousness shall be filled with life:

10 But they that sin are enemies to their own life.

11 Surely I will keep close nothing from you. For I said, It was good to keep close the secret of a king, but that it was honourable to reveal the works of God.

12 Now therefore, when thou didst pray, and Sara thy daughter in law, I did bring the remembrance of your prayers before the Holy One: and when thou didst bury the dead, I was with thee likewise.

13 And when thou didst not delay to rise up, and leave thy dinner, † to go and cover the dead, thy good deed was not hid from me: but I was with thee.

14 And now God hath sent me to heal thee and Sara thy daughter in law.

15 I am Raphael, one of the seven holy angels, which present the prayers of the saints, and which go in and out before the glory of the Holy One.

16 Then they were both troubled, and fell upon their faces: for they feared.

17 But he said unto them, Fear not, for it shall go well with you; praise God therefore.

18 For not of any favour of mine, but by the will of our God I came; wherefore praise him for ever.

19 d All these days I did appear unto you; but I did neither eat nor drink, but ye did see a vision.

20 Now therefore give God thanks: for I go up to him that sent me; but write all things which are done in a book.

21 And when they arose, they saw him no more.

22 Then they confessed the great and wonderful works of God, and how the angel of the Lord had appeared unto them.

8 And now, my son, depart out of Nineve, because that those things which the prophet Jonas spake shall surely come to pass.

9 But keep thou the law and the commandments, and shew thyself merciful and just, that it may go well with thee.

10 And bury me decently, and thy mother with me; but tarry no longer at Nineve. Remember, my son, how Aman handled Achiacharus that brought him up, how out of light he brought him into darkness, and how he rewarded him again: yet Achiacharus was || saved, but the other had his reward: for

CHAP. I.

2 Arphaxad doth fortify Ecbatane. 5 Nabuchodonosor maketh war against him, 7 and craveth aid. 12 He threateneth those that would not aid him, 15 and killeth Arphaxad, 16 and returneth to Nineve.

IN the twelfth year of the reign of Nabuchodonosor, who reigned in Nineve, the great city; in the days of Arphaxad, which reigned over the Medes in Ecbatane,

2 And built in Ecbatane walls round about of stones hewn three cubits broad and six cubits long, and made the height of the wall seventy cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits:

3 And set the towers thereof upon the gates of it, an hundred cubits high, and the breadth thereof in the foundation threescore cubits:

4 And he made the gates thereof, even gates that were raised to the height of seventy cubits, and the breadth of them was forty cubits, for the going forth of his mighty armies, and for the setting in array of his footmen:

5 Even in those days king Nabuchodonosor made war with king Arphaxad in the great plain, which is the plain in the borders of Ragau.

6 And there came unto him all they that dwelt in the hill country, and all that dwelt by Euphrates, and Tigris, and Hydaspes, and the plain of Arioch the king of the Elymeans, and very many nations of the sons of Chelod, assembled themselves to the battle.

7 Then Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians sent unto all that dwelt in Persia, and to all that dwelt westward, and to those that dwelt in Cilicia, and Damascus, and Libanus, and Antilibanus, and to all that dwelt upon the sea coast,

8 And to those among the nations that were of Carmel, and Galaad, and the higher Galilee, and the great plain of Esdrelom,

9 And to all that were in Samaria and the cities thereof, and beyond Jordan unto Jerusalem, and Betane, and Chellus, and Kades, and the river of Egypt, and Taphnes, and Ramesse, and all the land of Gesem, 10 Until ye come beyond Tanis and Memphis, and to all the inhabitants of Egypt, until ye come to the borders of Ethiopia.

11 But all the inhabitants of the land made light of the commandment of Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians, neither went they with him to the battle; for they were not afraid of him: yea, he was before them as one man, and they sent away his ambassadors from them without effect, and with disgrace.

12 Therefore Nabuchodonosor was very angry with all this country, and sware by his throne and kingdom, that he would surely be avenged upon all those coasts of Cilicia, and Damascus, and Syria, and that he would slay with the sword all the inhabitants of the land of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and all Judea, and all that were in Egypt, till ye come to the borders of the two seas.

13 Then he marched in battle array with his power against king Arphaxad in the seventeenth year, and he prevailed in his battle: for he overthrew all the power of Arphaxad, and all his horsemen, and all his chariots, 14 And became lord of his cities, and came unto Ecbatane, and took the towers, and spoiled the streets thereof, and turned the beauty thereof into shame.

15 He took also Arphaxad in the mountains of Ragau, and smote him through with his darts, and destroyed him utterly that day.

16 So he returned afterward to Nineve, both he and all his company of sundry nations, being a very great multitude of men of war, and there he took his ease, and banqueted, both he and his army, an hundred and twenty days.

CHAP. II.

⁴ Holofernes is appointed general, 11 and charged to spare none that will not yield. 15 His army and provision. 23 The places which he won and wasted as he went.

AND in the eighteenth year, the two and twentieth day of the first month, there was talk in the house of Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians, that he should, as he said, avenge himself on all the earth.

2 So he called unto him all his officers, and all his nobles, and communicated with them his secret counsel, and concluded the afflicting of the whole earth out of his own mouth.

^a 1 Sam. 20. 7. & 25. 17.

3 Then they decreed to destroy all flesh, that did not obey the commandment of his mouth.

4 And when he had ended his counsel, Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians called Holofernes the chief captain of his army, which was [†] next unto him, and said unto him, [†] Gr. second man.

5 Thus saith the great king, the lord of the whole earth, Behold, thou shalt go forth from my presence, and take with thee men that trust in their own strength, of footmen an hundred and twenty thousand; and the number of horses with their riders twelve thousand.

6 And thou shalt go against all the west country, because they disobeyed my commandment.

7 And thou shalt declare unto them, that they prepare for me ^{||} earth and water: for I will go forth in my wrath against them, and will cover the whole face of the earth with the feet of mine army, and I will give them for a spoil unto them:

^{||} After the manner of the kings of Persia, to whom earth and water was wont to be given, to acknowledge that they were lords of land and sea, Herodotus.

8 So that their slain shall fill their valleys and brooks, and the river shall be filled with their dead, till it overflow:

9 And I will lead them captives to the utmost parts of all the earth.

10 Thou therefore shalt go forth, and take beforehand for me all their coasts: and if they will yield themselves unto thee, thou shalt reserve them for me till the day of their punishment.

11 But concerning them that rebel, let not thine eye spare them; but put them to the slaughter, and spoil them wheresoever thou goest.

12 For as I live, and by the power of my kingdom, whatsoever I have spoken, that will I do by mine hand.

13 And take thou heed that thou transgress none of the commandments of thy lord, but accomplish them fully, as I have commanded thee, and defer not to do them.

14 Then Holofernes went forth from the presence of his lord, and called all the governors and captains, and the officers of the army of Assur;

15 And he mustered the chosen men for the battle, as his lord had commanded him, unto an hundred and twenty thousand, and twelve thousand archers on horseback;

16 And he ranged them, as a great army is ordered for the war.

17 And he took camels and asses for their carriages, a very great number; and sheep and oxen and goats without number for their provision:

18 And plenty of victual for every man of the army, and very much gold and silver out of the king's house.

19 Then he went forth and all his power to go before king Nabuchodonosor in the voyage, and to cover all the face of the earth westward with their chariots, and horsemen, and their chosen footmen.

20 A great number also of sundry countries came with them like locusts, and like the sand of the earth: for the multitude was without number.

21 And they went forth of Nineve three days' journey toward the plain of Bectileth, and pitched from Bectileth near the mountain which is at the left hand of the upper Cilicia.

22 Then he took all his army, his footmen, and horsemen, and chariots, and went from thence into the hill country;

23 And destroyed Phud and Lud, and spoiled all the children of Rassas, and the children of Ismael, which were toward the wilderness at the south of the land of the Chellians.

24 Then he went over Euphrates, and went through Mesopotamia, and destroyed all the high cities that were upon the river Arbonai, till ye come to the sea.

25 And he took the borders of Cilicia, and killed all that resisted him, and came to the borders of Japheth, which were toward the south, over against Arabia.

26 He compassed also all the children of Madian, and burned up their tabernacles, and spoiled their sheepcotes.

27 Then he went down into the plain of Damascus in the time of wheat harvest, and burnt up all their fields, and destroyed their flocks and herds, also he spoiled their cities, and utterly wasted their countries, and smote all their young men with the edge of the sword.

28 Therefore the fear and dread of him fell upon all the inhabitants of the sea coasts, which were in Sidon and Tyrus, and them that dwelt in Sur and Ocina, and all that dwelt in Jemnaan; and they that dwelt in Azotus and Ascalon feared him greatly.

CHAP. III.

¹ They of the sea coasts intreat for peace. ⁷ Holofernes is received there: ⁸ yet he destroyeth their gods, that they might worship only Nabuchodonosor. ⁹ He cometh near to Judea.

SO they sent ambassadors unto him to treat of peace, saying,

2 Behold, we the servants of Nabuchodonosor the great king lie before thee; use us as shall be good in thy sight.

3 Behold, our houses, and all our places, and all our fields of wheat, and flocks, and herds, and all the lodges of our tents, lie before thy face; use them as it pleaseth thee.

4 Behold, even our cities and the inhabitants thereof are thy servants; come and deal with them as seemeth good unto thee.

5 So the men came to Holofernes, and declared unto him after this manner.

6 Then came he down toward the sea coast, both he and his army, and set garrisons in the high cities, and took out of them chosen men for aid.

7 So they and all the country round about received them with garlands, with dances, and with timbrels.

8 Yet he did cast down their frontiers, and cut down their groves: for he had decreed to destroy all the gods of the land, that all nations should worship Nabuchodonosor only, and that all tongues and tribes should call upon him as god.

9 Also he came over against || Esdrelon near unto || Judea, over against the † great strait of Judea.

10 And he pitched between Geba and Scythopolis, and there he tarried a whole month, that he might gather together all the carriages of his army.

CHAP. IV.

2 The Jews are afraid of Holofernes, 5 and fortify the hills. 6 They of Bethulia take charge of the passages. 9 All Israel fall to fasting and prayer.

NOW the children of Israel, that dwelt in Judea, heard all that Holofernes the chief captain of Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians had done to the nations, and after what manner he had spoiled all their temples, and brought them to nought.

2 Therefore they were exceedingly afraid of him, and were troubled for Jerusalem, and for the temple of the Lord their God:

3 For they were newly returned from the captivity, and all the people || of Judea were lately gathered together: and the vessels, and the altar, and the house, were sanctified after the profanation.

|| Or, out of Judea.

4 Therefore they sent into all the coasts of Samaria, and the villages, and to Bethoron, and Belmen, and Jericho, and to Choba, and Esora, and to the valley of Salem:

5 And possessed themselves beforehand of all the tops of the high mountains, and fortified the villages that were in them, and laid up victuals for the provision of war: for their fields were of late reaped.

6 Also Joacim the high priest, which was in those days in Jerusalem, wrote to them that dwelt in Bethulia, and Betomestham, which is over against || Esdraelon toward the || open country, near to Dothaim,

|| Or, Esdraelon.
|| Or, plain.

7 Charging them to keep the passages of the hill country: for by them there was an entrance into Judea, and it was easy to stop them that would come up, because the passage was strait, || for two men at the most.

|| Or, two against all.

8 And the children of Israel did as Joacim the high priest had commanded them, with the || ancients of all the people of Israel, which dwelt at Jerusalem.

|| Or, governors.

9 Then every man of Israel cried to God with great fervency, and with great vehemency did they humble their souls:

10 Both they, and their wives, and their children, and their cattle, and every stranger and hireling, and their servants bought with money, put sackcloth upon their loins.

11 Thus every man and woman, and the little children, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, fell before the temple, and cast ashes upon their heads, and spread out their sackcloth before the face of the Lord: also they put sackcloth about the altar, 12 And cried to the God of Israel all with one consent earnestly, that he would not give their children for a prey, and their wives for a spoil, and the cities of their inheritance to destruction, and the sanctuary to profanation and reproach, and for the nations to rejoice at.

13 So God heard their prayers, and looked upon their afflictions: for the people fasted many days in all Judea and Jerusalem before the sanctuary of the Lord Almighty.

14 And Joacim the high priest, and all the priests that stood before the Lord, and they which ministered unto the Lord, had their loins girt with sackcloth, and offered the daily burnt offerings, with the vows and free gifts of the people,

15 And had ashes on their mitres, and cried unto the Lord with all their power, that he would look upon all the house of Israel graciously.

CHAP. V.

5 Achior telleth Holofernes what the Jews are, 8 and what their God had done for them; 21 and adviseth not to meddle with them. 22 All that heard him were offended at him.

THEN was it declared to Holofernes, the chief captain of the army of Assur, that the children of Israel had prepared for war, and had shut up the passages of the hill country, and had fortified † all the tops of the high hills, and had laid impediments in the campaign countries:

† Gr. all the top.

2 Wherewith he was very angry, and called all the princes of Moab, and the captains of Ammon, and all the governors of the sea coast,

3 And he said unto them, Tell me now, ye sons of Chanaan, who this people is, that dwelleth in the hill country, and what are the cities that they inhabit, and what is the multitude of their army, and wherein is their power and strength, and what king is set over them, or captain of their army;

5 ^a Then said Achior, the captain of all the sons of Ammon, Let my lord now hear a word from the mouth of thy servant, and I will declare unto thee the truth concerning this people, which dwelleth near thee, and inhabiteth the hill countries: and there shall no lie come out of the mouth of thy servant.

6 This people are descended of the Chaldeans:

21 But if there be no iniquity in their nation, let my lord now pass by, lest their Lord defend them, and their God be for them, and we become a reproach before all the world.

22 And when Achior had finished these sayings, all the people standing round about the tent murmured, and the chief men of Holofernes, and all that dwelt by the sea side, and in Moab, spake that he should kill him.

CHAP. VI.

3 Holofernes despiseth God. 7 He threateneth Achior, and sendeth him away. 14 The Bethulians receive and hear him. 18 They fall to prayer, and comfort Achior.

AND when the tumult of men that were about the council was ceased, Holofernes the chief captain of the army of Assur said unto Achior and all the Moabites before all the company of other nations,

2 And who art thou, Achior, and the hirelings of Ephraim, that thou hast prophesied among us as to day, and hast said, that we should not make war with the people of Israel, because their God will defend them? and who is God but Nabuchodonosor?

3 He will send his power, and will destroy them from the face of the earth, and their God shall not deliver them: but we his servants will destroy them as one man; for they are not able to sustain the power of our horses.

4 For with them we will tread them under foot, and their mountains shall be drunken with their blood, and their fields shall be filled with their dead bodies, and their footsteps shall not be able to stand before us, for they shall utterly perish, saith king Nabuchodonosor, lord of all the earth: for he said, None of my words shall be in vain.

5 And thou, Achior, an hireling of Ammon, which hast spoken these words in the day of thine iniquity, shalt see my face no more from this day, until I take vengeance of this nation that came out of Egypt.

6 And then shall the sword of mine army, and the multitude of them that serve me, pass through thy sides, and thou shalt fall among their slain, when I return.

7 Now therefore my servants shall bring thee back into the hill country, and shall set thee in one of the cities of the passages:

8 And thou shalt not perish, till thou be destroyed with them.

9 And if thou persuade thyself in thy mind that they shall not be taken, let not thy countenance fall: I have spoken it, and none of my words shall be in vain.

10 Then Holofernes commanded his servants, that waited in his tent, to take Achior, and bring him to Bethulia, and deliver him into the hands of the children of Israel.

11 So his servants took him, and brought him out of the camp into the plain, and they went from the midst of the plain into the hill country, and came unto the fountains that were under Bethulia.

12 And when the men of the city saw them, they took up their weapons, and went out of the city to the top of the hill: and every man that used a sling kept them from coming up by casting of stones against them.

13 Nevertheless having gotten privily under the hill, they bound Achior, and cast him down, and left him at the foot of the hill, and returned to their lord.

14 But the Israelites descended from their city, and came unto him, and loosed him, and brought him into Bethulia, and presented him to the governors of the city:

15 Which were in those days Ozias the son of Micha, of the tribe of Simeon, and Chabris the son of Gothoniel, and Charmis the son of Melchiel.

16 And they called together all the ancients of the city, and all their youth ran together, and their women, to the assembly, and they set Achior in the midst of all their people. Then Ozias asked him of that which was done.

17 And he answered and declared unto them the words of the council of Holofernes, and all the words that he had spoken in the midst of the princes of Assur, and whatsoever Holofernes had spoken proudly against the house of Israel.

18 Then the people fell down and worshipped God, and cried unto God, saying, 19 O Lord God of heaven, behold their pride, and pity the low estate of our nation, and look upon the face of those that are sanctified unto thee this day.

20 Then they comforted Achior, and praised him greatly.

21 And Ozias took him out of the assembly unto his house, and made a feast to the elders; and they called on the God of Israel all that night for help.

CHAP. VII.

1 Holofernes besiegeth Bethulia, 7 and stoppeth the water from them. 22 They faint, and murmur against the governors, 30 who promise to yield within five days.

THE next day Holofernes commanded all his army, and all his people which were come to take his part, that they should remove their camp against Bethulia, to take aforehand the ascents of the hill country, and to make war against the children of Israel.

2 Then their strong men removed their camps in that day, and the army of the men of war was an hundred and seventy thousand footmen, and twelve thousand horsemen, beside the baggage, and other men that were afoot among them, a very great multitude.

3 And they camped in the valley near unto Bethulia, by the fountain, and they spread themselves in breadth || over Dothaim even to Belmaim, and in length from Bethulia unto + Cyamon, which is over against Esdraelom.

* Num. 22. 4.

4 Now the children of Israel, when they saw the multitude of them, were greatly troubled, and said every one to his neighbour, "Now will these men lick up the face of the earth; for neither the high mountains, nor the valleys, nor the hills, are able to bear their weight.

5 Then every man took up his weapons of war, and when they had kindled fires upon their towers, they remained and watched all that night.

6 But in the second day Holofernes brought forth all his horsemen in the sight of the children of Israel which were in Bethulia,

7 And viewed the passages up to the city, and came to the fountains of their waters, and took them, and set garrisons of men of war over them, and he himself removed toward his people.

8 Then came unto him all the chief of the children of Esau, and all the governors of the people of Moab, and the captains of the sea coast, and said, 9 Let our lord now hear a word, that there be not an overthrow in thine army.

10 For this people of the children of Israel do not trust in their spears, but in the height of the mountains wherein they dwell, because it is not easy to come up to the tops of their mountains.

11 Now therefore, my lord, fight not against them in battle array, and there shall not so much as one man of thy people perish.

12 Remain in thy camp, and keep all the men of thine army, and let thy servants get into their hands the fountain of water, which issueth forth of the foot of the mountain:

13 For all the inhabitants of Bethulia have their water thence; so shall thirst kill them, and they shall give up their city, and we and our people shall go up to the tops of the mountains that are near, and will camp upon them, to watch that none go out of the city.

14 So they and their wives and their children shall be consumed with famine, and before the sword come against them, they shall be overthrown in the streets where they dwell.

15 Thus shalt thou render them an evil reward; because they rebelled, and met not thy person peaceably.

16 And these words pleased Holofernes and all his servants, and he appointed to do as they had spoken.

17 So the camp of the children of Ammon departed, and with them five thousand of the Assyrians, and they pitched in the valley, and took the waters, and the fountains of the waters of the children of Israel.

18 Then the children of Esau went up with the children of Ammon, and camped in the hill country over against Dothaim: and they sent some of them toward the south, and toward the east, over against Ekrebel, which is near unto Chusi, that is upon the brook Mochmur; and the rest of the army of the Assyrians camped in the plain, and covered the face of the whole land; and their tents and carriages were pitched to a very great multitude.

19 Then the children of Israel cried unto the Lord their God, because their heart failed, for all their enemies had compassed them round about, and there was no way to escape out from among them.

20 Thus all the company of Assur remained about them, both their footmen, chariots, and horsemen, four and thirty days, so that all their vessels of water failed all the inhabitants of Bethulia.

21 And the || cisterns were emptied, || Or, pits. and they had not water to drink their fill for one day; for they gave them drink by measure.

22 Therefore their young children were out of heart, and their women and young men fainted for thirst, and fell down in the streets of the city, and by the passages of the gates, and there was no longer any strength in them.

23 Then all the people assembled to Ozias, and to the chief of the city, both young men, and women, and children, and cried with a loud voice, and said before all the elders,

^b Ex. 5. 21.

24 God be ^b judge between us and you: for ye have done us great injury, in that ye have not required peace of the children of Assur.

25 For now we have no helper: but God hath sold us into their hands, that we should be thrown down before them with thirst and great destruction.

26 Now therefore call them unto you, and deliver the whole city for a spoil to the people of Holofernes, and to all his army.

27 For it is better for us to be made a spoil unto them, than to die for thirst: for we will be his servants, that our souls may live, and not see the death of our infants before our eyes, nor our wives nor our children to die.

^{||} Or, lest he do, meaning Holofernes.

28 We take to witness against you the heaven and the earth, and our God and Lord of our fathers, which punisheth us according to our sins and the sins of our fathers, ^{||} that he do not according as we have said this day.

29 Then there was great weeping with one consent in the midst of the assembly; and they cried unto the Lord God with a loud voice.

30 Then said Ozias to them, Brethren, be of good courage, let us yet endure five days, in the which space the Lord our God may turn his mercy toward us; for he will not forsake us utterly.

31 And if these days pass, and there come no help unto us, I will do according to your word.

32 And he dispersed the people, every one to their own charge; and they went unto the walls and towers of their city, and sent the women and children into their houses: and they were very low brought in the city.

CHAP. VIII.

¹ The state and behaviour of Judith a widow. ¹² She blameth the governors for their promise to yield, ¹⁷ and adviseth them to trust in God. ²⁸ They excuse their promise. ³² She promiseth to do something for them.

NOW at that time Judith heard thereof, which was the daughter of Merari, the son of Ox, the son of Joseph, the son of Oziel, the son of Elcia, the son of Ananias, the son of Gedeon, the son of Raphaim, the son of Acitho, the son of Eliu, the son of Eliab, the son of Nathanael, the son of ^{||} Samael, ^{||} Or, ^{||} Samahel, the son of Salasadai, the son of Israel.

2 And Manasses was her husband, of her tribe and kindred, who died in the barley harvest.

3 For as he stood overseeing them that bound sheaves in the field, the heat came upon his head, and he fell on his bed, and died in the city of Bethulia: and they buried him with his fathers in the field between Dothaim and Balamo.

4 So Judith was a widow in her house three years and four months.

5 And she made her a tent upon the top of her house, and put on sackcloth upon her loins, and ware her widow's apparel.

6 And she fasted all the days of her widowhood, save the eves of the sabbaths, and the sabbaths, and the eves of the new moons, and the new moons, and the feasts and solemn days of the house of Israel.

7 She was also of a goodly countenance, and very beautiful to behold: and her husband Manasses had left her gold, and silver, and menservants, and maidservants, and cattle, and lands; ^{||} and she remained upon them.

^{||} Or, and she kept them.

8 And there was none that gave her an ill word; for she feared God greatly.

9 Now when she heard the evil words of the people against the governor, that they fainted for lack of water; for Judith had heard ^a all the words that Ozias had spoken unto them, and that he had sworn to deliver the city unto the Assyrians after five days; ^a ch. 7. 30, 31.

10 Then she sent her waitingwoman, that had the government of all things that she had, to call Ozias and Chabris and Charmis, the ancients of the city.

11 And they came unto her, and she said unto them, Hear me now, O ye governors of the inhabitants of Bethulia: for your words that ye have spoken before the people this day are not right, touching this oath which ye made and pronounced between God and you, and have promised to deliver the city to our enemies, unless within these days the Lord turn to help you.

12 And now who are ye that have tempted God this day, and stand instead of God among the children of men?

13 And now try the Lord Almighty, but ye shall never know any thing.

^b 1 Cor. 2. 11. 14 ^b For ye cannot find the depth of the heart of man, neither can ye perceive the things that he thinketh: then how can ye search out God, that hath made all these things, and ^c know his mind, or comprehend his purpose? Nay, my brethren, provoke not the Lord our God to anger.

^c 1 Cor. 2. 16. 15 For if he will not help us within these five days, he hath power to defend us when he will, even every day, or to destroy us before our enemies.

^{||} Or, engage. 16 Do not ^{||} bind the counsels of the Lord our God: for ^d God is not as man, that he may be threatened; neither is he as the son of man, that he should be wavering.

17 Therefore let us wait for salvation of him, and call upon him to help us, and he will hear our voice, if it please him.

^{||} Or, town. 18 For there arose none in our age, neither is there any now in these days, neither tribe, nor family, nor ^{||} people, nor city, among us, which worship gods made with hands, ^e as hath been aforetime.

^e Judg. 2. 11. & 4. 1. & 6. 1. 19 For the which cause our fathers were given to the sword, and for a spoil, and had a great fall before our enemies.

20 But we know none other god, therefore we trust that he will not despise us, nor any of our nation.

21 For if we be taken so, all Judea shall lie waste, and our sanctuary shall be spoiled; and he will require the profanation thereof at our mouth.

^{||} Or, fear. 22 And the ^{||} slaughter of our brethren, and the captivity of the country, and the desolation of our inheritance, will he turn upon our heads among the Gentiles, wheresoever we shall be in bondage; and we shall be an offence and a reproach to all them that possess us.

23 For our servitude shall not be directed to favour: but the Lord our God shall turn it to dishonour.

24 Now therefore, O brethren, let us shew an example to our brethren, because their hearts depend upon us, and the sanctuary, and the house, and the altar, rest upon us.

25 Moreover let us give thanks to the Lord our God, which trieth us, even as he did our fathers.

26 Remember what things he did to ^f Abraham, and how he tried Isaac, and ^f Gen. 22. 1. what happened to ^g Jacob in Mesopotamia of Syria, when he kept the sheep of Laban his mother's brother. ^g Gen. 28. 7.

27 For he hath not tried us in the fire, as he did them, for the examination of their hearts, neither hath he taken vengeance on us: but the Lord doth scourge them that come near unto him, to admonish them.

28 Then said Ozias to her, All that thou hast spoken hast thou spoken with a good heart, and there is none that may gainsay thy words.

29 For this is not the first day wherein thy wisdom is manifested; but from the beginning of thy days all the people have known thy understanding, because the disposition of thine heart is good.

30 But the people were very thirsty, and compelled us to do unto them as we have spoken, and to bring an oath upon ourselves, which we will not break.

31 Therefore now pray thou for us, because thou art a godly woman, and the Lord will send us rain to fill our cisterns, and we shall faint no more.

32 Then said Judith unto them, Hear me, and I will do a thing, which shall go throughout all generations to the children of our nation.

33 Ye shall stand this night in the gate, and I will go forth with my waitingwoman: and within the days that ye have promised to deliver the city to our enemies the Lord will visit Israel by mine hand.

34 But enquire not ye of mine act: for I will not declare it unto you, till the things be finished that I do.

35 Then said Ozias and the princes unto her, Go in peace, and the Lord God be before thee, to take vengeance on our enemies.

36 So they returned from the tent, and went to their wards.

CHAP. IX.

¹ Judith humbleth herself, ² and prayeth God to prosper her purpose against the enemies of his sanctuary.

THEN Judith fell upon her face, and put ashes upon her head, and uncovered the sackcloth wherewith she was clothed; and about the time that the incense of that evening was offered in Jerusalem in the house of the Lord Judith cried with a loud voice, and said, ^a Gen. 34.

2, 25, &c.

2 O Lord God of my father ^a Simeon, to whom thou gavest a sword to take vengeance of the strangers, who loosened the girdle of a maid to defile her, and discovered the thigh to her shame, and polluted her virginity to her reproach; for thou saidst, It shall not be so; and yet they did so:

3 Wherefore thou gavest their rulers to be slain, so that they dyed their bed in blood, being deceived, and smotest the servants with their lords, and the lords upon their thrones;

4 And hast given their wives for a prey, and their daughters to be captives, and all their spoils to be divided among thy dear children; which were moved with thy zeal, and abhorred the pollution of their blood, and called upon thee for aid: O God, O my God, hear me also a widow.

5 For thou hast wrought not only those things, but also the things which fell out before, and which ensued after; thou hast thought upon the things which are now, and which are to come.

6 Yea, what things thou didst determine were ready at hand, and said, Lo, we are here: for all thy ways are prepared, and thy judgments are in thy foreknowledge.

7 For, behold, the Assyrians are multiplied in their power; they are exalted with horse and man; they glory in the strength of their footmen; they trust in shield, and spear, and bow, and sling; and know not that thou art the Lord that breakest the battles: the Lord is thy name.

8 Throw down their strength in thy power, and bring down their force in thy wrath: for they have purposed to defile thy sanctuary, and to pollute the tabernacle where thy glorious name resteth, and to cast down with sword the horn of thy altar.

9 Behold their pride, and send thy wrath upon their heads: give into mine hand, which am a widow, the power that I have conceived.

^b Judg. 4.

10 ^b Smite by the deceit of my lips the servant with the prince, and the prince with the servant: break down their stateliness by the hand of a woman.

11 ^c For thy power standeth not in multitude, nor thy might in strong men: for thou art a God of the afflicted, an helper of the oppressed, an upholder of the weak, a protector of the forlorn, a saviour of them that are without hope.

^a Judg. 7. 2.

12 I pray thee, I pray thee, O God of my father, and God of the inheritance of Israel, Lord of the heavens and earth, Creator of the waters, King of every creature, hear thou my prayer:

13 And make my speech and deceit to be their wound and stripe, who have purposed cruel things against thy covenant, and thy hallowed house, and against the top of Sion, and against the house of the possession of thy children.

14 And make every nation and tribe to acknowledge that thou art the God of all power and might, and that there is none other that protecteth the people of Israel but thou.

CHAP. X.

³ Judith doth set forth herself. ¹⁰ She and her maid go forth into the camp. ¹⁷ The watch take and conduct her to Holofernes.

NOW after that she had ceased to cry unto the God of Israel, and had made an end of all these words,

2 She rose where she had fallen down, and called her maid, and went down into the house, in the which she abode in the sabbath days, and in her feast days,

3 And pulled off the sackcloth which she had on, and put off the garments of her widowhood, and washed her body all over with water, and anointed herself with precious ointment, and braided the hair of her head, and put on a ⁺ tire upon it, and put on her garments of gladness, wherewith she was clad during the life of Manasses her husband.

⁺ Gr. mitre.

4 And she took sandals upon her feet, and put about her her bracelets, and her chains, and her rings, and her earrings, and all her ornaments, and decked herself bravely, to allure the eyes of all men that should see her.

5 Then she gave her maid a bottle of wine, and a cruse of oil, and filled a bag with parched corn, and lumps of figs,

|| Or,
wrapped,
or, packed.

and with fine bread; so she || folded all these things together, and laid them upon her.

6 Thus they went forth to the gate of the city of Bethulia, and found standing there Ozias, and the ancients of the city, Chabris and Charmis.

7 And when they saw her, that her countenance was altered, and her apparel was changed, they wondered at her beauty very greatly, and said unto her,

8 The God, the God of our fathers, give thee favour, and accomplish thine enterprizes to the glory of the children of Israel, and to the exaltation of Jerusalem. Then they worshipped God.

9 And she said unto them, Command the gates of the city to be opened unto me, that I may go forth to accomplish the things whereof ye have spoken with me. So they commanded the young men to open unto her, as she had spoken.

10 And when they had done so, Judith went out, she, and her maid with her; and the men of the city looked after her, until she was gone down the mountain, and till she had passed the valley, and could see her no more.

11 Thus they went straight forth in the valley: and the first watch of the Assyrians met her,

12 And took her, and asked her, Of what people art thou? and whence comest thou? and whither goest thou? And she said, I am a woman of the Hebrews, and am fled from them: for they shall be given you to be consumed:

13 And I am coming before Holofernes the chief captain of your army, to declare words of truth; and I will shew him a way, whereby he shall go, and win all the hill country, without losing the body or life of any one of his men.

14 Now when the men heard her words, and beheld her countenance, they wondered greatly at her beauty, and said unto her,

15 Thou hast saved thy life, in that thou hast hasted to come down to the presence of our lord: now therefore come to his tent, and some of us shall conduct thee, until they have delivered thee to his hands.

16 And when thou standest before him, be not afraid in thine heart, but shew unto him according to thy word; and he will entreat thee well.

17 Then they chose out of them an hundred men || to accompany her and her maid; and they brought her to the tent of Holofernes.

|| Or, and they prepared a chariot for her.

18 Then was there a concourse throughout all the camp: for her coming was noised among the tents, and they came about her, as she stood without the tent of Holofernes, till they told him of her.

19 And they wondered at her beauty, and admired the children of Israel because of her, and every one said to his neighbour, Who would despise this people, that have among them such women? surely it is not good that one man of them be left, who being let go might deceive the whole earth.

20 And they that lay near Holofernes went out, and all his servants, and they brought her into the tent.

21 Now Holofernes rested upon his bed under a canopy, which was woven with purple, and gold, and emeralds, and precious stones.

22 So they shewed him of her; and he came out before his tent with silver lamps going before him.

23 And when Judith was come before him and his servants, they all marvelled at the beauty of her countenance; and she fell down upon her face, and did reverence unto him: and his servants took her up.

CHAP. XI.

3 Holofernes asketh Judith the cause of her coming. 6 She telleth him how and when he may prevail. 20 He is much pleased with her wisdom and beauty.

THEN said Holofernes unto her, Woman, be of good comfort, fear not in thine heart: for I never hurt any that was willing to serve Nabuchodonosor, the king of all the earth.

2 Now therefore, if thy people that dwelleth in the mountains had not set light by me, I would not have lifted up my spear against them: but they have done these things to themselves.

3 But now tell me wherefore thou art fled from them, and art come unto us: for thou art come for safeguard; be of good comfort, thou shalt live this night, and hereafter:

4 For none shall hurt thee, but entreat thee well, as they do the servants of king Nabuchodonosor my lord.

5 Then Judith said unto him, Receive the words of thy servant, and suffer thine handmaid to speak in thy presence, and I will declare no lie to my lord this night.

6 And if thou wilt follow the words of thine handmaid, God will bring the thing perfectly to pass by thee; and my lord shall not fail of his purposes.

7 As Nabuchodonosor king of all the earth liveth, and as his power liveth, who hath sent thee for the upholding of every living thing: for not only men shall serve him by thee, but also the beasts of the field, and the cattle, and the fowls of the air, shall live by thy power under Nabuchodonosor and all his house.

|| Or,
in favour.

8 For we have heard of thy wisdom and thy policies, and it is reported in all the earth, that thou only art || excellent in all the kingdom, and mighty in knowledge, and wonderful in feats of war.

^a ch. 5. 5.

|| Or,
gave him.

9 Now as concerning the matter, which ^a Achior did speak in thy council, we have heard his words; for the men of Bethulia || saved him, and he declared unto them all that he had spoken unto thee.

10 Therefore, O lord and governor, reject not his word; but lay it up in thine heart, for it is true: for our nation shall not be punished, neither can the sword prevail against them, except they sin against their God.

11 And now, that my lord be not defeated and frustrate of his purpose, even death is now fallen upon them, and their sin hath overtaken them, wherewith they will provoke their God to anger, whensoever they shall do that which is not fit to be done:

12 For their victuals fail them, and all their water is scant, and they have determined to lay hands upon their cattle, and purposed to consume all those things, that God hath forbidden them to eat by his laws:

13 And are resolved to spend the firstfruits of the corn, and the tenths of wine and oil, which they had sanctified, and reserved for the priests that serve in Jerusalem before the face of our God; the which things it is not lawful for any of the people so much as to touch with their hands.

14 For they have sent some to Jerusalem, because they also that dwell there have done the like, to bring them a licence from the senate.

15 Now when they shall bring them word, they will forthwith do it, and they shall be given thee to be destroyed the same day.

16 Wherefore I thine handmaid, knowing all this, am fled from their presence; and God hath sent me to work things with thee, whereat all the earth shall be astonished, and whosoever shall hear it.

17 For thy servant is religious, and serveth the God of heaven day and night: now therefore, my lord, I will remain with thee, and thy servant will go out by night into the valley, and I will pray unto God, and he will tell me when they have committed their sins:

18 And I will come and shew it unto thee: then thou shalt go forth with all thine army, and there shall be none of them that shall resist thee.

19 And I will lead thee through the midst of Judea, until thou come before Jerusalem; and I will set thy throne in the midst thereof; and thou shalt drive them as sheep that have no shepherd, and ^b a dog shall not so much as || open his mouth at thee: for || these things were told me according to my foreknowledge, and they were declared unto me, and I am sent to tell thee.

^b Exod. 11. 7.

|| Or, bark.

|| Or, these things have I spoken.

20 Then her words pleased Holofernes and all his servants; and they marvelled at her wisdom, and said, 21 There is not such a woman from one end of the earth to the other, both for beauty of face, and wisdom of words.

22 Likewise Holofernes said unto her, God hath done well to send thee before the people, that strength might be in our hands, and destruction upon them that lightly regard my lord.

23 And now thou art both beautiful in thy countenance, and witty in thy words: surely if thou do as thou hast spoken, thy God shall be my God, and thou shalt dwell in the house of king

Nabuchodonosor, and shalt be renowned through the whole earth.

CHAP. XII.

2 Judith will not eat of Holofernes' meat. 7 She tarried three days in the camp, and every night went forth to pray. 13 Bagoas doth move her to be merry with Holofernes, 20 who for joy of her company drank much.

THEN he commanded to bring her in where his plate was set; and bade that they should prepare for her of his own meats, and that she should drink of his own wine.

*Gen. 43. 32.
Dan. 1. 8.
Tobit 1. 11.

2 And Judith said, I *will not eat thereof, lest there be an offence: but provision shall be made for me of the things that I have brought.

3 Then Holofernes said unto her, If thy provision should fail, how should we give thee the like? for there be none with us of thy nation.

4 Then said Judith unto him, As thy soul liveth, my lord, thine handmaid shall not spend those things that I have, before the Lord work by mine hand the things that he hath determined.

5 Then the servants of Holofernes brought her into the tent, and she slept till midnight, and she arose when it was toward the morning watch,

6 And sent to Holofernes, saying, Let my lord now command that thine handmaid may go forth unto prayer.

7 Then Holofernes commanded his guard that they should not stay her: thus she abode in the camp three days, and went out in the night into the valley of Bethulia, and washed herself in a fountain of water by the camp.

8 And when she came out, she besought the Lord God of Israel to direct her way to the raising up of the children of her people.

9 So she came in clean, and remained in the tent, until she did eat her meat at evening.

10 And in the fourth day Holofernes made a feast to his own servants only, and called none of the officers to the banquet.

11 Then said he to Bagoas the eunuch, who had charge over all that he had, Go now, and persuade this Hebrew woman which is with thee, that she come unto us, and eat and drink with us.

12 For, lo, it will be a shame for our person, if we shall let such a woman go, not having had her company; for if we draw her not unto us, she will laugh us to scorn.

13 Then went Bagoas from the presence of Holofernes, and came to her, and he said, Let not this fair damsel fear to come to my lord, and to be honoured in his presence, and drink wine, and be merry with us, and be made this day as one of the daughters of the Assyrians, which serve in the house of Nabuchodonosor.

14 Then said Judith unto him, Who am I now, that I should gainsay my lord? surely whatsoever pleaseth him I will do speedily, and it shall be my joy unto the day of my death.

15 So she arose, and decked herself with her apparel and all her woman's attire, and her maid went and laid soft skins on the ground for her over against Holofernes, which she had received of Bagoas for her daily use, that she might sit and eat upon them.

16 Now when Judith came in and sat down, Holofernes his heart was ravished with her, and his mind was moved, and he desired greatly her company; for he waited a time to deceive her, from the day that he had seen her.

17 Then said Holofernes unto her, Drink now, and be merry with us.

18 So Judith said, I will drink now, my lord, because my life is magnified in me this day more than all the days since I was born.

19 Then she took and ate and drank before him what her maid had prepared.

20 And Holofernes took great delight in her, and drank much more wine than he had drunk at any time in one day since he was born.

CHAP. XIII.

2 Judith is left alone with Holofernes in his tent. 4 She prayeth God to give her strength. 8 She cut off his head while he slept, 10 and returned with it to Bethulia. 17 They saw it, and commend her.

NOW when the evening was come, his servants made haste to depart, and Bagoas shut his tent without, and dismissed the waiters from the presence of his lord; and they went to their beds: for they were all weary, because the feast had been long.

2 And Judith was left alone in the tent, and Holofernes lying along upon his bed: for he was filled with *wine.

3 Now Judith had commanded her maid to stand without her bedchamber, and to wait for her coming forth, as she did daily: for she said she would go forth to her prayers, and she spake to Bagoas according to the same purpose.

4 So all went forth, and none was left in the bedchamber, neither little nor great. Then Judith, standing by his bed, said in her heart, O Lord God of all power, look at this present upon the works of mine hands for the exaltation of Jerusalem.

5 For now is the time to help thine inheritance, and to execute mine enterprises to the destruction of the enemies which are risen against us.

6 Then she came to the pillar of the bed, which was at Holofernes' head, and took down his fauchion from thence,

7 And approached to his bed, and took hold of the hair of his head, and said, Strengthen me, O Lord God of Israel, this day.

8 And she smote twice upon his neck with all her might, and she took away his head from him,

9 And tumbled his body down from the bed, and pulled down the canopy from the pillars; and anon after she went forth, and gave Holofernes his head to her maid;

10 And she put it in her bag of meat: so they twain went together according to their custom unto prayer: and when they passed the camp, they compassed the valley, and went up the mountain of Bethulia, and came to the gates thereof.

11 Then said Judith afar off to the watchmen at the gate, Open, open now the gate: God, even our God, is with us, to shew his power yet in Jerusalem, and his forces against the enemy, as he hath even done this day.

12 Now when the men of her city heard her voice, they made haste to go down to the gate of their city, and they called the elders of the city.

13 And then they ran all together, both small and great, for it was strange unto them that she was come: so they opened the gate, and received them, and made a fire for a light, and stood round about them.

14 Then she said to them with a loud voice, Praise, praise God, praise God, I say, for he hath not taken away his mercy from the house of Israel, but hath destroyed our enemies by mine hands this night.

15 So she took the head out of the bag, and shewed it, and said unto them, Behold the head of Holofernes, the chief captain of the army of Assur, and behold the canopy, wherein he did lie in his drunkenness; and the Lord hath smitten him by the hand of a woman.

16 As the Lord liveth, who hath kept me in my way that I went, my countenance hath deceived him to his destruction, and yet hath he not committed sin with me, to defile and shame me.

17 Then all the people were wonderfully astonished, and bowed themselves, and worshipped God, and said with one accord, Blessed be thou, O our God, which hast this day brought to nought the enemies of thy people.

18 Then said Ozias unto her, O daughter, blessed art thou of the most high God above all the women upon the earth; and blessed be the Lord God, which hath created the heavens and the earth, which hath directed thee to the cutting off of the head of the chief of our enemies.

19 For this thy confidence shall not depart from the heart of men, which remember the power of God for ever.

20 And God turn these things to thee for a perpetual praise, to visit thee in good things, because thou hast not spared thy life for the affliction of our nation, but hast revenged our ruin, walking a straight way before our God. And all the people said, So be it, so be it.

CHAP. XIV.

8 Achior heareth Judith shew what she had done, and is circumcised. 11 The head of Holofernes is hanged up. 15 He is found dead, and much lamented.

THEN said Judith unto them, Hear me now, my brethren, and take this head, and hang it upon the highest place of your walls.

2 And so soon as the morning shall appear, and the sun shall come forth upon the earth, take ye every one his weapons, and go forth every valiant man out of the city, and set ye a captain over them, as though ye would go down into the field toward the watch of the Assyrians; but go not down.

3 Then they shall take their armour, and shall go into their camp, and raise up the captains of the army of Assur, and they shall run to the tent of Holofernes, but shall not find him: then fear shall fall upon them, and they shall flee before your face.

4 So ye, and all that inhabit the coast of Israel, shall pursue them, and overthrow them as they go.

5 But before ye do these things, call me Achior the Ammonite, that he may see and know him that despised the house of Israel, and that sent him to us, as it were to his death.

6 Then they called Achior out of the house of Ozias; and when he was come, and saw the head of Holofernes in a man's hand in the assembly of the people, he fell down on his face, and his spirit failed.

7 But when they had recovered him, he fell at Judith's feet, and revered her, and said, Blessed art thou in all the tabernacle of Juda, and in all nations, which hearing thy name shall be astonished.

8 Now therefore tell me all the things that thou hast done in these days. Then Judith declared unto him in the midst of the people all that she had done, from the day that she went forth until that hour she spake unto them.

9 And when she had left off speaking, the people shouted with a loud voice, and made a joyful noise in their city.

10 And when Achior had seen all that the God of Israel had done, he believed in God greatly, and circumcised the flesh of his foreskin, and was joined unto the house of Israel unto this day.

11 And as soon as the morning arose, they hanged the head of Holofernes upon the wall, and every man took his weapons, and they went forth by bands unto the || straits of the mountain.

12 But when the Assyrians saw them, they sent to their leaders, which came to their captains and tribunes, and to every one of their rulers.

13 So they came to Holofernes' tent, and said to him that had the charge of all his things, Waken now our lord: for the slaves have been bold to come down against us to battle, that they may be utterly destroyed.

14 Then went in Bagoas, and knocked at the door of the tent; for he thought that he had slept with Judith.

15 But because none answered, he opened it, and went into the bedchamber, and found him cast upon the floor dead, and his head was taken from him.

16 || Therefore he cried with a loud || Then. voice, with weeping, and sighing, and a mighty cry, and rent his garments.

17 After he went into the tent where Judith lodged: and when he found her not, he leaped out to the people, and cried, 18 These slaves have dealt treacherously; one woman of the Hebrews hath brought shame upon the house of king Nabuchodonosor: for, behold, Holofernes lieth upon the ground without a head.

19 When the captains of the Assyrians' army heard these words, they rent their coats, and their minds were wonderfully troubled, and there was a cry and a very great noise throughout the camp.

CHAP. XV.

1 The Assyrians are chased and slain. 8 The high priest cometh to see Judith. 11 The stuff of Holofernes is given to Judith. 13 The women crown her with a garland.

AND when they that were in the tents heard, they were astonished at the thing that was done.

2 And fear and trembling fell upon them, so that there was no man that durst abide in the sight of his neighbour, but rushing out all together, they fled into every way of the plain, and of the hill country.

3 They also that had camped in the mountains round about Bethulia fled away. Then the children of Israel, every one that was a warrior among them, rushed out upon them.

4 Then sent Ozias to Betomasthem, and to Bebai, and Chobai, and Cola, and to all the coasts of Israel, such as should tell the things that were done, and that all should rush forth upon their enemies to destroy them.

5 Now when the children of Israel heard it, they all fell upon them with one consent, and slew them unto Chobai: likewise also they that came from Jerusalem, and from all the hill country, (for men had told them what things were done in the camp of their enemies,) and they that were in Galaad, and in Galilee, || chased them with a great slaughter, until they were past Damascus and the borders thereof.

6 And the residue, that dwelt at Bethulia, fell upon the camp of Assur, and spoiled them, and were greatly enriched.

7 And the children of Israel that returned from the slaughter had that which remained; and the villages and the cities, that were in the mountains and in the plain, gat many spoils: for the multitude was very great.

8 Then Joacim the high priest, and the ancients of the children of Israel that dwelt in Jerusalem, came to behold the good things that God had shewed to Israel, and to see Judith, and to salute her.

9 And when they came unto her, they blessed her with one accord, and said unto her, Thou art the exaltation of Jerusalem, thou art the great glory of Israel, thou art the great rejoicing of our nation:

10 Thou hast done all these things by thine hand: thou hast done much good to Israel, and God is pleased therewith: blessed be thou of the Almighty Lord for evermore. And all the people said, So be it.

11 And the people spoiled the camp the space of thirty days: and they gave unto Judith Holofernes his tent, and all his plate, and beds, and vessels, and all his stuff: and she took it, and laid it on her mule; and made ready her carts, and laid them thereon.

12 Then all the women of Israel ran together to see her, and blessed her, and made a dance among them for her: and she took branches in her hand, and gave also to the women that were with her.

13 And they put a garland of olive upon her and her maid that was with her, and she went before all the people in the dance, leading all the women: and all the men of Israel followed in their armour with garlands, and with songs in their mouths.

CHAP. XVI.

¹ The song of Judith. ¹⁹ She dedicateth the stuff of Holofernes. ²³ She died at Bethulia a widow of great honour. ²⁴ All Israel did lament her death.

THEN Judith began to sing this thanksgiving in all Israel, and all the people sang after her || this song of praise. || Or, this praising.

2 And Judith said, Begin unto my God with timbrels, sing unto my Lord with cymbals: tune unto him a || new psalm: exalt him, and call upon his name. || Or, psalm and praise.

3 For God breaketh the battles: for among the camps in the midst of the people he hath delivered me out of the hands of them that persecuted me.

4 Assur came out of the mountains from the north, he came with ten thousands of his army, the ^a multitude where- ^a ch. 2. 19. of stopped the torrents, and their horsemen have covered the hills.

5 He bragged that he would burn up my borders, and kill my young men with the sword, and dash the sucking children against the ground, and make mine infants as a prey, and my virgins as a spoil.

6 But the Almighty Lord hath disappointed them by the hand of a woman.

7 For the mighty one did not fall by the young men, neither did the sons of the Titans smite him, nor high giants set upon him: but Judith the daughter of Merari weakened him with the beauty of her countenance.

8 For she put off the garment of her widowhood for the exaltation of those that were oppressed in Israel, and anointed her face with ointment, and bound her hair in a [†] tire, and took a [†] Gr. mitre. linen garment to deceive him.

9 Her sandals ravished his eyes, her beauty took his mind prisoner, and the fauchion passed through his neck.

10 The Persians quaked at her boldness, and the Medes were || daunted at her hardiness. || Or, confounded.

11 Then my afflicted shouted for joy, and my weak ones cried aloud; but || they were astonished: these lifted up their voices, but they were overthrown. || the Assyrians.

12 The sons of the damsels have pierced them through, and wounded them as fugitives' children: they perished by the battle of the Lord.

13 I will sing unto the Lord || a new song: O Lord, thou art great and glorious, wonderful in strength, and invincible. || Or, a song of praise.

14 Let all creatures serve thee: for thou spakest, and they were made, thou didst send forth thy spirit, and it created them, and there is none that can resist thy voice.

15 For the mountains shall be moved from their foundations with the waters, the rocks shall melt as wax at thy presence: yet thou art merciful to them that fear thee.

16 For all sacrifice is too little for a sweet savour unto thee, and all the fat is not sufficient for thy burnt offering: but he that feareth the Lord is great at all times.

17 Woe to the nations that rise up against my kindred! the Lord Almighty will take vengeance of them in the day of judgment, in putting fire and worms in their flesh; and they shall feel them, and weep for ever.

18 Now as soon as they entered into Jerusalem, they worshipped the Lord; and as soon as the people were purified, they offered their burnt offerings, and their free offerings, and their gifts.

19 Judith also dedicated all the stuff of Holofernes, which the people had given her, and gave the canopy, which she had taken out of his bedchamber, for a gift unto the Lord.

20 So the people continued feasting in Jerusalem before the sanctuary for the space of three months, and Judith remained with them.

21 After this time every one returned to his own inheritance, and Judith went to Bethulia, and remained in her own possession, and was in her time honourable in all the country.

22 And many desired her, but none knew her all the days of her life, after that Manasses her husband was dead, and was gathered to his people.

23 But she increased more and more in honour, and waxed old in her husband's house, being an hundred and five years old, and made her maid free; so she died in Bethulia: and they buried her in the cave of her husband Manasses.

|| Or, sepulchre.

24 And the house of Israel lamented her ^b seven days: and before she died, she did distribute her goods to all them that were nearest of kindred to Manasses her husband, and to them that were the nearest of her kindred.

^b Gen. 50. 10.

25 And there was none that made the children of Israel any more afraid in the days of Judith, nor a long time after her death.

Part of the Tenth Chapter after the Greek.

5 Mardocheus remembereth and expoundeth his dream of the river and the two dragons.

THEN Mardocheus said, God hath done these things.

^a See ch. 11. 2, &c.

5 For I remember ^a a dream which I saw concerning these matters, and nothing thereof hath failed.

6 A little fountain became a river, and there was light, and the sun, and much water: this river is Esther, whom the king married, and made queen:

7 And the two dragons are I and Aman.

8 And the nations were those that were assembled to destroy the name of the Jews:

9 And my nation is this Israel, which cried to God, and were saved: for the Lord hath saved his people, and the Lord hath delivered us from all those evils, and God hath wrought signs and great wonders, which have not been done among the Gentiles.

10 Therefore hath he made two lots, one for the people of God, and another for all the Gentiles.

11 And these two lots came at the hour, and time, and day of judgment, before God among all nations.

12 So God remembered his people, and justified his inheritance.

13 Therefore those days shall be unto them in the month Adar, the fourteenth and fifteenth day of the same month, with an assembly, and joy, and with gladness before God, according to the generations for ever among his people.

CHAP. XI.

2 The stock and quality of Mardocheus. 6 He dreameth of two dragons coming forth to fight, 10 and of a little fountain, which became a great water.

IN the fourth year of the reign of Ptolemeus and Cleopatra, Dositheus, who said he was a priest and Levite, and Ptolemeus his son, brought this epistle of Phurim, which they said was the same, and that Lysimachus the son of Ptolemeus, that was in Jerusalem, had interpreted it.

2 In the second year of the reign of Artaxerxes the great, in the first day of the month Nisan, Mardocheus the son of Jairus, the son of Semei, the son of Cisai, of the tribe of Benjamin, had a dream;

3 Who was a Jew, and dwelt in the city of Susa, a great man, being a servitor in the king's court.

4 He was also one of the captives, which Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon carried from Jerusalem with Jechonias king of Judea; and this was his dream:

5 Behold a noise of a tumult, with thunder, and earthquakes, and uproar in the land:

6 And, behold, two great dragons came forth ready to fight, and their cry was great.

7 And at their cry all nations were prepared to battle, that they might fight against the righteous people.

8 And lo a day of darkness and obscurity, tribulation and anguish, affliction and great uproar, upon earth.

9 And the whole righteous nation was troubled, fearing their own evils, and were ready to perish.

10 Then they cried unto God, and upon their cry, as it were from a little fountain, was made a great flood, even much water.

11 The light and the sun rose up, and the lowly were exalted, and devoured the glorious.

12 Now when Mardocheus, who had seen this dream, and what God had determined to do, was awake, he bare this dream in mind, and until night by all means was desirous to know it.

CHAP. XII.

2 The conspiracy of the two eunuchs is discovered by Mardocheus, 5 for which he is entertained by the king, and rewarded.

AND Mardocheus took his rest in the court with Gabatha and Tharra, the two eunuchs of the king, and keepers of the palace.

2 ^aAnd he heard their devices, and searched out their purposes, and learned that they were about to lay hands upon Artaxerxes the king; and so he certified the king of them. ^aEsth. 2. 21. & 6. 2.

3 Then the king examined the two eunuchs, and after that they had confessed it, they were strangled.

4 And the king made a record of these things, and Mardocheus also wrote thereof.

5 So the king commanded Mardocheus to serve in the court, and for this he rewarded him.

6 Howbeit Aman the son of Amadathus the Agagite, who was in great honour with the king, sought to molest Mardocheus and his people because of the two eunuchs of the king.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The copy of the king's letters to destroy the Jews. 8 The prayer of Mardocheus for them.

THE copy of the letters was this: ^{Joseph. Antiq. lib. 11. cap. 6.} The great king Artaxerxes writeth these things to the princes and governors that are under him from India unto Ethiopia, in an hundred and seven and twenty provinces.

2 After that I became lord over many nations, and had dominion over the whole world, not lifted up with presumption of my authority, but carrying myself alway with equity and mildness, I purposed to settle my subjects continually in a quiet life, and making my kingdom ^{||} peaceable, and open for passage to the utmost coasts, to renew peace, which is desired of all men. ^{|| Or, mild.}

3 Now when I asked my counsellors how this might be brought to pass, Aman, that excelled in wisdom among us, and was approved for his constant good will and stedfast fidelity, and had the honour of the second place in the kingdom,

4 Declared unto us, that in all nations throughout the world there was scattered a certain malicious people, that had laws contrary to all nations, and continually despised the commandments of kings, so as the uniting of our kingdoms, honourably intended by us, cannot || go forward.

be settled.

5 Seeing then we understand that this people alone is continually in opposition unto all men, differing in the strange manner of their laws, and evil affected to our state, working all the mischief they can, that our kingdom may not be firmly established:

|| Or, second from us.

6 Therefore have we commanded, that all they that are signified in writing unto you by Aman, who is ordained over the affairs, and is || next unto us, shall all, with their wives and children, be utterly destroyed by the sword of their enemies, without all mercy and pity, the fourteenth day of the twelfth month Adar of this present year:

7 That they, who of old and now also are malicious, may in one day with violence go into the grave, and so ever hereafter cause our affairs to be well settled, and without trouble.

8 Then Mardocheus thought upon all the works of the Lord, and made his prayer unto him,

9 Saying, O Lord, Lord, the King Almighty: for the whole world is in thy power, and if thou hast appointed to save Israel, there is no man that can gainsay thee:

10 For thou hast made heaven and earth, and all the wondrous things under the heaven.

11 Thou art Lord of all things, and there is no man that can resist thee, which art the Lord.

12 Thou knowest all things, and thou knowest, Lord, that it was neither in contempt nor pride, nor for any desire of glory, that I did not bow down to proud Aman.

13 For I could have been content with good will for the salvation of Israel to kiss the soles of his feet.

14 But I did this, that I might not prefer the glory of man above the glory of God: neither will I worship any but thee, O God, neither will I do it in pride.

15 And now, O Lord God and King, spare thy people: for their eyes are upon us to bring us to nought; yea, they desire to destroy the inheritance, that hath been thine from the beginning.

16 Despise not the portion, which thou hast delivered out of Egypt for thine own self.

17 Hear my prayer, and be merciful unto thine inheritance: turn our sorrow into joy, that we may live, O Lord, and praise thy name: and || destroy not the mouths of them that praise thee, O Lord.

|| Or, shut, or, stop not.

18 All Israel in like manner cried most † earnestly unto the Lord, because their death was before their eyes.

† Gr.
mightily.

CHAP. XIV.

The prayer of queen Esther for herself and her people.

QUEEN Esther also, being in fear of death, resorted unto the Lord:

2 And laid away her glorious apparel, and put on the garments of anguish and mourning: and instead of precious ointments, she covered her head with ashes and dung, and she humbled her body greatly, and all the places of her joy she filled with her torn hair.

3 And she prayed unto the Lord God of Israel, saying, O my Lord, thou only art our King: help me, desolate woman, which have no helper but thee:

4 * For my danger is in mine hand.

* 1 Sam. 28.

Job 13. 14.
Ps. 119. 109.

5 From my youth up I have heard in the tribe of my family, that thou, O Lord, tookest Israel from among all people, and our fathers from all their predecessors, for a perpetual inheritance, and thou hast performed whatsoever thou didst promise them.

6 And now we have sinned before thee: therefore hast thou given us into the hands of our enemies,

7 Because we worshipped their gods: O Lord, thou art righteous.

8 Nevertheless it satisfieth them not, that we are in bitter captivity: but they have stricken hands with their idols,

9 That they will abolish the thing that thou with thy mouth hast ordained, and destroy thine inheritance, and stop the mouth of them that praise thee, and quench the glory of thy house, and of thine altar,

10 And open the mouths of the heathen to set forth the praises of the † idols, and to magnify a fleshly king for ever.

11 O Lord, give not thy sceptre unto

+ Gr. be not. them that + be nothing, and let them not laugh at our fall; but turn their device upon themselves, and make him an example, that hath begun this against us.

12 Remember, O Lord, make thyself known in time of our affliction, and give me boldness, O King of the || nations, and Lord of all power.

13 Give me eloquent speech in my mouth before the lion: turn his heart to hate him that fighteth against us, that there may be an end of him, and of all that are likeminded to him:

14 But deliver us with thine hand, and help me that am desolate, and which have no other help but thee.

15 Thou knowest all things, O Lord; thou knowest that I hate the glory of the unrighteous, and abhor the bed of the uncircumcised, and of + all the heathen.

16 Thou knowest my necessity: for I abhor the sign of my + high estate, which is upon mine head in the days wherein I shew myself, and that I abhor it as a menstruous rag, and that I wear it not when I am + private by myself, 17 And that thine handmaid hath not eaten at Aman's table, and that I have not greatly esteemed the king's feast, nor drunk the wine of the drink offerings.

18 Neither had thine handmaid any joy since the day + that I was brought hither to this present, but in thee, O Lord God of Abraham.

19 O thou mighty God above all, hear the voice of the forlorn, and deliver us out of the hands of the mischievous, and deliver me out of my fear.

CHAP. XV.

6 Esther cometh into the king's presence. 7 He looketh angrily, and she fainteth. 8 The king doth take her up, and comfort her.

AND upon the third day, when she had ended her prayer, she laid away her mourning garments, and put on her glorious apparel.

2 And being gloriously adorned, after she had called upon God, who is the beholder and saviour of all things, she took two maids with her:

3 And upon the one she leaned, as carrying herself || daintily;

4 And the other followed, bearing up her train.

5 And she was || ruddy through the perfection of her beauty, and her countenance was cheerful and || very amiable: but her heart was in anguish for fear.

6 Then having passed through all the doors, she stood before the king, who sat upon his royal throne, and was clothed with all his robes of majesty, all glittering with gold and precious stones; and he was very dreadful.

7 Then lifting up his countenance that shone with majesty, he looked very fiercely upon her: and the queen fell down, and was pale, and fainted, and bowed herself upon the head of the maid that went || before her.

8 Then God changed the spirit of the king into mildness, who + in a fear leaped from his throne, and took her in his arms, till she came to herself again, and comforted her with loving words, and said unto her,

9 Esther, what is the matter? I am thy brother, be of good cheer:

10 Thou shalt not die, though our commandment be || general: come near.

11 And so he held up his golden sceptre, and laid it upon her neck, 12 And embraced her, and said, Speak unto me.

13 Then said she unto him, I saw thee, my lord, as an angel of God, and my heart was troubled for fear of thy majesty.

14 For wonderful art thou, lord, and thy countenance is full of grace.

15 And as she was speaking, || she fell down for faintness.

16 Then the king was troubled, and all his servants comforted her.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The letter of Artaxerxes, 10 wherein he taxeth Aman, 17 and revoketh the decree procured by Aman to destroy the Jews. 22 and commandeth the day of their deliverance to be kept holy.

THE great king Artaxerxes unto the princes and governors of an hundred and seven and twenty provinces from India unto Ethiopia, and unto all || our faithful subjects, greeting.

2 Many, the more often they are honoured with the great bounty of + their gracious princes, the more proud they are waxen,

|| Or, rose-coloured.

|| Or, as amiable, or, smiling.

|| Or, with her, or, by her.

+ Gr. in an agony.

|| Or, as well thine as mine.

|| Or, she fell in a swoon.

Joseph. Antiq. lib. 11. cap. 6.

|| Or, well affected to our state.

+ Gr. their benefactors.

|| Or, daintily.

3 And endeavour to hurt not our subjects only, but not being able to bear abundance, do take in hand to practise also against those that do them good:

4 And take not only thankfulness away from among men, but also lifted up with the glorious words of lewd persons, that were never good, they think to escape the justice of God, that seeth all things, and hateth evil.

Or, needy.

Or, that never tasted prosperity.

Or, of our friends, put in trust to manage the affairs.

5 Oftentimes also fair speech of those, that are put in trust to manage their friends' affairs, hath caused many that are in authority to be partakers of innocent blood, and hath enwrapped them in remediless calamities:

6 Beguiling with the falsehood and deceit of their lewd disposition the innocency and goodness of princes.

7 Now ye may see this, as we have declared, not so much by ancient histories, as ye may, if ye search what hath been wickedly done of late through the pestilent behaviour of them that are unworthily placed in authority.

8 And we must take care for the time to come, that our kingdom may be quiet and peaceable for all men, 9 Both by changing our purposes, and always judging things that are evident with more equal proceeding.

10 For Aman, a Macedonian, the son of Amadatha, being indeed a stranger from the Persian blood, and far distant from our goodness, and as a stranger received of us, 11 Had so far forth obtained the favour that we shew toward every nation, as that he was called our father, and was continually honoured of all men, as the next person unto the king.

12 But he, not bearing his great dignity, went about to deprive us of our kingdom and life:

13 Having by manifold and cunning deceits sought of us the destruction, as well of Mardocheus, who saved our life, and continually procured our good, as also of blameless Esther, partaker of our kingdom, with their whole nation.

14 For by these means he thought, finding us destitute of friends, to have translated the kingdom of the Persians to the Macedonians.

15 But we find that the Jews, whom this wicked wretch hath delivered to utter destruction, are no evildoers, but live by most just laws:

16 And that they be children of the most high and most mighty living God, who hath ordered the kingdom both unto us and to our progenitors in the most excellent manner.

Or, prepared.

17 Wherefore ye shall do well not to put in execution the letters sent unto you by Aman the son of Amadatha.

18 For he, that was the worker of these things, is hanged at the gates of Susa with all his family: God, who ruleth all things, speedily rendering vengeance to him according to his deserts.

19 Therefore ye shall publish the copy of this letter in all places, that the Jews may freely live after their own laws.

20 And ye shall aid them, that even the same day, being the thirteenth day of the twelfth month Adar, they may be avenged on them, who in the time of their affliction shall set upon them.

21 For Almighty God hath turned to joy unto them the day, wherein the chosen people should have perished.

22 Ye shall therefore among your solemn feasts keep it an high day with all feasting:

23 That both now and hereafter there may be safety to us, and the well affected Persians; but to those which do conspire against us a memorial of destruction.

24 Therefore every city and country whatsoever, which shall not do according to these things, shall be destroyed without mercy with fire and sword, and shall be made not only unpassable for men, but also most hateful to wild beasts and fowls for ever.

CHAP. IV.

1 The chaste man shall be crowned. 3 Bastard slips shall not thrive. 6 They shall witness against their parents. 7 The just die young, and are happy. 19 The miserable end of the wicked.

|| Or, approved. BETTER it is to have no children, and to have virtue: for the memorial thereof is immortal: because it is || known with God, and with men.

a ch. 5. 16. James 1. 12. 1 Pet. 5. 4. Rev. 2. 10. 2 When it is present, men take example at it; and when it is gone, they desire it: ^a it weareth a crown, and triumpheth for ever, having gotten the victory, striving for undefiled rewards.

3 But the multiplying brood of the ungodly shall not thrive, nor take deep rooting from bastard slips, nor lay any fast foundation.

b Mat. 7. 19. 4 For though they flourish in branches for a time; ^b yet standing not fast, they shall be shaken with the wind, and through the force of winds they shall be rooted out.

c ch. 3. 16. 5 The ^c imperfect branches shall be broken off, their fruit unprofitable, not ripe to eat, yea, meet for nothing.

+ Gr. sleeps. 6 For children begotten of unlawful ⁺ beds are witnesses of wickedness against their parents in their trial.

7 But though the righteous be prevented with death, yet shall he be in rest.

8 For honourable age is not that which standeth in length of time, nor that is measured by number of years.

9 But wisdom is the gray hair unto men, and an unspotted life is old age.

d Gen. 5. 24. Heb. 11. 5. See Is. 57. 1. 10 ^d He pleased God, and was beloved of him: so that living among sinners he was translated.

11 Yea, speedily was he taken away, lest that wickedness should alter his understanding, or deceit beguile his soul.

12 For the bewitching of naughtiness doth obscure things that are honest; and the wandering of concupiscence doth ⁺ undermine the simple mind.

13 He, being made || perfect in a short time, fulfilled a long time:

14 For his soul pleased the Lord: therefore hasted he to take him away from among the wicked.

15 This the people saw, and understood it not, neither laid they up this in their minds, ^e That his grace and mercy is with his saints, and that he hath respect unto his chosen.

16 Thus the righteous that is dead shall ^f condemn the ungodly which are living; and youth that is soon perfected the many years and old age of the unrighteous.

17 For they shall see the end of the wise, and shall not understand what God in his counsel hath decreed of him, and to what end the Lord hath set him in safety.

18 They shall see him, and despise him; but God shall laugh them to scorn: and they shall hereafter be a vile carcase, and a reproach among the dead for evermore.

19 For he shall rend them, and cast them down headlong, that they shall be speechless; and he shall shake them from the foundation; and they shall be utterly laid waste, and be in sorrow; and their memorial shall perish.

20 And || when they cast up the accounts of their sins, they shall come with fear: and their own iniquities shall convince them to their face.

|| Or, to the casting up of the account.

• CHAP. V.

1 The wicked shall wonder at the godly, 4 and confess their error, 5 and the vanity of their lives. 15 God will reward the just, 17 and war against the wicked.

THEN shall the righteous man stand in great boldness before the face of such as have afflicted him, and made no account of his labours.

2 When they see it, they shall be troubled with terrible fear, and shall be amazed at the strangeness of his salvation, so far beyond all that they looked for.

22 And hailstones full of wrath shall be cast as out of a stone bow, and the water of the sea shall rage against them, and the floods shall cruelly drown them.

23 Yea, a mighty wind shall stand up against them, and like a storm shall blow them away : thus iniquity shall lay waste the whole earth, and ill dealing shall overthrow the thrones of the mighty.

CHAP. VI.

1 Kings must give ear. 3 They have their power from God, 5 who will not spare them. 12 Wisdom is soon found. 21 Princes must seek for it : 24 for a wise prince is the stay of his people.

12 Wisdom is glorious, and never fadeth away: yea, ^cshe is easily seen of them that love her, and found of such as seek her.

13 She preventeth them that desire her, in making herself first known unto them.

14 Whoso seeketh her early shall have no great travail: for he shall find her sitting at his doors.

15 To think therefore upon her is perfection of wisdom: and whoso watcheth for her shall quickly be without care.

17 For the very true beginning of her is the desire of ||discipline; and the care of discipline is love;

18 And love is the keeping of her laws; and the giving heed unto her laws is the assurance of incorruption;

19 And incorruption maketh us near unto God:

20 Therefore the desire of wisdom bringeth to a kingdom.

21 If your delight be then in thrones and sceptres, O ye kings of the people, honour wisdom, that ye may reign for evermore.

22 As for wisdom, what she is, and how she came up, I will tell you, and will not hide mysteries from you: but will seek her out from the beginning of her nativity, and bring the knowledge of her into light, and will not pass over the truth.

23 Neither will I go with consuming envy; for such a man shall have no fellowship with wisdom.

24 But the multitude of the wise is the welfare of the world: and a wise king is the upholding of the people.

CHAP. VIII.

² He is in love with wisdom: ⁴ for he that hath it hath every good thing. ²¹ It cannot be had but from God.

¹ What wisdom did for Adam, ⁴ Noe, ⁵ Abraham, ⁶ Lot, and against the five cities, ¹⁰ for Jacob, ¹³ Joseph, ¹⁶ Moses, ¹⁷ and the Israelites.

SHE preserved the first formed father of the world, that was created alone, and brought him out of his fall,

^c Gen. 7. 19, 21, 22, 23. 2 Pet. 2. 5. 4 For whose cause the ^c earth being drowned with the flood, wisdom again preserved it, and directed the course of the righteous in a piece of wood of small value.

^d Gen. 11. 9. 5 Moreover, ^d the nations in their wicked conspiracy being confounded, she found out the righteous, and preserved him blameless unto God, and ^e kept him strong ^e against his tender compassion toward his son.

^f Gen. 19. 16. 2 Pet. 2. 7. 6 ^f When the ungodly perished, she delivered ^g the righteous man, who fled from the fire which fell down upon [†] the five cities.

[†] Gr. Pentapolis. 7 Of whose wickedness even to this day the waste land that smoketh is a testimony, and plants bearing fruit that never come to ripeness: and ^h a standing pillar of salt is a monument of an unbelieving soul.

^h Gen. 19. 26. 8 For regarding not wisdom, they gat not only this hurt, that they knew not the things which were good; but also left behind them to the world a memorial of their foolishness: so that in the things wherein they offended they could not so much as be hid.

9 But wisdom delivered from pain those that attended upon her.

ⁱ Gen. 28. 5, 12. 10 When ⁱ the righteous fled from his brother's wrath, she guided him in right paths, shewed him the kingdom of God, and gave him knowledge of holy things, made him rich in his travels, and multiplied the fruit of his labours.

11 ^k In the covetousness of such as ^k Gen. 31. oppressed him she stood by him, and made him rich.

12 She defended him from his enemies, and kept him safe from those that lay in wait, and ^l in a sore conflict she gave him the victory; that he might know that godliness is stronger than all. ^l Gen. 32. 24.

13 ^m When the righteous was sold, she forsook him not, but delivered him from sin: ⁿ she went down with him into the pit, ^m Gen. 37. 28. & 39. 7. Acts 7. 10. ⁿ Gen. 39. 21. & 41. 14, 40, 41.

14 And left him not in bonds, till she brought him the sceptre of the kingdom, and ^o power against those that oppressed him: as for them that had accused him, she shewed them to be liars, and gave him perpetual glory. ^o Or, the power of them that ruled over him.

15 ^p She delivered the ^o righteous people and blameless seed from the nation that oppressed them. ^p Ex. 1. 12. & 12. 42. ^o Or, holy.

^a Ex. 7. 20. 8 Declaring by that thirst then ^ahow thou hadst punished their adversaries.

9 For when they were tried, albeit but in mercy chastised, they knew how the ungodly were judged in wrath and tormented, thirsting in another manner than the just.

10 For these thou didst admonish and try, as a father: but the other, as a severe king, thou didst condemn and punish.

11 Whether they were absent or present, they were vexed alike.

12 For a double grief came upon them, and a groaning for the remembrance of things past.

13 For when they heard by their own punishments the other to be benefited, they ^{||} had some feeling of the Lord.

^{||} Or, perceived.

14 For whom they rejected with scorn, when he was long before thrown out at the casting forth of the infants, him in the end, when they saw what came to pass, they admired.

15 But for the foolish devices of their wickedness, wherewith being deceived they worshipped serpents void of reason, and vile beasts, thou didst send a multitude of unreasonable beasts upon them for vengeance;

^a ch. 12. 23. 16 That they might know, that ^awherewithal a man sinneth, by the same also shall he be punished.

17 For thy Almighty hand, that made the world of matter without form, wanted not means to send among them a multitude of bears, or fierce lions,

18 Or unknown wild beasts, full of rage, newly created, breathing out either a fiery vapour, or filthy scents of scattered smoke, or shooting horrible sparkles out of their eyes:

19 Whereof not only the harm might dispatch them at once, but also the terrible sight utterly destroy them.

20 Yea, and without these might they have fallen down with one blast, being persecuted of vengeance, and scattered abroad through the breath of thy power: but thou hast ordered all things in measure and number and weight.

21 For thou canst shew thy great strength at all times when thou wilt; and who may withstand the power of thine arm?

22 For the whole world before thee is ^h as a ^{||} little grain of the balance, yea, ^h Is. 40. 15. as a drop of the morning dew that falleth down upon the earth. ^{||} Or, little weight.

23 But thou hast mercy upon all; for thou canst do all things, and winkest at the sins of men, because they should amend.

24 For thou lovest all the things that are, and abhorrest nothing which thou hast made: for never wouldest thou have made any thing, if thou hadst hated it.

25 And how could any thing have endured, if it had not been thy will? or been preserved, if not called by thee?

26 But ^athou sparest all: for they are ^a ch. 12. 16. thine, O Lord, thou lover of souls.

9 Not that thou wast unable to bring the ungodly under the hand of the righteous in battle, or to destroy them at once with cruel beasts, or with one rough word :

10 But executing thy judgments upon them by little and little, thou gavest them place of repentance, not being ignorant that they were a naughty generation, and that their malice was bred in them, and that their cogita-tion would never be changed.

ing them time and place, whereby they might be delivered from their malice :

21 With how great circumspection didst thou judge thine own sons, unto whose fathers thou hast sworn, and made covenants of good promises?

22 Therefore, whereas thou dost chasten us, thou scourgest our enemies a that, when we judge, we should care-grudged, when they were punished, that is, for them whom they thought to be

CHAP. XIII.

1 They were not excused that worshipped any of God's works. 10 But most wretched are they that worship the works of men's hands.

SURELY vain are all men by nature, who are ignorant of God, and ^a could not out of the good things that are seen know him that is: neither by considering the works did they ac-

3 With whose beauty if they being delighted took them to be gods; let them know how much better the Lord of them is: for the first author of beauty hath created them.

4 But if they were astonished at their power and virtue, let them understand by them, how much mightier he is that made them.

^a Rom. 1. 20. 5 ^c For by the greatness and beauty of the creatures proportionably the maker of them is seen.

6 But yet for this they are the less to be blamed: for they peradventure err, seeking God, and desirous to find him.

^d Rom. 1. 21. 7 For being ^d conversant in his works they ^e search him diligently, and believe their sight: because the things are beautiful that are seen.

8 Howbeit neither are they to be pardoned.

CHAP. XV.

1 We do acknowledge the true God. 7 The folly of idol-makers, 14 and of the enemies of God's people; 15 because, besides the idols of the Gentiles, 18 they worshipped vile beasts.

BUT thou, O God, art gracious and true, longsuffering, and in mercy ordering all things.

2 For if we sin, we are thine, knowing thy power: but we will not sin, knowing that we are counted thine.

3 For to know thee is perfect righteousness: yea, to know thy power is the root of immortality.

4 For neither did the mischievous invention of men deceive us, nor an image spotted with divers colours, the painter's fruitless labour;

|| Or, turneth a reproach to the foolish.

5 The sight whereof || enticeth fools to lust after it, and so they desire the form of a dead image, that hath no breath.

6 Both they that make them, they that desire them, and they that worship them, are lovers of evil things, and are worthy to have such things to trust upon.

* Rom. 9. 21.

7 For the *potter, tempering soft earth, fashioneth every vessel with much labour for our service: yea, of the same clay he maketh both the vessels that serve for clean uses, and likewise also all such as serve to the contrary: but what is the use of either sort, the potter himself is the judge.

b Luke 12. 20.

8 And employing his labours lewdly, he maketh a vain god of the same clay, even he which a little before was made of earth himself, and within a little while after returneth to the same, out of the which he was taken, when his ^blife which was lent him shall be demanded.

14 And all the enemies of thy people, that hold them in subjection, are most foolish, and are more miserable than very babes.

15 For they counted all the idols of the heathen to be gods: ^dwhich neither have the use of eyes to see, nor noses to draw || breath, nor ears to hear, nor fingers of hands to handle; and as for their feet, they are slow to go.

ⁱ Or, wherein they could do nothing. 14 But they sleeping the same sleep that night, || which was indeed intolerable, and which came upon them out of the bottoms of inevitable hell,

15 Were partly vexed with monstrous apparitions, and partly fainted, their heart failing them: for a sudden fear, and not looked for, came upon them.

16 So then whosoever there fell down was straitly kept, shut up in a prison without iron bars.

17 For whether he were husbandman, or shepherd, or a labourer in the || field, || Or, desert. he was overtaken, and endured that necessity, which could not be avoided: for they were all bound with one chain of darkness.

18 Whether it were a whistling wind, or a melodious noise of birds among the spreading branches, or a pleasing fall of water running violently,

19 Or a || terrible sound of stones || Or, hideous. cast down, or a running that could not be seen of skipping beasts, or a roaring voice of most savage wild beasts, or a rebounding echo from the hollow mountains; these things made them to swoon for fear.

20 For the whole world shined with clear light, and none were hindered in their labour:

21 Over them only was spread an heavy night, an image of ^j that darkness which should afterward receive them: but yet were they unto themselves more grievous than the darkness. ^k Matt. 8. 12. & 22. 13. & 25. 30. 2 Pet. 2. 17. Jude 13.

CHAP. XVIII.

^l Why Egypt was punished with darkness, 5 and with the death of their children. 18 They themselves saw the cause thereof. 20 God also plagued his own people. 21 By what means that plague was stayed.

NEVERTHELESS thy saints had a very great ^m light, whose voice ⁿ Ex. 10. 23. they hearing, and not seeing their shape, because they also had not suffered the same things, they counted them happy.

2 But for that they did not hurt them now, of whom they had been wronged before, they thanked them, and besought them pardon for that they had been enemies.

3 ^o Instead whereof thou gavest them ^p Ex. 13. 21. a burning pillar of fire, both to be a & 14. 24. guide of the unknown journey, and an Ps. 78. 14. harmless sun to entertain them honourably. & 105. 39.

4 For they were worthy to be deprived of light, and imprisoned in darkness, who had kept thy sons shut up, by whom the || uncorrupt light of the || Or, incorruptible. law was to be given unto the world.

^f Ex. 14. 24, &c. tude of their children, and ^f destroyedst them altogether in a mighty water.

^g Ex. 11. 4. 6 ^g Of that night were our fathers certified afore, that assuredly knowing unto what oaths they had given credence, they might afterwards be of good cheer.

7 So of thy people was accepted both the salvation of the righteous, and destruction of the enemies.

8 For wherewith thou didst punish our adversaries, by the same thou didst glorify us, whom thou hadst called.

^h Ex. 12. 21, --28. 9 ^h For the righteous children of good men did sacrifice secretly, and with one consent made || a holy law, that the saints should be like partakers of the same good and evil, the fathers now singing out the songs of praise.

10 But on the other side there sounded an ill according cry of the enemies, and a lamentable noise was carried abroad for children that were bewailed.

ⁱ Ex. 11. 5. & 12. 29. 11 ⁱ The master and the servant were punished after one manner; and like as the king, so suffered the common person.

12 So they all together had innumerable dead with one kind of death; neither were the living sufficient to bury them: for in one moment the noblest offspring of them was destroyed.

13 For whereas they would not believe any thing by reason of the en-chantments; upon the destruction of the firstborn, they acknowledged this people to be the sons of God.

14 For while all things were in quiet silence, and that night was in the midst of her swift course,

15 Thine Almighty word leaped down from heaven out of thy royal throne, as a fierce man of war into the midst of a land of destruction,

16 And brought thine unfeigned commandment as a sharp sword, and standing up filled all things with death; and it touched the heaven, but it stood upon the earth.

^j Or, imagi- nations. 17 Then suddenly || visions of horrible dreams troubled them sore, and terrors came upon them unlooked for.

18 And one thrown here, and another there, half dead, shewed the cause of his death.

19 For the dreams that troubled them did foreshew this, lest they should perish, and not know why they were afflicted.

20 Yea, the tasting of death touched the righteous also, and there was a destruction of the ^k multitude in the wil- ^k Num. 16.
 derness: but the wrath endured not 46, &c.
 long.

21 For then the blameless man made haste, and stood forth to defend them; and bringing the shield of his proper ministry, even prayer, and the propitiation of incense, set himself against the wrath, and so brought the calamity to an end, declaring that he was thy servant.

22 So he overcame the destroyer, not with strength of body, nor force of arms, but with a word subdued he him that punished, alleging the oaths and covenants made with the fathers.

23 For when the dead were now fallen down by heaps one upon another, standing between, he stayed the wrath,
 and || parted the way to the living.

 graven, and thy Majesty upon the dia-dem of his head.

 place, and was afraid of them: for it was enough that they only tasted of the wrath.

4 For the destiny, whereof they were worthy, drew them unto this end, and made them forget the things that had already happened, that they might fulfil the punishment which was wanting to their torments:

^b Ex. 14. 28, 29. 5 ^b And that thy people might pass a wonderful way: but they might find a strange death.

^c See ch. 16. 24, 25. 6 For ^c the whole creature in his proper kind was fashioned again anew, serving the peculiar commandments that were given unto them, that thy children might be kept without hurt:

7 As namely, a cloud shadowing the camp; and where water stood before, dry land appeared; and out of the Red sea a way without impediment; and out of the violent stream a green field:

8 Wherethrough all the people went that were defended with thy hand, seeing thy marvellous strange wonders.

9 For they went at large like horses, and leaped like lambs, praising thee, O Lord, who hadst delivered them.

^{||} Or, hee. 10 For they were yet mindful of the things that were done while they sojourned in the strange land, how the ground brought forth ^{||} flies instead of cattle, and how the river cast up a multitude of frogs instead of fishes.

^d Ex. 16. 18. Num. 11. 31. 11 But ^d afterwards they saw a new generation of fowls, when, being led with their appetite, they asked delicate meats.

^{||} Or, comfort. 12 For quails came up unto them from the sea for their ^{||} contentment.

13 And punishments came upon the sinners not without former signs by the force of thunders: for they suffered justly according to their own wickedness, insomuch as they used a more hard and hateful behaviour toward strangers.

14 For the Sodomites did not receive those, whom they knew not when they came: but these brought friends into bondage, that had well deserved of them.

15 And not only so, but peradventure some respect shall be had of those, because they used strangers not friendly:

16 But these very grievously afflicted them, whom they had received with feastings, and were already made partakers of the same laws with them.

17 Therefore even with blindness were these stricken, as ^e those were at the doors of the righteous man: when, being compassed about with horrible great darkness, every one sought the passage of his own doors. ^e Gen. 19. 11.

18 For the elements were changed [†] in themselves by a kind of harmony, like as in a psaltery notes change the name of the tune, and yet are always sounds; which may well be perceived by the sight of the things that have been done. [†] Gr. by themselves.

19 For earthly things were turned into watery, and the things, that before swam in the water, now went upon the ground.

20 ^f The fire had power in the water, ^f ch. 16. 17. forgetting his own virtue: and the water forgot his own quenching nature.

21 On the other side, the flames wasted not the flesh of the corruptible living things, though they walked therein; ^g neither melted they the icy kind of heavenly meat, that was of nature apt to melt. ^g ch. 16. 22.

22 For in all things, O Lord, thou didst magnify thy people, and glorify them, neither didst thou lightly regard them: but didst assist them in every time and place.

THE WISDOM OF JESUS THE SON OF SIRACH,

OR

ECCLESIASTICUS.

A Prologue made by an uncertain Author.

Some refer this Prologue to Athanasius, because it is found in his Synopsis.

|| Or, collected.

THIS Jesus was the son of Sirach, and grandchild to Jesus of the same name with him: this man therefore lived in the latter times, after the people had been led away captive, and called home again, and almost after all the prophets. Now his grandfather Jesus, as he himself witnesseth, was a man of great diligence and wisdom among the Hebrews, who did not only gather the grave and short sentences of wise men, that had been before him, but himself also uttered some of his own, full of much understanding and wisdom. When as therefore the first Jesus died, leaving this book almost || perfected, Sirach his son receiving it after him left it to his own son Jesus, who, having gotten it into his hands, compiled it all orderly into one volume, and called it Wisdom, intituling it both by his own name, his father's name, and his grandfather's; alluring the hearer by the very name of Wisdom to have a greater love to the study of this book. It containeth therefore wise sayings, dark sentences, and parables, and certain particular ancient godly stories of men that pleased God; also his prayer and song; moreover, what benefits God had vouchsafed his people, and what plagues he had heaped upon their enemies. This Jesus did imitate Solomon, and was no less famous for wisdom and learning, both being indeed a man of great learning, and so reputed also.

The Prologue of the Wisdom of Jesus the Son of Sirach.

WHEREAS many and great things have been delivered unto us by the law and the prophets, and by others that have followed their steps, for the which things Israel ought to be commended for learning and wisdom; and whereof not only the readers must needs become skilful themselves, but also they that desire to learn be able to profit them which are || without, both by speaking and writing: my grandfather Jesus, when he had much given himself to the reading of the law, and the prophets, and other books of our fathers, and had gotten therein good judgment, was drawn on also himself to write something pertaining to learning and wisdom; to the intent that those which are desirous to learn, and are addicted to these things, might profit much more in living according to the law. Wherefore let me intreat you to read it with favour and attention, and to pardon us, wherein we may seem to come short of some words, which we have laboured to interpret. For the same things uttered in Hebrew, and translated into another tongue, have not the same force in them: and not only these things, but the law itself, and the † prophets, and the rest of the books, have no small || difference, when they are spoken in their own language. For in the eight and thirtieth year coming into Egypt, when Euergetes was king, and continuing there some time, I found a || book of no small learning: therefore I thought it most necessary for me to bestow some diligence and travail to interpret it; using great watchfulness and skill in that space to bring the book to an end, and set it forth for them also, which in a strange country are willing to learn, being prepared before in manners to live after the law.

2 Do not extol thine own conceit, 7 but make choice of a friend. 18 Seek wisdom betimes. 20 It is grievous to some, 28 yet the fruits thereof are pleasant. 35 Be ready to hear wise men.

INSTEAD of a friend become not an enemy; for [thereby] thou shalt inherit an ill name, shame, and reproach: even so shall a sinner that hath a double tongue.

2 Extol not thyself in the counsel of thine own heart; that thy soul be not torn in pieces as a bull [straying alone.]

3 Thou shalt eat up thy leaves, and lose thy fruit, and leave thyself as a dry tree.

11 There is one that laboureth, and taketh pains, and maketh haste, and is so much the more behind.

12 Again, there is another that is slow, and hath need of help, wanting ability, and full of poverty; yet the eye of the Lord looked upon him for good, and set him up from his low estate, 13 And lifted up his head from misery; so that many that saw it marvelled at him.

14 Prosperity and adversity, life and death, poverty and riches, come of the Lord.

15 Wisdom, knowledge, and understanding of the law, are of the Lord: love, and the way of good works, are from him.

16 Error and darkness had their beginning together with sinners: and evil shall wax old with them that glory therein.

17 The gift of the Lord remaineth with the godly, and his favour bringeth prosperity for ever.

18 There is that waxeth rich by his wariness and pinching, and this is the portion of his reward:

19 Whereas he saith, I have found rest, and now will eat continually of my goods; and yet he knoweth not what time shall come upon him, and that he must leave those things to others, and die.

20 Be steadfast in thy covenant, and be conversant therein, and wax old in thy work.

21 Marvel not at the works of sinners; but trust in the Lord, and abide in thy labour: for it is an easy thing in the sight of the Lord on the sudden to make a poor man rich.

22 The blessing of the Lord is in the reward of the godly, and suddenly he maketh his blessing to flourish.

23 Say not, What profit is there of my service? and what good things shall I have hereafter?

24 Again, say not, I have enough, and possess many things, and what evil can come to me hereafter?

25 In the day of prosperity there is a forgetfulness of affliction: and in the day of affliction there is no more remembrance of prosperity.

26 For it is an easy thing unto the Lord in the day of death to reward a man according to his ways.

27 The affliction of an hour maketh a man forget pleasure: and in his end his deeds shall be discovered.

28 Judge none blessed before his death: for a man shall be known in his children.

29 Bring not every man into thine house: for the deceitful man hath many trains.

30 Like as a partridge taken [and kept] in a cage, so is the heart of the proud; and like as a spy, watcheth he for thy fall:

31 For he lieth in wait, and turneth good into evil, and in things worthy praise will lay blame upon thee.

32 Of a spark of fire a heap of coals is kindled: and a sinful man layeth wait for blood.

⁴ God's works are to be wondered at. ⁹ Man's life is short. ¹¹ God is merciful. ¹⁵ Do not blemish thy good deeds with ill words. ²² Defer not to be justified. ³⁰ Follow not thy lusts.

HE that liveth for ever ^a created all things in general.

3 Who governeth the world with the palm of his hand, ^c and all things obey his will: for he is the King of all, by his power ^d dividing holy things among them from profane.

4 To whom hath he given power to declare his works? ^e and who shall find out his noble acts?

5 Who shall number the strength of his majesty? and who shall also tell out his mercies?

6 As for the wondrous works of the Lord, there may nothing be taken from them, neither may any thing be put unto them, neither can the ground of them be found out.

7 When a man hath done, then he beginneth; and when he leaveth off, then he shall be doubtful.

8 What is man, and whereto serveth he? what is his good, and what is his evil?

9 ^f The number of a man's days at the most are an hundred years.

10 As a drop of water unto the sea, and a gravelstone in comparison of the sand; so are a ^g thousand years to the days of eternity.

11 Therefore is God patient with them, and poureth forth his mercy upon them.

12 He saw and perceived their end to be evil; therefore he multiplied his compassion.

13 The mercy of man is toward his neighbour; ^h but the mercy of the Lord is upon all flesh: he reproveth, and nurtureth, and teacheth, and bringeth again, ⁱ as a shepherd his flock.

14 He hath mercy on them that receive discipline, and that diligently seek after his judgments.

15 ^k My son, blemish not thy good deeds, neither use uncomfortable words when thou givest any thing.

16 Shall not the dew assuage the heat? so is a word better than a gift.

OF these things be not thou ashamed, and ^aaccept no person to sin thereby :

2 Of the law of the most High, and his covenant; and of judgment to justify the ungodly ;

3 || Of reckoning with thy partners and || travellers; or || of the gift of the heritage of friends ;

7 Deliver all things in number and weight; and put all in writing that thou || givest out, or receivest in.

8 Be not ashamed to || inform the unwise and foolish, and the extreme aged || that contendeth with those that are young: thus shalt thou be truly learned, and approved of all men living.

9 The father waketh for the daughter, when no man knoweth; and the care for her taketh away sleep: when she is young, lest she pass away the flower of her age; and being married, lest she should be hated :

10 In her virginity, lest she should be defiled and gotten with child in her father's house; and having an husband, lest she should misbehave herself; and when she is married, lest she should be barren.

11 ^b Keep a sure watch over a shameless daughter, lest she make thee a laughingstock to thine enemies, and a byword in the city, and a reproach among the people, and make thee ashamed before the multitude.

12 Behold not every body's ^c beauty, and sit not in the midst of women.

15 I will now remember the works of the Lord, and declare the things that I have seen: In the words of the Lord are his works.

16 The sun that giveth light looketh upon all things, and the work thereof is full of the glory of the Lord.

17 ^e The Lord hath not given power to the saints to declare all his marvellous works, which the Almighty Lord firmly settled, that whatsoever is might be established for his glory.

18 He seeketh out the deep, and the heart, and considereth their crafty devices: for || the Lord knoweth all that may be known, and he beholdeth the signs of the world.

19 He declareth the things that are past, and for to come, and revealeth the steps of hidden things.

20 ^f No thought escapeth him, neither any word is hidden from him.

21 He hath garnished the excellent works of his wisdom, and he is from everlasting to everlasting: unto him may nothing be added, neither can he be diminished, and he hath no need of any counsellor.

22 Oh how desirable are all his works! and that a man may see even to a spark.

23 All these things live and remain for ever for all uses, and they are all obedient.

A Prayer of Jesus the son of Sirach.

I WILL thank thee, O Lord and King, and praise thee, O God my Saviour : I do give praise unto thy name :

2 For thou art my defender and helper, and hast preserved my body from destruction, and from the snare of the slanderous tongue, and from the lips that forge lies, and hast been mine helper against mine adversaries :

3 And hast delivered me, according to the multitude of thy mercies and greatness of thy name, from [†]the teeth of them that were ready to devour me, and out of the hands of such as sought after my life, and from the manifold afflictions which I had ;

4 From the choking of fire on every side, and from the midst of the fire which I kindled not ;

8 Then thought I upon thy mercy, O Lord, and upon thy acts of old, how thou deliverest such as wait for thee, and savest them out of the hands of the enemies.

9 Then lifted I up my supplication from the earth, and prayed for deliverance from death.

10 I called upon the Lord, the Father of my Lord, that he would not leave me in the days of my trouble, and in the time of the proud, when there was no help.

¹ Baruch wrote a book in Babylon. ⁵ The Jews there wept at the reading of it. ⁷ They send money and the book to the brethren at Jerusalem.

^a Jer. 36. 4. AND these are the words of the book, which ^a Baruch the son of Nerias, the son of Maasias, the son of Sedecias, the son of Asadias, the son of Chelcias, wrote in Babylon, ² In the fifth year, and in the seventh day of the month, what time as the Chaldeans took Jerusalem, and burnt it with fire.

³ And Baruch did read the words of this book in the hearing of Jechonias the son of ^{||} Joachim king of Juda, and in the ears of all the people that came to hear the book,

⁴ And in the hearing of the nobles, and of the king's sons, and in the hearing of the elders, and of all the people, from the lowest unto the highest, even of all them that dwelt at Babylon by the river Sud.

^{||} Or, and vowed vows. ⁵ Whereupon they wept, fasted, ^{||} and prayed before the Lord.

4 Moreover he hath delivered them to be in subjection to ^c all the kingdoms that are round about us, to be as ^d a reproach and ^e desolation among all the people round about, where the Lord hath scattered them.

5 Thus we ^f were cast down, and not exalted, because we have sinned against the Lord our God, and have not been obedient unto his voice.

6 ^g To the Lord our God appertaineth righteousness: but unto us and to our fathers open shame, as appeareth this day.

7 ^h For all these plagues are come upon us, which the Lord hath pronounced against us.

8 ⁱ Yet have we not prayed before the Lord, that we might turn every one from the imaginations of his wicked heart.

9 Wherefore the Lord watched over us for evil, and the Lord hath brought it upon us: for the Lord is righteous in all his works which he hath commanded us.

10 Yet we have not hearkened unto his voice, to walk in the commandments of the Lord, that he hath set before us.

^k Dan. 9. 15. 11 ^k And now, O Lord God of Israel, that hast brought thy people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and high arm, and with signs, and with wonders, and with great power, and ^l hast gotten thyself a name, as appeareth this day: ^l Neh. 9. 10.

12 O Lord our God, we have sinned, we have done ungodly, we have dealt unrighteously in all thine ordinances.

13 ^m Let thy wrath turn from us: for ^m we are but a few left among the heathen, where thou hast scattered us. ⁿ Dan. 9. 16, &c. ⁿ Jer. 42. 2.

18 But the soul that is greatly vexed, which goeth stooping and feeble, and the eyes that fail, and the hungry soul, will give thee praise and righteousness, O Lord.

19 ^v Therefore we do not make our humble supplication before thee, O Lord our God, for the righteousness of our fathers, and of our kings. ^v Dan. 9. 18.

20 For thou hast sent out thy wrath and indignation upon us, as thou hast spoken by thy servants the prophets, saying,

CHAP. III.

³ The rest of their prayer and confession contained in that book, which Baruch writ, and sent to Jerusalem.
³⁰ Wisdom was shewed first to Jacob, and was seen upon the earth.

O LORD Almighty, God of Israel, the soul in anguish, the troubled spirit, crieth unto thee.

2 Hear, O Lord, and have mercy; for thou art merciful: and have pity upon us, because we have sinned before thee.

3 For ^a thou endurest for ever, and ^a Ps. 102. 26. we perish utterly.

4 O Lord Almighty, thou God of Israel, hear now the prayers of the dead Israelites, and of their children, which have sinned before thee, and not hearkened unto the voice of thee their God: for the which cause these plagues cleave unto us.

5 Remember not the iniquities of our forefathers: but think upon thy power and thy name now at this time.

6 For thou art the Lord our God, and thee, O Lord, will we praise.

7 And for this cause thou hast put thy fear in our hearts, to the intent that we should call upon thy name, and praise thee in our captivity: for ^b we have ^b Deu. 30. 1. called to mind all the iniquity of our forefathers, that sinned before thee.

8 Behold, we are yet this day in our captivity, where thou hast scattered us, for a reproach and a curse, and to be subject to payments, according to all the iniquities of our fathers, which departed from the Lord our God.

9 Hear, Israel, the commandments of life: give ear to understand wisdom.

10 How happeneth it, Israel, that thou art in thine enemies' land, that thou art waxen old in a strange country, that thou art defiled with the dead, 11 That thou art ^c counted with them ^c Ps. 28. 1. that go down into the grave?

12 Thou hast forsaken the fountain of wisdom.

13 ^d For if thou hadst walked in the way of God, thou shouldest have dwelled in peace for ever. ^d Ps. 81. 13, 14.

14 Learn where is wisdom, where is strength, where is understanding; that thou mayest know also where is length of days, and life, where is the light of the eyes, and peace.

15 ^e Who hath found out her place? ^e Job 28. 12, 20. or who hath come into her treasures?

16 Where are the princes of the heathen become, and such as ruled the beasts upon the earth;

17 They that had their pastime with the fowls of the air, and they that hoarded up silver and gold, wherein men trust, and made no end of their getting?

18 For they that wrought in silver, and were so careful, and whose works are unsearchable, 19 They are vanished and gone down to the grave, and others are come up in their steads.

20 Young men have seen light, and dwelt upon the earth: but the way of knowledge have they not known, 21 Nor understood the paths thereof, nor laid hold of it: their children were far off from that way.

22 It hath not been heard of in ^{f Jer. 49. 7.} Chanaan, ^f neither hath it been seen in Theman.

23 The Agarenes that seek wisdom upon earth, the merchants of Meran and of Theman, the ^{|| Or, expounders.} authors of fables, and searchers out of understanding; none of these have known the way of wisdom, or remember her paths.

24 O Israel, how great is the house of God! and how large is the place of his possession!

25 Great, and hath none end; high, and unmeasurable.

26 There were the giants famous from the beginning, that were of so great stature, and so expert in war.

27 Those did not the Lord choose, neither gave he the way of knowledge unto them:

28 But they were destroyed, because they had no wisdom, and perished through their own foolishness.

^{g Deut. 30. 12, 13. Rom. 10. 6, 7.} 29 ^g Who hath gone up into heaven, and taken her, and brought her down from the clouds?

30 Who hath gone over the sea, and found her, and will bring her for pure gold?

31 No man knoweth her way, nor thinketh of her path.

32 But he that knoweth all things knoweth her, and hath found her out with his understanding: he that prepared the earth for evermore hath filled it with fourfooted beasts:

33 He that sendeth forth light, and it goeth, calleth it again, and it obeyeth him with fear.

^{h Ps. 147. 4.} 34 The stars shined in their watches, and rejoiced: when ^h he calleth them, they say, Here we be; and so with cheerfulness they shewed light unto him that made them.

35 This is our God, and there shall none other be accounted of in comparison of him.

36 He hath found out all the way of knowledge, and hath given it unto Jacob his servant, and to Israel his beloved.

37 ^{i Prov. 8. 31. John 1. 14.} Afterward did he shew himself upon earth, and conversed with men.

CHAP. IV.

¹ The book of commandments is that wisdom which was commended in the former chapter. ²⁵ The Jews are moved to patience, and to hope for the deliverance.

THIS is the book of the commandments of God, and the law that endureth for ever: all they that keep it shall come to life; but such as leave it shall die.

2 Turn thee, O Jacob, and take hold of it: walk [†] in the presence of the light thereof, that thou mayest be illuminated. ^{† Gr. to the shining before the light thereof.}

3 Give not thine honour to another, nor the things that are profitable unto thee to a strange nation.

4 O Israel, happy are we: for things that are pleasing to God are made known unto us.

5 Be of good cheer, my people, the memorial of Israel.

6 ^{a Isai. 50. 1. & 52. 3.} Ye were sold to the nations, not for [your] destruction: but because ye moved God to wrath, ye were delivered unto the enemies.

7 For ye provoked him that made you by ^b sacrificing unto devils, and not to God. ^{b Deu. 32. 17. 1 Cor. 10. 20.}

8 Ye have forgotten the everlasting God, that brought you up; and ye have grieved Jerusalem, that nursed you.

9 For when she saw the wrath of God coming upon you, she said, Hearken, O ye that dwell about Sion: God hath brought upon me great mourning;

10 For I saw the captivity of my sons and daughters, which the Everlasting brought upon them.

11 With joy did I nourish them; but sent them away with weeping and mourning.

12 Let no man rejoice over me, a widow, and forsaken of many, who for the sins of my children am left desolate; because they departed from the law of God.

13 They knew not his statutes, nor

|| Or, of his discipline in righteousness.

walked in the ways of his commandments, nor trod in the paths || of discipline in his righteousness.

14 Let them that dwell about Sion come, and remember ye the captivity of my sons and daughters, which the Everlasting hath brought upon them.

° Dent. 28. 49, 50.

15 For he hath brought a nation upon them from far, a shameless nation, and of a strange language, who neither revered old man, nor pitied child.

16 These have carried away the dear beloved children of the widow, and left her that was alone desolate without daughters.

17 But what can I help you?

18 For he that brought these plagues upon you will deliver you from the hands of your enemies.

19 Go your way, O my children, go your way: for I am left desolate.

|| Or, prosperity.

20 I have put off the clothing of || peace, and put upon me the sackcloth of my prayer: I will cry unto the Everlasting ||^d in my days.

|| Or, in the time of mine affliction.

^d Ps. 116. 2. & 137. 7.

21 Be of good cheer, O my children, cry unto the Lord, and he shall deliver you from the power and hand of the enemies.

22 For my hope is in the Everlasting, that he will save you; and joy is come unto me from the Holy One, because of the mercy which shall soon come unto you from the Everlasting our Saviour.

23 For I sent you out with mourning and weeping: but God will give you to me again with joy and gladness for ever.

24 Like as now the neighbours of Sion have seen your captivity: so shall they see shortly your salvation from our God, which shall come upon you with great glory, and brightness of the Everlasting.

25 My children, suffer patiently the wrath that is come upon you from God: for thine enemy hath persecuted thee; but shortly thou shalt see his destruction, and shalt tread upon his neck.

|| Or, My darlings.

26 || My delicate ones have gone rough ways, and were taken away as a flock caught of the enemies.

27 Be of good comfort, O my children, and cry unto God: for ye shall be remembered of him that brought these things upon you.

28 For as it was your mind to go astray from God: so, being returned, seek him ten times more.

29 For he that hath brought these plagues upon you shall bring you everlasting joy again with your salvation.

30 Take a good heart, O Jerusalem: for he that gave thee that name will comfort thee.

31 Miserable are they that afflicted thee, and rejoiced at thy fall.

32 Miserable are the cities which thy children served: miserable is she that received thy sons.

33 For as she rejoiced at thy ruin, and was glad of thy fall: so shall she be grieved for her own desolation.

34 For I will take away the rejoicing of her great multitude, and her pride shall be turned into mourning.

35 For fire shall come upon her from the Everlasting, long to endure; and she shall be inhabited of devils for a great time.

36 ° O Jerusalem, look about thee toward the east, and behold the joy that cometh unto thee from God. ° ch. 5. 5.

37 Lo, thy sons come, whom thou sentest away, they come gathered together from the east to the west by the word of the Holy One, rejoicing in the glory of God.

CHAP. V.

1 Jerusalem is moved to rejoice, 5 and to behold their return out of captivity with glory.

PUT off, O Jerusalem, the garment of thy mourning and affliction, and put on the comeliness of the glory that cometh from God for ever.

2 Cast about thee a double garment of the righteousness which cometh from God; and set a diadem on thine head of the glory of the Everlasting.

3 For God will shew thy brightness unto every country under heaven.

4 For thy name shall be called of God for ever The peace of righteousness, and The glory of God's worship.

5 Arise, O Jerusalem, and stand on high, and ° look about toward the east, ° ch. 4. 36. and behold thy children gathered from the west unto the east by the word of the Holy One, rejoicing in the remembrance of God.

6 For they departed from thee on foot, and were led away of their enemies: but God bringeth them unto thee exalted with glory, as children of the kingdom.

^b Isai. 40. 4.

7 For God hath appointed that ^b every high hill, and banks of long continuance, should be cast down, and valleys filled up, to make even the ground, that Israel may go safely in the glory of God.

8 Moreover even the woods and every sweetsmelling tree shall overshadow Israel by the commandment of God.

9 For God shall lead Israel with joy in the light of his glory with the mercy and righteousness that cometh from him.

THE EPISTLE OF JEREMY.

CHAP. VI.

¹ The cause of the captivity is their sin. ³ The place whereto they were carried is Babylon: the vanity of whose idols and idolatry are set forth at large in this chapter.

A copy of an epistle, which Jeremy sent unto them which were to be led captives into Babylon by the king of the Babylonians, to certify them, as it was commanded him of God.

BECAUSE of the sins which ye have committed before God, ye shall be led away captives into Babylon by Nabuchodonosor king of the Babylonians.

3 So when ye be come unto Babylon, ye shall remain there many years, and for a long season, namely, seven generations: and after that I will bring you away peaceably from thence.

^a Ps. 115. 4. & 135. 15.
^b Isai. 44. 8, 9, 10. & 46. 5, 6, 7.
^c Wind. 13. 10.
^d 2 Mac. 2. 2.

4 ^a Now shall ye see in Babylon gods of silver, and of gold, and of wood, borne upon shoulders, which cause the nations to fear.

5 Beware therefore that ye in no wise be like to strangers, neither be ye afraid of them, when ye see the multitude before them and behind them, worshipping them.

6 But say ye in your hearts, O Lord, we must worship thee.

7 For mine angel is with you, and I myself caring for your souls.

8 As for their tongue, it is polished by the workman, and they themselves are gilded and laid over with silver; ^b yet are they but false, and cannot speak.

9 And taking gold, as it were for a virgin that loveth to go gay, they make crowns for the heads of their gods.

10 Sometimes also the priests convey from their gods gold and silver, and bestow it upon themselves.

11 Yea, they will give thereof to the common harlots, and deck them as men with garments, [being] gods of silver, and gods of gold, and wood.

^{||} Or, which prostitute themselves openly.

12 Yet cannot these gods save themselves from rust and moths, though they be covered with purple raiment.

13 They wipe their faces because of the dust of the temple, when there is much upon them.

14 And he that cannot put to death one that offendeth him holdeth a sceptre, as though he were a judge of the country.

15 He hath also in his right hand a dagger and an ax: but cannot deliver himself from war and thieves.

16 Whereby they are known not to be gods: therefore fear them not.

17 For like as a vessel that a man useth is nothing worth when it is broken; even so it is with their gods: when they be set up in the temple, their eyes be full of dust through the feet of them that come in.

18 And as the ^{||} doors are made sure on every side upon him that offendeth the king, as being committed to suffer death: even so the priests make fast their temples with doors, with locks, and bars, lest their gods be spoiled with robbers.

^{||} Or, courts.

19 They light them candles, yea, more than for themselves, whereof they cannot see one.

20 They are as one of the beams of the temple, yet they say their hearts are [†] gnawed upon by things creeping out of the earth; and when they eat them and their clothes, they feel it not.

[†] Gr. licked.

21 Their faces are blacked through the smoke that cometh out of the temple.

22 Upon their bodies and heads sit bats, swallows, and birds, and the cats also.

23 By this ye may know that they are no gods: therefore fear them not.

24 Notwithstanding the gold that is about them to make them beautiful, except they wipe off the rust, they will not shine: for neither when they were molten did they feel it.

25 The things wherein there is no breath are bought for || a most high price.

*|| Or, any price.
c Isai. 46. 7.
ver. 4.*

26 c They are borne upon shoulders, having no feet, whereby they declare unto men that they be nothing worth.

27 They also that serve them are ashamed: for if they fall to the ground at any time, they cannot rise up again of themselves: neither, if one set them upright, can they move of themselves: neither, if they be bowed down, can they make themselves straight: but they set || gifts before them, as unto dead men.

|| Or, offerings.

28 As for the things that are sacrificed unto them, their priests sell and || abuse; in like manner their wives lay up part thereof in salt; but unto the poor and impotent they give nothing of it.

|| Or, spend.

29 Menstruous women and women in childbed d eat their sacrifices: by these things ye may know that they are no gods: fear them not.

d Lev. 12. 4.

30 For how can they be called gods? because women set meat before the gods of silver, gold, and wood.

31 And the priests sit in their temples, having their clothes rent, and their heads and beards shaven, and nothing upon their heads.

32 They roar and cry before their gods, as men do at the feast when one is dead.

33 The priests also take off their garments, and clothe their wives and children.

34 Whether it be evil that one doeth unto them, or good, they are not able to recompense it: they can neither set up a king, nor put him down.

35 In like manner, they can neither give riches nor money: though a man make a vow unto them, and keep it not, they will not require it.

36 They can save no man from death, neither deliver the weak from the mighty.

37 They cannot restore a blind man to his sight, nor help any man in his distress.

38 They can shew no mercy to the widow, nor do good to the fatherless.

39 Their gods of wood, and which are overlaid with gold and silver, are like the stones that be hewn out of the mountain: they that worship them shall be confounded.

40 How should a man then think and say that they are gods, when even the Chaldeans themselves dishonour them?

41 Who if they shall see one dumb that cannot speak, they || bring him, and intreat Bel that he may speak, as though he were able to understand.

|| Or, bid him call upon Bel.

42 Yet they cannot understand this themselves, and leave them: for they have no || knowledge.

|| Or, sense.

43 The women also with cords about them, sitting in the ways, burn bran for perfume: but if any of them, drawn by some that passeth by, lie with him, she reproacheth her fellow, that she was not thought as worthy as herself, nor her cord broken.

44 Whatsoever is done among them is false: how may it then be thought or said that they are gods?

45 c They are made of carpenters and goldsmiths: they can be nothing else than the workmen will have them to be.

c Isai. 44. 12, 13, &c.

46 And they themselves that made them can never continue long; how should then the things that are made of them be gods?

47 For they left lies and reproaches to them that come after.

48 For when there cometh any war or plague upon them, the priests consult with themselves, where they may be hidden with them.

49 How then cannot men perceive that they be no gods, which can neither save themselves from war, nor from plague?

50 f For seeing they be but of wood, and overlaid with silver and gold, it shall be known hereafter that they are false:

*f Ps. 115. 4.
Wisd. 13. 10.*

51 And it shall manifestly appear to all nations and kings that they are no gods, but the works of men's hands, and that there is no work of God in them.

52 Who then may not know that they are no gods?

53 For neither can they set up a king in the land, nor give rain unto men.

54 Neither can they judge their own cause, nor redress a wrong, being unable: for they are as crows between heaven and earth.

55 Whereupon when fire falleth upon the house of gods of wood, or laid over with gold or silver, their priests will flee away, and escape; but they themselves shall be burned asunder like beams.

56 Moreover they cannot withstand any king or enemies: how can it then be thought or said that they be gods?

57 Neither are those gods of wood, and laid over with silver or gold, able to escape either from thieves or robbers.

58 Whose gold, and silver, and garments wherewith they are clothed, they that are strong do take, and go away withal: neither are they able to help themselves.

59 Therefore it is better to be a king that sheweth his power, or else a profitable vessel in an house, which the owner shall have use of, than such false gods; or to be a door in an house, to keep such things safe as be therein, than such false gods; or a pillar of wood in a palace, than such false gods.

60 For sun, moon, and stars, being bright, and sent to do their offices, are obedient.

61 In like manner the lightning when it breaketh forth is easy to be seen; and || after the same manner the wind bloweth in every country.

62 And when God commandeth the clouds to go over the whole world, they do as they are bidden.

63 And the fire sent from above to consume hills and woods doeth as it is commanded: but these are like unto them neither in shew nor power.

64 Wherefore it is neither to be supposed nor said that they are gods, seeing they are able neither to judge causes, nor to do good unto men.

65 Knowing therefore that they are no gods, fear them not.

66 For they can neither curse nor bless kings:

67 Neither can they shew signs in the heavens among the heathen, nor shine as the sun, nor give light as the moon.

68 The beasts are better than they: for they can get under a covert, and help themselves.

69 It is then by no means manifest unto us that they are gods: therefore fear them not.

70 For as a scarecrow in a garden of cucumbers keepeth nothing: so are their gods of wood, and laid over with silver and gold.

71 And likewise their gods of wood, and laid over with silver and gold, are like to a white thorn in an orchard, that every bird sitteth upon; as also to a dead body, that is cast into the dark.

72 And ye shall know them to be no gods by the || bright purple that rotteth upon them: and they themselves afterward shall be eaten, and shall be a reproach in the country.

73 Better therefore is the just man that hath none idols: for he shall be far from reproach.

|| Or, the same wind.

|| Or, purple and brightness.

THE SONG OF THE THREE HOLY CHILDREN,

Which followeth in the third Chapter of DANIEL after this place,—fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.—Verse 23. That which followeth is not in the Hebrew, to wit, And they walked—unto these words, Then Nebuchadnezzar—verse 24.

² Azarias his prayer and confession in the flame, ²⁴ wherewith the Chaldeans about the oven were consumed, but the three children within it were not hurt. ²⁸ The song of the three children in the oven.

AND they walked in the midst of the fire, praising God, and blessing the Lord.

² Then Azarias stood up, and prayed on this manner; and opening his mouth in the midst of the fire said,

³ Blessed art thou, O Lord God of our fathers: thy name is worthy to be praised and glorified for evermore:

^a Dan. 9. 14.

⁴ ^a For thou art righteous in all the things that thou hast done to us: yea, true are all thy works, thy ways are right, and ^b all thy judgments truth.

^b Ps. 25. 10.

⁵ In all the things that thou hast brought upon us, and upon the holy city of our fathers, even Jerusalem, thou hast executed true judgment: for according to truth and judgment didst thou bring all these things upon us because of our sins.

⁶ For we have sinned and committed iniquity, departing from thee.

⁸ Wherefore all that thou hast brought upon us, and every thing that thou hast done to us, thou hast done in true judgment.

⁹ And thou didst deliver us into the hands of lawless enemies, most hateful forsakers of God, and to an unjust king, and the most wicked in all the world.

¹⁰ And now we cannot open our mouths, we are become a shame and reproach to thy servants, and to them that worship thee.

¹¹ Yet deliver us not up wholly, for thy name's sake, neither disannul thou thy covenant:

¹² And cause not thy mercy to depart from us, for thy beloved Abraham's sake, for thy servant Isaac's sake, and for thy holy Israel's sake;

¹³ To whom thou hast spoken and promised, ^c that thou wouldest multiply their seed as the stars of heaven, and as the sand that lieth upon the seashore.

^c Gen. 22. 17. & 26. 4.

¹⁴ ^d For we, O Lord, are become less than any nation, and be kept under this day in all the world because of our sins.

^d Bar. 2. 13.

¹⁵ Neither is there at this time prince, or prophet, or leader, or burnt offering, or sacrifice, or oblation, or incense, or place to sacrifice before thee, and to find mercy:

¹⁶ ^e Nevertheless in a contrite heart and an humble spirit let us be accepted.

^e Bar. 2. 18.

¹⁷ Like as in the burnt offerings of rams and bullocks, and like as in ten thousands of fat lambs: ^f so let our sacrifice be in thy sight this day, and grant that we may wholly go after thee: for ^g they shall not be confounded that put their trust in thee.

^f Ps. 51. 17.

^g Ps. 25. 2, 3.

¹⁸ And now we follow thee with all our heart, we fear thee, and seek thy face.

¹⁹ Put us not to shame: but deal with us after thy lovingkindness, and according to the multitude of thy mercies.

²⁰ Deliver us also according to thy marvellous works, and give glory to thy name, O Lord: and let all them that do thy servants hurt be ashamed;

²¹ And let them be confounded ^h in all their power and might, and let their strength be broken;

^h Or, by thy power and might.

²² And let them know that thou art Lord, the only God, and glorious over the whole world.

²³ And the king's servants, that put them in, ceased not to make the oven

|| Or, naphtha, which is a certain kind of fat and chalky clay, Plin. lib. 2. cap. 105.

hot with || rosin, pitch, tow, and small wood ;

24 So that the flame streamed forth above the furnace forty and nine cubits.

25 And it passed through, and burned those Chaldeans it found about the furnace.

26 But the angel of the Lord came down into the oven together with Azarias and his fellows, and smote the flame of the fire out of the oven ;

|| Or, cool. 27 And made the midst of the furnace as it had been a || moist whistling wind, so that the fire touched them not at all, neither hurt nor troubled them.

28 Then the three, as out of one mouth, praised, glorified, and blessed, God in the furnace, saying, 29 Blessed art thou, O Lord God of our fathers : and to be praised and exalted above all for ever.

30 And blessed is thy glorious and holy name : and to be praised and exalted above all for ever.

31 Blessed art thou in the temple of thine holy glory : and to be praised and glorified above all for ever.

32 Blessed art thou that beholdest the depths, and sittest upon the cherubims : and to be praised and exalted above all for ever.

33 Blessed art thou on the glorious throne of thy kingdom : and to be praised and glorified above all for ever.

34 Blessed art thou in the firmament of heaven : and above all to be praised and glorified for ever.

THE

HISTORY OF SUSANNA,

Set apart from the beginning of Daniel, because it is not in the Hebrew, as neither the Narration of † Bel and the Dragon.

† Gr. Bel's Dragon.

16 Two judges hide themselves in the garden of Susanna to have their pleasure of her: 28 which when they could not obtain, they accuse and cause her to be condemned for adultery: 46 but Daniel examineth the matter again, and findeth the two judges false.

THERE dwelt a man in Babylon, called Joacim:

2 And he took a wife, whose name was Susanna, the daughter of Chelcias, a very fair woman, and one that feared the Lord.

3 Her parents also were righteous, and taught their daughter according to the law of Moses.

4 Now Joacim was a great rich man, and had a fair garden joining unto his house: and to him resorted the Jews; because he was more honourable than all others.

5 The same year were appointed two of the ancients of the people to be judges, such as the Lord spake of, that wickedness came from Babylon from ancient judges, who seemed to govern the people.

6 These kept much at Joacim's house: and all that had any suits in law came unto them.

7 Now when the people departed away at noon, Susanna went into her husband's garden to walk.

8 And the two elders saw her going in every day, and walking; so that their lust was inflamed toward her.

9 And they perverted their own mind, and turned away their eyes, that they might not look unto heaven, nor remember just judgments.

10 And albeit they both were wounded with her love, yet durst not one shew another his grief.

11 For they were ashamed to declare their lust, that they desired to have to do with her.

12 Yet they watched diligently from day to day to see her.

13 And the one said to the other, Let us now go home: for it is dinner time.

14 So when they were gone out, they parted the one from the other, and turning back again they came to the same place; and after that they had asked one another the cause, they acknowledged their lust: then appointed they a time both together, when they might find her alone.

15 And it fell out, as they watched a fit time, she went in † as before with two maids only, and she was desirous to wash herself in the garden: for it was hot. † Gr. as yesterday and the day before.

16 And there was no body there save the two elders, that had hid themselves, and watched her.

17 Then she said to her maids, Bring me oil and washing balls, and shut the garden doors, that I may wash me.

18 And they did as she bade them, and shut the garden doors, and went out themselves at || privy doors to fetch the things that she had commanded them: but they saw not the elders, because they were hid.

19 Now when the maids were gone forth, the two elders rose up, and ran unto her, saying,

20 Behold, the garden doors are shut, that no man can see us, and we are in love with thee; therefore consent unto us, and lie with us.

21 If thou wilt not, we will bear witness against thee, that a young man was with thee: and therefore thou didst send away thy maids from thee.

22 Then Susanna sighed, and said, I am straitened on every side: for if I do this thing, it is death unto me: and if I do it not, I cannot escape your hands.

23 It is better for me to fall into your hands, and not do it, than to sin in the sight of the Lord.

24 With that Susanna cried with a loud voice: and the two elders cried out against her.

25 Then ran the one, and opened the garden door.

26 So when the servants of the house heard the cry in the garden, they rushed in at a privy door, to see what was done unto her.

27 But when the elders had declared their matter, the servants were greatly ashamed: for there was never such a report made of Susanna.

28 And it came to pass the next day, when the people were assembled to her husband Joacim, the two elders came also full of mischievous imagination against Susanna to put her to death;

29 And said before the people, Send for Susanna, the daughter of Chelcias, Joacim's wife. And so they sent.

30 So she came with her father and mother, her children, and all her kindred.

31 Now Susanna was a very delicate woman, and beauteous to behold.

32 And these wicked men commanded to uncover her face, (for she was covered) that they might be filled with her beauty.

33 Therefore her friends and all that saw her wept.

34 Then the two elders stood up in the midst of the people, and laid their hands upon her head.

35 And she weeping looked up toward heaven: for her heart trusted in the Lord.

36 And the elders said, As we walked in the garden alone, this woman came in with two maids, and shut the garden doors, and sent the maids away.

37 Then a young man, who there was hid, came unto her, and lay with her.

38 Then we that stood in a corner of the garden, seeing this wickedness, ran unto them.

39 And when we saw them together, the man we could not hold: for he was stronger than we, and opened the door, and leaped out.

40 But having taken this woman, we asked who the young man was, but she would not tell us: these things do we testify.

41 Then the assembly believed them, as those that were the elders and judges of the people: so they condemned her to death.

42 Then Susanna cried out with a loud voice, and said, O everlasting God, that knowest the secrets, and knowest all things before they be:

43 Thou knowest that they have borne false witness against me, and, behold, I must die; whereas I never did such things as these men have maliciously invented against me.

44 And the Lord heard her voice.

45 Therefore when she was led to be put to death, the Lord raised up the holy spirit of a young youth, whose name was Daniel:

46 Who cried with a loud voice, * I am clear from the blood of this woman. * Matt. 27. 24.

47 Then all the people turned them toward him, and said, What mean these words that thou hast spoken?

48 So he standing in the midst of them said, Are ye such fools, ye sons of Israel, that without examination or knowledge of the truth ye have condemned a daughter of Israel?

49 Return again to the place of judgment: for they have borne false witness against her.

50 Wherefore all the people turned again in haste, and the elders said unto him, Come, sit down among us, and shew it us, seeing God hath given thee the honour of an elder.

51 Then said Daniel unto them, Put these two aside one far from another, and I will examine them.

52 So when they were put asunder one from another, he called one of them, and said unto him, O thou that art waxen old in wickedness, now thy sins which thou hast committed aforetime are come to light:

53 For thou hast pronounced false judgment, and hast condemned the innocent, and hast let the guilty go free; ^{b Ex. 23. 7.} albeit the Lord saith, ^b The innocent and righteous shalt thou not slay.

54 Now then, if thou hast seen her, tell me, Under what tree sawest thou them companying together? Who answered, Under a [†] mastick tree.

[†] Gr. lentick tree.

55 And Daniel said, Very well; thou hast lied against thine own head; for even now the angel of God hath received the sentence of God to cut thee in two.

56 So he put him aside, and commanded to bring the other, and said unto him, O thou seed of Chanaan, and not of Juda, beauty hath deceived thee, and lust hath perverted thine heart.

57 Thus have ye dealt with the daughters of Israel, and they for fear companied with you: but the daughter of Juda would not abide your wickedness.

58 Now therefore tell me, Under what tree didst thou take them companying together? Who answered, Under an ^{||} holm tree.

^{||} Or, kind of oak.

59 Then said Daniel unto him, Well; thou hast also lied against thine own head: for the angel of God waiteth with the sword to cut thee in two, that he may destroy you.

60 With that all the assembly cried out with a loud voice, and praised God, who saveth them that trust in him.

61 And they arose against the two elders, for Daniel had convicted them of false witness by their own mouth:

62 And according to the law of Moses ^c they did unto them in such sort as they maliciously intended to do to their neighbour: and they put them to death. Thus the innocent blood was saved the same day.

^c Deu. 19. 12.

63 Therefore Chelcias and his wife praised God for their daughter Susanna, with Joacim her husband, and all the kindred, because there was no dishonesty found in her.

64 From that day forth was Daniel had in great reputation in the sight of the people.

THE HISTORY OF THE DESTRUCTION

OF

†BEL AND THE DRAGON,

Cut off from the end of DANIEL.

† Gr. Bel's dragon.

19 The fraud of Bel's priests is discovered by Daniel, 27 and the dragon slain, which was worshipped. 33 Daniel is preserved in the lions' den. 42 The king doth acknowledge the God of Daniel, and casteth his enemies into the same den.

AND king Astyages was gathered to his fathers, and Cyrus of Persia received his kingdom.

|| Or, lived with the king.

2 And Daniel || conversed with the king, and was honoured above all his friends.

3 Now the Babylonians had an idol, called Bel, and there were spent upon him every day twelve great measures of fine flour, and forty sheep, and six vessels of wine.

4 And the king worshipped it, and went daily to adore it: but Daniel worshipped his own God. And the king said unto him, Why dost not thou worship Bel?

5 Who answered and said, Because I may not worship idols made with hands, but the living God, who hath created the heaven and the earth, and hath sovereignty over all flesh.

6 Then said the king unto him, Thinkest thou not that Bel is a living God? seest thou not how much he eateth and drinketh every day?

7 Then Daniel smiled, and said, O king, be not deceived: for this is but clay within, and brass without, and did never ^aeat or drink any thing.

^a Eccles 30. 19.

8 So the king was wroth, and called for his priests, and said unto them, If ye tell me not who this is that devour-eth these expences, ye shall die.

9 But if ye can certify me that Bel devoureth them, then Daniel shall die: for he hath spoken blasphemy against Bel. And Daniel said unto the king, Let it be according to thy word.

10 Now the priests of Bel were three-score and ten, beside their wives and children. And the king went with Daniel into the temple of Bel.

11 So Bel's priests said, Lo, we go out: but thou, O king, set on the meat, and make ready the wine, and shut the door fast, and seal it with thine own signet;

12 And to morrow when thou comest in, if thou findest not that Bel hath eaten up all, we will suffer death: or else Daniel, that speaketh falsely against us.

13 And they little regarded it: for under the table they had made a privy entrance, whereby they entered in continually, and consumed those things.

14 So when they were gone forth, the king set meats before Bel. Now Daniel had commanded his servants to bring ashes, and those they strewed throughout all the temple in the presence of the king alone: then went they out, and shut the door, and sealed it with the king's signet, and so departed.

15 Now in the night came the priests with their wives and children, as they were wont to do, and did eat and drink up all.

16 In the morning betime the king arose, and Daniel with him.

17 And the king said, Daniel, are the seals whole? And he said, Yea, O king, they be whole.

18 And as soon as he had opened the door, the king looked upon the table, and cried with a loud voice, Great art thou, O Bel, and with thee is no deceit at all.

19 Then laughed Daniel, and held the king that he should not go in, and said, Behold now the pavement, and mark well whose footsteps are these.

20 And the king said, I see the footsteps of men, women, and children. And then the king was angry, 21 And took the priests with their wives and children, who shewed him the privy doors, where they came in, and consumed such things as were upon the table.

22 Therefore the king slew them, and delivered Bel into Daniel's power, who destroyed him and his temple.

|| Some add this title, Of the dragon.

23 || And in that same place there was a great dragon, which they of Babylon worshipped.

24 And the king said unto Daniel, Wilt thou also say that this is of brass? lo, he liveth, he eateth and drinketh; thou canst not say that he is no living god: therefore worship him.

25 Then said Daniel unto the king, I will worship the Lord my God: for he is the living God.

26 But give me leave, O king, and I shall slay this dragon without sword or staff. The king said, I give thee leave.

27 Then Daniel took pitch, and fat, and hair, and did seethe them together, and made lumps thereof: this he put in the dragon's mouth, and so the dragon burst in sunder: and Daniel said, || Lo, these are the gods ye worship.

|| Or, Behold what ye worship.

28 When they of Babylon heard that, they took great indignation, and conspired against the king, saying, The king is become a Jew, and he hath destroyed Bel, he hath slain the dragon, and put the priests to death.

29 So they came to the king, and said, Deliver us Daniel, or else we will destroy thee and thine house.

30 Now when the king saw that they pressed him sore, being constrained, he delivered Daniel unto them:

^b Dan. 6. 16.

31 Who cast him into the lions' den: where he was six days.

32 And in the den there were seven lions, and they had given them every day || two carcasses, and two sheep:

|| Or, two slaves.

which then were not given to them, to the intent they might devour Daniel.

33 Now there was in Jewry a prophet, called Habbacuc, who had || made pottage, and had broken bread in a bowl, and was going into the field, for to bring it to the reapers.

|| Or, rod.

34 But the angel of the Lord said unto Habbacuc, Go, carry the dinner that thou hast into Babylon unto Daniel, who is in the lions' den.

35 And Habbacuc said, Lord, I never saw Babylon; neither do I know where the den is.

36 Then the angel of the Lord took him by the crown, and ^c bare him by the hair of his head, and through the vehemency of his spirit set him in Babylon over the den.

^c Ezek. 8. 3.

37 And Habbacuc cried, saying, O Daniel, Daniel, ^d take the dinner which God hath sent thee.

^d 1 Kings 17. 4.

38 And Daniel said, Thou hast remembered me, O God: neither hast thou forsaken them that seek thee and love thee.

39 So Daniel arose, and did eat: and the angel of the Lord set Habbacuc in his own place again immediately.

40 Upon the seventh day the king went to bewail Daniel: and when he came to the den, he looked in, and, behold, Daniel was sitting.

41 Then cried the king with a loud voice, saying, Great art thou, O Lord God of Daniel, and there is none other beside thee.

42 ^e And he drew him out, ^f and cast those that were the cause of his destruction into the den: and they were devoured in a moment before his face.

PRAYER OF MANASSES

KING OF JUDAH,

When he was holden captive in Babylon.

Before CHRIST
cir. 676.

O LORD, Almighty God of our fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and of their righteous seed; who hast made heaven and earth, with all the ornament thereof; who hast bound the sea by the word of thy commandment; who hast shut up the deep, and sealed it by thy terrible and glorious name; whom all men fear, and tremble before thy power; for the majesty of thy glory cannot be borne, and thine angry threatening toward sinners is importable: but thy merciful promise is unmeasurable and unsearchable; for thou art the most high Lord, ^a of great compassion, longsuffering, very merciful, and repentest of the evils of men. Thou, O Lord, according to thy great goodness hast promised repentance and forgiveness to them that have sinned against thee: and of thine infinite mercies hast appointed repentance unto sinners, that they may be saved. Thou therefore, O Lord, that art the God of the just, hast not appointed repentance to the just, as to Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, which have not sinned against thee; but thou hast appointed repentance unto me that am a sinner: for I have sinned above the number of the sands of the sea. My transgressions, O Lord,

^a Ps. 86. 15.
Joel 2. 13.

are multiplied: my transgressions are multiplied, and I am not worthy to behold and see the height of heaven for the multitude of mine iniquities. I am bowed down with many iron bands, that I cannot lift up mine head, || neither have any release: for I have provoked thy wrath, and done evil before thee: I did not thy will, neither kept I thy commandments: I have set up abominations, and have multiplied offences. Now therefore I bow the knee of mine heart, beseeching thee of grace. I have sinned, O Lord, I have sinned, and I acknowledge mine iniquities: wherefore, I humbly beseech thee, forgive me, O Lord, forgive me, and destroy me not with mine iniquities. Be not angry with me for ever, by reserving evil for me; neither condemn me into the lower parts of the earth. For thou art the God, even the God of them that repent; and in me thou wilt shew all thy goodness: for thou wilt save me, that am unworthy, according to thy great mercy. Therefore I will praise thee for ever all the days of my life: for all the powers of the heavens do praise thee, and thine is the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

14 Antiochus gave leave to set up the fashions of the Gentiles in Jerusalem, 22 and spoiled it, and the temple in it, 57 and set up therein the abomination of desolation, 63 and slew those that did circumcise their children.

AND it happened, after that Alexander son of Philip, the Macedonian, who came out of the land of Chetthim, had smitten Darius king of the Persians and Medes, that he reigned in his stead, the first over Greece,

2 And made many wars, and won many strong holds, and slew the kings of the earth,

3 And went through to the ends of the earth, and took spoils of many nations, insomuch that the earth was quiet before him; whereupon he was exalted, and his heart was lifted up.

4 And he gathered a mighty strong host, and ruled over countries, and nations, and kings, who became tributaries unto him.

5 And after these things he fell sick, and perceived that he should die.

6 Wherefore he called his servants, such as were honourable, and had been brought up with him from his youth, and parted his kingdom among them, while he was yet alive.

7 So Alexander reigned twelve years, and then died.

8 And his servants bare rule every one in his place.

9 And after his death they all put crowns upon themselves; so did their sons after them many years: and evils were multiplied in the earth.

10 And there came out of them a wicked root, Antiochus surnamed Euphianes, son of Antiochus the king, who had been an hostage at Rome, and he reigned in the hundred and thirty and seventh year of the kingdom of the Greeks.

11 In those days went there out of Israel wicked men, who persuaded many, saying, Let us go and make a covenant with the heathen that are round about us: for since we departed from them + we have had much sorrow.

12 So this device pleased them well.

13 Then certain of the people were so forward herein, that they went to the king, who gave them licence to do after the ordinances of the heathen:

14 Whereupon ^athey built a place of exercise at Jerusalem according to the customs of the heathen:

15 And ^bmade themselves uncircumcised, and forsook the holy covenant, and joined themselves to the heathen, and ^cwere sold to do mischief.

16 Now when the kingdom was established before Antiochus, he thought to reign over Egypt, that he might have the dominion of two realms.

17 Wherefore he entered into Egypt ^dwith a great multitude, with chariots, and elephants, and horsemen, and a great navy, 18 And made war against Ptolemee king of Egypt: but Ptolemee was afraid of him, and fled; and many were wounded to death.

19 Thus they got the strong cities in the land of Egypt, and he took the spoils thereof.

20 And after that Antiochus had smitten Egypt, he returned again in the hundred forty and third year, and ^ewent up against Israel and Jerusalem with a great multitude,

21 And ^fentered proudly into the sanctuary, and took away the golden altar, and the candlestick of light, and all the vessels thereof,

22 And the table of the shewbread, and the pouring vessels, and the vials, and the censers of gold, and the veil, and the crowns, and the golden ornaments that were before the temple, ^gall which he pulled off.

23 He took also the silver and the gold, and the ^hprecious vessels: also he took the hidden treasures which he found.

24 And when he had taken all away, he went into his own land, having made a great massacre, and spoken very proudly.

25 Therefore there was great mourning in Israel, in every place where they were;

26 So that the princes and elders mourned, the virgins and young men were made feeble, and the beauty of women was changed.

27 Every bridegroom took up lamentation, and she that sat in the marriage chamber was in heaviness.

28 The land also was moved for the inhabitants thereof, and all the house of Jacob was covered with confusion.

29 And after two years fully expired the king sent his chief collector of tribute unto the cities of Juda, who came unto Jerusalem with a great multitude,

30 And spake peaceable words unto them, but all was deceit: for when they had given him credence, he fell suddenly upon the city, and smote it very sore, and destroyed much people of Israel.

31 And when he had taken the spoils of the city, he set it on fire, and pulled down the houses and walls thereof on every side.

32 But the women and children took they captive, and possessed the cattle.

33 Then builded they the city of David with a great and strong wall, and with mighty towers, and made it a strong hold for them.

34 And they put therein a sinful nation, wicked men, and fortified themselves therein.

35 They stored it also with armour and victuals, and when they had gathered together the spoils of Jerusalem, they laid them up there, and so they became a sore snare:

36 For it was a place to lie in wait against the sanctuary, and an evil adversary to Israel.

37 Thus they shed innocent blood on every side of the sanctuary, and defiled it:

38 Insomuch that the inhabitants of Jerusalem fled because of them: whereupon the city was made an habitation of strangers, and became strange to those that were born in her; and her own children left her.

39 Her sanctuary was laid waste like a wilderness, ^hher feasts were turned into mourning, her sabbaths into reproach, her honour into contempt.

40 As had been her glory, so was her dishonour increased, and her excellency was turned into mourning.

41 Moreover king Antiochus wrote to his whole kingdom, that all should be one people, 42 And every one should leave his laws: so all the heathen agreed according to the commandment of the king.

43 Yea, many also of the Israelites consented to his religion, and sacrificed unto idols, and profaned the sabbath.

44 For the king had sent letters by messengers unto Jerusalem and the cities of Juda, that they should follow

|| the strange laws of the land, 45 And forbid burnt offerings, and sacrifice, and drink offerings, in the temple; and that they should profane the sabbaths and festival days:

46 And pollute the sanctuary and holy people:

47 Set up altars, and groves, and chapels of idols, and sacrifice swine's flesh, and unclean beasts:

48 That they should also leave their children uncircumcised, and make their souls abominable with all manner of uncleanness and profanation:

49 To the end they might forget the law, and change all the ordinances.

50 And ¹whosoever would not do according to the commandment of the king, he said, he should die. ²2 Mac. 6. 9.

51 In the selfsame manner wrote he to his whole kingdom, and ^kappointed overseers over all the people, commanding the cities of Juda to sacrifice, city by city. ^k2 Mac. 5. 22.

52 Then many of the people were gathered unto them, to wit, every one that forsook the law; and so they committed evils in the land;

53 || And ¹drove the Israelites into secret places, even wheresoever they could flee for succour.

54 Now the fifteenth day of the month Casleu, in the hundred forty and fifth year, they set up ^mthe abomination of desolation upon the altar, and builded idol altars throughout the cities of Juda on every side;

CHAP. III.

¹ The valour and fame of Judas Maccabeus. ¹⁰ He overthroweth the forces of Samaria and Syria. ²⁷ Antiochus sendeth a great power against him. ⁴⁴ He and his fall to fasting and prayer, ⁵⁸ and are encouraged.

THEN his son Judas, called Maccabeus, rose up in his stead.

2 And all his brethren helped him, and so did all they that held with his father, and they fought with cheerfulness the battle of Israel.

3 So he gat his people great honour, and put on a breastplate as a giant, and girt his warlike harness about him, and he made battles, protecting the host with his sword.

4 In his acts he was like a lion, and like a lion's whelp roaring for his prey.

5 For he pursued the wicked, and sought them out, and burnt up those that vexed his people.

6 Wherefore the wicked shrunk for fear of him, and all the workers of iniquity were troubled, because salvation prospered in his hand.

7 He grieved also many kings, and made Jacob glad with his acts, and his memorial is blessed for ever.

8 Moreover he went through the cities of Juda, destroying the ungodly out of them, and turning away wrath from Israel:

12 Wherefore Judas took their spoils, and Apollonius' sword also, and therewith he fought all his life long.

13 Now when Seron, a prince of the 14 He said, I will get me a name and honour in the kingdom; for I will go fight with Judas and them that are with him, who despise the king's commandment.

15 So he made him ready to go up, and there went with him a mighty host of the ungodly to help him, and to be avenged of the children of Israel.

16 And when he came near to the going up of Bethhoron, Judas went forth to meet him with a small company:

17 Who, when they saw the host coming to meet them, said unto Judas, How shall we be able, being so few, to fight against so great a multitude and so strong, seeing we are ready to faint with fasting all this day?

31 Wherefore, being greatly perplexed in his mind, he determined to go into Persia, there to take the tributes of the countries, and to gather much money.

32 So he left Lysias, a nobleman, and one of the blood royal, to oversee the affairs of the king from the river Euphrates unto the borders of Egypt:

33 And to bring up his son Antiochus, until he came again.

34 Moreover he delivered unto him the half of his forces, and the elephants, and gave him charge of all things that he would have done, as also concerning them that dwelt in Juda and Jerusalem:

35 To wit, that he should send an army against them, to destroy and root out the strength of Israel, and the remnant of Jerusalem, and to take away their memorial from that place;

36 And that he should place strangers in all their quarters, and divide their land by lot.

7 And they saw the camp of the heathen, that it was strong and well harnessed, and compassed round about with horsemen; and these were expert of war.

18 And Gorgias and his host are here by us in the mountain: but stand ye now against our enemies, and overcome them, and after this ye may boldly take the spoils.

19 As Judas was yet speaking these words, there appeared a part of them looking out of the mountain:

20 Who when they perceived that the Jews had put their host to flight, and were burning the tents; for the smoke that was seen declared what was done:

21 When therefore they perceived these things, they were sore afraid, and seeing also the host of Judas in the plain ready to fight, 22 They fled every one into the land of strangers.

23 Then Judas returned to spoil the tents, where they got much gold, and silver, and blue silk, and purple of the sea, and great riches.

35 Now when Lysias saw his army put to flight, and the manliness of Judas' soldiers, and how they were ready either to live or die valiantly, he went into Antiochia, and gathered together a company of strangers, and having made his army greater than it was, he purposed to come again into Judea.

36 Then said Judas and his brethren, Behold, our enemies are discomfited: || Or, repair. let us go up to cleanse and || dedicate the sanctuary.

37 Upon this all the host assembled themselves together, and went up into mount Sion.

38 And when they saw the sanctuary desolate, and the altar profaned, and the gates burned up, and shrubs growing in the courts as in a forest, or in one of the mountains, yea, and the priests' chambers pulled down;

39 They rent their clothes, and made great lamentation, and cast ashes upon their heads, 41 Then Judas appointed certain men to fight against ^fthose that were in the fortress, until he had cleansed the sanctuary. f ch. 1. 34.

42 So he chose priests of blameless conversation, such as had pleasure in the law:

47 Then they took whole stones ^haccording to the law, and built a new altar according to the former;

48 And made up the sanctuary, and the things that were within the temple, and hallowed the courts.

49 They made also new holy vessels, and into the temple they brought the candlestick, and the altar of burnt offerings, and of incense, and the table.

50 And upon the altar they burned incense, and the lamps that were upon the candlestick they lighted, that they might give light in the temple.

51 Furthermore they set the loaves upon the table, and || spread out the veils, and finished all the works which they had begun to make.

52 Now on the five and twentieth day of the ninth month, which is called the month Casleu, in the hundred forty and eighth year, they rose up betimes in the morning, 53 And offered sacrifice according to the law upon the new altar of burnt offerings, which they had made.

54 Look, at what time and what day the heathen had profaned it, even in that was it dedicated with songs, and citherns, and harps, and cymbals.

55 Then all the people fell upon their faces, worshipping and praising the God of heaven, who had given them good success.

56 And so they kept the dedication of the altar eight days, and offered burnt offerings with gladness, and sacrificed the sacrifice of || deliverance and praise.

57 They decked also the forefront of the temple with crowns of gold, and with shields; and the gates and the chambers they || renewed, and || hanged doors upon them.

58 Thus was there very great gladness among the people, for that the reproach of the heathen was put away.

9 Then the heathen that were at Galaad assembled themselves together against the Israelites that were in their quarters, to destroy them; but they fled to the fortress of Dathema, 15 And said, They of Ptolemais, and of Tyrus, and Sidon, and all Galilee of the Gentiles, are assembled together against us to consume us.

16 Now when Judas and the people heard these words, there assembled a great congregation together, to consult what they should do for their brethren, that were in trouble, and assaulted of them.

17 Then said Judas unto Simon his brother, Choose thee out men, and go and deliver thy brethren that are in Galilee, for I and Jonathan my brother will go into the country of Galaad.

and in Arbattis, with their wives and their children, and all that they had, took he away with him, and brought them into Judea with great joy.

24 Judas Maccabeus also and his brother Jonathan went over Jordan, and travelled three days' journey in the wilderness,

25 Where they met with the Nabathites, who came unto them in a peaceable manner, and told them every thing that had happened to their brethren in the land of Galaad:

26 And how that many of them were shut up in || Bosora, and Bosor, and Alema, || Casphor, Maked, and Carnaim; all these cities are strong and great:

27 And that they were shut up in the rest of the cities of the country of Galaad, and that against to morrow || they had appointed to bring their host against the forts, and to take them, and to destroy them all in one day.

31 When Judas therefore saw that the battle was begun, and that the cry of the city went up to heaven, with trumpets, and a great sound, 34 Then the host of Timotheus, knowing that it was Maccabeus, fled from him: wherefore he smote them with a great slaughter; so that there were killed of them that day about eight thousand men.

35 This done, Judas turned aside to Maspha; and after he had assaulted it, he took it, and slew all the males therein, and received the spoils thereof, and burnt it with fire.

36 From thence went he, and took "Casphon, Maged, Bosor, and the other cities of the country of Galaad.

37 After these things gathered Timotheus another host, and encamped against Raphon beyond the brook.

38 So Judas sent men to espy the host, who brought him word, saying, All the heathen that be round about us are assembled unto them, even a very great host.

39 He hath also hired the Arabians to help them, and they have pitched their tents beyond the brook, ready to come and fight against thee. Upon this Judas went to meet them.

40 Then Timotheus said unto the captains of his host, When Judas and his host come near the brook, if he pass over first unto us, we shall not be able to withstand him; for he will mightily prevail against us:

41 But if he be afraid, and camp beyond the river, we shall go over unto him, and prevail against him.

42 Now when Judas came near the brook, he caused the scribes of the people to remain by the brook: unto whom he gave commandment, saying, Suffer no man to remain in the camp, but let all come to the battle.

43 So he went first over unto them, and all the people after him: then all the heathen, being discomfited before him, cast away their weapons, and fled unto the temple that was at Carnaim.

44 But || they took the city, and burned the temple with all that were therein. Thus was Carnaim subdued, neither could they stand any longer before Judas.

45 Then Judas gathered together all the Israelites that were in the country of Galaad, from the least unto the greatest, even their wives, and their children, and their stuff, a very great host, to the end they might come into the land of Judea.

46 Now when they came unto Ephron, (this was a great city in the way as they should go, very well fortified) they could not turn from it, either on the right hand or the left, but must needs pass through the midst of it.

47 Then they of the city shut them out, and stopped up the gates with stones.

48 Whereupon Judas sent unto them in peaceable manner, saying, Let us pass through your land to go into our own country, and none shall do you any hurt; we will only pass through on foot: howbeit they would not open unto him.

49 Wherefore Judas commanded a proclamation to be made throughout the host, that every man should pitch his tent in the place where he was.

50 So the soldiers pitched, and assaulted the city all that day and all that night, till at the length the city was delivered into his hands:

51 Who then slew all the males with the edge of the sword, and rased the city, and took the spoils thereof, and passed through the city over them that were slain.

52 After this went they over Jordan into the great plain before Bethsan.

53 And Judas gathered together those that || came behind, and || exhorted the people all the way through, till they came into the land of Judea.

54 So they went up to mount Sion with joy and gladness, where they offered || burnt offerings, because not one of them were slain until they had returned in peace.

55 Now what time as Judas and Jonathan were in the land of Galaad, and Simon his brother in Galilee before Ptolemais, 56 Joseph the son of Zacharias, and Azarias, captains of the garrisons, heard of the valiant acts and warlike deeds which they had done.

57 Wherefore they said, Let us also get us a name, and go fight against the heathen that are round about us.

58 So when they had given charge unto the garrison that was with them, they went toward Jamnia.

59 Then came Gorgias and his men out of the city + to fight against them.

60 And so it was, that Joseph and Azarias were put to flight, and pursued unto the borders of Judea: and there were slain that day of the people of Israel about two thousand men.

61 Thus was there a great overthrow among the children of Israel, because they were not obedient unto Judas and his brethren, but thought to do some valiant act.

62 Moreover these men came not of the seed of those, by whose hand deliverance was given unto Israel.

63 Howbeit the man Judas and his brethren were greatly renowned in the sight of all Israel, and of all the heathen, wheresoever their name was heard of;

64 Insomuch as the people assembled unto them with joyful acclamations.

65 Afterward went Judas forth with his brethren, and fought against the children of Esau in the land toward the south, where he smote Hebron, and the + towns thereof, and pulled down the fortress of it, and burned the towers thereof round about.

66 From thence he removed to go into the land of + the Philistines, and passed through Samaria.

67 At that time certain priests, desirous to shew their valour, were slain in battle, for that they went out to fight unadvisedly.

68 So Judas turned to Azotus in the land of the Philistines, and when he had pulled down their altars, and burned their carved images with fire, and spoiled their cities, he returned into the land of Judea.

he fled, and departed thence with great heaviness, and returned to Babylon.

5 Moreover there came one who brought him tidings into Persia, that the armies, which went against the land of Judea, were put to flight:

6 And that Lysias, who went forth first with a great power, was driven away of the Jews; and that they were made strong by the armour, and power, and store of spoils, which they had gotten of the armies, whom they had destroyed:

^a ch. 1. 54. 7 Also that they had pulled down ^a the abomination, which he had set up upon the altar in Jerusalem, and that they had compassed about the sanctuary with high walls, as before, and his city Bethsura.

8 Now when the king heard these words, he was astonished and sore moved: whereupon he laid him down upon his bed, and fell sick for grief, because it had not befallen him as he looked for.

9 And there he continued many days: for his grief was ever more and more, and he made account that he should die.

10 Wherefore he called for all his friends, and said unto them, The sleep is gone from mine eyes, and my heart faileth for very care.

11 And I thought with myself, Into what tribulation am I come, and how great a flood of misery is it, wherein now I am! for I was bountiful and beloved in my power.

^b ch. 1. 21, &c. ^c ch. 1. 57. 12 But now I remember the evils that I did at Jerusalem, and that ^b I took all the vessels of gold and silver that were therein, and ^c sent to destroy the inhabitants of Judea without a cause.

13 I perceive therefore that for this cause these troubles are come upon me, and, behold, I perish through great grief in a strange land.

14 Then called he for Philip, one of his friends, whom he made ruler over all his realm,

^{||} Or, he should take his son Antiochus to him. 15 And gave him the crown, and his robe, and his signet, to the end ^{||} he should bring up his son Antiochus, and nourish him up for the kingdom.

16 So king Antiochus died there in the hundred forty and ninth year.

Before CHRIST
cir. 164.

17 Now when Lysias knew that the king was dead, he set up Antiochus his son, whom he had brought up being young, to reign in his stead, and his name he called Eupator.

18 About this time they that were in the tower shut up the Israelites round about the sanctuary, and sought always their hurt, and the strengthening of the heathen.

19 Wherefore Judas, purposing to destroy them, called all the people together to besiege them.

20 So they came together, and besieged them in the hundred and fiftieth year, and he made mounts for shot against them, and other engines.

21 Howbeit certain of them that were besieged got forth, unto whom some ungodly men of Israel joined themselves:

22 And they went unto the king, and said, How long will it be ere thou execute judgment, and avenge our brethren?

23 We have been willing to serve thy father, and to do as he would have us, and to obey his commandments;

24 For which cause they of our nation besiege the tower, and are alienated from us: moreover ^d as many of us as they could light on they slew, and spoiled our inheritance. ^d ch. 5. 22, 44, 51.

25 Neither have they stretched out their hand against us only, but also against all their borders.

26 And, behold, this day are they besieging the tower at Jerusalem, to take it: the sanctuary also and ^e Bethsura have they fortified. ^e ch. 4. 61.

27 Wherefore if thou dost not prevent them quickly, they will do greater things than these, neither shalt thou be able to rule them.

28 Now when the king heard this, he was angry, and gathered together all his friends, and the captains of his army, and those that had charge of the horse.

29 There came also unto him from other kingdoms, and from isles of the sea, bands of hired soldiers.

30 So that the number of his army was an hundred thousand footmen, and twenty thousand horsemen, and two and thirty elephants exercised in battle.

Before CHRIST
cir. 163.

31 These went through Idumea, and pitched against Bethsura, which they assaulted many days, making engines of war; but they of Bethsura came out, and burned them with fire, and fought valiantly.

32 Upon this Judas removed from the tower, and pitched in Bathzacharias, over against the king's camp.

33 Then the king rising very early marched fiercely with his host toward Bathzacharias, where his armies made them ready to battle, and sounded the trumpets.

34 And to the end they might provoke the elephants to fight, they shewed them the blood of grapes and mulberries.

35 Moreover they divided the beasts among the armies, and for every elephant they appointed a thousand men, armed with coats of mail, and with helmets of brass on their heads; and beside this, for every beast were ordained five hundred horsemen of the best.

36 These were ready at every occasion: wheresoever the beast was, and whithersoever the beast went, they went also, neither departed they from him.

37 And upon the beasts were there strong towers of wood, which covered every one of them, and were girt fast unto them with devices: there were also upon every one two and thirty strong men, that fought upon them, beside the Indian that ruled him.

38 As for the remnant of the horsemen, they set them on this side and that side at the two parts of the host, giving them signs what to do, and being harnessed all over amidst the ranks.

39 Now when the sun shone upon the shields of gold and brass, the mountains glistened therewith, and shined like lamps of fire.

40 So part of the king's army being spread upon the high mountains, and part on the valleys below, they marched on safely and in order.

41 Wherefore all that heard the noise of their multitude, and the marching of the company, and the rattling of the harness, were moved: for the army was very great and mighty.

42 Then Judas and his host drew near, and entered into battle, and there were slain of the king's army six hundred men.

43 ¶ Eleazar also, surnamed Sava-^{ch. 2. 5.} ran, perceiving that one of the beasts, armed with royal harness, was higher than all the rest, and supposing that the king was upon him,

44 Put himself in jeopardy, to the end he might deliver his people, and get him a perpetual name:

45 Wherefore he ran upon him courageously through the midst of the battle, slaying on the right hand and on the left, so that they were divided from him on both sides.

¶ Or, so that he cut them in pieces.

46 Which done, he crept under the elephant, and thrust him under, and slew him: whereupon the elephant fell down upon him, and there he died.

47 Howbeit the rest of the Jews seeing the strength of the king, and the violence of his forces, turned away from them.

48 ¶ Then the king's army went up to Jerusalem to meet them, and the king pitched his tents against Judea, and against mount Sion.

¶ Or,

49 But with them that were in Bethsura he made peace: for they came out of the city, because they had no victuals there to endure the siege, it being a year of rest to the land.

¶ Add out themselves.

50 So the king took Bethsura, and set a garrison there to keep it.

51 As for the sanctuary, he besieged it many days: and set there artillery with engines and instruments to cast fire and stones, and pieces to cast darts and slings.

¶ Or, made there mounts

52 Whereupon they also made engines against their engines, and held them battle a long season.

¶ Or,

53 Yet at the last, their vessels being without victuals, (for that it was the seventh year, and they in Judea, that were delivered from the Gentiles, had eaten up the residue of the store;)

54 There were but a few left in the sanctuary, because the famine did so prevail against them, that they were fain to disperse themselves, every man to his own place.

55 At that time Lysias heard say, that Philip, whom Antiochus the king, whiles he lived, had appointed to bring up his son Antiochus, that he might be king, 56 Was returned out of Persia and Media, and the king's host also that went with him, and that he sought to take unto him the ruling of the affairs.

57 Wherefore he went in all haste, and said to the king and the captains of the host and the company, We decay daily, and our victuals are but small, and the place we lay siege unto is strong, and the affairs of the kingdom lie upon us:

60 So the king and the princes were content: wherefore he sent unto them to make peace; and they accepted thereof.

61 Also the king and the princes made an oath unto them: whereupon they went out of the strong hold.

62 Then the king entered into mount Sion; but when he saw the strength of the place, he brake his oath that he had made, and gave commandment to pull down the wall round about.

63 Afterward departed he in all haste, and returned unto Antiochia, where he found Philip to be master of the city: so he fought against him, and took the city by force.

4 So his host slew them. Now when Demetrius was set upon the throne of his kingdom,

5 There came unto him all the wicked and ungodly men of Israel, having Alcimus, who was desirous to be high priest, for their captain:

6 And they accused the people to the king, saying, Judas and his brethren have slain all thy friends, and driven us out of our own land.

7 Now therefore send some man whom thou trustest, and let him go and see what havock he hath made among us, and in the king's land, and let him punish them with all them that aid them.

8 Then the king chose Bacchides, a friend of the king, who ruled beyond the flood, and was a great man in the kingdom, and faithful to the king.

9 And him he sent with that wicked Alcimus, whom he made high priest, and commanded that he should take vengeance of the children of Israel.

10 So they departed, and came with a great power into the land of Judea, where they sent messengers to Judas and his brethren with peaceable words deceitfully.

11 But they gave no heed to their words; for they saw that they were come with a great power.

12 Then did there assemble unto Alcimus and Bacchides a company of || scribes, to require justice.

13 Now the Assideans were the first among the children of Israel that sought peace of them:

14 For said they, One that is a priest of the seed of Aaron is come with this army, and he will do us no wrong.

15 So he spake unto them peaceably, and sware unto them, saying, We will procure the harm neither of you nor your friends.

16 Whereupon they believed him: howbeit he took of them threescore men, and slew them in one day, according to the words which he wrote, 17 ^b The flesh of thy saints have they cast out, and their blood have they shed round about Jerusalem, and there was none to bury them.

certain of the people also, and when he had slain them, ^c he cast them into the

CHAP. VIII.

¹ Judas is informed of the power and policy of the Romans, 20 and maketh a league with them. 24 The articles of that league.

NOW Judas had heard of the fame of the Romans, that they were mighty and valiant men, and such as would lovingly accept all that joined themselves unto them, and make a league of amity with all that came unto them;

|| Or,
Frenchmen.

2 And that they were men of great valour. It was told him also of their wars and noble acts which they had done among the || Galatians, and how they had conquered them, and brought them under tribute;

3 And what they had done in the country of Spain, for the winning of the mines of the silver and gold which is there;

|| Or, every place.

4 And that by their policy and patience they had conquered ||all the place, though it were very far from them; and the kings also that came against them from the uttermost part of the earth, till they had discomfited them, and given them a great overthrow, so that the rest did give them tribute every year:

5 Beside this, how they had discomfited in battle Philip, and Perseus, king of the ||Citims, with others that lifted up themselves against them, and had overcome them:

Before CHRIST
cir. 161.

|| Or, Macedonians.

6 How also Antiochus the great king of Asia, that came against them in battle, having an hundred and twenty elephants, with horsemen, and chariots, and a very great army, was discomfited by them;

7 And how they took him alive, and covenanted that he and such as reigned after him should pay a great tribute, and give hostages, and that which was agreed upon,

8 And the country of India, and Media, and Lydia, and of the goodliest countries, which they took of him, and gave to king Eumenes:

9 Moreover how the Grecians had determined to come and destroy them;

10 And that they, having knowledge thereof, sent against them a certain captain, and fighting with them slew many of them, and carried away captives their wives and their children, and spoiled them, and took possession of their lands, and pulled down their strong holds, and brought them to be their servants unto this day:

11 It was told him besides, how they destroyed and brought under their dominion all other kingdoms and isles that at any time resisted them;

12 But with their friends and such as relied upon them they kept amity: and that they had conquered kingdoms both far and nigh, insomuch as all that heard of their name were afraid of them:

13 Also that, whom they would help to a kingdom, those reign; and whom again they would, they displace: finally, that they were greatly exalted:

14 Yet for all this none of them wore a crown, or was clothed in purple, to be magnified thereby:

15 Moreover how they had made for themselves a senate house, wherein three hundred and twenty men sat in council daily, consulting alway for the people, to the end they might be well ordered:

16 And that they committed their government to one man every year, who ruled over all their country, and that all were obedient to that one, and that there was neither envy nor emulation among them.

Before
CHRIST

17 In consideration of these things, Judas chose Eupolemus the son of John, the son of Accos, and Jason the son of Eleazar, and sent them to Rome, to make a league of amity and confederacy with them,

18 And to intreat them that they would take the yoke from them; for they saw that the kingdom of the Grecians did oppress Israel with servitude.

19 They went therefore to Rome, which was a very great journey, and came into the senate, where they spake and said, 20 Judas Maccabeus with his brethren, and the people of the Jews, have sent us unto you, to make a confederacy and peace with you, and that we might be registered your confederates and friends.

21 So that matter pleased the Romans well.

22 And this is the copy of the epistle which the senate wrote back again in tables of brass, and sent to Jerusalem, that there they might have by them a memorial of peace and confederacy:

23 Good success be to the Romans, and to the people of the Jews, by sea and by land for ever: the sword also and enemy be far from them.

24 If there come first any war upon the Romans or any of their confederates throughout all their dominion,

25 The people of the Jews shall help them, as the time shall be appointed, with all their heart:

26 Neither shall they give any thing unto them that make war upon them, or aid them with victuals, weapons, money, or ships, as it hath seemed good unto the Romans; but they shall keep their covenants without taking any thing therefore.

27 In the same manner also, if war come first upon the nation of the Jews, the Romans shall help them with all their heart, according as the time shall be appointed them:

28 Neither shall victuals be given to them that take part against them, or weapons, or money, or ships, as it hath seemed good to the Romans; but they shall keep their covenants, and that without deceit.

29 According to these articles did the Romans make a covenant with the people of the Jews.

30 Howbeit if hereafter the one party or the other shall think meet to add or diminish any thing, they may do it at their pleasures, and whatsoever they shall add or take away shall be ratified.

31 And as touching the evils that Demetrius doeth to the Jews, we have written unto him, saying, Wherefore hast thou made thy yoke heavy upon our friends and confederates the Jews?

32 If therefore they complain any more against thee, we will do them justice, and fight with thee by sea and by land.

5 Now Judas had pitched his tents at Eleasa, and three thousand chosen men with him:

6 Who seeing the multitude of the other army to be so great were sore afraid; whereupon many conveyed themselves out of the host, insomuch as there abode of them no more but eight hundred men.

7 When Judas therefore saw that his host slipt away, and that the battle pressed upon him, he was sore troubled in mind, and much distressed, for that he had no time to gather them together.

8 Nevertheless unto them that remained he said, Let us arise and go up against our enemies, if peradventure we may be able to fight with them.

9 But they dehorted him, saying, We shall never be able: || let us now rather save our lives, and hereafter we will return with our brethren, and fight against them: for we are but few.

10 Then Judas said, God forbid that I should do this thing, and flee away from them: if our time be come, let us die manfully for our brethren, and † let us not stain our honour.

11 With that the host of Bacchides removed out of their tents, and stood over against || them, their horsemen being divided into two troops, and their slingers and archers going before the host, and they that marched in the foreward were all mighty men.

12 As for Bacchides, he was in the right wing: so the host drew near on the two parts, and sounded their trumpets.

13 They also of Judas' side, even they sounded their trumpets also, so that the earth shook at the noise of the armies, and the battle continued from morning till night.

14 Now when Judas perceived that Bacchides and the strength of his army were on the right side, he took with him all the hardy men, 15 Who discomfited the right wing, and pursued them unto the mount Azotus.

16 But when they of the left wing saw that they of the right wing were discomfited, they followed upon Judas and those that were with him hard at the heels from behind:

17 Whereupon there was a sore battle, insomuch as many were slain on both parts.

18 Judas also was killed, and the remnant fled.

19 Then Jonathan and Simon took Judas their brother, and buried him in the sepulchre of his fathers in Modin.

20 Moreover they bewailed him, and * ch. 13. 26. * all Israel made great lamentation for him, and mourned many days, saying, 21 How is the valiant man fallen, that delivered Israel!

22 As for the other things concerning Judas and his wars, and the noble acts which he did, and his greatness, they are not written: for they were very many.

23 ¶ Now after the death of Judas the wicked began to put forth their heads in all the coasts of Israel, and there arose up all such as wrought iniquity.

24 In those days also was there a very great famine, by reason whereof the country revolted, and went with || them.

25 Then Bacchides chose the wicked men, and made them lords of the country.

26 And they made enquiry and search for Judas' friends, and brought them unto Bacchides, who took vengeance of them, and † used them despitefully.

27 So was there a great affliction in Israel, the like whereof was not since the time ^b that a prophet was not seen among them.

28 For this cause all Judas' friends came together, and said unto Jonathan, 29 Since thy brother Judas died, we have no man like him to go forth against our enemies, and Bacchides, and against them of our nation that are adversaries to us.

30 Now therefore we have chosen thee this day to be our prince and captain in his stead, that thou mayest fight our battles.

31 Upon this Jonathan took the governance upon him at that time, and rose up instead of his brother Judas.

32 But when Bacchides gat knowledge thereof, he sought for to slay him.

33 Then Jonathan, and Simon his brother, and all that were with him, perceiving that, fled into the wilderness of Thecoe, and pitched their tents by the water of the pool Asphar.

34 || Which when Bacchides understood, he came near to Jordan with all his host upon the sabbath day.

35 Now Jonathan had sent his brother || John, a captain of the people, to pray his friends the Nabathites, † that they might leave with them their carriage, which was much.

out of Medaba, and took John, and all that he had, and went their way with it.

37 After this came word to Jonathan and Simon his brother, that the children of Jambri made a great marriage, and were bringing the bride from || Nadabatha with a great train, as being the daughter of one of the great princes of Chanaan.

|| Or,

38 Therefore they remembered John their brother, and went up, and hid themselves under the covert of the mountain:

40 Then Jonathan and they that were with him rose up against them from the place where they lay in ambush, and made a slaughter of them in such sort, as many fell down dead, and the remnant fled into the mountain, and they took all their spoils.

41 Thus was the marriage turned into mourning, and the noise of their melody into lamentation.

42 So when they had avenged fully the blood of their brother, they turned again to the marsh of Jordan.

43 Now when Bacchides heard hereof, he came on the sabbath day unto the banks of Jordan with a great power.

44 Then Jonathan said to his company, Let us go up now and fight for our lives, for it standeth not with us to day, as in time past:

45 For, behold, the battle is before us and behind us, and the water of Jordan on this side and that side, the marsh likewise and wood, neither is there place for us to turn aside.

46 Wherefore cry ye now unto heaven, that ye may be delivered from the hand of your enemies.

47 With that they joined battle, and Jonathan stretched forth his hand to smite Bacchides, but he turned back from him.

48 Then Jonathan and they that were with him leapt into Jordan, and swam over unto the farther bank: how-

55 And as he began to pull down, even at that time was Alcimus plagued, and his enterprizes hindered: for his mouth was stopped, and he was taken with a palsy, so that he could no more speak any thing, nor give order concerning his house.

68 And fought against Bacchides, who was discomfited by them, and they afflicted him sore: for his counsel and travail was in vain.

69 Wherefore he was very wroth at the wicked men that gave him counsel to come into the country, insomuch as he slew many of them, and purposed to return into his own country.

70 Whereof when Jonathan had knowledge, he sent ambassadors unto him, to the end he should make peace with him, and deliver them the prisoners.

71 Which thing he accepted, and did according to his demands, and swore unto him that he would never do him harm all the days of his life.

1 Demetrius maketh large offers to have peace with Jonathan. 25 His letters to the Jews. 47 Jonathan maketh peace with Alexander, 50 who killeth Demetrius, 58 and marrieth the daughter of Ptolemeus. 62 Jonathan is sent for by him, and much honoured, 75 and prevaieth against the forces of Demetrius the younger, 84 and burneth the temple of Dagon.

IN the hundred and sixtieth year Alexander, the son of Antiochus surnamed Epiphanes, went up and took Ptolemais: for the people had received him, by means whereof he reigned there.

cir. 153.

|| Joseph. the son of Antiochus Epiphanes.

2 Now when king Demetrius heard thereof, he gathered together an exceeding great host, and went forth against him to fight.

3 Moreover Demetrius sent letters unto Jonathan with loving words, so as he magnified him.

4 For said he, Let us first make peace with him, before he join with Alexander against us:

5 Else he will remember all the evils that we have done against him, and against his brethren and his people.

6 Wherefore he gave him authority to gather together an host, and to provide weapons, that he might aid him in battle: he commanded also that the hostages that were in the tower should be delivered him.

7 Then came Jonathan to Jerusalem, and read the letters in the audience of all the people, and of them that were in the tower:

8 Who were sore afraid, when they heard that the king had given him authority to gather together an host.

9 Whereupon they of the tower delivered their hostages unto Jonathan, and he delivered them unto their parents.

10 This done, Jonathan settled himself in Jerusalem, and began to build and repair the city.

11 And he commanded the workmen to build the walls and the mount Sion round about with square stones for fortification; and they did so.

12 Then the strangers, that were in the fortresses which Bacchides had built, fled away; mandments remained still: for it was their place of refuge.

15 Now when king Alexander had heard what promises Demetrius had sent unto Jonathan: when also it was told him of the battles and noble acts which he and his brethren had done, and of the pains that they had endured, 16 He said, Shall we find such another man? now therefore we will make him our friend and confederate.

17 Upon this he wrote a letter, and sent it unto him, according to these words, saying,

18 King Alexander to his brother Jonathan sendeth greeting:

19 We have heard of thee, that thou art a man of great power, and meet to be our friend.

20 Wherefore now this day we ordain thee to be the high priest of thy nation, and to be called the king's friend; (and therewithal he sent him a purple robe and a crown of gold:) and require thee to take our part, and keep friendship with us.

21 So in the seventh month of the hundred and sixtieth year, at the feast of the tabernacles, Jonathan put on the holy robe, and gathered together forces, and provided much armour.

22 Whereof when Demetrius heard, he was very sorry, and said,

23 What have we done, that Alexander hath prevented us in making amity with the Jews to strengthen himself?

24 I also will write unto them words of encouragement, and promise them dignities and gifts, that I may have their aid.

25 He sent unto them therefore to this effect: King Demetrius unto the people of the Jews sendeth greeting:

26 Whereas ye have kept covenants with us, and continued in our friendship, not joining yourselves with our enemies, we have heard hereof, and are glad.

27 Wherefore now continue ye still to be faithful unto us, and we will well recompense you for the things ye do in our behalf, 28 And will grant you many immunities, and give you rewards.

29 And now do I free you, and for your sake I release all the Jews, from tributes, and from the customs of salt, and from crown taxes,

30 And from that which appertaineth unto me to receive for the third part of the seed, and the half of the fruit of the trees, I release it from this day forth, so that they shall not be taken of the land of Judea, nor of the three governments which are added thereunto out of the country of Samaria and Galilee, from this day forth for evermore.

31 Let Jerusalem also be holy and free, with the borders thereof, both from tenths and tributes.

32 And as for the tower which is at Jerusalem, I yield up my authority over it, and give it to the high priest, that he may set in it such men as he shall choose to keep it.

33 Moreover I freely set at liberty every one of the Jews, that were carried captives out of the land of Judea into any part of my kingdom, and I will that all my officers remit the tributes even of their cattle.

34 Furthermore I will that all the feasts, and sabbaths, and new moons, and solemn days, and the three days before the feast, and the three days after the feast, shall be all days of immunity and freedom for all the Jews in my realm.

35 Also no man shall have authority to meddle with them, or to molest any of them in any matter.

36 I will further, that there be enrolled among the king's forces about thirty thousand men of the Jews, unto whom pay shall be given, as belongeth to all the king's forces.

37 And of them some shall be placed in the king's strong holds, of whom also some shall be set over the affairs of the kingdom, which are of trust: and I will that their overseers and governors be of themselves, and that they [†]live after ^{+ Gr. walk.} their own laws, even as the king hath commanded in the land of Judea.

38 And concerning the three governments that are added to Judea from the country of Samaria, let them be joined with Judea, that they may be reckoned to be under one, nor bound to obey other authority than the high priest's.

39 As for Ptolemais, and the land pertaining thereto, I give it as a free gift to the sanctuary at Jerusalem for the necessary expences || of the sanctuary.

40 Moreover I give every year fifteen thousand shekels of silver out of the king's accounts from the places appertaining.

41 And all the overplus, which the officers payed not in as in former time, from henceforth shall be given toward the works of the temple.

42 And beside this, the five thousand shekels of silver, which they took from the uses of the temple out of the accounts year by year, even those things shall be released, because they appertain to the priests that minister.

43 And whosoever they be that flee unto the temple at Jerusalem, or be within the liberties thereof, being indebted unto the king, or for any other matter, let them be at liberty, and all that they have in my realm.

44 For the building also and repairing of the works of the sanctuary expences shall be given of the king's accounts.

45 Yea, and for the building of the walls of Jerusalem, and the fortifying thereof round about, expences shall be given out of the king's accounts, as also for the building of the walls in Judea.

46 Now when Jonathan and the people heard these words, they gave no credit unto them, nor received them, because they remembered the great evil that he had done in Israel; for he had afflicted them very sore.

47 But with Alexander they were well pleased, because he was the first that entreated of true peace with them, and they were confederate with him always.

cir. 150.

48 Then gathered king Alexander great forces, and camped over against Demetrius.

49 And after the two kings had joined battle, Demetrius' host fled: but Alexander followed after him, and prevailed against them.

50 And he continued the battle very sore until the sun went down: and that day was Demetrius slain.

51 Afterward Alexander sent ambassadors to Ptolemee king of Egypt with a message to this effect:

52 Forasmuch as I am come again to my realm, and am set in the throne of my progenitors, and have gotten the dominion, and overthrown Demetrius, and recovered our country;

53 For after I had joined battle with him, both he and his host was discomfited by us, so that we sit in the throne of his kingdom:

54 Now therefore let us make a league of amity together, and give me now thy daughter to wife: and I will be thy son in law, and will give both thee and her gifts according to thy dignity.

55 Then Ptolemee the king gave answer, saying, Happy be the day wherein thou didst return into the land of thy fathers, and satest in the throne of their kingdom.

56 And now will I do to thee, as thou hast written: meet me therefore at Ptolemais, that we may see one another; for I will marry my daughter to thee according to thy desire.

57 So Ptolemee went out of Egypt with his daughter Cleopatra, and they came unto Ptolemais in the hundred threescore and second year:

58 Where king Alexander meeting him, he gave unto him his daughter Cleopatra, and celebrated her marriage at Ptolemais with great glory, as the manner of kings is.

59 Now king Alexander had written unto Jonathan, that he should come and meet him.

60 Who thereupon went honourably to Ptolemais, where he met the two kings, and gave them and their friends silver and gold, and many presents, and found favour in their sight.

61 At that time certain pestilent fellows of Israel, men of a wicked life, assembled themselves against him, to accuse him: but the king would not hear them.

62 Yea more than that, the king commanded to take off his garments, and clothe him in purple: and they did so.

63 Also he made him sit by himself, and said unto his princes, Go with him into the midst of the city, and make proclamation, that no man complain against him of any matter, and that no man trouble him for any manner of cause.

|| Or, governor of a province.

66 Afterward Jonathan returned to Jerusalem with peace and gladness.

cir. 148.

67 Furthermore in the hundred three-score and fifth year came Demetrius son of Demetrius out of Crete into the land of his fathers :

68 Whereof when king Alexander heard tell, he was right sorry, and returned into Antioch.

69 Then Demetrius made Apollonius the governor of Celosyria his general, who gathered together a great host, and camped in Jamnia, and sent unto Jonathan the high priest, saying, 70 Thou alone liftest up thyself against us, and I am laughed to scorn for thy sake, and reproached : and why dost thou vaunt thy power against us in the mountains ?

71 Now therefore, if thou trustest in thine own strength, come down to us into the plain field, and there let us try the matter together : for with me is the power of the cities.

72 Ask and learn who I am, and the rest that take our part, and they shall tell thee that thy foot is not able to stand before our face ; for thy fathers have been twice put to flight in their own land.

73 Wherefore now thou shalt not be able to abide the horsemen and so great a power in the plain, where is neither stone nor flint, nor place to flee unto.

74 So when Jonathan heard these words of Apollonius, he was moved in his mind, and choosing ten thousand men he went out of Jerusalem, where Simon his brother met him for to help him.

75 And he pitched his tents against Joppe : but they of Joppe shut him out of the city, because Apollonius had a garrison there.

76 Then Jonathan laid siege unto it : whereupon they of the city let him in for fear : and so Jonathan won Joppe.

77 Whereof when Apollonius heard, he took three thousand horsemen, with a great host of footmen, and went to Azotus || as one that journeyed, and therewithal || drew him forth into the plain, because he had a great number of horsemen, in whom he put his trust.

78 Then Jonathan followed after him to Azotus, where the armies joined battle.

79 Now Apollonius had left a thousand horsemen in ambush.

80 And Jonathan knew that there was an ambushment behind him ; for they had compassed in his host, and cast darts at the people, from morning till evening.

81 But the people stood still, as Jonathan had commanded them : and so the || enemies' horses were tired.

82 Then brought Simon forth his host, and set them against the footmen, (for the horsemen were spent,) who were discomfited by him, and fled.

83 The horsemen also, being scattered in the field, fled to Azotus, and went into Beth-dagon, their idol's temple, for safety.

84 But Jonathan set fire on Azotus, and the cities round about it, and took their spoils ; and the temple of Dagon, with them that were fled into it, he burned with fire.

85 Thus there were burned and slain with the sword well nigh eight thousand men.

86 And from thence Jonathan removed his host, and camped against Ascalon, where the men of the city came forth, and met him with great pomp.

87 After this returned Jonathan and his host unto Jerusalem, having many spoils.

88 Now when king Alexander heard these things, he honoured Jonathan yet more,

89 And sent him a buckle of gold, as the use is to be given to such as are of the king's blood : he gave him also Accaron with the borders thereof in possession.

AND the king of Egypt gathered together a great host, like the sand that lieth upon the sea shore, and many ships, and went about through deceit to get Alexander's kingdom, and join it to his own.

2 Whereupon he took his journey into Syria in peaceable manner, so as they of the cities opened unto him, and met him: for king Alexander had commanded them so to do, because he was his father in law.

3 Now as Ptolemee entered into the cities, he set in every one of them a garrison of soldiers to keep it.

4 And when he came near to Azotus, they shewed him the temple of Dagon that was burnt, and Azotus and the suburbs thereof that were destroyed, and the bodies that were cast abroad, and them that he had burnt in the battle; for they had made heaps of them by the way where he should pass.

5 Also they told the king whatsoever Jonathan had done, to the intent he might blame him: but the king held his peace.

6 Then Jonathan met the king with great pomp at Joppe, where they saluted one another, and † lodged.

7 Afterward Jonathan, when he had gone with the king to the river called Eleutherus, returned again to Jerusalem.

8 King Ptolemee therefore, having gotten the dominion of the cities by the sea unto Seleucia upon the sea coast, imagined wicked counsels against Alexander.

9 Whereupon he sent ambassadors unto king Demetrius, saying, Come, let us make a league betwixt us, and I will give thee my daughter whom Alexander hath, and thou shalt reign in thy father's kingdom:

10 For I repent that I gave my daughter unto him, for he sought to slay me.

11 Thus did he slander him, because he was desirous of his kingdom.

12 Wherefore he took his daughter from him, and gave her to Demetrius, and forsook Alexander, so that their hatred was openly known.

13 Then Ptolemee entered into Antioch, where he set two crowns upon his head, the crown of Asia, and of Egypt.

14 In the mean season was king Alexander in Cilicia, because those that dwelt in those parts had revolted from him.

15 But when Alexander heard of this, he came to war against him: whereupon king Ptolemee brought forth his host, and met him with a mighty power, and put him to flight.

16 So Alexander fled into Arabia, there to be defended; but king Ptolemee was exalted:

17 For Zabdiel the Arabian took off Alexander's head, and sent it unto Ptolemee.

18 King Ptolemee also died the third day after, † and they that were in the strong holds were slain one of another.

19 By this means Demetrius reigned in the hundred threescore and seventh year.

20 At the same time Jonathan gathered together them that were in Judea, to take the tower that was in Jerusalem: and he made many engines of war against it.

21 Then certain ungodly persons, who hated their own people, went unto the king, and told him that Jonathan besieged the tower.

22 Whereof when he heard, he was angry, and immediately removing, he came to Ptolemais, and wrote unto Jonathan, that he should not lay siege to the tower, but come and speak with him at Ptolemais in great haste.

23 Nevertheless Jonathan, when he heard this, commanded to bes' ge it still: and he chose certain of the elders of Israel and the priests, and put himself in peril;

24 And took silver and gold, and raiment, and divers presents besides, and went to Ptolemais unto the king, where he found favour in his sight.

25 And ^a though certain ungodly men of the people had made complaints against him,

26 Yet the king entreated him as his predecessors had done before, and promoted him in the sight of all his friends, 27 And ^b confirmed him in the high priesthood, and in all the honours that he had before, and gave him preeminence among his chief friends.

tribute, as also the three governments, with the country of Samaria; and he promised him three hundred talents.

29 So the king consented, and wrote letters unto Jonathan of all these things after this manner:

31 We send you here a copy of the letter which we did write unto our cousin Lasthenes concerning you, that ye might see it.

36 And nothing hereof shall be revoked from this time forth for ever.

37 Now therefore see that thou make a copy of these things, and let it be delivered unto Jonathan, and set upon the holy mount in a conspicuous place.

38 After this, when king Demetrius saw that the land was quiet before him, and that no resistance was made against him, he sent away all his forces, every one to his own place, except certain bands of strangers, whom he had gathered from the isles of the heathen: wherefore all the forces of his fathers hated him.

39 Moreover there was one Tryphon, that had been of Alexander's part afore, who, seeing that all the host murmured against Demetrius, went to Simalcue the Arabian, that brought up Antiochus the young son of Alexander, 40 And lay sore upon him to deliver him this young Antiochus, that he might reign in his father's stead: he told him therefore all that Demetrius had done, and how his men of war were at enmity with him, and there he remained a long season.

41 In the mean time Jonathan sent unto king Demetrius, that he would cast those of the tower out of Jerusalem, and those also in the fortresses: for they fought against Israel.

42 So Demetrius sent unto Jonathan, saying, I will not only do this for thee and thy people, but I will greatly honour thee and thy nation, if opportunity serve.

43 Now therefore thou shalt do well, if thou send me men to help me; for all my forces are gone from me.

44 Upon this Jonathan sent him three thousand strong men unto Antioch: and when they came to the king, the king was very glad of their coming.

45 Howbeit they that were of the city gathered themselves together into the midst of the city, to the number of an hundred and twenty thousand men, and would have slain the king.

46 Wherefore the king fled into the court, but they of the city kept the passages of the city, and began to fight.

47 Then the king called to the Jews for help, who came unto him all at once, and dispersing themselves through the city slew that day in the city to the number of an hundred thousand.

48 Also they set fire on the city, and gat many spoils that day, and delivered the king.

49 So when they of the city saw that the Jews had got the city as they would, their courage was abated: wherefore they made supplication to the king, and cried, saying,

50 || Grant us peace, and let the Jews cease from assaulting us and the city.

|| Or,
Be friends with us.

51 With that they cast away their weapons, and made peace; and the Jews were honoured in the sight of the king, and in the sight of all that were in his realm; and they returned to Jerusalem, having great spoils.

52 So king Demetrius sat on the 53 Nevertheless he dissembled in all that ever he spake, and estranged himself from Jonathan, neither rewarded he him according to the benefits which he had received of him, but troubled him very sore.

cir. 144.

54 After this returned Tryphon, and with him the young child Antiochus, who reigned, and was crowned.

58 Upon this he sent him golden vessels † to be served in, and gave him leave to drink in gold, and to be clothed in purple, and to wear a golden buckle.

65 Then Simon encamped against Bethsura, and fought against it a long season, and shut it up:

66 But they desired to have peace with him, which he granted them, and then put them out from thence, and took the city, and set a garrison in it.

67 As for Jonathan and his host, they pitched at the water of Gennesar, from whence betimes in the morning they gat them to the plain of Nasor.

68 And, behold, the host of strangers met them in the plain, who, having laid men in ambush for him in the mountains, came themselves over against him.

69 So when they that lay in ambush rose out of their places, and joined battle, all that were of Jonathan's side fled;

70 Insomuch as there was not one of them left, except Mattathias the son of Absalom, and Judas the son of Calphi, the captains of the host.

71 Then Jonathan rent his clothes, and cast earth upon his head, and prayed.

72 Afterwards turning again to battle, he put them to flight, and so they ran away.

73 Now when his own men that were fled saw this, they turned again unto him, and with him pursued them to Cades, even unto their own tents, and there they camped.

74 So there were slain of the heathen that day about three thousand men: but Jonathan returned to Jerusalem.

CHAP. XII.

1 Jonathan reneweth his league with the Romans and Lacedemonians. 28 The forces of Demetrius, thinking to surprise Jonathan, flee away for fear. 35 Jonathan fortifieth the castles in Judea, 48 and is shut up by the fraud of Tryphon in Ptolemais.

NOW when Jonathan saw that the time served him, he chose certain men, and sent them to Rome, *for to confirm and renew the friendship that they had with them.

* ch. 8. 1, 20.

2 He sent letters also to the Lacedemonians, and to other places, for the same purpose.

4 Upon this the Romans gave them letters unto the governors of every place, that they should bring them into the land of Judea peaceably.

9 Therefore we also, albeit we need none of these things, for that we have the holy books of scripture in our hands to comfort us,

10 Have nevertheless attempted to send unto you for the renewing of brotherhood and friendship, lest we should become strangers unto you altogether: for there is a long time passed since ye sent unto us.

11 We therefore at all times without ceasing, both in our feasts, and other convenient days, do remember you in the sacrifices which we offer, and in our prayers, as reason is, and as it becometh us to think upon our brethren:

12 And we are right glad of your honour.

13 As for ourselves, we have had great troubles and wars on every side, forso-much as the kings that are round about us have fought against us.

14 Howbeit we would not be troublesome unto you, nor to others of our confederates and friends, in these wars:

15 For we have help from heaven that succoureth us, so as we are delivered from our enemies, and our enemies are brought under foot.

16 For this cause we chose Numenius the son of Antiochus, and Antipater the son of Jason, and sent them unto the Romans, to renew the amity that we had with them, and the former league.

17 We commanded them also to go unto you, and to salute you, and to deliver you our letters concerning the renewing of our brotherhood.

deans, and smote them, and took their spoils.

32 And removing thence, he came to Damascus, and so passed through all the country.

33 Simon also went forth, and passed through the country unto Ascalon, and the holds there adjoining, from whence he turned aside to Joppe, and won it.

34 For he had heard that they would deliver the hold unto them that took Demetrius' part; wherefore he set a garrison there to keep it.

35 After this came Jonathan home again, and calling the elders of the people together, he consulted with them about building strong holds in Judea, 36 And making the walls of Jerusalem higher, and raising a great mount between the tower and the city, for to separate it from the city, that so it might be alone, that men might neither sell nor buy in it.

37 Upon this they came together to build up the city, || forasmuch as part of the wall toward the brook on the east side was fallen down, and they repaired that which was called Caphenatha.

38 Simon also set up Adida in Sephela, and made it strong with gates and bars.

39 Now Tryphon went about to get the kingdom of Asia, and to kill Antiochus the king, that he might set the crown upon his own head.

40 Howbeit he was afraid that Jonathan would not suffer him, and that he would fight against him; wherefore he sought a way how to take Jonathan, that he might kill him. So he removed, and came to Bethsan.

41 Then Jonathan went out to meet him with forty thousand men chosen for the battle, and came to Bethsan.

42 Now when Tryphon saw that Jonathan came with so great a force, he durst not stretch his hand against him;

43 But received him honourably, and commended him unto all his friends, and gave him gifts, and commanded his men of war to be as obedient unto him, as to himself.

44 Unto Jonathan also he said, Why hast thou put all this people to so great trouble, seeing there is no war betwixt us?

46 So Jonathan believing him did as he bade him, and sent away his host, who went into the land of Judea.

47 And with himself he retained but three thousand men, of whom he † sent two thousand into Galilee, and one thousand went with him.

48 Now as soon as Jonathan entered into Ptolemais, they of Ptolemais shut the gates, and took him, and all them that came with him they slew with the sword.

49 Then sent Tryphon an host of footmen and horsemen into Galilee, and into the great plain, to destroy all Jonathan's company.

50 But when they knew that Jonathan and they that were with him were taken and slain, they encouraged one another, and went close together, prepared to fight.

51 They therefore that followed upon them, perceiving that they were ready to fight for their lives, turned back again.

52 Whereupon they all came into the land of Judea peaceably, and there they bewailed Jonathan, and them that were with him, and they were sore afraid; wherefore all Israel made great lamentation.

53 Then all the heathen that were round about them sought to destroy them: for said they, They have no captain, nor any to help them: now therefore let us make war upon them, and take away their memorial from among men.

2 And saw that the people was in great trembling and fear, he went up to Jerusalem, and gathered the people together,

3 And gave them exhortation, saying, Ye yourselves know what great things I, and my brethren, and my father's house, have done for the laws and the sanctuary, the battles also and troubles which we have seen,

4 By reason whereof all my brethren are slain for Israel's sake, and I am left alone.

5 Now therefore be it far from me, that I should spare mine own life in any time of trouble: for I am no better than my brethren.

6 Doubtless I will avenge my nation, and the sanctuary, and our wives, and our children: for all the heathen are gathered to destroy us of very malice.

7 Now as soon as the people heard these words, their spirit revived.

8 And they answered with a loud voice, saying, Thou shalt be our leader instead of Judas and Jonathan thy brother.

9 Fight thou our battles, and whatsoever thou commandest us, that will we do.

10 So then he gathered together all the men of war, and made haste ^a to finish the walls of Jerusalem, and he fortified it round about.

^a See ch. 12.

11 Also he sent Jonathan the son of Absalom, and with him a great power, to Joppe: who casting out them that were therein remained there in it.

12 So Tryphon removed from Ptolemais with a great power to invade the land of Judea, and Jonathan was with him in ward.

13 But Simon pitched his tents at Adida, over against the plain.

14 Now when Tryphon knew that Simon was risen up instead of his brother Jonathan, and meant to join battle with him, he sent messengers unto him, saying,

15 Whereas we have Jonathan thy brother in hold, it is for money that he is owing unto the king's treasure, ^{||} concerning the business that was committed unto him.

^{||} Or, for the affairs, or, offices, that he had, or, the necessary uses which he had.

16 Wherefore now send an hundred talents of silver, and two of his sons for hostages, that when he is at liberty

17 Hereupon Simon, albeit he perceived that they spake deceitfully unto him, yet sent he the money and the children, lest peradventure he should procure to himself great hatred of the people:

18 Who might have said, Because I sent him not the money and the children, therefore is Jonathan dead.

19 So he sent them the children and the hundred talents: howbeit Tryphon dissembled, neither would he let Jonathan go.

20 And after this came Tryphon to invade the land, and destroy it, going round about by the way that leadeth unto Adora: but Simon and his host marched against him in every place, wheresoever he went.

21 Now they that were in the tower sent messengers unto Tryphon, to the end that he should hasten his coming unto them by the wilderness, and send them victuals.

22 Wherefore Tryphon made ready all his horsemen to come that night: but there fell a very great snow, by reason whereof he came not. So he departed, and came into the country of Galaad.

23 And when he came near to Bas-cama, he slew Jonathan, who was buried there.

24 Afterward Tryphon returned and went into his own land.

25 Then sent Simon, and took the bones of Jonathan his brother, and buried them in Modin, the city of his fathers.

27 Simon also built a monument upon the sepulchre of his father and his brethren, and raised it aloft to the sight, with hewn stone behind and before.

28 Moreover he set up seven pyramids, one against another, for his father, and his mother, and his four brethren.

30 This is the sepulchre which he made at Modin, and it standeth yet unto this day.

31 Now Tryphon dealt deceitfully with the young king Antiochus, and slew him.

32 And he reigned in his stead, and crowned himself king of Asia, and brought a great calamity upon the land.

33 Then Simon built up the strong holds in Judea, and fenced them about with high towers, and great walls, and gates, and bars, and laid up victuals [†] therein.

† Gr. in the strong holds.

34 Moreover Simon chose men, and sent to king Demetrius, to the end he should give the land an immunity, because [†] all that Tryphon did was to spoil.

† Gr. all Tryphon's doings were robberies.

35 Unto whom king Demetrius answered and wrote after this manner:

36 King Demetrius unto Simon the high priest, and friend of kings, as also unto the elders and nation of the Jews, sendeth greeting:

37 The golden crown, and the scarlet robe, which ye sent unto us, we have received: and we are ready to make a stedfast peace with you, yea, and to write unto our officers, to confirm the immunities which we have granted.

38 And whatsoever covenants we have made with you shall stand; and the strong holds, which ye have builded, shall be your own.

39 As for any oversight or fault committed unto this day, we forgive it, and the crown tax also, which ye owe us: and if there were any other tribute paid in Jerusalem, it shall no more be paid.

40 And look who are meet among you to be in our court, let them be enrolled, and let there be peace betwixt us.

41 Thus the yoke of the heathen was taken away from Israel in the hundred and seventieth year.

42 Then the people of Israel began ^{ch. 14: 27.} to write in their instruments and contracts, In the first year of Simon the high priest, the governor and leader of the Jews.

43 In those days Simon camped against

44 And they that were in the engine leaped into the city; whereupon there was a great uproar in the city:

45 Insomuch as the people of the city rent their clothes, and climbed upon the walls with their wives and children, and cried with a loud voice, beseeching Simon [†] to grant them peace.

† Gr. to give them his right hand.

46 And they said, Deal not with us according to our wickedness, but according to thy mercy.

47 So Simon was appeased toward them, and fought no more against them, but put them out of the city, and cleansed the houses wherein the idols were, and so entered into it with songs and thanksgiving.

48 Yea, he put all uncleanness out of it, and placed such men there as would keep the law, and made it stronger than it was before, and built therein a dwellingplace for himself.

49 They also of the tower in Jerusalem were kept so strait, that they could neither come forth, nor go into the country, nor buy, nor sell: wherefore they were in great distress for want of victuals, and a great number of them perished through famine.

50 Then cried they to Simon, beseeching him ^{||} to be at one with them: which thing he granted them; and when he had put them out from thence, he cleansed the tower from pollutions:

51 And entered into it the three and twentieth day of the second month, in the hundred seventy and first year, with thanksgiving, and branches of palm trees, and with harps, and cymbals, and with viols, and hymns, and songs: because there was destroyed a great enemy out of Israel.

52 He ordained also that that day should be kept every year with gladness. Moreover the hill of the temple that was by the tower he made stronger than it was, and there he dwelt himself with his company.

53 And when Simon saw that John his son was a valiant man, he made him captain of all the hosts; and ^d he ^d dwelt in Gazara. ^{ch. 16. 1.}

3 Demetrius is taken by the king of Persia. 4 The good deeds of Simon to his country. 18 The Lacedemonians and Romans renew their league with him. 26 A memorial of his acts is set up in Sion.

NOW in the hundred threescore and twelfth year king Demetrius gathered his forces together, and went into Media, to get him help to fight against Tryphon.

2 But when Arsaces, the king of Persia and Media, heard that Demetrius was entered within his borders, he sent one of his princes to take him alive:

4 As for the land of Judea, ^a that was quiet all the days of Simon; for he sought the good of his nation in such wise, as that evermore his authority and honour pleased them well.

6 And enlarged the bounds of his nation, and recovered the country,

7 And gathered together a great number of captives, and had the dominion of Gazara, and Bethsura, and the tower, out of the which he took all uncleanness, neither was there any that resisted him.

8 Then did they till their ground in peace, and the earth gave her increase, and the trees of the field their fruit.

15 He beautified the sanctuary, and multiplied the vessels of the temple.

16 Now when it was heard at Rome, and as far as Sparta, that Jonathan was dead, they were very sorry.

17 But as soon as they heard that his brother Simon was made high priest in his stead, and ruled the country, and the cities therein:

18 They wrote unto him in tables of brass, to renew the friendship and league which they had made with Judas and Jonathan his brethren:

19 Which writings were read before the congregation at Jerusalem.

20 And this is the copy of the letters that the Lacedemonians sent; The rulers of the Lacedemonians, with the city, unto ^c Simon the high priest, and the elders, and priests, and residue of the people of the Jews, our brethren, send greeting:

^c See ch. 12. 6.

21 The ambassadors that were sent unto our people certified us of your glory and honour: wherefore we were glad of their coming,

22 And did register the things that they spake in the ^{||} council of the people in this manner; Numenius son of Antiochus, and Antipater son of Jason, the Jews' ambassadors, came unto us to renew the friendship they had with us.

^{||} Or, public records.

23 And it pleased the people to entertain the men honourably, and to put the copy of their ambassage in publick records, to the end the people of the Lacedemonians might have a memorial thereof: furthermore we have written a copy thereof unto Simon the high priest.

24 After this Simon sent Numenius to Rome with a great shield of gold of a thousand pound weight, to confirm the league with them.

25 Whereof when the people heard, they said, What thanks shall we give to Simon and his sons?

26 For he and his brethren and the house of his father have established Israel, and chased away in fight their enemies from them, and confirmed their liberty.

27 So then they wrote it in tables of brass, which they set upon pillars in mount Sion: and this is the copy of the writing; The eighteenth day of the month Elul, in the hundred threescore and twelfth year, being the third year of Simon the high priest,

|| Or, Jerusalem, peradventure by corruption and transposition of letters; or, as some think, the common hall where they met to consult of matters of estate.

28 At || Saramel in the great congregation of the priests, and people, and rulers of the nation, and elders of the country, were these things notified unto us.

29 Forasmuch as oftentimes there have been wars in the country, wherein for the maintenance of their sanctuary, and the law, Simon the son of Mattathias, of the posterity of Jarib, together with his brethren, put themselves in jeopardy, and resisting the enemies of their nation did their nation great honour:

30 (For after that Jonathan, having gathered his nation together, and been their high priest, was added to his people,

31 Their enemies purposed to invade their country, that they might destroy it, and lay hands on the sanctuary:

|| Or, the men of war.

32 At which time Simon rose up, and fought for his nation, and spent much of his own substance, and armed || the valiant men of his nation, and gave them wages,

|| Or, weapons.

33 And fortified the cities of Judea, together with Bethsura, that lieth upon the borders of Judea, where the || armour of the enemies had been before; but he set a garrison of Jews there:

|| Or, Gaza.

34 Moreover he fortified Joppe, which lieth upon the sea, and || Gazara, that bordereth upon Azotus, where the enemies had dwelt before: but he placed Jews there, and furnished them with all things convenient for the reparation thereof.)

35 The people therefore, seeing the acts of Simon, and unto what glory he thought to bring his nation, made him their governor and chief priest, because he had done all these things, and for the justice and faith which he kept to his nation, and for that he sought by all means to exalt his people.

36 For in his time things prospered in his hands, so that the heathen were taken out of their country, and they also that were in the city of David in

Jerusalem, who had made themselves a tower, out of which they issued, and polluted all about the sanctuary, and did much hurt || in the holy place:

37 But he placed Jews therein, and fortified it for the safety of the country and the city, and raised up the walls of Jerusalem.

38 King Demetrius also ^d confirmed him in the high priesthood according to those things, ^{d ch. 10. 20. & 11. 57.}

39 And made him one of his friends, and honoured him with great honour.

40 For he had heard say, that ^e the Romans had called the Jews their friends and confederates and brethren; and that they had entertained the ambassadors of Simon honourably; ^{e ch. 8. 20. & 12. 3.}

41 Also that the Jews and priests were well pleased that Simon should be their governor and high priest for ever, ^f until there should arise a faithful prophet; ^{f ch. 4. 46.}

42 Moreover that he should be their captain, and should take charge of the sanctuary, to set them over their works, and over the country, and over the armour, and over the fortresses, that, I say, he should take charge of the sanctuary;

43 Beside this, that he should be obeyed of every man, and that all the writings in the country should be made in his name, and that ^g he should be clothed in purple, and wear gold; ^{g ch. 10. 20, 89. & 11. 58.}

44 Also that it should be lawful for none of the people or priests to break any of these things, or to gainsay his words, or to gather an assembly in the country without him, or to be clothed in purple, or wear a buckle of gold:

45 And whosoever should do otherwise, or break any of these things, he should be punished.

46 Thus it liked all the people to deal with Simon, and to do as hath been said.

47 Then Simon accepted hereof, and was well pleased to be high priest, and captain and governor of the Jews and priests, and to defend them all.

48 So they commanded that this writing should be put in tables of brass, and that they should be set up within the compass of the sanctuary in a conspicuous place;

49 Also that the copies thereof should be laid up in the treasury, to the end that Simon and his sons might have them.

4 Antiochus desireth leave to pass through Judea, and granteth great honours to Simon and the Jews. 16 The Romans write to divers kings and nations to favour the Jews. 27 Antiochus quarrelleth with Simon, 38 and sendeth some to annoy Judea.

cir. 140.

MOREOVER Antiochus son of Demetrius the king sent letters from the isles of the sea unto Simon the priest and prince of the Jews, and to all the people;

2 The contents whereof were these: King Antiochus to Simon the high priest and prince of his nation, and to the people of the Jews, greeting:

3 Forasmuch as certain pestilent men have usurped the kingdom of our fathers, and my purpose is to challenge it again, that I may restore it to the old estate, and to that end have gathered a multitude of foreign soldiers together, and prepared ships of war;

4 My meaning also being to go through the country, that I may be avenged of them that have destroyed it, and made many cities in the kingdom desolate:

5 Now therefore I confirm unto thee all the oblations which the kings before me granted thee, and whatsoever gifts besides they granted.

6 I give thee leave also to coin money for thy country with thine own stamp.

7 And as concerning Jerusalem and the sanctuary, let them be free; and all the armour that thou hast made, and fortresses that thou hast built, and keepest in thine hands, let them remain unto thee.

8 And if any thing be, or shall be, owing to the king, let it be forgiven thee from this time forth for evermore.

9 Furthermore, when we have obtained our kingdom, we will honour thee, and thy nation, and thy temple, with great honour, so that your honour shall be known throughout the world.

cir. 139.

10 In the hundred threescore and fourteenth year went Antiochus into the land of his fathers: at which time all the forces came together unto him, so that few were left with Tryphon.

11 Wherefore being pursued by king

Antiochus, he fled unto Dora, which lieth by the sea side:

12 For he saw that troubles came upon him all at once, and that his forces had forsaken him.

13 Then camped Antiochus against Dora, having with him an hundred and twenty thousand men of war, and eight thousand horsemen.

14 And when he had compassed the city round about, and joined ships close to the town on the sea side, he vexed the city by land and by sea, neither suffered he any to go out or in.

15 In the mean season came Nume-nius and his company from Rome, having letters to the kings and countries; wherein were written these things:

16 Lucius, consul of the Romans unto king Ptolemee, greeting:

17 The Jews' ambassadors, our friends and confederates, came unto us to renew the old friendship and league, being sent from Simon the high priest, and from the people of the Jews:

18 ^a And they brought a shield of gold ^{a ch. 14. 24.} of a thousand pound.

19 We thought it good therefore to write unto the kings and countries, that they should do them no harm, nor fight against them, their cities, or countries, nor yet aid their enemies against them.

20 It seemed also good to us to receive the shield of them.

21 If therefore there be any pestilent fellows, that have fled from their country unto you, deliver them unto Simon the high priest, that he may punish them according to their own law.

22 The same things wrote he likewise unto Demetrius the king, and Attalus, to ^{||} Ariarathes, and Arsaces,

^{||} Or,

23 And to all the countries, and to ^{||} Samp-sames, and the Lacedemonians, and to Delus, and Myndus, and Sicyon, and Caria, and Samos, and Pamphylia, and Lycia, and Halicarnassus, and Rhodus, and ^{||} Phaselis, and Cos, and Side, and Aradus, and Gortyna, and Cnidus, and Cyprus, and Cyrene.

^{||} Or, Samp-saces. Lat. Lampsacus.

24 And the copy hereof they wrote to Simon the high priest.

25 So Antiochus the king camped against Dora the second day, [†] assault-^{+ Gr. bringing his forces to it.} ing it continually, and making engines, by which means he shut up Tryphon, that he could neither go out nor in.

26 At that time Simon sent him two thousand chosen men to aid him; silver also, and gold, and much armour.

27 Nevertheless he would not receive them, but brake all the covenants which he had made with him afore, and became strange unto him.

28 Furthermore he sent unto him Athenobius, one of his friends, to commune with him, and say, Ye withhold Joppe and Gazara, with the tower that is in Jerusalem, which are cities of my realm.

29 The borders thereof ye have wasted, and done great hurt in the land, and got the dominion of many places within my kingdom.

30 Now therefore deliver the cities which ye have taken, and the tributes of the places, whereof ye have gotten dominion || without the borders of Judea :

|| Or, except the borders, &c.

31 Or else give me for them five hundred talents of silver; and for the harm that ye have done, and the tributes of the cities, other five hundred talents: if not, we will come and || fight against you.

|| Or, subdue you in fight.

32 So Athenobius the king's friend came to Jerusalem: and when he saw the glory of Simon, and the cupboard of gold and silver plate, and his great attendance, he was astonished, and told him the king's message.

33 Then answered Simon, and said unto him, We have neither taken other men's land, nor holden that which appertaineth to others, but the inheritance of our fathers, which our enemies had wrongfully in possession a certain time.

34 Wherefore we, having opportunity, hold the inheritance of our fathers.

35 And whereas thou demandest Joppe and Gazara, albeit they did great harm unto the people in our country, yet will we give an hundred talents for them. Hereunto Athenobius answered him not a word;

36 But returned in a rage to the king, and made report unto him of these speeches, and of the glory of Simon, and of all that he had seen: whereupon the king was exceeding wroth.

37 In the mean time fled Tryphon by ship unto Orthosias.

38 Then the king made Cendebeus captain of the sea coast, and gave him an host of footmen and horsemen,

39 And commanded him to remove his host toward Judea: also he commanded him to build up || Cedron, and to fortify the gates, and to war against the people; but as for the king himself, he pursued Tryphon.

40 So Cendebeus came to Jamnia, and began to provoke the people, and to invade Judea, and to take the people prisoners, and slay them.

3 Judas and John prevail against the forces sent by Antiochus. 11 The captain of Jericho inviteth Simon and two of his sons into his castle, and there treacherously murdereth them. 19 John is sought for, 22 and escaped, and killeth those that sought for him.

THEN came up John ^a from Gazara, and told Simon his father what Cendebeus had done.

^a ch. 13. 53.

2 Wherefore Simon called his two eldest sons, Judas and John, and said unto them, ^bI, and my brethren, and my father's house, have ever from our youth unto this day fought against the enemies of Israel; and ^cthings have prospered so well in our hands, that we have delivered Israel oftentimes.

^c ch. 3. 6.
& 14. 36.

3 But now I am old, and ye, by God's mercy, are of a sufficient age: be ye instead of me and my brother, and go and fight for our nation, and the help from heaven be with you.

4 So he chose out of the country twenty thousand men of war with horsemen, who went out against Cendebeus, and rested that night at Modin.

5 And when as they rose in the morning, and went into the plain, behold, a mighty great host both of footmen and horsemen came against them: howbeit there was a water brook betwixt them.

6 So he and his people pitched over against them: and when he saw that the people were afraid to go over the water brook, he went first over himself, and then the men seeing him passed through after him.

7 That done, he divided his men, and set the horsemen in the midst of the footmen: for the enemies' horsemen were very many.

8 Then sounded they with the holy trumpets: whereupon Cendebeus and his host were put to flight, so that many of them were slain, and the remnant gat them to the strong hold.

9 At that time was Judas John's brother wounded; but John still followed after them, until he came to Cedron, which Cendebeus had built.

cir. 135.

10 || So they fled even unto the towers in the fields of Azotus; wherefore he burned it with fire: so that there were slain of them about two thousand men. Afterward he returned into the land of Judea in peace.

11 Moreover in the plain of Jericho was Ptolemeus the son of Abubus made captain, and he had abundance of silver and gold:

12 For he was the high priest's son in law.

13 Wherefore his heart being lifted up, he thought to get the country to himself, and thereupon consulted deceitfully against Simon and his sons to destroy them.

14 Now Simon was visiting the cities that were in the country, and taking care for the good ordering of them; at which time he came down himself to Jericho with his sons, Mattathias and Judas, in the hundred threescore and seventeenth year, in the eleventh month, called Sabat:

15 Where the son of Abubus receiving them deceitfully into a little hold, called Docus, which he had built, made them a great banquet: howbeit he had hid men there.

16 So when Simon and his sons had drunk largely, Ptolemee and his men rose up, and took their weapons, and came upon Simon into the banqueting place, and slew him, and his two sons, and certain of his servants.

17 In which doing he committed a great treachery, and recompensed evil for good.

18 Then Ptolemee wrote these things, and sent to the king, that he should send him an host to aid him, and he would deliver him the country and cities.

19 He sent others also to Gazara to kill John: and unto the † tribunes he sent letters to come unto him, that he might give them silver, and gold, and rewards.

thousands.

20 And others he sent to take Jerusalem, and the mountain of the temple.

21 Now one had run afore to Gazara, and told John that his father and brethren were slain, and, quoith he, Ptolemee hath sent to slay thee also.

22 Hereof when he heard, he was sore astonished: so he laid hands on them that were come to destroy him, and slew them; for he knew that they sought to make him away.

23 As concerning the rest of the acts of John, and his wars, and worthy deeds which he did, and the building of the walls which he made, and his doings, 24 Behold, these are written in the chronicles of his priesthood, from the time he was made high priest after his father.

CHAP. I.

1 A letter of the Jews from Jerusalem to them of Egypt, to thank God for the death of Antiochus. 19 Of the fire that was hid in the pit. 24 The prayer of Neemias.

cir. 144.

THE brethren, the Jews that be at Jerusalem and in the land of Judea, wish unto the brethren, the Jews that are throughout Egypt, health and peace:

2 God be gracious unto you, and remember his covenant that he made with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, his faithful servants;

3 And give you all an heart to serve him, and to do his will, with a good courage and a willing mind;

4 And open your hearts in his law and commandments, and send you peace,

5 And hear your prayers, and be at one with you, and never forsake you in time of trouble.

6 And now we be here praying for you.

cir. 144.

7 What time as Demetrius reigned, in the hundred threescore and ninth year, we the Jews wrote unto you in the extremity of trouble that came upon us in those years, from the time that Jason and his company revolted from the holy land and kingdom,

a ch. 4. 7.

8 And burned the porch, and shed innocent blood: then we prayed unto the Lord, and were heard; we offered also sacrifices and fine flour, and lighted the lamps, and set forth the loaves.

b Lev. 23. 34.

9 And now see that ye keep the feast of ^b tabernacles in the month Casleu.

10 In the hundred fourscore and eighth year, the people that were at Jerusalem and in Judea, and the council, and Judas, sent greeting and health unto Aristobulus, king Ptolemeus' master, who was of the stock of the anointed priests, and to the Jews that were in Egypt:

11 Insomuch as God hath delivered us from great perils, we thank him highly, as having been in battle against a king.

12 For he cast them out that fought within the holy city.

13 For when the leader was come into Persia, and the army with him that seemed invincible, they were slain in the temple of Nanea by the deceit of Nanea's priests.

14 For Antiochus, as though he would marry her, came into the place, and his friends that were with him, to receive money in name of a dowry.

15 Which when the priests of Nanea had set forth, and he was entered with a small company into the compass of the temple, they shut the temple as soon as Antiochus was come in:

16 And opening a privy door of the roof, they threw stones like thunderbolts, and struck down the captain, hewed them in pieces, smote off their heads, and cast them to those that were without.

17 Blessed be our God in all things, who hath delivered up the ungodly.

18 Therefore whereas we are now purposed ^c to keep the purification of the temple upon the five and twentieth day of the month ^d Casleu, we thought it necessary to certify you thereof, that ye also might keep it, as the feast of the tabernacles, and of the fire, which was given us when Neemias offered sacrifice, after that he had builded the temple and the altar.

19 For when our fathers were led into Persia, the priests that were then devout took the fire of the altar privily, and hid it in an hollow place of a pit without water, where they kept it sure, so that the place was unknown to all men.

20 Now after many years, when it pleased God, Neemias, being sent from the king of Persia, did send of the posterity of those priests that had hid it to the fire: but when they told us they found no fire, but thick water;

21 Then commanded he them to draw it up, and to bring it; and when the sacrifices were laid on, Neemias commanded the priests to sprinkle the wood and the things laid thereupon with the water.

22 When this was done, and the time came that the sun shone, which afore was hid in the cloud, there was a great fire kindled, so that every man marvelled.

23 And the priests made a prayer whilst the sacrifice was consuming, I say, both the priests, and all the rest, Jonathan beginning, and the rest answering thereunto, as Neemias did.

24 And the prayer was after this manner; O Lord, Lord God, Creator of all things, who art fearful and strong, and righteous, and merciful, and the only and gracious King,

25 The only giver of all things, the only just, almighty, and everlasting, thou that deliverest Israel from all trouble, and didst choose the fathers, and sanctify them:

26 Receive the sacrifice for thy whole people Israel, and preserve thine own portion, and sanctify it.

27 Gather those together that are scattered from us, deliver them that serve among the heathen, look upon them that are despised and abhorred, and let the heathen know that thou art our God.

28 Punish them that oppress us, and with pride do us wrong.

29 Plant thy people again in thy holy place, ^aas Moses hath spoken.

30 And the priests sung psalms of thanksgiving.

31 Now when the sacrifice was consumed, Neemias commanded the water that was left to be poured on the great stones.

32 When this was done, there was kindled a flame: but it was consumed by the light that shined from the altar.

33 So when this matter was known, it was told the king of Persia, that in the place, where the priests that were led away had hid the fire, there appeared water, and that ^{||}Neemias had purified the sacrifices therewith.

^{||} Or, Neemias his company.

34 Then the king, inclosing the place, made it holy, after he had tried the matter.

35 And the king took many gifts, and bestowed thereof on those whom he would gratify.

36 And Neemias called this thing Naphthar, which is as much as to say, a cleansing: but many men call it Nephi.

CHAP. II.

¹ What Jeremy the prophet did. ⁵ How he hid the tabernacle, the ark, and the altar. ¹³ What Neemias and Judas wrote. ²⁰ What Jason wrote in five books: ²⁵ and how those were abridged by the author of this book.

IT is also found in the records, that Jeremy the prophet commanded them that were carried away to take of the fire, ^aas it hath been signified:

^a ch. 1. 19.

2 And how that the prophet, having given them the law, charged them not to forget the commandments of the Lord, and that they should not err in their minds, ^bwhen they see images of silver and gold, with their ornaments.

^b Bar. 6. 4.

3 And with other such speeches exhorted he them, that the law should not depart from their hearts.

4 It was also contained in the same writing, that the prophet, being warned of God, commanded the tabernacle and the ark to go with him, as he went forth into ^cthe mountain, where Moses climbed up, and saw the heritage of God.

^c Deut. 32. 49.

5 And when Jeremy came thither, he found an hollow cave, wherein he laid the tabernacle, and the ark, and the altar of incense, and so stopped the door.

6 And some of those that followed him came to mark the way, but they could not find it.

7 Which when Jeremy perceived, he blamed them, saying, As for that place, it shall be unknown until the time that God gather his people again together, and receive them unto mercy.

^d Ex. 34. 5. ^e 1 Kings 8. 10. 8 Then shall the Lord shew them these things, and the glory of the Lord shall appear, and the cloud also, ^d as it was shewed under Moses, and ^e as when Solomon desired that the place might be honourably sanctified.

^f 1 Kings 8. 62, &c. 9 It was also declared, that he being wise ^f offered the sacrifice of dedication, and of the finishing of the temple.

^g Lev. 9. 23, 24. ^h 2 Chron. 7. 1. 10 And ^g as when Moses prayed unto the Lord, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the sacrifices: even ^h so prayed Solomon also, and the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offerings.

ⁱ Lev. 10. 16, &c. 11 And ⁱ Moses said, Because the sin offering was not to be eaten, it was consumed.

12 So Solomon kept those eight days.

13 The same things also were reported in the writings and commentaries of Neemias; and how he founding a library gathered together the acts of the kings, and the prophets, and of David, and the epistles of the kings concerning the holy gifts.

^{||} Or, fell out during the war. 14 In like manner also Judas gathered together all those things that ^{||} were lost by reason of the war we had, and they remain with us.

15 Wherefore if ye have need thereof, send some to fetch them unto you.

^k ch. 1. 18. 16 Whereas we then ^k are about to celebrate the purification, we have written unto you, and ye shall do well, if ye keep the same days.

[†] Gr. Now God it is that saved all his people, and rendered the heritage, and the kingdom, and the priesthood, and the sanctuary, as he promised in the law: for we hope in God that he will shortly, &c. 17 [†] We hope also, that the God, that delivered all his people, and gave them all an heritage, and the kingdom, and the priesthood, and the sanctuary, [†] ch. 1. 29. 18 [†] As he promised in the law, will shortly have mercy upon us, and gather us together out of every land under heaven into the holy place: for he hath delivered us out of great troubles, and hath purified the place.

19 Now as concerning Judas Maccabeus, and his brethren, and the purification of the great temple, and the dedication of the altar,

^m ch. 3. 24. & 5. 2. & 10. 29. & 11. 8. & 15. 12. 20 And the wars against Antiochus Epiphanes, and Eupator his son,

21 And ^m the manifest signs that came from heaven unto those that behaved themselves manfully to their honour for Judaism: so that, being but a few, they overcame the whole country, and chased barbarous multitudes,

22 And recovered again the temple renowned all the world over, and freed the city, and upheld the laws which were going down, the Lord being gracious unto them with all favour:

23 All these things, I say, being declared by Jason of Cyrene in five books, we will assay to abridge in one volume.

24 For considering the infinite number, and the difficulty which they find that desire to look into the narrations of the story, for the variety of the matter,

25 We have been careful, that they that will read may have delight, and that they that are desirous to commit to memory might have ease, and that all into whose hands it comes might have profit.

26 Therefore to us, that have taken upon us this painful labour of abridging, it was not easy, but a matter of sweat and watching;

27 Even as it is no ease unto him that prepareth a banquet, and seeketh the benefit of others: yet ^{||} for the pleasuring of many we will undertake gladly this great pains;

^{||} Or, to deserve well of many.

28 Leaving to the author the exact handling of every particular, and labouring to follow the rules of an abridgement.

29 For as the master builder of a new house must care for the whole building; but he that undertaketh to set it out, and paint it, must seek out fit things for the adorning thereof: even so I think it is with us.

30 To stand upon every point, and go over things at large, and to be curious in particulars, belongeth to the first author of the story:

31 But to use brevity, and avoid much labouring of the work, is to be granted to him that will make an abridgement.

32 Here then will we begin the story: only adding thus much to that which hath been said, that it is a foolish thing to make a long prologue, and to be short in the story itself.

CHAP. III.

1 Of the honour done to the temple by the kings of the Gentiles. 4 Simon uttereth what treasures are in the temple. 7 Heliodorus is sent to take them away. 24 He is stricken of God, and healed at the prayer of Onias.

NOW when the holy city was inhabited with all peace, and the laws were kept very well, because of the godliness of Onias the high priest, and his hatred of wickedness,

2 It came to pass that even the kings themselves did honour the place, and magnify the temple with their best gifts;

3 Inasmuch that Seleucus king of Asia of his own revenues bare all the costs belonging to the service of the sacrifices.

4 But one Simon of the tribe of Benjamin, who was made governor of the temple, fell out with the high priest about disorder in the city.

5 And when he could not overcome Onias, he gat him to Apollonius the son of Thraseas, who then was governor of Celosyria and Phenice,

6 And told him that the treasury in Jerusalem was full of infinite sums of money, so that the multitude of their riches, which did not pertain to the account of the sacrifices, was innumerable, and that it was possible to bring all into the king's hand.

7 Now when Apollonius came to the king, and had shewed him of the money whereof he was told, the king chose out Heliodorus his treasurer, and sent him with a commandment to bring him the foresaid money.

8 So forthwith Heliodorus took his journey, under a colour of visiting the cities of Celosyria and Phenice, but indeed to fulfil the king's purpose.

9 And when he was come to Jerusalem, and had been courteously received of the high priest of the city, he told him what intelligence was given of the money, and declared wherefore he came, and asked if these things were so indeed.

10 Then the high priest told him that there was such money laid up for the relief of widows and fatherless children:

11 And that some of it belonged to Hircanus son of Tobias, a man of great dignity, and not as that wicked Simon had misinformed: the sum whereof in all was four hundred talents of silver, and two hundred of gold:

12 And that it was altogether impossible that such wrongs should be done unto them, that had committed it to the holiness of the place, and to the majesty and inviolable sanctity of the temple, honoured over all the world.

13 But Heliodorus, because of the king's commandment given him, said, That in any wise it must be brought into the king's treasury.

14 So at the day which he appointed he entered in to order this matter: wherefore there was no small agony throughout the whole city.

15 But the priests, prostrating themselves before the altar in their priests' vestments, called unto heaven upon him that ^amade a law concerning things given to be kept, that they should safely ^{&c.} be preserved for such as had committed them to be kept. ^{a Ex. 22. 7.}

16 Then whoso had looked the high priest in the face, it would have wounded his heart: for his countenance and the changing of his colour declared the inward agony of his mind.

17 For the man was so compassed with fear and horror of the body, that it was manifest to them that looked upon him, what sorrow he had now in his heart.

18 Others ran flocking out of their houses ^{||} to the general supplication, because the place was like to come into contempt. ^{|| Or, to make general supplication.}

19 And the women, girt with sackcloth under their breasts, abounded in the streets, and the virgins that were kept in ran, some to the gates, and some to the walls, and others looked out of the windows.

20 And all, holding their hands toward heaven, made supplication.

21 Then it would have pitied a man to see the falling down of the multitude of all sorts, and the [†] fear of the high priest, being in such an agony. ^{† Gr. expectation.}

22 They then called upon the Almighty Lord to keep the things committed of trust safe and sure for those that had committed them.

23 Nevertheless Heliodorus executed that which was decreed.

|| Or,
Lord of our fathers.

24 Now as he was there present himself with his guard about the treasury, the || Lord of spirits, and the Prince of all power, caused a great apparition, so that all that presumed to come in with him were astonished at the power of God, and fainted, and were sore afraid.

25 For there appeared unto them an horse with a terrible rider upon him, and adorned with a very fair covering, and he ran fiercely, and smote at Heliodorus with his forefeet, and it seemed that he that sat upon the horse had complete harness of gold.

26 Moreover two other young men appeared before him, notable in strength, excellent in beauty, and comely in apparel, who stood by him on either side, and scourged him continually, and gave him many sore stripes.

27 And Heliodorus fell suddenly unto the ground, and was compassed with great darkness: but they that were with him took him up, and put him into a litter.

28 Thus him, that lately came with a great train and with all his guard into the said treasury, they carried out, being unable to help himself with his weapons: and manifestly they acknowledged the power of God:

29 For he by the hand of God was cast down, and lay speechless without all hope of life.

30 But they praised the Lord, that had miraculously honoured his own place: for the temple, which a little afore was full of fear and trouble, when the Almighty Lord appeared, was filled with joy and gladness.

31 Then straightways certain of Heliodorus' friends prayed Onias, that he would call upon the most High to grant him his life, who lay ready to give up the ghost.

32 So the high priest, suspecting lest the king should misconceive that some treachery had been done to Heliodorus by the Jews, offered a sacrifice for the health of the man.

33 Now as the high priest was making an atonement, the same young men in the same clothing appeared and stood beside Heliodorus, saying, Give Onias the high priest great thanks, insomuch as for his sake the Lord hath granted thee life:

34 And seeing that thou hast been scourged from heaven, declare unto all men the mighty power of God. And when they had spoken these words, they appeared no more.

35 So Heliodorus, after he had offered sacrifice unto the Lord, and made great vows unto him that had saved his life, and saluted Onias, returned with his host to the king.

36 Then testified he to all men the works of the great God, which he had seen with his eyes.

37 And when the king asked Heliodorus, who might be a fit man to be sent yet once again to Jerusalem, he said, 38 If thou hast any enemy or traitor, send him thither, and thou shalt receive him well scourged, if he escape with his life: for in that place, no doubt, there is an especial power of God.

39 For he that dwelleth in heaven hath his eye on that place, and defendeth it; and he beateth and destroyeth them that come to hurt it.

40 And the things concerning Heliodorus, and the keeping of the treasury, fell out on this sort.

CHAP. IV.

1 Simon slandereth Onias. 7 Jason, by corrupting the king, obtaineth the office of the high priest. 24 Menelaus getteth the same from Jason by the like corruption. 34 Andronicus traitorously murdereth Onias. 36 The king being informed thereof, causeth Andronicus to be put to death. 39 The wickedness of Lysimachus, by the instigation of Menelaus.

THIS Simon now, * of whom we spake afore, having been a bewrayer of the money, and of his country, slandered Onias, as if he had terrified Heliodorus, and been the worker of these evils. cir. 187.
* ch. 3. 4.

2 Thus was he bold to call him a traitor, that had deserved well of the city, and tendered his own nation, and was so zealous of the laws.

3 But when their hatred went so far, that by one of Simon's faction murders were committed,

4 Onias seeing the danger of this contention, and that Apollonius, as being the governor of Celosyria and Phenice, did rage, and increase Simon's malice, accuser of his countrymen, but seeking the good of all, both publick and private:

6 For he saw that it was impossible that the state should continue quiet, and Simon leave his folly, unless the king did look thereunto.

cir. 175.

7 But after the death of Seleucus, when Antiochus, called Epiphanes, took the kingdom, Jason the brother of Onias laboured underhand to be high priest,

8 Promising unto the king by intercession three hundred and threescore talents of silver, and of another revenue eighty talents:

9 Beside this, he promised to assign an hundred and fifty more, if he might have licence to set him up ^ba place for exercise, and for the training up of youth in the fashions of the heathen, and to write them of Jerusalem by the name of Antiochians.

10 Which when the king had granted, and he had gotten into his hand the rule, he forthwith brought his own nation to the Greekish fashion.

11 And the royal privileges granted of special favour to the Jews by the means of ^cJohn the father of Eupolemus, who went ambassador to Rome for amity and aid, he took away; and putting down the governments which were according to the law, he brought up new customs against the law:

12 For he built gladly a place of exercise under the tower itself, and brought the chief young men under his subjection, and made them wear a hat.

13 Now such was the height of Greek fashions, and increase of heathenish manners, through the exceeding profaneness of Jason, that ungodly wretch, and no high priest;

14 That the priests had no courage to serve any more at the altar, but despising the temple, and neglecting the sacrifices, hastened to be partakers of the unlawful allowance in the place of exercise, after the game of Discus called them forth;

be their enemies and avengers, whose custom they followed so earnestly, and unto whom they desired to be like in all things.

17 For it is not a light thing to do wickedly against the laws of God: but the time following shall declare these things.

18 Now when the game that was used every fifth year was kept at Tyrus, the king being present, 19 This ungracious Jason sent [†]special messengers from Jerusalem, who were Antiochians, to carry three hundred drachms of silver to the sacrifice of Hercules, which even the bearers thereof thought fit not to bestow upon the sacrifice, because it was not convenient, but to be reserved for other charges.

20 This money then, in regard of the sender, was appointed to Hercules' sacrifice; but because of the bearers thereof, it was employed to the making of gallies.

21 Now when Apollonius the son of Menestheus was sent into Egypt for the coronation of king Ptolemeus Philometor, Antiochus, understanding him not to be well affected to his affairs, provided for his own safety: whereupon he came to Joppe, and from thence to Jerusalem:

cir. 173.

22 Where he was honourably received of Jason, and of the city, and was brought in with torch light, and with great shoutings: and so afterward went with his host unto Phenice.

23 Three years afterward Jason sent Menelaus, the aforesaid Simon's brother, to bear the money unto the king, and to put him in mind of certain necessary matters.

cir. 172.

24 But he being brought to the presence of the king, when he had magnified him for the glorious appearance of his power, got the priesthood to himself, offering more than Jason by three hundred talents of silver.

25 So he came with the king's mandate, bringing nothing worthy the high priesthood, but having the fury of a cruel tyrant, and the rage of a savage beast.

26 Then Jason, who had undermined his own brother, being undermined by another, was compelled to flee into the country of the Ammonites.

27 So Menelaus got the principality: but as for the money that he had promised unto the king, he took no good order for it, albeit Sostratus the ruler of the castle required it:

28 For unto him appertained the gathering of the customs. Wherefore they were both called before the king.

29 Now Menelaus left his brother Lysimachus in his stead in the priesthood; and Sostratus left Crates, who was governor of the Cyprians.

30 While those things were in doing, they of Tarsus and Mallos made insurrection, because they were given to the king's concubine, called Antiochis.

31 Then came the king in all haste to appease matters, leaving Andronicus, a man in authority, for his deputy.

32 Now Menelaus, supposing that he had gotten a convenient time, stole certain vessels of gold out of the temple, and gave some of them to Andronicus, and some he sold into Tyrus and the cities round about.

33 Which when Onias knew of a surety, he reproved him, and withdrew himself into a sanctuary at Daphne, that lieth by Antiochia.

34 Wherefore Menelaus, taking Andronicus apart, prayed him to get Onias into his hands; who being persuaded thereunto, and coming to Onias in deceit, gave him his right hand with oaths; and though he were suspected by him, yet persuaded he him to come forth of the sanctuary: whom forthwith he shut up without regard of justice.

35 For the which cause not only the Jews, but many also of other nations, took great indignation, and were much grieved for the unjust murder of the man.

36 And when the king was come again from the places about Cilicia, the Jews that were in the city, and certain of the Greeks that abhorred the fact also, complained because Onias was slain without cause.

37 Therefore Antiochus was heartily sorry, and moved to pity, and wept, because of the sober and modest behaviour of him that was dead.

38 And being kindled with anger, forthwith he took away Andronicus his purple, and rent off his clothes, and leading him through the whole city unto that very place, where he had committed impiety against Onias, there slew he the cursed murderer. Thus the Lord rewarded him his punishment, as he had deserved.

39 Now when many sacrileges had been committed in the city by Lysimachus with the consent of Menelaus, and the bruit thereof was spread abroad, the multitude gathered themselves together against Lysimachus, many vessels of gold being already carried away.

40 Whereupon the common people rising, and being filled with rage, Lysimachus armed about three thousand men, and began first to offer violence; one || Auranus being the leader, a man far gone in years, and no less in folly.

41 They then seeing the attempt of Lysimachus, some of them caught stones, some clubs, others taking handfuls of dust, that was next at hand, cast them all together upon Lysimachus, and those that set upon them.

42 Thus many of them they wounded, and some they struck to the ground, and all of them they forced to flee: but as for the churchrobber himself, him they killed beside the treasury.

43 Of these matters therefore there was an accusation laid against Menelaus.

44 Now when the king came to Tyrus, three men that were sent from the senate pleaded the cause before him:

45 But Menelaus, being now convicted, promised ^d Ptolemee the son of Dorymenes to give him much money, if he would pacify the king toward him.

46 Whereupon Ptolemee taking the king aside into a certain gallery, as it were to take the air, brought him to be of another mind:

47 Insomuch that he discharged Menelaus from the accusations, who notwithstanding was cause of all the mischief: and those poor men, who, if they had told their cause, yea, before the Scythians, should have been judged innocent, them he condemned to death.

48 Thus they that followed the matter for the city, and for the people, and for the holy vessels, did soon suffer unjust punishment.

49 Wherefore even they of Tyrus, moved with hatred of that wicked deed, caused them to be honourably buried.

50 And so through the covetousness of them that were of power Menelaus remained still in authority, increasing in malice, and being a great traitor to the citizens.

ABOUT the same time Antiochus prepared his second voyage into Egypt:

2 And then it happened, that through all the city, for the space almost of forty days, there were seen horsemen running in the air, in cloth of gold, and armed with lances, like a band of soldiers,

3 And troops of horsemen in array, encountering and running one against another, with shaking of shields, and multitude of || pikes, and drawing of swords, and casting of darts, and glittering of golden ornaments, and harness of all sorts.

4 Wherefore every man prayed that that apparition might turn to good.

5 Now when there was gone forth a false rumour, as though Antiochus had been dead, Jason took at the least a thousand men, and suddenly made an assault upon the city; and they that were upon the walls being put back, and the city at length taken, Menelaus fled into the castle:

6 But Jason slew his own citizens without mercy, not considering that to get the day of them of his own nation would be a most unhappy day for him; but thinking they had been his enemies, and not his countrymen, whom he conquered.

7 Howbeit for all this he obtained not the principality, but at the last received shame for the reward of his treason, and fled again into the country of the Ammonites.

8 In the end therefore he had an unhappy return, being accused before Aretas the king of the Arabians, fleeing from city to city, pursued of all men, hated as a forsaker of the laws, and being had in abomination as an open || enemy of his country and countrymen, he was cast out into Egypt.

9 Thus he that had driven many out of their country perished in a strange land, retiring to the Lacedemonians, and thinking there to find succour by reason of his kindred:

10 And he that had cast out many unburied had none to mourn for him, nor any solemn funerals at all, nor sepulchre with his fathers.

11 Now when this that was done came to the king's ear, he thought that Judea had revolted: whereupon ^a removing out of Egypt in a furious mind, he took the city by force of arms,

^a 1 Mac. 1. 10, &c.

12 And commanded his men of war not to spare such as they met, and to slay such as went up upon the houses.

13 Thus there was killing of young and old, making away of men, women, and children, slaying of virgins and infants.

14 And there were destroyed within the space of three whole days fourscore thousand, whereof forty thousand were slain in the conflict; and no fewer sold than slain.

15 Yet was he not content with this, but presumed to go into the most holy temple of all the world; Menelaus, that traitor to the laws, and to his own country, being his guide:

16 And taking the holy vessels with polluted hands, and with profane hands pulling down the things that were dedicated by other kings to the augmentation and glory and honour of the place, he gave them away.

17 And so haughty was Antiochus in mind, that he considered not that the Lord was angry for a while for the sins of them that dwelt in the city, and therefore his eye was not upon the place.

18 For had they not been formerly wrapped in many sins, this man, as soon as he had come, had forthwith been scourged, and put back from his presumption, ^b as Heliodorus was, whom Seleucus the king sent to view the treasury.

for these calamities, but that they judge those punishments not to be for destruction, but for a chastening of our nation.

13 For it is a token of his great goodness, when wicked doers are not suffered any long time, but forthwith punished.

cir. 167.

17 But let this that we have spoken be for a warning unto us. And now will we come to the declaring of the matter in few words.

18 Eleazar, one of the principal scribes, an aged man, and of a well favoured countenance, was constrained to open his mouth, and to eat swine's flesh.

19 But he, choosing rather to die gloriously, than to live stained with such an abomination, spit it forth, and came of his own accord to the torment,

^c Heb. 11.

21 But they that had the charge of that wicked feast, for the old acquaintance they had with the man, taking him aside, besought him to bring flesh of his own provision, such as was lawful for him to use, and make as if he did eat of the flesh taken from the sacrifice commanded by the king;

22 That in so doing he might be delivered from death, and for the old friendship with them find favour.

23 But he began to consider discreetly, and as became his age, and the excellency of his ancient years, and the honour of his gray head, whereunto he was come, and his most honest education from a child, or rather the holy law made and given by God: therefore he answered accordingly, and willed them straightways to send him to the grave.

Before CHRIST
cir. 167.

24 For it becometh not our age, said he, in any wise to dissemble, whereby many young persons might think that Eleazar, being fourscore years old and ten, were now gone to a strange religion;

25 And so they through mine hypocrisy, and desire to live a little time and a moment longer, should be deceived by me, and I get a stain to mine old age, and make it abominable.

26 For though for the present time I should be delivered from the punishment of men: yet should I not escape the hand of the Almighty, neither alive, nor dead.

27 Wherefore now, manfully changing this life, I will shew myself such an one as mine age requireth,

28 And leave a notable example to such as be young to die willingly and courageously for the honourable and holy laws. And when he had said these words, immediately he went to the torment:

29 They that led him changing the good will they bare him a little before into hatred, because the foresaid speeches proceeded, as they thought, from || a desperate mind.

|| Or,

30 But when he was ready to die with stripes, he groaned, and said, It is manifest unto the Lord, that hath the holy knowledge, that whereas I might have been delivered from death, I now endure sore pains in body by being beaten: but in soul am well content to suffer these things, because I fear him.

31 And thus this man died, leaving his death for an example of a noble courage, and a memorial of virtue, not only unto young men, but unto all his nation.

CHAP. VII.

The constancy and cruel death of seven brethren and their mother in one day, because they would not eat swine's flesh at the king's commandment.

IT came to pass also, that seven brethren with their mother were taken, and compelled by the king against the law to taste swine's flesh, and were tormented with scourges and whips.

2 But one of them that spake first said thus, What wouldest thou ask or learn of us? we are ready to die, rather than to transgress the laws of our fathers.

3 Then the king, being in a rage, commanded pans and caldrons to be made hot:

4 Which forthwith being heated, he commanded to cut out the tongue of him that spake first, and to cut off the utmost parts of his body, the rest of his brethren and his mother looking on.

5 Now when he was thus maimed in all his members, he commanded him being yet alive to be brought to the fire, and to be fried in the pan: and as the vapour of the pan was for a good space dispersed, they exhorted one another with the mother to die manfully, saying thus,

a Deut. 32.

6 The Lord God looketh upon us, and in truth hath comfort in us, as ^a Moses in his song, which witnessed to their faces, declared, saying, And he shall be comforted in his servants.

7 So when the first was dead after this manner, they brought the second to make him a mocking stock: and when they had pulled off the skin of his head with the hair, they asked him, Wilt thou eat, before thou be punished throughout every member of thy body?

8 But he answered in his own language, and said, No. Wherefore he also received the next torment in order, as the former did.

9 And when he was at the last gasp, he said, Thou like a fury takest us out of this present life, but the King of the world shall raise us up, who have died for his laws, unto everlasting life.

10 After him was the third made a mocking stock: and when he was required, he put out his tongue, and that right soon, holding forth his hands manfully, 11 And said courageously, These I had from heaven; and for his laws I despise them; and from him I hope to receive them again.

12 Insomuch that the king, and they that were with him, marvelled at the young man's courage, for that he nothing regarded the pains.

13 Now when this man was dead also, they tormented and mangled the fourth in like manner.

14 So when he was ready to die he said thus, It is good, being put to death by men, to look for hope from God to be raised up again by him: as for thee, thou shalt have no resurrection to life.

15 Afterward they brought the fifth also, and mangled him.

16 Then looked he unto the king, and said, Thou hast power over men, thou art corruptible, thou doest what thou wilt; yet think not that our nation is forsaken of God;

17 But abide a while, and behold his great power, how he will torment thee and thy seed.

18 After him also they brought the sixth, who being ready to die said, Be not deceived without cause: for we suffer these things for ourselves, having sinned against our God: therefore marvellous things are done unto us.

19 But think not thou, that takest in hand to strive against God, that thou shalt escape unpunished.

20 But the mother was marvellous above all, and worthy of honourable memory: for when she saw her seven sons slain within the space of one day, she bare it with a good courage, because of the hope that she had in the Lord.

21 Yea, she exhorted every one of them in her own language, filled with courageous spirits; and stirring up her womanish thoughts with a manly stomach, she said unto them,

22 I cannot tell how ye came into my womb; for I neither gave you breath nor life, neither was it I that formed the members of every one of you;

23 But doubtless the Creator of the world, who formed the generation of man, and found out the beginning of all things, will also of his own mercy give you breath and life again, as ye now regard not your own selves for his laws' sake.

24 Now Antiochus, thinking himself despised, and suspecting it to be a reproachful speech, whilst the youngest was yet alive, did not only exhort him by words, but also assured him with oaths, that he would make him both a rich and a happy man, if he would turn from the laws of his fathers; and that also he would take him for his friend, and trust him with affairs.

25 But when the young man would in no case hearken unto him, the king called his mother, and exhorted her that she would counsel the young man to save his life.

26 And when he had exhorted her with many words, she promised him that she would counsel her son.

27 But she bowing herself toward him, laughing the cruel tyrant to scorn, spake in her country language on this manner; O my son, have pity upon me that bare thee nine months in my womb, and gave thee suck three years, and nourished thee, and brought thee up unto this age, and endured the troubles of education.

28 I beseech thee, my son, look upon the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, and consider that ^bGod made them of things that were not; and so was mankind made likewise.

29 Fear not this tormentor, but, being worthy of thy brethren, take thy death, that I may receive thee again in mercy with thy brethren.

30 Whiles she was yet speaking these words, the young man said, Whom wait ye for? I will not obey the king's commandment: but I will obey the commandment of the law that was given unto our fathers by Moses.

31 And thou, that hast been the author of all mischief against the Hebrews, shalt not escape the hands of God.

32 For we suffer because of our sins.

33 And though the living Lord be angry with us a little while for our chastening and correction, yet shall he be at one again with his servants.

34 But thou, O godless man, and of all other most wicked, be not lifted up without a cause, nor puffed up with uncertain hopes, lifting up thy hand against the servants of God:

35 For thou hast not yet escaped the judgment of Almighty God, who seeth all things.

36 For our brethren, who now have suffered a short pain, are dead under God's covenant of everlasting life: but thou, through the judgment of God, shalt receive just punishment for thy pride.

37 But I, as my brethren, offer up my body and life for the laws of our fathers, beseeching God that he would speedily be merciful unto our nation; and that ^cthou by torments and plagues mayest confess, that he alone is God;

38 And that in me and my brethren the wrath of the Almighty, which is justly brought upon all our nation, may cease.

39 Then the king, being in a rage, handled him worse than all the rest, and took it grievously that he was mocked.

40 So this man died undefiled, and put his whole trust in the Lord.

41 Last of all after the sons the mother died.

42 Let this be enough now to have spoken concerning the idolatrous feasts, and the extreme tortures.

stood by the heathen: for the wrath of the Lord was turned into mercy.

6 Therefore he came at unawares, and burnt up towns and cities, and got into his hands the most commodious places, and overcame and put to flight no small number of his enemies.

7 But specially took he advantage of the night for such privy attempts, in-somuch that the bruit of his manliness was spread every where.

8 So when Philip saw that this man increased by little and little, and that things prospered with him still more and more, he wrote unto Ptolemeus, the governor of Celosyria and Phenice, to yield more aid to the king's affairs.

9 Then forthwith choosing Nicanor the son of Patroclus, one of his special friends, he sent him with no fewer than twenty thousand of all nations under him, to root out the whole generation of the Jews; and with him he joined also Gorgias a captain, who in matters of war had great experience.

18 For they, said he, trust in their weapons and boldness; but our confidence is in the Almighty God, who at a beck can cast down both them that come against us, and also all the world.

21 Thus when he had made them bold with these words, and ready to die for the laws and the country, he divided his army into four parts;

22 And joined with himself his own brethren, leaders of each band, to wit, Simon, and Joseph, and Jonathan, giving each one fifteen hundred men.

23 Also he appointed Eleazar to read the holy book: and when he had given them this watchword, The help of God; himself leading the first band, he joined battle with Nicanor.

24 And by the help of the Almighty they slew above nine thousand of their enemies, and wounded and maimed the most part of Nicanor's host, and so put all to flight;

27 So when they had gathered || their armour together, and spoiled their enemies, they occupied themselves about the sabbath, yielding exceeding praise and thanks to the Lord, who had preserved them unto that day, which was the beginning of mercy distilling upon them.

28 And after the sabbath, when they had given part of the spoils to the || maimed, and the widows, and orphans, the residue they divided among themselves and their servants.

29 When this was done, and they had made a common supplication, they besought the merciful Lord to be reconciled with his servants for ever.

30 Moreover of those that were with Timotheus and Bacchides, who fought against them, they slew above twenty thousand, and very easily got high and strong holds, and divided among themselves many spoils more, and made the || maimed, orphans, widows, yea, and the aged also, equal in spoils with themselves.

31 And when they had gathered their armour together, they laid them up all carefully in convenient places, and the remnant of the spoils they brought to Jerusalem.

32 They slew also Philarches, that wicked person, who was with Timotheus, and had annoyed the Jews many ways.

33 Furthermore at such time as they kept the feast for the victory in their country they burnt Callisthenes, that had set fire upon the holy gates, who had fled into a little house; and so he received a reward meet for his wickedness.

34 As for that most ungracious Nicanor, who had brought a thousand merchants ^d to buy the Jews, 35 He was through the help of the Lord brought down by them, of whom he made least account; and putting off his glorious apparel, and discharging his company, he came like a fugitive servant through the midland unto Antioch, having very great dishonour, for that his host was destroyed.

36 Thus he, that ^e took upon him to make good to the Romans their tribute by means of the captives in Jerusalem, told abroad, that the Jews had God to fight for them, and therefore they could not be hurt, because they followed the laws that he gave them.

CHAP. IX.

1 Antiochus is chased from Persepolis. 5 He is stricken with a sore disease, 14 and promiseth to become a Jew. 28 He dieth miserably.

ABOUT that time came Antiochus || with dishonour ^a out of the country of Persia.

2 For he had entered the city called Persepolis, and went about to rob the temple, and to hold the city; whereupon the multitude running to defend themselves with their weapons put them to flight; and so it happened, that Antiochus being put to flight of the inhabitants returned with shame.

3 Now when he came to Ecbatane, news was brought him what had happened unto Nicanor and Timotheus.

4 Then swelling with anger, he thought to avenge upon the Jews the disgrace done unto him by those that made him flee. Therefore commanded he his chariotman to drive without ceasing, and to dispatch the journey, the judgment of God now following him. For he had spoken proudly in this sort, That he would come to Jerusalem, and make it a common buryingplace of the Jews.

5 But the Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, smote him with an incurable and invisible plague: for as soon as he had spoken these words, ^b a pain of the bowels that was remediless came upon him, and sore torments of the inner parts;

6 And that most justly: for he had tormented other men's bowels with many and strange torments.

7 Howbeit he nothing at all ceased from his bragging, but still was filled with pride, breathing out fire in his rage against the Jews, and commanding to haste the journey: but it came to pass that he fell down from his chariot, carried violently; so that having a sore fall, all the members of his body were much pained.

9 So that the worms rose up out of the body of this wicked man, and whiles he lived in sorrow and pain, his flesh fell away, and the filthiness of his smell was noisome to all his army.

10 And the man, that thought a little afore he could reach to the stars of heaven, no man could endure to carry for his intolerable stink.

11 Here therefore, being plagued, he began to leave off his great pride, and to come to the knowledge of himself by the scourge of God, his pain increasing every moment.

12 And when he himself could not abide his own smell, he said these words, It is meet to be subject unto God, and that a man that is mortal should not proudly think of himself, as if he were God.

13 This wicked person vowed also unto the Lord, who now no more would have mercy upon him, saying thus,

14 That the holy city (to the which he was going in haste, to lay it even with the ground, and to make it a common buryingplace,) he would set at liberty:

15 And as touching the Jews, whom he had judged not worthy so much as to be buried, but to be cast out with their children to be devoured of the fowls and wild beasts, he would make them all equals to the citizens of Athens:

17 Yea, and that also he would become a Jew himself, and go through all the world that was inhabited, and declare the power of God.

18 But for all this his pains would not cease: for the just judgment of God was come upon him: therefore despairing of his health, he wrote unto the Jews the letter underwritten, containing the form of a supplication, after this manner:

19 Antiochus, king and governor, to the good Jews his citizens wisheth much joy, health, and prosperity:

20 If ye and your children fare well, and your affairs be to your contentment, I give very great thanks to God, having my hope in heaven.

21 As for me, I was weak, or else I would have remembered kindly your honour and good will. Returning out of Persia, and being taken with a grievous disease, I thought it necessary to care for the common safety of all:

22 Not distrusting mine health, but having great hope to escape this sickness.

23 But considering that even my father, at what time he led an army into the high countries, appointed a successor,

24 To the end that, if any thing fell out contrary to expectation, or if any tidings were brought that were grievous, they of the land, knowing to whom the state was left, might not be troubled:

25 Again, considering how that the princes that are borderers and neighbours unto my kingdom wait for opportunities, and expect what shall be the event, I have appointed my son Antiochus king, whom I often committed and commended unto many of you, when I went up into the high provinces; to whom I have written as followeth:

26 Therefore I pray and request you to remember the benefits that I have done unto you generally, and in special, and that every man will be still faithful to me and my son.

9 And this was the end of Antiochus, called Epiphanes.

10 Now will we declare the acts of Antiochus Eupator, who was the son of this wicked man, gathering briefly the calamities of the wars.

11 So when he was come to the crown, he set one Lysias over the affairs of his realm, and appointed him chief governor of Celosyria and Phoenice.

12 For Ptolemeus, that was called

Macron, choosing rather to do justice unto the Jews for the wrong that had been done unto them, endeavoured to continue peace with them.

13 Whereupon being accused of the king's friends before Eupator, and called traitor at every word, because he had left Cyprus, that Philometor had committed unto him, and departed to Antiochus Epiphanes, ^{||} and seeing that he was in no honourable place, he was so discouraged, that he poisoned himself and died.

^{||} Or, and not bearing his authority as becometh a nobleman.

14 But when Gorgias was governor of the ^{||} holds, he hired soldiers, and nourished war continually with the Jews:

^{||} Or, strong places.

15 And therewithal the Idumeans, having gotten into their hands the most commodious holds, kept the Jews occupied, and receiving those that were banished from Jerusalem, they went about to nourish war.

16 Then they that were with Maccabeus made supplication, and besought God that he would be their helper; and so they ran with violence upon the strong holds of the Idumeans, 17 And assaulting them strongly, they won the holds, and kept off all that fought upon the wall, and slew all that fell into their hands, and killed no fewer than twenty thousand.

18 And because certain, who were no less than nine thousand, were fled together into two very strong castles, having all manner of things convenient to sustain the siege,

19 Maccabeus left Simon and Joseph, and Zaccheus also, and them that were with him, who were enough to besiege them, and departed himself unto those places which more needed his help.

20 Now ^{||} they that were with Simon, being led with covetousness, were persuaded for money through certain of those that were in the castle, and took seventy thousand drachms, and let some of them escape.

21 But when it was told Maccabeus what was done, he called the governors of the people together, and accused those men, that they had sold their brethren for money, and set their enemies free to fight against them.

28 Now the sun being newly risen, they joined both together; the one part having together with their virtue their refuge also unto the Lord for a pledge of their success and victory: the other side making their rage leader of their battle.

31 And there were slain of footmen twenty thousand and five hundred, and six hundred horsemen.

32 As for Timotheus himself, he fled into a very strong hold, called Gazara, where Chereas was governor.

34 And they that were within, trusting to the strength of the place, blasphemed exceedingly, and uttered wicked words.

35 Nevertheless upon the fifth day early twenty young men of Maccabeus' company, inflamed with anger because of the blasphemies, assaulted the wall manly, and with a fierce courage killed all that they met withal.

36 Others likewise ascending after them, whiles they were busied with them that were within, burnt the towers, and kindling fires burnt the blasphemers alive; and others broke open the gates, and, having received in the rest of the army, took the city,

37 And killed Timotheus, that was hid in a certain pit, and Chereas his brother, with Apollophanes.

38 When this was done, they praised the Lord with psalms and thanksgiving, who had done so great things for Israel, and given them the victory.

CHAP. XII.

1 The king's lieutenants vex the Jews. 3 They of Joppe drown two hundred Jews. 6 Judas is avenged upon them. 11 He maketh peace with the Arabians, 16 and taketh Caspis. 22 Timotheus' armies overthrown.

WHEN these covenants were made, Lysias went unto the king, and the Jews were about their husbandry.

2 But of the governors of several places, * Timotheus, and Apollonius the son of Genneus, also Hieronymus, and Demophon, and beside them Nicanor the governor of Cyprus, would not suffer them to be quiet, and live in peace.

3 The men of Joppe also did such an ungodly deed: they prayed the Jews that dwelt among them to go with their wives and children into the boats which they had prepared, as though they had meant them no hurt.

4 Who accepted of it according to the common decree of the city, as being desirous to live in peace, and suspecting nothing: but when they were gone forth into the deep, they drowned no less than two hundred of them.

5 When Judas heard of this cruelty done unto his countrymen, he commanded those that were with him to make them ready.

6 And calling upon God the righteous Judge, he came against those murderers of his brethren, and burnt the haven by night, and set the boats on fire, and those that fled thither he slew.

7 And when the town was shut up, he went backward, || as if he would return to root out all them of the city of Joppe.

8 But when he heard that the Jamnites were minded to do in like manner unto the Jews that dwelt among them, 9 He came upon the Jamnites also by night, and set fire on the haven and the navy, so that the light of the fire was seen at Jerusalem two hundred and forty furlongs off.

10 Now when they were gone from thence nine furlongs in their journey toward Timotheus, no fewer than five thousand men on foot and five hundred horsemen of the Arabians set upon him.

11 Whereupon there was a very sore battle; but Judas' side by the help of God got the victory; so that the Nomades of Arabia, being overcome, besought Judas for peace, promising both to give him cattle, and to pleasure him otherwise.

12 Then Judas, thinking indeed that they would be profitable in many things, granted them peace: whereupon they shook hands, and so they || departed to their tents.

13 He went also about to make a bridge to a certain strong city, which was fenced about with walls, and inhabited by people of divers countries; and the name of it was Caspis.

14 But they that were within it put such trust in the strength of the walls and provision of victuals, that they behaved themselves rudely toward them that were with Judas, railing and blaspheming, and uttering such words as were not to be spoken.

15 Wherefore Judas with his company, calling upon the great Lord of the world, ^b who without any rams or engines of war did cast down Jericho in the time of Joshua, gave a fierce assault against the walls, 16 And took the city by the will of God, and made unspeakable slaughters, insomuch that a lake two furlongs broad near adjoining thereunto, being filled full, was seen running with blood.

21 Now when Timotheus had knowledge of Judas' coming, he sent the women and children and the other baggage unto a fortress called Carnion: for the town was hard to besiege, and uneasy to come unto, by reason of the straitness of all the places.

22 But when Judas his first band came in sight, the enemies, being smitten with fear and terror through the appearing of him that seeth all things, fled amain, one running this way, another that way, so as that they were often hurt of their own men, and wounded with the points of their own swords.

23 Judas also was very earnest in pursuing them, killing those wicked wretches, of whom he slew about thirty thousand men.

24 Moreover Timotheus himself fell into the hands of Dositheus and Sosipater, whom he besought with much craft to let him go with his life, because he had many of the Jews' parents, and the brethren of some of them, who, if they put him to death, should not be regarded.

25 So when he had assured them with many words that he would restore them without hurt, according to the agreement, they let him go for the saving of their brethren.

|| That is,

26 Then Maccabeus marched forth to Carnion, and to the temple of || Atargatis, and there he slew five and twenty thousand persons.

27 And after he had put to flight and destroyed them, Judas removed the host toward Ephron, a strong city, wherein Lysias abode, and a great multitude of divers nations, and the strong young men kept the walls, and defended them mightily: wherein also was great provision of engines and darts.

28 But when Judas and his company had called upon Almighty God, who with his power breaketh the strength of his enemies, they won the city, and slew twenty and five thousand of them that were within.

29 From thence they departed to Scythopolis, which lieth six hundred furlongs from Jerusalem.

30 But when the Jews that dwelt there had testified that the Scythopolitans dealt lovingly with them, and entreated them kindly in the time of their adversity;

31 They gave them thanks, desiring them to be friendly still unto them: and so they came to Jerusalem, the feast of the weeks approaching.

41 All men therefore praising the Lord, the righteous Judge, who had opened the things that were hid,

42 Betook themselves unto prayer, and besought him that the sin committed might wholly be put out of remembrance. Besides, that noble Judas exhorted the people to keep themselves from sin, forso much as they saw before their eyes the things that came to pass for the sins of those that were slain.

43 And when he had made a gathering throughout the company to the sum of two thousand drachms of silver, he sent it to Jerusalem to offer a sin offering, doing therein very well and honestly, in that he was mindful of the resurrection :

44 For if he had not hoped that they that were slain should have risen again, it had been superfluous and vain to pray for the dead.

45 And also in that he perceived that there was great favour laid up for those that died godly, it was an holy and good thought. Whereupon he made a reconciliation for the dead, that they might be delivered from sin.

2 And with him ^a Lysias his protector, and ruler of his affairs, having either of them a Grecian power of footmen, an hundred and ten thousand, and horsemen five thousand and three hundred, and elephants two and twenty, and three hundred chariots armed with hooks.

3 Menelaus also joined himself with them, and with great dissimulation encouraged Antiochus, not for the safeguard of the country, but because he thought to have been made governor.

4 But the King of kings moved Antiochus' mind against this wicked wretch, and Lysias informed the king that this man was the cause of all mischief, so that the king commanded to bring him unto Berea, and to put him to death, as the manner is in that place.

5 Now there was in that place a tower of fifty cubits high, full of ashes, and it had a round instrument, which on every side hanged down into the ashes.

6 And whosoever was condemned of sacrilege, or had committed any other grievous crime, there did all men thrust him unto death.

7 Such a death it happened that wicked man to die, not having so much as burial in the earth; and that most justly :

8 For inasmuch as he had committed many sins about the altar, whose fire and ashes were holy, he received his death in ashes.

9 Now the king came with a barbarous and haughty mind to do far worse to the Jews, than had been done in his father's time.

10 Which things when Judas perceived, he commanded the multitude to call upon the Lord night and day, that if ever at any other time, he would now also help them, being at the point to be put from their law, from their country, and from the holy temple :

11 And that he would not suffer the people, that || had even now been but a little refreshed, to be in subjection to the blasphemous nations.

|| Or, had had a little respite.

12 So when they had all done this together, and besought the merciful Lord with weeping and fasting, and lying flat upon the ground three days long, Judas, having exhorted them, commanded they should be in a readiness.

13 And Judas, being apart with the elders, determined, before the king's host should enter into Judea, and get the city, to go forth and try the matter in fight by the help of the Lord.

14 So when he had committed all to the || Creator of the world, and exhorted his soldiers to fight manfully, even unto death, for the laws, the temple, the city, the country, and the commonwealth, he camped by Modin :

15 And having given the watchword to them that were about him, Victory is of God ; with the most valiant and choice young men he went in into the king's tent by night, and slew in the camp about four thousand men, and the chiefest of the elephants, with all that were upon him.

16 And at last they filled the camp with fear and tumult, and departed with good success.

17 This was done in the break of the day, because the protection of the Lord did help him.

18 Now when the king had taken a taste of the manliness of the Jews, he went about to take the holds by policy,

19 And marched toward Bethsura, which was a strong hold of the Jews : but he was put to flight, failed, and lost of his men :

20 For Judas had conveyed unto them that were in it such things as were necessary.

21 But Rhodocus, who was in the Jews' host, disclosed the secrets to the enemies ; therefore he was sought out, and when they had gotten him, they put him in prison.

22 The king treated with them in Bethsura the second time, gave his hand, took their's, departed, fought with Judas, was overcome ;

23 Heard that Philip, who was left over the affairs in Antioch, || was desperately bent, confounded, intreated the Jews, submitted himself, and sware to all equal conditions, agreed with them, and offered sacrifice, honoured the temple, and dealt kindly with the place,

24 And accepted well of Maccabeus, made him principal governor from Ptolemais unto the Gerrhenians ;

25 Came to Ptolemais : the people there were grieved for the covenants ; for they stormed, because they would make their covenants void :

26 Lysias went up to the judgment seat, said as much as could be in defence of the cause, persuaded, pacified, made them well affected, returned to Antioch. Thus it went touching the king's coming and departing.

CHAP. XIV.

6 Alcimus accuseth Judas. 18 Nicanor maketh peace with Judas. 39 He seeketh to take Razis, 46 who, to escape his hands, killeth himself.

AFTER three years was Judas informed, that Demetrius the son of Seleucus, * having entered by the haven of Tripolis with a great power and navy,

2 Had taken the country, and killed Antiochus, and Lysias his protector.

3 Now ^b one Alcimus, who had been high priest, and had defiled himself wilfully in the times of their mingling with the Gentiles, seeing that by no means he could save himself, nor have any more access to the holy altar,

4 Came to king Demetrius in the hundred and one and fiftieth year, presenting unto him a crown of gold, and a palm, and also of the boughs which were || used solemnly in the temple : and so that day he held his peace.

5 Howbeit, having gotten opportunity to further his foolish enterprize, and being called into counsel by Demetrius, and asked how the Jews stood affected, and what they intended, he answered thereunto :

6 Those of the Jews that be called Assideans, whose captain is Judas Maccabeus, nourish war, and are seditious, and will not let the realm be in peace.

7 Therefore I, being deprived of mine ancestors' honour, I mean the high priesthood, am now come hither :

8 First, verily for the unfeigned care I have of things pertaining to the king ; and secondly, even for that I intend the good of mine own countrymen : for all our nation is in no small misery through the unadvised dealing of them aforesaid.

9 Wherefore, O king, seeing thou knowest all these things, be careful for the country, and our nation, which is pressed on every side, according to the clemency that thou readily shewest unto all.

10 For as long as Judas liveth, it is not possible that the state should be quiet.

11 This was no sooner spoken of him, but others of the king's friends, being maliciously set against Judas, did more incense Demetrius.

12 And forthwith calling Nicanor, who had been master of the elephants, and making him governor over Judea, he sent him forth,

1 Mac. 7.
26.

13 Commanding him to slay Judas, and to scatter them that were with him, and to make Alcimus high priest of the great temple.

14 Then the heathen, that had fled out of Judea from Judas, came to Nicanor by flocks, thinking the harm and calamities of the Jews to be their welfare.

15 Now when the Jews heard of Nicanor's coming, and that the heathen were up against them, they cast earth upon their heads, and made supplication to him that had established his people for ever, and who always helpeth his portion with manifestation of his presence.

|| Or, were joined to them.

16 So at the commandment of the captain they removed straightways from thence, and came near unto them at the town of Dessau.

17 Now Simon, Judas' brother, had joined battle with Nicanor, but was somewhat discomfited through the sudden silence of his enemies.

18 Nevertheless Nicanor, hearing of the manliness of them that were with Judas, and the courageousness that they had to fight for their country, durst not try the matter by the sword.

19 Wherefore he sent Posidonius, and Theodotus, and Mattathias, to make peace.

20 So when they had taken long advisement thereupon, and the captain had made the multitude acquainted therewith, and it appeared that they were all of one mind, they consented to the covenants,

21 And appointed a day to meet in together by themselves: and when the day came, and stools were set for either of them,

22 Judas placed armed men ready in convenient places, lest some treachery should be suddenly practised by the enemies: so they made a peaceable conference.

23 Now Nicanor abode in Jerusalem, and did no hurt, but sent away the people that came flocking unto him.

24 And he would not willingly have Judas out of his sight: for he loved the man from his heart.

25 He prayed him also to take a wife, and to beget children: so he married, was quiet, and took part of this life.

|| Or, lived together with him.

26 But Alcimus, perceiving the love that was betwixt them, and considering the covenants that were made, came to Demetrius, and told him that Nicanor was not well affected toward the state; for that he had ordained Judas, a traitor to his realm, to be the king's successor.

27 Then the king being in a rage, and provoked with the accusations of the most wicked man, wrote to Nicanor, signifying that he was much displeased with the covenants, and commanding him that he should send Maccabeus prisoner in all haste unto Antioch.

28 When this came to Nicanor's hearing, he was much confounded in himself, and took it grievously that he should make void the articles which were agreed upon, the man being in no fault.

29 But because there was no dealing against the king, he watched his time to accomplish this thing by policy.

30 Notwithstanding, when Maccabeus saw that Nicanor began to be churlish unto him, and that he entreated him more roughly than he was wont, perceiving that such sour behaviour came not of good, he gathered together not a few of his men, and withdrew himself from Nicanor.

31 But the other, knowing that he was notably prevented by Judas' policy, came into the great and holy temple, and commanded the priests, that were offering their usual sacrifices, to deliver him the man.

1 Mac. 7.
33, &c.

32 And when they swore that they could not tell where the man was whom he sought,

33 He stretched out his right hand toward the temple, and made an oath in this manner: If ye will not deliver me Judas as a prisoner, I will lay this temple of God even with the ground, and I will break down the minds, he gave them their charge, shewing them therewithal the falsehood of the heathen, and the breach of oaths.

11 Thus he armed every one of them, not so much with defence of shields and spears, as with comfortable and good words: and beside that, he told them a dream worthy to be believed, as if it had been so indeed, which did not a little rejoice them.

12 And this was his vision: That Onias, who had been high priest, a virtuous and a good man, reverend in conversation, gentle in condition, well spoken also, and exercised from a child in all points of virtue, holding up his hands prayed for the whole body of the Jews.

13 This done, in like manner there appeared a man with gray hairs, and exceeding glorious, who was of a wonderful and excellent majesty.

14 Then Onias answered, saying, This is a lover of the brethren, who prayeth much for the people, and for the holy city, to wit, Jeremias the prophet of God.

15 Whereupon Jeremias holding forth his right hand gave to Judas a sword of gold, and in giving it spake thus, 16 Take this holy sword, a gift from God, with the which thou shalt wound the adversaries.

17 Thus being well comforted by the words of Judas, which were very good, and able to stir them up to valour, and to encourage the hearts of the young men, they determined not to pitch camp, but courageously to set upon them, and manfully to try the matter by conflict, because the city and the sanctuary and the temple were in danger.

18 For the care that they took for their wives, and their children, their brethren, and kinsfolks, was in least account with them: but the greatest and principal fear was for the holy temple.

19 Also they that were in the city took not the least care, being troubled for the conflict abroad.

20 And now, when as all looked what should be the trial, and the enemies were already come near, and the army was set in array, and the beasts conveniently placed, and the horsemen set in wings,

21 Maccabeus seeing the coming of the multitude, and the divers preparations of armour, and the fierceness of the beasts, stretched out his hands toward heaven, and called upon the Lord that worketh wonders, knowing that victory cometh not by arms, but even as it seemeth good to him, he giveth it to such as are worthy:

22 Therefore in his prayer he said after this manner; O Lord, thou didst send thine angel in the time of Ezekias king of Judea, and didst slay in the host of Sennacherib an hundred fourscore and five thousand: 1 Mac. 7. 40, 41. 2 Ch. 8. 19.

23 Wherefore now also, O Lord of heaven, send a good angel before us for a fear and dread unto them;

24 And through the might of thine arm let those be stricken with terror, that come against thy holy people to blaspheme. And he ended thus.

25 Then Nicanor and they that were with him came forward with trumpets and songs.

26 But Judas and his company encountered the enemies with invocation and prayer.

27 So that fighting with their hands, and praying unto God with their hearts, they slew no less than thirty and five thousand men: for through the appearance of God they were greatly cheered.

28 Now when the battle was done, returning again with joy, they knew that Nicanor lay dead in his harness. 1 Mac. 7. 43.

29 Then they made a great shout and a noise, praising the Almighty in their own language.

30 And Judas, who was ever the chief defender of the citizens both in body and mind, and who continued his love toward his countrymen all his life, commanded to strike off Nicanor's head, and his hand with his shoulder, and bring them to Jerusalem. 1 Mac. 7. 47.

31 So when he was there, and had called them of his nation together, and set the priests before the altar, he sent for them that were of the tower,

32 And shewed them vile Nicanor's head, and the hand of that blasphemer, which with proud brags he had stretched out against the holy temple of the A city.

And when he had cut out the tongue of that ungodly Nicanor, he commanded that they should give it by pieces unto the fowls, and hang up the reward of his madness before the temple.

34 So every man praised toward the heaven the glorious Lord, saying, Blessed be he that hath kept his own place undefiled.

35 He hanged also Nicanor's head upon the tower, an evident and manifest sign unto all of the help of the Lord.

36 And they ordained all with a common decree in no case to let that day pass without solemnity, but to celebrate the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which in the Syrian tongue is called Adar, the day before 'Mardocheus' day.

37 Thus went it with Nicanor: and from that time forth the Hebrews had the city in their power. And here will I make an end.

38 And if I have done well, and as is fitting the story, it is that which I desired: but if slenderly and meanly, it is that which I could attain unto.

39 For as it is hurtful to drink wine or water alone; and as wine mingled with water is pleasant, and delighteth the taste: even so speech finely framed delighteth the ears of them that read the story. And here shall be an end.
